BREACHES OF NEUTRALITY ARE ALLEGED

France and Germany, 'Tis Held, Have Acted Improperly in Giving the Squadron Coaling Facilities—Japanese Gain Further Advantage in the Siege of Port Arthur

KUROKI IS NOT DEAD

TOKYO, Nov. 15.—The Japanese army staff pronounce the report of Gen. Kuroki's death to be absurd.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Judging from Tokyo dispatches and statements by Japanese here, the question of the Russian second Pacific squadron is giving rise to some uneasiness in Japan. This possibly is the outcome of the continued absence of news of the progress of the siege of Port Arthur. An article in the Post today from Japanese sources comments strongly upon alleged breaches of neutrality on the part of France and Germany in giving the squadron coaling facilities, and contends that it will be utterly at variance with Suez canal regulations for the ships of the squadron to be permitted to take sufficient coal and provisions at Port Said to carry them to the nearest port. The article suggests that Great Britain will interfere to prevent the granting of such facilities.

HEADQUARTERS JAPANESE THIRD ARMY, Before Port Arthur (anked), Nov. 14.—The casualties in the attack of the Japanese on the eastern fortified ridge on Oct. 30, were 1,500. It was an unsuccessful assault. The powerful East Kekwan fort was gained, but the Russians were reinforced and drove the Japanese down to the foot of the hill. The Japanese are now sapping toward the crest of the hill. The capture of this fort would give the Japanese the key to the eastern fortified range, as artillery mounted there would dominate the forts in front of the ridge and enable the Japanese to place infantry in a position to sweep the ridge.

STUDENTS ATTEMPT TO LYNCH NEGRO

AUBURN, Ala., Nov. 14.—An attempt to lynch a negro by students of the Alabama Polytechnic institute was thwarted by the forethought of President Thach, of that institution.

HEAD OF THE PENSION BUREAU RESIGNS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.—Commissioner of Pensions Ware today tendered his resignation to the president and it was accepted, to take effect Jan. 1. For a year it has been definitely known that Mr. Ware would retire from his office immediately after the fall election and return to his home in Kansas to resume his law practice. Commissioner Ware soon after assuming his duties found the duties of his office distasteful to him, and this distaste steadily increased.

GOVERNOR-ELECT AND MRS. JOHN A. JOHNSON

JOHNSON RECEPTION A GREAT SUCCESS

IMMENSE THROG FILLS STREETS OF ST. PETER

Globe Special Carries 500 Enthusiastic Admirers of the Governor-elect to His Home Town—Delegations From All Over the State Make a Monster Gathering Whose Pent-up Enthusiasm Is Turned Loose and Inspiring Scenes Take Place in the Illuminated and Decorated Streets

Special to The Globe ST. PETER, Minn., Nov. 14.—Loyal citizens from all sections of the state crowded the streets of St. Peter yesterday afternoon, and last night joined in one of the grandest tributes paid to a man in these United States. Larger crowds may have cheered presidents and even other governors, but the men who came to St. Peter—Democrats, Independent Republicans and plain voters of the state—came not at the crack of the party lash but merely to pay homage to Citizen John A. Johnson.

From the moment of the arrival of The Globe special until 10:30 o'clock, when the tired and hoarse crowds started to return to the depot, St. Peter experienced the greatest sensation in the history of the city. More than 5,000 visitors joined in the demonstration.

St. Peter Makes Record And the city of St. Peter was equal to the occasion. St. Peter expected a crowd of large proportions, but never anticipated the multitude. Plans made by the reception committee proved inadequate and had to be changed. They were changed in a hurry and without any apparent break in the programme. New subcommittees were appointed, and not one point was overlooked in caring for the visitors. The hotels and lunch rooms were in demand, but the overflow was cared for by the citizens and churches, who arranged for temporary lunch rooms.

Was Continuous The Johnson reception, really a continual ovation from 6 o'clock until the departure of the last special train, had its official start in the Masonic hall, where, at 7:45, Mr. Johnson and his reception committee met the leaders of the visiting delegations. In this hall the programme of the evening was announced. This included the big torchlight procession, the speeches and the banquet that followed.

Torchlight Procession The torchlight procession started from Broadway street at 8:30 o'clock. The firemen of the city acted as an escort for the governor-elect, and carrying white and green flares, marched beside the carriages of the guests of honor. Between the carriages marched the St. Peter followers of John A. Johnson and the visiting delegations. The parade included 600 torch bearers, the detail of firemen, the Minnesota State band, the Minneapolis Journal band, the Second Regiment band from New Ulm, the band from the Gustavus Adolphus college, the Nicollet County band, the Cleveland Drum corps and the Kasota band.

At 8:40 o'clock the marchers swung into Minnesota avenue, the principal street of the city, and encountered the waiting thousands.

LOWRY CAUCUS IS LIGHTLY ATTENDED

Only Five First District Solons Answer Roll Call at Rochester

Special to The Globe ROCHESTER, Minn., Nov. 14.—The initial effort of Thomas Lowry to become a candidate for United States senator in opposition to Moses E. Clapp, made today in the Cook house, met with decided failure.

The endeavor was to line up the First district members and induce them to be the first to shout for Lowry, but W. A. Nolan was able to get together but five members of the house, and after the meeting it was concluded that in view of the small attendance it would be folly to give out a statement that Lowry had been endorsed. It was evident, however, that it was a Lowry meeting in purpose, although ostensibly called for the purpose of promoting the candidacy of W. A. Nolan for the speakership, and if there had been the expected attendance and the result had been satisfactory the formal announcement of Lowry's candidacy would have followed. Under the circumstances the five members of the house present decided to state that while they are favorable to Lowry's candidacy the question of the election of a senator was not formally considered.

Those present at the meeting and who will be classed as Lowry adherents were W. A. Nolan, D. G. Dalen, Burdette Thayer, O. N. Thundale and F. Fanning. A noted absentee was William Frazier, a member-elect of the house, who lives in Rochester. He was not at home, but it is said he knew nothing of the caucus and most likely would not have participated if he had been invited. The five legislators present waited for some time for the arrival of others, but when their number was not increased retired to a private room and considered the subject that had brought them together.

POLITICAL TRICK IS CONDEMNED

Mankato Board of Trade Repudiates a McCleary Campaign Document

Special to The Globe MANKATO, Minn., Nov. 14.—The Board of Trade held its first meeting since the election today and took opportunity to investigate the action of its officers in signing a statement on Congressman McCleary's behalf, relating to his attitude on the parcels post bill, that was used by him as a campaign document and mailed to small merchants throughout the district. The action was strongly condemned, and the following resolution unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The president and secretary of this board, during the election just passed, signed a circular letter which was afterwards reproduced on board trade paper by the Republican congressional committee, and spread broadcast throughout the district as a campaign document, tending to the election of McCleary to congress; and Whereas, Said officers, though not authorized or expecting that board of trade letter should be used, yet followed their signatures with the designation of their offices in this board, and such circular letter being so worded as to convey an impression upon readers that it emanated from this board; and Whereas, This board had in no manner authorized such action on the part of its officers, and is strictly non-partisan in its membership and has never directly or indirectly favored McCleary for congress; Resolved, That the action of congress officers aforesaid is repudiated and condemned by this board, and the attempt on their part to commit the influence of this board to the Republican candidate and to perpetrate a political trick upon the people of this district and place this board in a bad light before the public, is hereby disapproved and should be as widely rebuked as the false impression has been widely circulated.

EXPECT INDICTMENT

Probable Sequel of Assault by Idaho Rush, Actress, Overcome While Bathing

Special to The Globe ST. CLOUD, Minn., Nov. 14.—Upon request of the county attorney, Judge Searle, in charging the grand jury today, called attention to the assault upon Thomas Scollan, of the Merchants hotel, by Postmaster H. G. Wire a week ago tonight. The court urged the jury to make a thorough investigation, and if any guilty parties are found, to hold them responsible. The officer who was on the beat, Lepinsky, is charged by some with neglect of duty in not stopping the row, and the court ordered the jury to investigate this charge. He also instructed the jurors to determine what the owner of the saloon, Lambert, did to stop the fight.

PRESIDENT WILL RECAST CABINET

Not More Than Four or Five of the Present Members Will Remain

Globe Special Washington Service 1417 G Street WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 14.—Several men who have been conspicuous in public life will be retired from the administration as a result of Mr. Roosevelt's election. It is a little too early to figure on the exact composition of the next cabinet, but it is about as certain as anything can be that not more than five of the present members will remain in office much later than March 4.

It is putting it a little too strong, probably, to say that the president will make wholesale changes in the personnel of the administration surrounding himself entirely with young men, although this statement was widely published a day or two after election. So far as politics are concerned the president has told his friends that he expects to continue in the way he began three years ago; but in regard to persons he has made no such clear-cut announcement. It is well understood, however, that there will be a general reorganization of the cabinet, and in view of the declaration of the president that he will not be a candidate for another nomination, it may be expected that Mr. Roosevelt will exercise a good deal of independence in his selections for office.
