Thanksgiving Dinner Marked
by Evidence of Anglo-American Friendship

LONDON, Nov. 24.—Usona is a name for the United States of North America suggested tonight at the annual Thanksgiving banquet of the American society at the Hotel Cecil. To Ambassador Choate was presented a portrait of himself painted by Hubert Herkimer and paid for by subscriptions by members of the society. It was Sir Edward Clarke who, proposing Mr. Choate's health, sarcastically derided the title "American" ambassador, declaring that the word American implied domination over the whole western hemisphere. Sir Edward suggested that a more suitable title would be Usona, signifying United States of North America.

Having in mind the first public criticism here of the state department's order that embassies hereafter shall be called "American," he thus uttered a "respectful protest" against the assumption of the larger name. Sir Edward Clarke proceeded to refer to the "miserable underpayment of American judges and America's waste of energies in providing for survivors of the Civil war and in building ironclads which she could never use."

Ambassador Choate, replying, said that Americans satisfied with their name. Having remarked upon the regeneration of public life in America, regardless of party, now in progress, Mr. Choate alluded to the ever-growing friendship between Great Britain and America as reason for thanksgiving and added:

"I asked Lord Lansdowne if he was ready to negotiate the arbitration treaty. 'Why,' said Lord Lansdowne, 'it goes without saying.'"

Mr. Choate maintained that many things go without saying between Great Britain and America, above all that they should avoid all possible causes of offense and settle all differences by peaceful means. He paid a high tribute to the archbishop of Canterbury's "rediscovery of America" and dilated upon the value of visits to America by such men as the archbishop and John Morley.

The archbishop of Canterbury, proposing President Roosevelt's health, expressed his sincere thanks for the great hospitality with which he was received in America. He said America faced problems greater than the world had ever seen.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Ambassador Choate's speech at the banquet of the American society last night is commented on by the London morning newspapers in terms of the strongest approval, and it is taken for granted that the arbitration treaty to which he made allusion will be concluded and ratified promptly by the United States senate.

The Telegraph remarks that the great affection and esteem in which Mr. Choate is held in England is largely apart from his personal qualities and because of the affection in which he was held by the late Queen Victoria. The Glasgow Herald expresses the hope that the delay in concluding the treaty of arbitration is due to the fact that instead of merely adopting the stock arbitration arrangement, an effort is making which will result in a Pauncefote treaty, readapted to modern requirements.

Rhodes Scholars Dine.—The Rhodes scholars at the university assembled for a Thanksgiving dinner tonight. Henry White, secretary of the American embassy, responded to the toast "The Day We Celebrate." Dr. G. R. Parkin, principal of Upper Canada college, Toronto, to "Absent Rhodians from His Majesty's Dominions, and to the Memory of Their Benefactor," and Sir Frederick Pollock, corpus professor of jurisprudence, to "Our Sister University of Cambridge and Our Home Universities of America." Louis Dyer was toastmaster.

Svenson Feeds Guests.—COPENHAGEN, Nov. 24.—Minister Mrs. Svenson gave a Thanksgiving dinner at the American legation tonight, which was attended by the staffs of the legation and consulate a number of Americans and a few Danes. Minister Svenson proposed the health of President Roosevelt.

Turkeys in Turkey.—CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 24.—Thanksgiving day was generally observed by Americans with a short church service in the foreign quarter, and a holiday at the American colleges at Hissar and Soutari. Flags were hoisted over the legation and consulate buildings. There was a dinner party this evening at Hissar, Charles Jaj and other members of the American legation attending.

Nine Denominations Join.—DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 24.—"With unity in things necessary, liberty in things doubtful, charity in all things" was the motto for the day, in interdenominational thanksgiving service was held in the Detroit opera house today, participated in by members of nine denominations. They included a Jewish rabbi, a Catholic priest and Baptist, Congregational, Presbyterian, Episcopalian, Methodist, Universalist and Unitarian pastors.

Not Much of an Observance.—ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 24.—The American flag flying from the embassy was the only official observance of Thanksgiving day here. The customary reception and dinner at the embassy were not given on account of the absence of Ambassador McCormick in the United States. W. E. Smith, a prominent American resident, gave a dinner to the members of the small American colony.

Gormanize in Berlin.—BERLIN, Nov. 24.—Thanksgiving day was observed by 200 American residents of Berlin with a banquet at the Kaiserhof hotel. General Gorman presided and addressed the company on the "Prosperity of the United States."

Meyer Doesn't Forget.—ROME, Nov. 24.—Ambassador Meyer this afternoon entertained the American colony in honor of Thanksgiving day.

Union Services and Ball.—HAVANA, Nov. 24.—Americans residing in Havana held Thanksgiving day union services today and there was a ball tonight at the American club.

Nan Patterson's Thanksgiving.—NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Today's observance of Thanksgiving in the metropolis was not unlike that which had marked the season in other years. There were special services in nearly all denominations and the unfortunate both within and without the charitable institutions and prisons were made happy for the time being. Hundreds of baskets of food were
