SENIORS WIN RIGHT TO PLAY JUNIOR FIVE

High School Basketball Teams Clash for Interclass Championship Today

The senior basketball five defeated the sophomores yesterday afternoon at the Central high by a score of 26 to 21. This was the second of the interclass basketball games, and the winner will play the juniors for the championship this afternoon.

The game between the sophs and seniors was a very fast one with plenty of team work on both sides. Superior basket shooting won the game for the upper classmen.

George Foster was easily the star of the game for the seniors, shooting 7 baskets. Holdeeman, of the seniors, came next, making 5 baskets. Johnson and Hunt at guards and Stearns at forward, were for the seniors played hard and were always there to stop the sophs from shooting baskets.

There was no spectacular work on the part of the sophomore team, but each man played hard and tried to do his share. Most of the baskets were made by Chapman and Rexford, the forwards. Each succeeded in making 2 baskets, and the former also threw 5 field goals. Fox at guard made 1 basket and got into the team work in good form; as did McClusky, the other guard. Helson, at center, did very well in guarding. Foster. Had it not been for some of his excellent work in this the Foster would have thrown many more baskets.

Many members of the board of school inspectors were present and expressed their satisfaction. Inspector Fisher, one of the members of the board opposed to open games, was present and was perfectly satisfied with the manner in which the game is conducted. His interest was so great that he said that he was sorry that he could not come to more of them. This probably means that the school will be allowed to have open games and support a team.

The seniors had white gymnasium suits with a large red C on the shirt. They also wore red and black stockings to the knees. The sophs wore similar suits with a gold band across the shirt and their class numerals neatly arranged above and below the band. The teams lined up as follows:

Seniors. Positions. Sophomores.
Holdeman, A. P. (Capt.) Chapman (Capt.)
Stearns, R. F. Rexford
Foster, G. Helson
Johnson, R. G. McClusky
Hunt, G. Fox
Referre, Bonnell, umpire. Mandeville, time of halves, 20 minutes; timekeepers, Dibble and Bunker.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 22.—Joseph D. O'Brien of this city, will have strong support for the presidency of the American Association of Baseball clubs at the annual meeting of the association in Chicago, Jan. 15. It is said that several of the magnates favor Mr. O'Brien.

Lund Lands Defeat Reds

The Y. M. C. A. Reds played the "Lund Lands" of Minneapolis in a basketball game last night at the gymnasium and were defeated by the score of 18 to 17. The "Reds" will meet the Holcomb academy, of Minneapolis, Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the former's gymnasium.

DISFIGURED WITH ECZEMA

Under Physicians Five Months. Went from Bad to Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Wonderful Change in One Night. In a Month Face Was Clean as Ever.

"I was troubled with eczema on the face for five months during which time I was in the care of physicians. My face was in such a condition that I could not go out. It was going from bad to worse and I gave up all hope, when a friend of mine highly recommended Cuticura Remedies. The first night after I washed my face with Cuticura Soap and used Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent it changed wonderfully, and continuing the treatment it removed all scales and scabs. From that day I was able to go out, and in a month my face was as clean as ever."

THOMAS J. SOTH, 317 Stagg St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

The above letter was received in 1898 and he again writes us Feb. 19, 1903, "I have not been troubled with eczema since."

The agonizing itching and burning of the skin as in eczema; the frightful scaling, as in psoriasis; the loss of hair and crusting of scalp, as in scalded head; the facial disfigurement, as in pimples and ringworm; the awful suffering of infants, and anxiety of worn-out parents, as in milk crust, tetter and salt rheum—all demand a remedy of almost superhuman virtues to successfully cope with them. That Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent, as such stands proven beyond all doubt. No statement is made regarding them that is not justified by the strongest evidence. The purity and sweetness, the power to afford immediate relief, the certainty of speedy and permanent cure, the absolute safety, and great economy have made them the standard skin cures of the civilized world.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 50c. Sold in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 50c. per box of 50. Ointment, 5c. Soap, 2c. Depot, London, 7, Chancery Lane. Paris, 2, Rue de la Paix. Boston, 15, Colburn St. N. Y., 10, E. 17th St. Philadelphia, 10, N. 3rd St. St. Paul, 10, W. 10th St.

Forbes and Cobb Fight Draw

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Dec. 22.—Clarence Forbes, of Chicago, and Harry Cobb, of Detroit, fought ten rounds to a draw tonight.

Of All Sad Thoughts

"Even at Christmas, when all the world is gay and glad," said the great heeded philosopher, "there are woe to come to a man sad and solemn thoughts."

"Yes!" agreed the young man who had no watch on the end of his chain; "and the saddest and solemnest are those that come to a fellow when he reads of the marriage of the girl to whom last Christmas he gave a diamond ring on which he is still paying installments."—Judge.

ELECT VANDERBOOM KNOCKS J U JITSU

Wrestler Tom Jenkins Makes Learned Talk

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 22.—Edgar J. Vanderboom, the crack halfback of the Wisconsin football team for the last three years, was tonight unanimously elected captain for 1905. Bertie, Bush and Kemp, the other candidates, withdrew, and Vanderboom had no opposition. One year ago he was elected, but was "conned" out Special to The Globe.

Special to The Globe. MADISON, Wis., Dec. 22.—Edgar J. Vanderboom, the crack halfback of the Wisconsin football team for the last three years, was tonight unanimously elected captain for 1905. Bertie, Bush and Kemp, the other candidates, withdrew, and Vanderboom had no opposition. One year ago he was elected, but was "conned" out Special to The Globe.

"Jiu jitsu, or Japanese wrestling, is nothing more nor less than a combination of the old Cornish style of collar and elbow wrestling and rough and tumble fighting," says Jenkins. "I have carefully investigated the Japanese method of wrestling and was in company with one of the best teachers of the method in Japan. He explained carefully and thoroughly to me the style of self-defense used among his countrymen.

"The promoters of the system of Japanese self-defense claim that with one of their holds any man can overcome one twice his size and weight. How are you to get that hold? There's the rub!"

"These so-called 'new' holds exploited by the Japs have been in use among American and English wrestlers on the mat for many years, and for the most part have been thought so little of as to have been barred from reputable matches.

"Jiu jitsu will not revolutionize American wrestling. There is no struggle whatsoever, and it works all the American styles, or any other style for that matter, if allowed on the mats here. It is that you bend your opponent's legs, arms or neck until the bones break. You first get your bone-breaking hold and then hold on like a bulldog until one or the other's bones break or your opponent or you tap the mat and admit defeat.

"There isn't a hold in the entire category they use and teach that hasn't been used in English schools by students for hundreds of years."

"I saw a chap the other day in Washington who didn't know his own name, and made me guess it for him," said Mr. Savannah, of Savannah, at the Eutaw house.

"No!"

"Yes. It happened this way. I was visiting a number of the government buildings, and among them the big mint. There was a small party of us standing around the guide while he explained the methods of making and counting money. One girl behind the caged partition was just then counting a roll of thousand dollar bills as big as a small cannon, and the sight somewhat inspired me. I turned to my first neighbor and said:

"That would start a civil war in Georgia."

"Then it turned out that he was from Georgia, and we were glad to meet each other. We went the rest of the route together, and when we separated, I said:

"By the way, my name is Lamby, of Savannah; what's yours?"

"Well, sir, that chap stood there like a man in a trance for fully a minute. Then he said:

"Blessed if I know. Why, confound it, I knew my name this morning! It's a town in Texas—what's a town in Texas?"

"I suggested Galveston, Waco, Houston—every town I could think of—but none of them fitted him. Finally I said:

"Austin!"

"You ought to have seen his eyes brighten up."

"That's it," he said; "my name's Austin—Henry Austin. I'm a thousand times obliged to you! And he shook hands with me like a man who was just being congratulated."—Baltimore News.

BOULDN UNABLE TO STOP CAPT. WHITMORE

Local Salvage Corps Wrestler Stays Limit With Cuban Wonder

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 22.—After battling Monte Attell, of San Francisco, to a standstill during the first nine rounds of what was to have been a twenty-round go, Johnny Regan, of New York, was knocked out in the seventeenth round tonight. Regan again, as in his previous two encounters with Attell, cast his stallion tactics away and waded into the Californian from the first ring of the song. Regan's advantage was marked until the half way point was reached, his lead including a clean knockout in the sixth round. The eleventh round was even, the next only slightly in Regan's favor, and Attell steadily improved until near the end of the seventeenth round he swung viciously on Regan's jaw, dazing him. A lightning left and right to the same spot sent Johnny to the floor for the count. This was Attell's third straight victory over Regan.

Capt. Frank Whitmore, of the Salvage corps, stayed the stipulated fifteen minutes with the "Cuban Wonder" at the Star theater last night, and as a result is $25 richer. The local man went after the Cuban hammer and tongs from the start and at several stages of the game had that gentleman guessing. Whitmore was slippery as an eel, and time after time wriggled out of holds that looked impossible to escape. He was strong at the finish and apparently could have stayed another fifteen minutes. Capt. Whitmore is the first local man to stay the limit with the "Wonder."

FAST FINISH LANDS CLAUDE IN FRONT

Daly's Great Winner Adds Another Purse to String of Victories

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 22.—Mike Daly's many time winner, Claude, added another winning bracket to his string of victories by capturing the purse race, which was a three-quarters mile scramble. Martinmas and Iridius were the pacesetters, with Claude laying in third position. Claude, on his own courage, finished with a great burst of speed and won going away by a neck. Iridius was beaten and came again, but could not get up to get the place from Martinmas. Summary:

First race, eleven-sixteenths of a mile, selling—Toupee, 102, Greenwald, 8 to 5, won; Flo Mandia, 107 W. Daly, 20 to 1, second; Box Elder, 107, Bell, 25 to 1, third. Time, 1:08.
