AMNES' WILL START THINGS

The Defense Promises to Skake Up Prominent Men and the Editors of Newspapers

E. S. Cary, attorney for Dr. A. A. Ames, the four-time mayor of Minneapolis, who is on trial for the fifth time on the charge of accepting a bribe, declared yesterday he would show there was a conspiracy among certain business men and managers and editors of newspapers to send his client to the penitentiary.

The state rested late in the afternoon and then Mr. Cary made an impassioned address to the jury and outlined what he said he expected to be able to prove.

A number of prominent men have been summoned as witnesses and their testimony is awaited with interest.

Fred W. Archer, former chief of police and now serving a term in the state penitentiary on the charge of grafting, told the jury that he had reported to the mayor that he had been offered a bribe by the mayor and that he would attend to the matter, but the complaints did not cease. At the noon recess Dr. Ames crossed the room and shook hands with his brother.

Capt. C. R. Hill, who was second in command of the department, testified that Col. Ames had "called off" the grafting work. Capt. Hill will be called later as a witness for the defense.

Three women who claim they paid for police protection told their stories, and C. C. Norbeck, former police chief, who has been paroled from the state prison, told the jury that he had been informed by the former mayor to report to Gardner and take orders relative to the collection of money from unlicensed women.

J. L. Cohen, who is said to have taken Gardner's place as collector of the money, was called to identify a letter handed to him by the Mayor, in which the collection of money was referred to indirectly, but no other questions were asked him.

Mrs. Nellie Fitchette, widow of the late Police Captain John A. Fitchette, has been summoned as a witness, and it is possible she may throw some light upon the transactions during the Ames regime.

HOUSE DELEGATION INDORSES HIM FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR

Fourteen of the fifteen Republican members of the house delegation from Hennepin county have declared themselves in favor of the election of J. B. Gillilan as United States senator to succeed Senator Clapp.

Sherman S. Smith, the fifteenth member, was not present at the meeting which was held at the office of Mr. Gillilan last night, but colleagues said he had announced that he would stand for any action taken by the delegation.

It was expected the senatorial contingent of six would have a conference early in the evening and then the representatives would be invited in and asked as to their position.

Senator Comstock, of the Thirty-ninth district is out of the city and, therefore, the senators did not have their pow-wow.

The members of the house appeared later in the evening and when they found that the senators were not present decided to have a feast with the exception of Mr. Smith, all the members of the delegation were present or represented by a proxy.

Gillilan is indorsed

W. W. Bardwell acted as chairman of the meeting and B. H. Timberlake took the notes. W. D. Washburn Jr. presented a resolution indorsing Mr. Gillilan as the candidate for senator and this was seconded by John G. Lund. It was adopted by a unanimous vote and then a committee, composed of M. L. Fosseen and W. D. Washburn, escorted Mr. Gillilan to the council chamber where the former congressman made a short talk for the benefit of the members of the delegation.

There was considerable dissatisfaction because the senatorial delegation was not present, but owing to the absence of Senator Comstock it was decided that it would not be advisable to have the members of the upper house present when Senator Comstock returns to the city—possibly today—there will be a meeting with the members of the higher body and a joint session of the delegation will be held.

The absence of Representative Smith did not cause any comment, for some of his colleagues said he had announced to the members of the delegation that he would be absent from the city and would be followed by the majority.

Delegation as One Man

Mr. Bardwell said that for the first time for many years the Hennepin delegation was unanimous on the senatorial proposition and would be found solid for the Hennepin candidate.

Mr. Gillilan was in good spirits last evening and he expressed the opinion that with the indorsement of the members of the Hennepin delegation he was certain of the nomination and election. He said his conference is not known, but it will be as soon as Senator Comstock returns to the city and Mr. Gillilan says he is confident that he will receive the support of the members of the upper house.

FIGHT OVER APPLE

Horticulturists Refuse to Agree That Two Varieties Are Same

The Minnesota Horticultural society held its annual banquet last evening at the rooms of the Hotel Astor on Seventh street, and the fruit raisers discussed topics of interest to the profession.

Yesterday morning there was a wordy discussion over a motion made by Arthur Brackett, of Excelsior, to drop the Peter apple from the list of varieties. It was on the ground that it was identical with the Wealthy. Most of the members agreed with Mr. Brackett, but S. D. Richards, of Excelsior, and Gust Johnson, of Excelsior, told what to do with the Wealthy.

W. M. Andrews, of Minneapolis, said he could distinguish the difference, but when shown specimens of both he failed to make his promise.

J. P. Andrews, of Faribault, read a paper on the "Apple Orchards," and the discussion of the merits of spring and fall pruning was acrimonious at times. Frank Yahnke, of Winona, spoke of the "Pum and Apples," and S. D. Richards, of Excelsior, told what to do with the Wealthy.

Mrs. N. S. Sawyer, of Excelsior, insisted that with proper care the flower garden could be made to bloom until the falling frost, and she was given a concert. Richards spoke of the plum pocket and O. C. Thompson described the proper location of it in the garden.

In the afternoon there was a joint meeting of the horticulturists and the state forestry association. C. M. Loring, the president, and W. D. Washburn, Jr., and Gen. C. C. Andrews, of St. Paul, chief fire warden, spoke on the subject "What Minnesota Needs in Forestry."

The beekeepers concluded their convention yesterday morning and papers were read by a number of the members of the organization.

BAND LEADER IS HELD FOR THEFT OF HORNS

Concert at Morris Delayed While Instruments Are Redeemed

Disconsolate residents of Morris, Minn., have been singing "Why Don't the Band Play" ever since the band leader, John Adrey, bandmaster of the band, was arrested yesterday at Minneapolis, and in company with Sheriff J. E. De la Hini left last night for Morris to face the charge of larceny of the band instruments. The band was to have given a concert last Saturday night, but on the eve of the concert it was discovered that Adrey had disappeared. Then it was found that nearly all the band instruments had been removed from the room made memorable by rehearsal for the concert. Detectives found a number of the instruments in St. Paul and Minneapolis pawn shops and Adrey's arrest followed yesterday.

ST. PAUL DOCTORS ROBBED IN MILL CITY

Case Containing Surgical Instruments Taken From Automobile

Dr. Charles M. Cannon, 277 Carter avenue, St. Paul, reported to the Minneapolis police yesterday that a case containing his surgical instruments had been stolen from his automobile while the machine stood in front of a Fifth street restaurant in Minneapolis. Dr. Cannon had driven to Minneapolis to perform a surgical operation. He borrowed other instruments and proceeded with the operation. The stolen property has not been recovered.

SMALLPOX SHOWS AN INCREASE IN STATE

Sixteen New Cases Are Reported to the State Board of Health

Sixteen new cases of smallpox for the week ending Dec. 5 have been reported to the state board of health, Oscar township, Otter Tail county, reports eight cases; Whitney, Rice county, has three, and Crooked Creek, Houston county, two. Minneapolis, Minnesota and Two Rivers, Morrison county, each report one new case.

Got a Bad Ten Dollar Piece

M. Persgard, a baker at 229 Seventh street south, reported to the police yesterday that he had been victimized by a sharper who had passed a counterfeit $10 gold piece upon him. It is said the money was passed by a woman, and is similar in appearance to one passed in a First-avenue restaurant about ten days ago.

Clearings Are Swelled

The bank clearings for the week just closed exceeded all records, the amount being $24,880,937.48.

MAJORS' OPINION

Has Cut Down Jones' Apparent Plurality by Nearly Sixty Votes

Mayor Haynes yesterday gained fourteenth votes in the recount and the plurality of the Nineteenth precinct of John Jones last night, but colleagues said he had announced that he would stand for any action taken by the delegation.

Not over a quarter of the city has been canvassed, but up to the present time the adherents of Mayor Haynes are pleased with the result, for they believe that the greatest irregularities will be found in the Fourth, Fifth and Eighth wards, which are strongly Republican. The Sixth precinct of the Fourth ward was counted out last Wednesday and Mayor Haynes gained forty votes.

Mayor Haynes lost one vote in the Fourth, Fifth and Seventh precincts of the Fourth ward, making his net gain for the day, fourteen votes.

Not over a quarter of the city has been canvassed, but up to the present time the adherents of Mayor Haynes are pleased with the result, for they believe that the greatest irregularities will be found in the Fourth, Fifth and Eighth wards, which are strongly Republican. The Sixth precinct of the Fourth ward was counted out last Wednesday and Mayor Haynes gained forty votes.

FINDS SON IN JAIL

Parmer's Father Says He Must Suffer if Guilty

George Parmer, held in the Hennepin county jail on the charge of murdering Helmo Lundeen in a Northern Pacific car near Elk river about a month ago, has been identified.

He managed to smuggle a letter out of the jail and informed his father, John J. Losee, of Lake City, Ia., that he was in trouble, and yesterday the old gentleman came to the courthouse and saw Sheriff Dresser. The sheriff advised the nature of the charge against his son.

"If my son is guilty he must suffer the penalty," said the old man to the sheriff. Parmer has asserted that his parents were persons of means, but the appearance of his father indicates that the reverse is the case, and that the father is a farmer of limited means, but he will secure an attorney for his son.

LABORERS SENT ON WILD GOOSE CHASE

Denver Asks Minneapolis Police to Stop Workman Shipments

DENVER, Dec. 8.—The chief of the Minneapolis police has been appealed to by Chief DeLoe of the Denver police to stop the flood of workmen being shipped to Denver by employment agents in that city. A consignment of eleven men, two of whom are said to be employed by twenty is on the way here, they are consigned to the city by employment agents, who say that they have not ordered men, and have not used new men for three months and have no work for the men.

The condition of the new arrivals is pitiable. They have no money and are sent here and they have not even enough money to buy their meals.

ACCUSED WOMAN DOES NOT SIGN HER NAME

Puter Helps Mrs. Watson in Making Documentary Evidence Scarce

PORTLAND, Or., Dec. 8.—A. D. Puter, who has been convicted of land frauds, conspired, after three days' effort, today obtained bondsmen for the additional $4,000 bail required.

It is worthy of remark, in view of the difficulty later experienced in finding sureties, that Mrs. Watson has at no time offered to deposit a bond, but in both instances where security has been required has furnished cash bail. This bail in the aggregate now amounts to $7,000. One of the charges which rests over Mrs. Watson is that of forgery. Up to the present time the prosecution has been unable to obtain a sample of the woman's handwriting competent to be introduced as evidence as is necessary for comparison. It is believed Puter has provided Mrs. Watson with the money and has embarrassed himself, that she may avoid the necessity of signing the bond and possess the prosecution of the desired evidence and avoid the requirements in case she furnished bail of that kind.

EARL THROWS IT INTO MR. MELLENS

Draws a Letter Contrary to Railroad President's Latest Statement

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 8.—George H. Earl Jr., of this city, who has been negotiating for the purchase of the stock of the Lehigh Coal & Navigation company for a price said to be $52,000,000, today issued a statement in reply to C. S. Mellens, president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford, in which the latter denied that his company had had any negotiations for the purchase of the Lehigh Navigation company. In his statement Mr. Mellens is quoted as saying that "no one has had any authority whatsoever to negotiate on behalf of the New Haven company for the whole or any part of the stock of the Lehigh Coal & Navigation company," and that he himself "had no negotiations looking to such control."

Mr. Earl made public a letter which is signed by C. S. Mellens, president, in which the latter directs Mr. Fowler, president of the Ontario & Western, to proceed with the negotiations.

One Author's Output

Here is the record of the late Col. Prentiss Ingraham's literary output: Six hundred novelettes, averaging 70,000 words each—42,000,000 words. Four hundred novelettes, averaging 10,000 words each—4,000,000 words. Annual output, 1,253,344. Daily output, 2,768. Hourly output, 114.07. Capacity per minute, every hour of the day, for twenty-four hours, 2.4. This does not include Col. Ingraham's contributions in prose and verse to magazines and newspapers. This strenuous writer was also the author of many plays, one of which, "Montezuma," had a run of several years. His income at best was not more than $10,000 a year.—The Critic.

BOUNCES CANAL PLAN

Congressmen Tell Why They Want Sea Level Ditch

Globe Special Washington Service 1417 G Street

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 8.—All kinds of a fuss have been kicked up by the proposition to change the plans and make a sea-level canal across the isthmus. Since the members of the house committee on the canal bill said that it would cost only $50,000,000 more and take but twelve years to build they have been called liars in several different languages.

Now they are falling back on Engineer Wallace, who, they promise, will make a report saying that all plans drawn up by the French and all the data of the Wallace commission are knocked into a cocked hat by new discoveries of engineers who have been down there under Wallace, and say it is a sea-level canal or nothing.

MRS. CHADWICK IS SENT TO THE TOMBS

a long embrace. Then she was led away to the inner office, where her pedigree was taken and a commission assigned to a cell. The son and nurse were driven to a hotel.

Day Full of Events

This was a momentous day for Mrs. Chadwick. It commenced with her early departure from her hotel for the federal building and ended with her incarceration in the Tombs. In the interval she had been arraigned before United States Commissioner Shields and held in $15,000 bail, which she was unable to furnish. To add to her cup of woe it was learned tonight that a charge of forgery would very likely be made against the woman in Ohio, based on the Carnegie notes and other papers given as securities for loans.

Efforts to get bail will continue tomorrow, although Mrs. Chadwick expressed the desire tonight to go to Cleveland as soon as possible. She said she would go there voluntarily were it not for the contrary advice of counsel.

Warden Flynn said:

"Mrs. Chadwick will be placed in a cell on the second tier of the prison. She will be entirely alone on the tier, which is set apart from the other women prisoners. She is a United States prisoner and will not be allowed associates in any way. Tomorrow morning she will have her meals with the other prisoners, but during the day she will be compelled to remain alone. If she is ill, she will be attended by the physician, Dr. Levin, whose duty is to look after United States prisoners. She gave birth in 1887 and left her estate when she was born in the United States, not specifying any state, and that she was married."

Unbosoms Herself

Mrs. Chadwick was interviewed tonight by The Globe's reporter and confessed that she had the appearance of a woman suffering greatly from nervousness. She said regarding the statement made by Mrs. York, of San Francisco:

"I will leave it to public opinion and to refined and educated persons what conclusion they might draw when one sister makes a statement like that against another. To put it in the presence of the marshal, I said to my 'Emil, have you read Aunt Alice's statement?' He said, 'Yes, I was in London. All the girls were married early. The present Mrs. Chadwick in 1880 married a man named C. R. Hoover and went to live in Cleveland. Mr. Hoover died in 1887 and left her an estate worth in the neighborhood of $50,000. Mrs. Hoover during the next ten years lived on her money and incidentally traveled for a wholesale millinery establishment."

"At what time was Mrs. Hoover arrested for forgery and sentenced to a term in the Ohio penitentiary?" was asked.

"There was some trouble, Mrs. Hoover got into difficulties, and I would sooner not discuss that portion of the story. I am not denying any of the reports that have been spread broadcast about her, nor am I endeavoring to hide anything. In 1897 she married a very wealthy physician and surgeon, Dr. L. S. Chadwick. She has since become acquainted with Banker Newton, of Brookline, Mass. I never knew of her acquaintance with Andrew Carnegie. No matter what difficulty she is in at present, she will surely get out of her present predicament. There is sufficient money to make good any amounts she may have borrowed on notes and loans."

According to Mrs. York, Mrs. Chadwick's Christian name is Elizabeth. She is thirty-eight. The family name is Bigley. Mrs. York disclaims all knowledge of Mrs. Chadwick attempting to do business as a medium or as a clairvoyant.

How She Met Newton

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 8.—It was through Rev. Charles A. Eaton, pastor of the Euclid Avenue Baptist church, of this city, that Mrs. Cassie Chadwick became acquainted with Banker Newton, of Brookline, Mass. The introduction was made through a Boston attorney, a relative of Dr. Eaton. Mrs. Chadwick introduced herself to Dr. Eaton last spring and asked for audience on business affairs and as to where she could raise money. Dr. Eaton, not suspecting anything was wrong, acceded to her request.

The statement is printed here that Banker Newton's hope to secure a settlement for his claim was due to the fact that Dr. Eaton was John D. Rockefeller's pastor, and that the latter would relieve from embarrassment his favorite clergyman by paying Newton all that was owed him.

Drops the Carnegie Notes

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 8.—Prosecutor Keeler and I consider means to a conference by telephone this afternoon, at the close of which Prosecutor Keeler announced that testimony had been brought before the grand jury at Elyria that the alleged Carnegie notes had been uttered in Cleveland. On this information Prosecutor Stroup has decided to drop the case as far as the Carnegie notes are concerned and the matter is now brought directly to Mr. Keeler's attention.

Told by a Hackman

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 8.—Robert McGowan Nelson, an inmate of the penitentiary from Cleveland, sent up for shooting to kill, identified a picture of Mrs. Lydia Devere today as that of Mrs. Chadwick, arrested in New York last night. Nelson was a hackman in Cleveland and stated that he had driven the secret service men to my room. I told them the doctor had ordered me to go to the hospital or a sanitarium. I know that you cannot get a room

ROGERS DENIES FIFTY MILLIONS ARE DUE

Standard Oil Man Answers the Suit of Mrs. Greenough

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 8.—Henry H. Rogers, of New York, today filed in the Massachusetts supreme judicial court an answer to the suit for $50,000,000 brought against him by C. E. Raymond in the interests of Mrs. Elizabeth Greenough. The answer is claimed as royalties on petroleum refined under a process alleged to have been invented by Benjamin F. Greenough.

The defendant admits an agreement in 1874 with Greenough, when the secret of Greenough's alleged invention was to be used in rendering petroleum non-explosive, but declares it was found that the process did not accomplish the end claimed for it. Its use was given up after a few months under the provision of the agreement covering the situation. He denies the $50,000,000 is due the plaintiff and says that the alleged cause of the action is so old as to outlaw the suit.

Big Deal in Pig Iron

PITTSBURG, Dec. 8.—Pig iron transactions of large proportions and of momentous importance to the steel trade which have been under way for a week have come to a close in the United States Steel corporation. Interests contracting for the purchase of the entire untaken Bessemer pig iron capacity of the independent furnaces of the valleys for December and for the first quarter of the coming year. The amount of iron involved is upwards of 40,000 tons. The price is $15.50 to $15.65 at the furnaces, which is equivalent to $18.75 to $18.90 at Pittsburgh. The total money value is something over $650,000.
