UNITED IN DEATH.

The Tragical Ending of Two Young Lives at Lake Harriet.

One of the saddest accidents which has yet been our duty to record, occurred at Lake Harriet last Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, and resulted in death by drowning of Mr. Charles Ide and Miss Sadie Langan. The young couple were spending the afternoon at the lake and had gone out for a boat ride. In attempting to change seats in the boat and within a few hundred feet from shore, the boat capsized and both the occupants were plunged into the water, drowning before assistance could arrive. A search was at once begun for the bodies and in a short time both were found and brought to their homes in the city. Miss Langan's remains were taken to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Langan, of 102 Nineteenth avenue south, and Mr. Ide's to his late residence, corner of Sixteenth avenue south and Eighteenth street. There are circumstances particularly sad in connection with the untimely death of these two young persons as they were to have been married in this city on August 22 next, and the young ladies who were to have been her bridesmaids, were among the number of the pall bearers at Miss Langan's funeral, and the gentlemen who had been selected by Mr. Ide as groomsmen on his wedding day performed the sad duties of pall bearers at the funeral services. The obsequies were held last Wednesday morning, the double funeral being held from Holy Rosary church, where solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Jos. M. Langan, brother of the deceased young lady, assisted by Fathers Gleason and Trainor. Miss Langan's remains were interred in the East Side Catholic cemetery and those of Mr. Ide were taken to Climax, Michigan, for burial. The pall bearers for Miss Langan were the Misses Mary Garvey, Virgie McVey, Fannie McNamee, Maggie Walsh, Celia McVey and Maggie McDermott, and for Mr. Ide, Hugh P. Darcy, Geo. O'Leary, Andrew Hannigan, James Daly, Chas. Quinn, Henry O'Leary.

Election of Officers.

The Father Mathew T. A. Society, the veterans in the cause of total abstinence in this city, held a largely attended meeting at Catholic Association Hall last Sunday afternoon and elected the following officers: President, P. Churchill; vice-president, M. O'Reilly; financial secretary, James Burns; Treasurer, Timothy Corbett; sergeant-at-arms, J. Curran; Marshal, Wm. Dobbin. Board of managers: J. B. Sheridan, M. Sheehan, P. Doherty, D. M. Guertin, J. Lane. Auditing committee: P. H. Prendergast, M. Cullen, J. T. Kane. President Churchill has reason to feel proud of his victory, he having been elected by a very handsome majority.

Division No. 1 A. O. H., of Seattle, W. T., at a recent meeting, elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: County delegate, P. J. Rooney; president, Michael J. Costello; vice-president, Timothy Ryan; recording secretary, John Cunningham; financial secretary, Thos. P. Freeman; treasurer, Charles P. McIntyre.

Death of Mrs. M. W. Glenn.

Mrs. Mary Glenn, wife of Col. M. W. Glenn, died last Saturday evening at the family residence, 2549 Nineteenth avenue south, of consumption, aged 49 years. She leaves, besides her husband, two sons, Eugene and J. W. Glenn. Mrs. Glenn was one of the best of women—a lady of refined taste, kind, charitable and generous—and a devout Catholic and she has left behind a large circle of friends who will sadly miss her from amongst their number. During her last days she was tenderly cared for by her faithful sister, Miss Kelly, who came here from Columbus, Ohio, about three months ago and who watched over her with undying devotion until the spark of life had gone out. The funeral was held Monday last from Holy Rosary Church, where solemn requiem mass was celebrated. The pall bearers were John Lally, P. H. McPartlin, Edw. Burke, Jno. J. McHale, Edward Mea.

Death of Louis P. Condon.

Louis P. Condon, one of the best known printers of the city, died last Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of his sister, 1017 Fourth street north. It was the peaceful termination of a long and painful suffering. He was one of the veterans of the craft in this city having worked on all the leading dailies for the past sixteen years until about one year ago, when he was obliged to give up owing to an operation performed by removing some of the bones from his crippled limb and from which operation he never fully recovered. Louis was a great favorite among the boys of No. "42" and all members of the Union here will sincerely regret his death. The funeral was held yesterday under the auspices of Typographical Union No. 42 of this city.

Attention U. T. A. S.

Pursuant to instructions embodied in the motion by which we adjourned on June 19th, '89, I hereby give notice that there will be a meeting of delegates from the C. T. A. societies of St. Paul, Minneapolis and Stillwater held in Hotel Ryan, St. Paul, on Thursday evening, July 12th, '89, at 2:30 p.m., for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements for and fixing the date of the proposed temperance picnic. It is earnestly requested that all C. T. A. societies be well represented at this meeting and be on the grounds at 7:30 sharp. This is the only notice that will be given of this meeting.

H. H. GILLEN, Chairman.

PERSONAL.

Misses Mamie and Lucy Waddick, Annie Smith and Margaret Murnane, have gone to New York and will be absent from the city for two months, Miss Murnane going to Ireland to the home of her parents.

W. H. Donahue and wife have returned from Chicago.

Mrs. John Murnane and daughter and Miss Sadie Barrett, of St. Cloud, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Celia McHale, 1816 First street south.

CITY BRIEFS.

The telephone call of THE IRISH STANDARD is 165-4.

Minneapolis received 71,870,000 pounds of freight last week and shipped 78,000,000 pounds.

The defendants in the Oakland and Silver Lake cases have won, the district court having so decided a few days ago.

F. A. Husher, editor and proprietor of the Norwegian Republican newspaper, has made an assignment to Charles Kittleson.

St. Mary's hospital will soon have a new addition. Its present quarters are too small for the number of patients to be cared for.

Chief Deputy Grain Inspector A. C. Clausen has been appointed chief grain inspector in place of J. A. James, by the grain and warehouse commissioners.

Dr. Ames writes from Paris that he is in excellent health and spirits, but says that the very atmosphere of Europe smelts of war. He says it must come sooner or later.

A new religion known as the Christadelphians has found admirers in Minneapolis. Rev. L. T. Nichols, a Scotchman, formerly of Portland, Ore., is the founder of it.

Work has been begun on the new church in St. Stephen's parish. The building will be of Kettle River sand stone and will cost $40,000. Ring & Tobin are the contractors.

The Scandia bank stockholders has elected the following directors: Judge Vandenberg, R. B. Anderson, A. E. Johnson, R. Sunde, and A. C. Haugan. The directors will choose officers to day.

The rumor, that C. W. Shepherd, manager of the West hotel, will soon leave for Chicago to manage the Hotel Auditorium in that city, is denied by Mr. Shepherd, as well as by Col. West.

A bridge will soon surmount Thirty-sixth street at the Calhoun boulevard, and thus avoid danger to life and property at that crossing. The proposed girder bridge and abutments will cost $8,000.

The board of equalization has begun its work and will hear complaints from the millers on Monday next, and the lumbermen on Tuesday. The question of taxing wheat in storage will be discussed.

The case of E. G. Handy against the St. Paul Globe has been thrown out of court. Handy's contract specified that certain printing should be done on Sunday, but as the publishing of anything on Sunday is illegal the case was dismissed.

Thomas Slevin, the 9 year-old son of Mrs. Mary Slevin, of Cahill Settlement, died Wednesday at St. Mary's Hospital of lock-jaw, resulting from a cut on the foot. The funeral was held yesterday from the church of the Immaculate Conception.

John Benson, a well digger, residing at 721, Thirteenth avenue south, was killed in a well on First avenue south and 31st street last Monday afternoon, by a bucket falling on him in the well. He had been married but a few weeks. No inquest was held.

The big sewer tunnel in North Minneapolis is draining Hoags Lake, and City Engineer Rinker thinks it is only a question of a little time when the bottom of the lake will be exposed to the sun. Connections are being made with the big sewer all along the line.

General Manager Byron of the Exposition is happy now, as the coming big show promises to eclipse anything that has yet been given in the big building on the east side of the river. There have been so many applications for space that the manager is at a loss to know where to put them all.

The different companies of the M. N. G., have gone into camp at Lake City. There are about 700 men in all there. Company A gave an exhibition drill yesterday and Lake City people gave the regiment a reception Thursday. Altogether the boys are having a jolly time of it.

The city detectives recovered $7,588 worth of stolen property during June. The police commission has instructed the superintendent to arrest the keepers of houses and the inmates of the same on First street, and have them arraigned in the police court monthly as was the custom five years ago.

The contract for the new court house and city hall has been let. Haglin & Morse got the granite at $251,339.80. There was a difference of $115,000 between the bid of the Minneapolis men, who were the lowest, and that of the highest bidder. The inner court will be built of stone and not of brick.

At a meeting of the convention committees of the C. T. A. union of Hennepin county, held at Crusaders hall last Sunday afternoon, a resolution was passed extending thanks to Hon. P. H. Kelly, of St. Paul, for his generous contribution to the Hennepin county societies for the payment of the expenses of their late state convention.

Five boys, who gave their names as John Kelly, Al Church, John Napier, William Jones and Frank Green were arrested Monday night for robbing Chas. Shapiro's jewelry store, at 211 First street north of $70 worth of watches and revolvers. They were held to the grand jury without bail. They belong to a tough gang of St. Paul boys, who are well known to the police.

The Omaha railroad company has begun the construction of a new elevator near Bass Lake, southwest of Lake Calhoun. There will be two buildings one of these will have a capacity of 1,500,000 bushels, and the other 250,000 bushels, making it the largest grain elevator in the Northwest. The new elevator will be operated by P. H. Peavey & Co., and will cost when completed about $180,000. It will be ready for business October 15.

Henry Hage a young man who came to the city a short time ago from Dakota, with the view of marrying a Miss Dysart at 2517 Monroe street, disappeared from his friends about a week ago, and did not show up until last Saturday. His face was all torn and bruised and he told his friends that he was waylaid on his way to the barber shop, and carbolic acid thrown in his face, and then driven into the country where he was robbed of some $20,000. The police paid no attention to the story as they regarded it as a rather fishy affair throughout.

The Grand Forks Plaindealer announces the appointment of J. G. Brinkerhoff, of Stephen, Minnesota, to the office of deputy collector for the support of Neche Dakota, in place of E. W. Conway removed. Mr. Conway was, until appointed to the above office, a resident of Minneapolis, and was associated with Attorney Wm. Kenny. He is a good lawyer, a forcible speaker and always made friends wherever he lived. Though sorry to hear of his removal from the office the duties of which he has so faithfully executed for the past three years, his friends will be glad to think that he will likely return to his old home in Minneapolis where he will be received with open arms. His friends in Pembina county will no doubt prevail upon him to remain where he is, and accept the office of district attorney at the next election which he refused at the last.

An order was issued to the motor conductors last Wednesday, to deposit $25 each with the company's secretary at the Thirty-first street junction, for uniforms similar to those worn by the street car conductors. The motor employees, who are affected by this order, take exceptions to the wisdom of the company in obliging them at starvation wages, to deposit so much money for an ornament that is neither ornamental nor conducive to the proper operating of the road. Some of them think that the company's order may force a good many men to leave the service, and seek employment elsewhere. Those who remain will be forced to do so because of their inability to get work in other places. The men, to a man, denounce the company for its recent orders, but are careful where they express themselves.

HUMOROUS DRIFTWOOD

"Large checks" for ladies' dresses is an old, old fashion. Ask any man blessed with a wife and daughters.

A great man is happiest when he can sit down and write his memoirs and forget all the mean things he knows about himself.

The tenor in a church choir found to his horror that his voice all at once became unpleasantly thick. He strained it, but without any good effect.

"I want to write a letter to the Secretary of the Navy. Shall I address him as 'Your Excellency'?" "Ob, no; use the term, 'Your Warship.'"

A Financier.—"Dorothy, I think you are dreadfully extravagant to buy all those things." "But, my dear Rufus, I had them charged."

"Reduce your gas bills seventy-five per cent. Secret for one dollar," read an advertisement which a man answered. He received this terse reply by return of mail:—Burn Kerosene."

Well, Doctor, how did you enjoy your African journey? How did you like the savages?"

"Oh, they are very kind-hearted people; they wanted to keep me there for dinner."

Wife: "Tom, I must have some money to pay what I owe at the hair store. I owe for a skeleton-bang, and a switch, and a..."

Husband: "Clara, spare me the hair-owing details."
