PRICES STRONG AND HALF CENT HIGHER

Trading Quiet, of a General Evening Up Character on Account of Holiday

Feb. 21.-Trade today has been narrow and greatly restricted, with only half a ipal cause of the firmness was the small eccipts, nothwithstanding the better reather was expected to cause a more beral movement. Our receipts amounted Kansas City and St. Louis receipts amounted to 152,000 bu and we shipped 121,000 bu; Kansas City and St. Louis received 95,000 bu and shipped 139,000 bu. This rather refutes the claims of the bears that there is no cash demand for wheat at any of the primary wheat receiving rounts.

GENERAL OFFICES N. B.—We will send you our daily etter upon request.

Chicago to Edwards-Wood Co.: Stock shippers from various parts of Illinois and Iowa state that the farmers have fed or sold a large part of last year's corn crop, and many of them say that as much as one-half, or even two-thirds, of the corn has been disposed of. Some large feeders have fed all their corn and are obliged to purchase corn from other farmers. Sales of corn have been especially large by farm renters, as usual, and owners of farms living in town are less eager to sell their grain, although some old-time successful farmers sold their oats last autumn, when prices were high, as high as 32c per bushel being obtained. Early sellers took the view that the extremely large crop of oats reported by the government meant lower prices later on, but farmers are largely holding their oats for better prices. Southern Iowa stock feeders have been buying a good deal of corn from other parts of the state, and Missouri feeders have bought freely from Nebraska holders. The price of corn varies widely, according to the locality, selling in Central Illinois around 38c per bushel, as high as 40c in Eastern Iowa and as low as 32c in Central Iowa. Farmers arriving from Iowa claim that the government report exaggerated the size of the corn crop, with many sections showing yields of from 35 to 50 bu per acre, where talk was for 40 to 75 bu.

Chicago—There has been quite a general covering of corn this morning, occasioned by the report that the Western roads are to have a meeting here today and try to settle their differences and restore rates from the West. There has been very little corn on the market all day and the undertone is quite strong.

New York—It is claimed that 1,500,000 bu May wheat was sold out here recently, which they attribute to the Wall street bull interest. Part of it was sold in the open market and the balance on calls.

Chicago—Oats market opened steady, with very light trade and without any of a criterion as to what is going on in corn reserves, no wonder corn is advancing.

Montreal says: Ogilvie says a strong demand for flour. Large sales for export at satisfactory prices.

Kansas City—Line houses report this morning that snow is rapidly going off and the green wheat commencing to show. None of them is of a bullish nature, and although of course it is too early to claim no damage done during the winter, the feeling here is extremely bearish on new crop futures.

Chicago—C. T. Gifford, who has returned from Nebraska, says: "Nebraska Grain Dealers' association reports 25 per cent of the wheat back in farmers' hands. Three elevators also have 460,000 bushels. Elevator lines report large wheat stocks, no demand at all, and in order to make sales have to reduce prices 5c to 10c."

Chicago—Private elevator stocks: Wheat 2,302,000, decrease 21,000; corn 4,655,000, increase 64,000; oats 2,579,000, decrease 162,000. Kansas City wires: "Cash corn situatal. 1.303,550; decrease 26,062; corn 2.133,-763, increase 20,725; oats 694,396, increase 75,000.

Kansas City wires: "Cash corn situation is very strong here. Don't look for any larger receipts. Cash corn all cleaned up; now 47c bid."

Chicago—Trade in wheat is extremely dull. Market helped by the recent bulge in corn. It had previously had a temporary weak spot the cause of the poor showing of Bradstreet's.

Chicago—People who a while ago bought cotton seed oil and sold lard are going out of their trades. Lard is lower than they bought it.

New York—Ocean room for corn is in better demand, larger engagements having been made the past few days than at any time in the last thirty days. Rates are 1d per bushel from New York to Liverpool and 1½d to London.

New York—To A. J. Cummings: "The confident manner with which the speculative and investment public have started the week demonstrates very convincingly that not only is the end of this remarkable bull movement not yet in sight, as those who continually harp on high prices would have us believe, but to the contrary the experienced Wall street man sees significant signs in the market's technical character clearly indicating a substantial upward movement for some time to come at least, until tightening of money rates is nearer to view than it is now, or until some happening which cannot possibly be tive and investment public have started the week demonstrates very convincingly that not only is the end of this remarkable bull movement not yet in sight, as those who continually harp on high prices would have us believe, but to the contrary the experienced Wall street man sees significant signs in the market's technical character clearly indicating a substantial upward movement for some time to come at least, until tightening of money rates is nearer to view than it is now, or until some happening which cannot possibly be foreseen at the present time, to adversely affect all stocks alike, irrespective of intrinsic value.

Tennessee Coal, Copper and Tractions the Most Active on the Stock List in today's stock market were of a char-acter to encourage the hope long deferred of an active energy into the market of the

Panic of 1901

Such a movement has already occurred in this generation and it culminated in the panic of May. 1901. The unfortunate issue of that experience brought severe punishment that seemed to serve as a warning to the whole public and to discourage their attempt to obtain any share in the benefits of the long advance which has occurred in the present stock market. The demand for stocks from this source up to this time has been entirely inconspicuous, but evidences were unmistakable today that the public was coming freely into the market. The tide of the buying demand had all of the impressive sweep of periods of widespread speculation and the movements were characteristically lacking in special news to explain them. The only news which seemed to be regarded was an advance in price. Whenever this occurred it was sure to be followed quickly by a surging demand which churned the particular stock affected into violent activity and buoyancy. All news was favorably interpreted, or if that was not feasible, was ignored.

An even more violent price movem was that in Sless Sheffleld steel, wh was jumped up over 20 points. Rum were plenty of a coming merger of Sou ern iron companies. Storm blockades holding of cotton are forcing down earnings of railroads in the southwe but that group was conspicuous strength in the day's movement. on export grain will soon be terminated were minor influences in keeping up the demand.

But the overriding factor was the growth and spread of speculative excitement, which brings increasing crowds of buyers into the market. Buying of this character without a reason why, swept prices irresistibly to a higher level. That advantage was taken of the advent of public buying to secure profits on an enormous scale was evident from the occasional unsettlement of the market. The closing itself was rather irregular, but the general character of the day's highly speculative market was not altered by this fact.

Bonds were steady, but were not so active as stocks. Total sales, par value, $5,035,000. United States bonds were all unchanged on call.
