

CITY NEWS

Speaks at School—J. D. O'Brien will address the Webster school union meeting at the school house tonight.

Union Meeting—A union meeting of the Teachers' training school will be held tonight at the Rice school. Dr. Chagny will deliver an address.

Hurt in Runaway—The team of M. Whelan, a dairyman of Rosemount, ran away yesterday morning at Western and Holly avenues. Mr. Whelan was thrown out and slightly cut and the wagon was badly smashed.

Three Died of Smallpox—The report of the department of health to the surgeon general at Washington on smallpox for the week ending March 27, shows 116 cases of the disease in the state with 3 deaths.

Theater Plans Filed—Plans for the erection of a unique theater, to cost $25,000, were filed yesterday in the building inspector's office. The building will be erected on the east side of Minnesota street, between Sixth and Seventh.

Refuses New Trial—Motion by the defendants for a new trial in the case of the Danes was refused yesterday by Judge Kelly.

McHugh Funeral—The funeral of Patrick McHugh, former city clerk, took place at the family residence, 412 Fuller street, yesterday morning, with services at St. Luke's church. The interment was at Calvary cemetery.

Marksman Pays Fine—Joe Cadden and John Fisher, 18 years old youths, paid $1 each in police court yesterday morning as a result of firing off a gun within the city limits. The boys were shooting at an old coat on Commercial street, near Third, with a .22 caliber rifle, when they were arrested.

Hold Sociable—The Young People's Society of the House of Hope church held a sociable and business meeting last night. The sociable was held during the evening and a musical programme was given. At the business meeting a committee to nominate officers for the ensuing year was selected.

Hotel Clerk Freed—John Amussen, night clerk at the Egan hotel on lower Jackson street, accused by Jerry Carr, a one-legged man from Cedar Rapids, Ia., of stealing $8 of the latter's money, was discharged by the police judge yesterday, as the proprietor of the hotel made good the amount. There was considerable doubt as to how the money was lost.

FIND BOY IN RIVER

Boom Hands Discover Remains of Minneapolis Man

The body of a man believed to be Elton Tolf of Minneapolis was discovered floating in the river at the St. Paul boom yesterday noon. The body was noticed by a boom hand and was floating near the shore when discovered. Coroner Miller was called and ordered the body taken to the morgue.

The body was that of a man about 35 years old, of medium build, and with sandy hair and whiskers. It had been in the water about four months. A letter was found in the clothing of the dead man bearing the address, Elton Tolf, 133 Eighth street, Joliet, Ill., and a notebook also bearing the name of Elton Tolf was discovered. The features of the man were almost unrecognizable because of long contact with the water, but he was believed to be Elton Tolf, who on the evening of Dec. 31, 1904, during a fit of insanity, jumped from the second story of a boarding house on the east side of the river, south of Minneapolis, after terrorizing the rest of the roomers. The man disappeared in the night and no trace was ever found of him since. Nothing is known of his relatives. The body will be held at the county morgue while the authorities investigate the case.

DROPS FROM TRAIN

Tourist Falls Off Top of Passenger Coach

Ray Crousman, 21 years, living at 8336 First avenue south, Minneapolis, is confined to the city hospital in this city with a broken leg as the result of a fall from a train last night. Crousman decided to leave Minneapolis and with this object in view came to St. Paul and boarded the Milwaukee fast mail as it pulled out of the union depot, shortly after dark last night. Climbing to the top of one of the coaches, he rode unperceived through the yards on the main track. When the train reached the Huntington roundhouse at East St. Paul Crousman for some reason decided to get off.

He started down the rear of the coach and was making good headway when he grasped a steam pipe. With a loud yell Crousman released his hold on the hot pipe and fell so lost his balance and fell between the coaches. His body rebounded, fell outward, struck the ground and rolled away from the train.

Crousman was picked up in a dazed condition and taken to the city hospital in the Margaret street patrol wagon. His left leg is broken at the knee and his body is bruised and cut from head to foot. No serious results are anticipated.

Will Exhibit Sketches

A collection of sketches, made by Edwin H. Blasfield, for his paintings, are to be brought from Winona and exhibited at the capitol next week. In the collection of sketches there are 3 color studies and 37 drawings.

Should be sown early. May's Imperial Collection. Consists of choice named varieties, containing all the leading colors. 7 Large Packets for 25c. 7 Ounces for 15c. CATALOGUE FREE

FIRE BOARD ELECTS J. J. STRAPP CHIEF OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT

Henry Devlin Is Given the First Assistant Chief's Buggy—Commissioners Spring a Surprise by Appointing Capt. W. A. Rodecker to Berth Made Vacant by Promotion of Devlin—Position of Third Assistant Chief Is Created for Capt. Miles McNally—Fire Insurance Agents Want Former Chief Jackson Reappointed

Jerry J. Strapp, formerly first assistant chief, is now at the head of the St. Paul fire department.

At the meeting of the board of fire commissioners last night Chief Strapp was unanimously chosen for the position and highly lauded for his services in the department during the past.

Henry Devlin, second assistant chief under Chief Jackson, was elected to the position of first assistant.

The election of the second assistant chief was somewhat of a surprise. Capt. William A. Rodecker of engine company No. 8 was selected as the man for the position, and his past record shows that the trust imposed in him by the commissioners is warranted.

Due to the rapid growth of the city and the necessity of installing new engine companies, the board deemed it necessary that a third assistant chief be appointed. On account of his extended service in the department and his unquestioned ability as a fire fighter, Miles McNally of engine company No. 3 was appointed to the position. The salary of the third assistant chief was fixed at $1,200 a year.

Daniel Neary, present superintendent of the fire alarm signal system, was unanimously reelected and highly complimented by President Warner, for his excellent work during the past.

John W. Wheeler was reelected to the position of mechanic, and Ernest D. Varnam was reappointed chief electrical inspector. Robert White was again elected veterinary surgeon of the department.

Dr. White selected upon the occasion to request that he be granted an increase in salary as the additional horse to be added to the department would increase his duties. He was asked to present his request in writing before the board at its next meeting.

The appointment of Captains Rodecker and McNally to the positions of second and third assistant chiefs will leave engine companies No. 3 and No. 8 each one man short, but it was decided not to appoint any new men to the force for some little time. The lieutenants of Nos. 3 and 8 will be placed in command of their respective companies for the present.

Chief Strapp and his three assistants will be officially installed by President Warner of the board of fire commissioners at fire headquarters this morning at 10 o'clock.

A petition was received by the fire board from the fire insurance agents of the city calling attention to the efficiency of the department under former Chief Jackson's direction and requesting that Chief Jackson be reappointed to his old position. The petition was placed on file.

On the recommendation of President Warner a committee of three, Commissioners Freeman, Kelly and Schweizer, was appointed by the board to draw up resolutions highly praising the work of former Chief Jackson and thanking the chief for his past services. A copy of the resolutions will be forwarded to the former chief as soon as possible.

Deserted by her husband and on the brink of utter collapse from hunger and lack of sleep, Mrs. Etta Woodberry and her two children were cared for by the Relief society and given temporary shelter at the Globe hotel yesterday.

For two days the woman had been sleeping in a box factory at the depot, and a few pieces of bread that the mother bought with her last few cents. To all inquiries by the trainmen and police- men she would only say that she was invariably answered that she was waiting for her husband. But it was not till yesterday that the pitiful condition of the woman and her children were discovered.

Bravely the woman and the children fought against the ravages of hunger, and came yesterday morning to the waiting room of the Relief society. It was then that the Relief society was notified and the unfortunate were sent to the Globe hotel, where a substantial meal and needed rest were given.

"I am 20 years old," said the woman last night. "Six years ago I married Arthur Woodberry at Flint, Mich. He worked in a box factory as a carpenter. My two children, Lloyd and Russell, 4 and 3 years old, were born there. Last Monday my husband proposed that we should go to Spokane, Wash., where he expected to get better paying work."

"We left Flint that same day, arriving in Chicago at night. There he told me that he had no money, and no sufficient money to carry us through. As he positively refused to return to Flint he told me to go to St. Paul with the children and there I should wait for him. He put me on the train Tuesday morning with 50 cents in my pocket. That was the last I heard of him."

She arrived here Tuesday night at 10 o'clock and waited at the depot for an arrival, until hunger had weakened the children to such an extent that they were taken to the Relief society. I am at a loss to account for the behavior of my husband, and do not know what will become of the children and myself. I have two sisters and my aged father living at Flint, but they are unable to help me. My husband's parents also live at Flint, but they are unable to help me. Secretary Hutchins of the Relief society said that efforts will be made to ascertain the whereabouts of the man and to call him to account for the manner in which he tried to rid himself of his family. The relatives of the woman will also be communicated with. The family will be taken care of at the Globe hotel until other arrangements for their maintenance have been made.

Willie Hudson, the small boy taken in charge by the Relief society, has been turned over to the Children's Home society, where he will stay until his case has been thoroughly investigated by the association.

A letter from his mother, who is at Aitkin, Minn., was received yesterday in which she states that she is unable to pay the fare for the boy to that city, as her whole fortune consists of 10 cents, but that she would like to have her son. She begs the society to send him to her and promises to repay the fare as soon as possible. She claims to have been deserted by her husband, who left her penniless with three ill children for whom she is now caring.

J. J. STRAPP NEW CHIEF OF THE ST. PAUL FIRE DEPARTMENT

increase in salary as the additional horse to be added to the department would increase his duties. He was asked to present his request in writing before the board at its next meeting.

The appointment of Captains Rodecker and McNally to the positions of second and third assistant chiefs will leave engine companies No. 3 and No. 8 each one man short, but it was decided not to appoint any new men to the force for some little time.

The lieutenants of Nos. 3 and 8 will be placed in command of their respective companies for the present.

Chief Strapp and his three assistants will be officially installed by President Warner of the board of fire commissioners at fire headquarters this morning at 10 o'clock.

A petition was received by the fire board from the fire insurance agents of the city calling attention to the efficiency of the department under former Chief Jackson's direction and requesting that Chief Jackson be reappointed to his old position.

On the recommendation of President Warner a committee of three, Commissioners Freeman, Kelly and Schweizer, was appointed by the board to draw up resolutions highly praising the work of former Chief Jackson and thanking the chief for his past services.

A copy of the resolutions will be forwarded to the former chief as soon as possible.

Deserted by her husband and on the brink of utter collapse from hunger and lack of sleep, Mrs. Etta Woodberry and her two children were cared for by the Relief society and given temporary shelter at the Globe hotel yesterday.

For two days the woman had been sleeping in a box factory at the depot, and a few pieces of bread that the mother bought with her last few cents. To all inquiries by the trainmen and police- men she would only say that she was invariably answered that she was waiting for her husband.

But it was not till yesterday that the pitiful condition of the woman and her children were discovered.

Bravely the woman and the children fought against the ravages of hunger, and came yesterday morning to the waiting room of the Relief society. It was then that the Relief society was notified and the unfortunate were sent to the Globe hotel, where a substantial meal and needed rest were given.

"I am 20 years old," said the woman last night. "Six years ago I married Arthur Woodberry at Flint, Mich. He worked in a box factory as a carpenter. My two children, Lloyd and Russell, 4 and 3 years old, were born there. Last Monday my husband proposed that we should go to Spokane, Wash., where he expected to get better paying work."

"We left Flint that same day, arriving in Chicago at night. There he told me that he had no money, and no sufficient money to carry us through. As he positively refused to return to Flint he told me to go to St. Paul with the children and there I should wait for him. He put me on the train Tuesday morning with 50 cents in my pocket. That was the last I heard of him."

She arrived here Tuesday night at 10 o'clock and waited at the depot for an arrival, until hunger had weakened the children to such an extent that they were taken to the Relief society. I am at a loss to account for the behavior of my husband, and do not know what will become of the children and myself. I have two sisters and my aged father living at Flint, but they are unable to help me.

My husband's parents also live at Flint, but they are unable to help me. Secretary Hutchins of the Relief society said that efforts will be made to ascertain the whereabouts of the man and to call him to account for the manner in which he tried to rid himself of his family.

The relatives of the woman will also be communicated with. The family will be taken care of at the Globe hotel until other arrangements for their maintenance have been made.

Willie Hudson, the small boy taken in charge by the Relief society, has been turned over to the Children's Home society, where he will stay until his case has been thoroughly investigated by the association.

A letter from his mother, who is at Aitkin, Minn., was received yesterday in which she states that she is unable to pay the fare for the boy to that city, as her whole fortune consists of 10 cents, but that she would like to have her son. She begs the society to send him to her and promises to repay the fare as soon as possible.

She claims to have been deserted by her husband, who left her penniless with three ill children for whom she is now caring.

It was thought advisable by the society not to send the boy to his mother under such circumstances, but to investigate the case, and if possible, call the father, who has written the association disclaiming all responsibility, to account.

Hereafter the board of fire commissioners will meet regularly on the first and third Tuesday of each month, according to the rules adopted two years ago.

Since last summer the board has not been meeting on the first and third Tuesdays of the month, but at the call of the president or secretary. The custom originated last summer during the hot weather, when there was not sufficient business on hand to warrant meetings twice a month.

Lately, however, the plan has not given satisfaction, as some of the members were unable to attend on short notice.

Last night Commissioner G. W. Freeman presented a resolution to the effect that the rules adopted two years ago, requiring a meeting of the board on the first and third Tuesdays of each month, be conformed to. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

A petition presented by Ald. J. M. Mackinney of the Tenth ward, asking that a fire alarm box be installed at Langford and Haskell avenues, was referred to the committee on fire alarms.

My Answer to No. 45 Proverb Picture is... NAME... ADDRESS... CONSTITUENT, DEAR SIR: I VOTED FOR THE HORTON CAPITOL BILL BECAUSE I DIDN'T KNOW ANY BETTER. YOURS TRULY, A STATE SENATOR.

WHAT PROVERB DOES THIS PICTURE REPRESENT? ANOTHER PROVERB PROBLEM TOMORROW $300.00 IN GOLD. Enter the contest at once. Given as prizes for the correct or most nearly correct solution of Proverbs.

CONDITIONS GOVERNING THIS CONTEST FOLLOW: No answer which does not exactly conform to them will be considered. All answers must be upon Globe blanks, which will be printed with each Proverb Picture. Only one answer will be allowed on each blank.

LIST OF PRIZES: Capital Prize, $250.00; Second Prize, $125.00; Third Prize, $75.00; Fourth Prize, $50.00; Five Prizes, $25.00 each; 123 Prizes, aggregating, $300.00.

HAS RULE OF LAND ASLEEP AT TABLE

Government Holds Sway Over Reservation Property

Judge Lochren of the United States district court, in a decision handed down yesterday on the argument of a writ of habeas corpus, holds that land in an Indian reservation is still subject to government control, even though the title has passed from the government.

The decision was given in denying a writ of habeas corpus to Hugh Funk, charged with introducing liquor on the Chippewa Indian reservation.

In 1902 a commission composed of the governor of the district of Columbia, the president of the district of Columbia, and the secretary of the interior recommended that the date be made the last Thursday in April.

The land in Cass county had originally been allotted to an Indian woman, and was sold by her heirs after her death to Frank Gorenfo, as is alleged by the government. Funk rented the land from the owner and erected a saloon and began selling liquor.

He was arrested and taken before the United States commissioner Delurg at Walker on March 27.

The case raises an entirely new point and one which is considered very important by the district attorney's office in dealing with Indians on reservations. Funk was remanded to the St. Louis county jail on $500 bond.

Two Petitions Filed: A petition was filed yesterday by the Northwestern Trust company, as receiver of the St. Paul Trust company, asking the approval of the district court in the sale of certain notes and mortgages to Francis C. Atwood.

Embezzlement Is Charged: E. S. Bennett, bookkeeper for the St. Paul Furniture company, seven corners, is charged with embezzling $450 of the firm's money.

Wife Begs Police to Find Her Husband: Chief O'Connor receives pathetic appeal from St. Louis woman.

CONGRESSMAN STEVENS TIES UP POLLEY EXTENSION TO SNELLING

Reasons for Requested Delay Are Explained in Confidential Letter Sent to Secretary of War—Understood That Proposed Line Would Interfere With Future Improvements at Post—Material Changes in Present Plans Expected to Follow Protest

The application of the Minneapolis street railway company to extend its lines into the military reservation at Fort Snelling is still being held up by the war department. The telegram sent by Congressman F. C. Stevens to the secretary of war requesting that definite action be delayed until a letter from him giving some additional information on the subject and shedding some light on several knotty problems has been received by the authorities.

Mr. Stevens said yesterday in regard to the matter: "It would be a breach of custom if I should give out anything of the contents of a confidential letter written to the head of one of the national departments. All I can say at this time is simply that grave mistakes have been made in the past because sufficient light for consideration of the subject under discussion was not allowed. An instance it has been found that the artillery stables at the post are too short and that several of the buildings have been erected in places that they will eventually have to be removed."

"I do not say that I am opposing the application to extend the car line into Fort Snelling, but I can say that the fact that it is the Minneapolis car line and not the St. Paul company that contemplates going into the post has no effect at all upon the question."

The letter written by Congressman Stevens is due to arrive at the office of the secretary of war this morning and will probably be made public to-day.

MINNESOTA ASKED TO PROTECT FISH

Governors of New York and Vermont Write to Gov. Johnson

Gov. Johnson yesterday received two letters, one from Gov. Frank M. Higgins of New York and one from Gov. C. J. Bell of Vermont, asking cooperation in securing an international agreement with the dominion of Canada regarding fisheries in boundary waters.

The case comes up on complaint of the fishermen of the American side of the water, who are prohibited from using a seine or net in fishing. At first it was only intended to have an agreement with the dominion government as between New York and Vermont, but it has widened out to take in all the boundary waters.

Gov. Johnson has not yet given the matter his attention. The eastern governors, as well as the federal government and the government of Canada, desire a commission to settle the matter. It is suggested that Gov. Johnson appoint a committee from Minnesota, this state having mutual waters with Canada.

On the Canadian side of the waters there is no restriction as to using a seine in fishing. The boundary states, whose governors are asked to appoint a representative are New York, Vermont, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Washington, North Dakota and Montana.

The request that the settlement be made general came from the Canadian government, represented by Raymond Prefontaine as minister of marines and fisheries at Ottawa. The appointment of the commission is endorsed by the American government.

The letter from Gov. Higgins says in part: "In view of the great anxiety of the people of Vermont and New York that the wholesale netting of fish be stopped in Mississippi bay in Canada, to prevent the extermination of fish, I most respectfully ask you to consider the proposition of appointing a committee or commission from your state to act in conjunction with representatives from the other states mentioned in taking up this question with the Canadian government."

Gov. Bell of Vermont writes Gov. Johnson as follows: "The fisheries of Vermont and New York, by recent legislation have made seine or net fishing in Lake Champlain illegal, and commission to cooperate with the proper officials in the province of Quebec for the same purpose are desired, for without a proper understanding with the Canadian people these would be little encouragement for Vermont or New York people to maintain their restrictions."

The matter was taken up with the American consul at Ottawa, Hon. J. G. Foster, but he was not wholly successful in bringing about the desired result, although he did get the Canadian officials to concede that something ought to be done in the matter."

THE SUN NEVER SETS: On Cuticura. It circles the globe. All peoples in all climes use it.

Two Men Injured: The breaking of a beam at the Great Northern shops on Como avenue yesterday morning seriously injured Gus Metzger, 423 Rondo street, and Thomas Grogan, Case street. The beam slipped from the top of a car that was being repaired and fell directly on the two men, who were working underneath Metzger's right leg was broken at the knee and Grogan sustained severe injuries to his back. Both men were taken to St. Joseph's hospital.

Favor Hays' Appointment: The appointment of Prof. W. H. Hays to the position of secretary of agriculture is a matter of great interest to the state school of agriculture and resolutions expressing appreciation of President Roosevelt's appointment have been passed. Bills for grants to the Field Crop Breeders' association and the Farmers' club, now before the legislature, are also approved. The association favors the one-fifth method for the use of the agricultural department of the university.

CONGRESSMAN F. C. STEVENS

formation is authority for the following statement: "It is generally understood that the line and staff officers of the military bodies now stationed at Fort Snelling are quite friendly with Minneapolis, and when the proposal was formulated to extend the car line it received considerable support from the officers."

"I have it on the best authority that the proposed line would seriously interfere with future improvements of the post and I was one of the men who brought the matter to the attention of Congressman Stevens. The United States purposes to spend many thousands of dollars within a limited period at Fort Snelling and it would seem too bad if haste and lack of careful consideration of all the factors bearing upon the case should result in a move that would irrevocably harm the beauty, convenience and utility of the big fort."

"I do not know what Mr. Stevens wrote to the secretary, but it is not hard to surmise that he placed the facts in the case before the department in such a way that the present plans will have to be changed in several particulars before consent to build the line is granted. If it had not been for his letter and telegram it is more than likely that the application would have been approved by the department as a matter of course."

Michigan Carpenter Sends Wife and Children Penniless to St. Paul

Deserted by her husband and on the brink of utter collapse from hunger and lack of sleep, Mrs. Etta Woodberry and her two children were cared for by the Relief society and given temporary shelter at the Globe hotel yesterday.

For two days the woman had been sleeping in a box factory at the depot, and a few pieces of bread that the mother bought with her last few cents. To all inquiries by the trainmen and police- men she would only say that she was invariably answered that she was waiting for her husband.

But it was not till yesterday that the pitiful condition of the woman and her children were discovered.

Bravely the woman and the children fought against the ravages of hunger, and came yesterday morning to the waiting room of the Relief society. It was then that the Relief society was notified and the unfortunate were sent to the Globe hotel, where a substantial meal and needed rest were given.

"I am 20 years old," said the woman last night. "Six years ago I married Arthur Woodberry at Flint, Mich. He worked in a box factory as a carpenter. My two children, Lloyd and Russell, 4 and 3 years old, were born there. Last Monday my husband proposed that we should go to Spokane, Wash., where he expected to get better paying work."

"We left Flint that same day, arriving in Chicago at night. There he told me that he had no money, and no sufficient money to carry us through. As he positively refused to return to Flint he told me to go to St. Paul with the children and there I should wait for him. He put me on the train Tuesday morning with 50 cents in my pocket. That was the last I heard of him."

She arrived here Tuesday night at 10 o'clock and waited at the depot for an arrival, until hunger had weakened the children to such an extent that they were taken to the Relief society. I am at a loss to account for the behavior of my husband, and do not know what will become of the children and myself. I have two sisters and my aged father living at Flint, but they are unable to help me.

My husband's parents also live at Flint, but they are unable to help me. Secretary Hutchins of the Relief society said that efforts will be made to ascertain the whereabouts of the man and to call him to account for the manner in which he tried to rid himself of his family.

The relatives of the woman will also be communicated with. The family will be taken care of at the Globe hotel until other arrangements for their maintenance have been made.

Willie Hudson, the small boy taken in charge by the Relief society, has been turned over to the Children's Home society, where he will stay until his case has been thoroughly investigated by the association.

A letter from his mother, who is at Aitkin, Minn., was received yesterday in which she states that she is unable to pay the fare for the boy to that city, as her whole fortune consists of 10 cents, but that she would like to have her son. She begs the society to send him to her and promises to repay the fare as soon as possible.

She claims to have been deserted by her husband, who left her penniless with three ill children for whom she is now caring.

It was thought advisable by the society not to send the boy to his mother under such circumstances, but to investigate the case, and if possible, call the father, who has written the association disclaiming all responsibility, to account.

Answers to Proverbs: My complete set of answers to the proverbs of the St. Paul Globe will gladly help you in your efforts to win a prize. In my list of possible answers you will not doubt find the correct answer to every proverb with which you are having the most trouble. You will not claim to be able to solve each and every proverb correctly, but I doubt if the one fortunate enough to win the prize in this contest will do so. But I do claim that if you had my possible answers that they would help you to win a prize.

For example, take number 2-23-23-33, which are some of the hardest. If I haven't the correct answer in my list to each of these, then I don't know which I do have will very likely suggest to you the answer which will solve the same correctly. Special attention, however, has been paid to the more difficult proverbs, and every one in the list. All of my solutions are prepared with the greatest care and are most correct, precise, and the different forms as given by the different authorities. Remember that the more correct answers you set will advance you nearer the top in the list of prize winners.

PRICE, 30c. The answers to the first 45 will be made immediately, and the remaining 5 will be sent as soon as proverb No. 50 is published.

Make a business of furnishing answers to contestants. My large library of proverbs containing the correct answers, and these together with my past experience are at your service. Hundreds of people have won prizes with my answers. Why not you? You will then have the best efforts of both your self and myself at your command. My answers will surely win you a prize. Send at once for the complete set of answers with extra back numbers which you may need.

Ready to Mail—MARCH'S Book of ILLUSTRATED PROVERBS. The latest, most valuable and helpful work—for proverb contestants—ever printed. Answers to first 20 Globe Pictures with a handsome and durable cover, is ready to mail.

POSSIBLE ANSWERS—With my library of 100,000 English Proverbs I can assure you absolutely all the different variations. My carefully selected printed list of first 45—Answers mailed NOW and last 5 solutions with a carefully revised list some day next week appears for 30 cents.

PROVERBS AND ANSWERS BOOK OF 5,000 ENGLISH PROVERBS. Alphabetically arranged, classified under subjects and indexed for quick reference. Possible answers to first 20 Globe Pictures and this book, post paid, for 30 cents.