In Boston much excellent literary talent is necessarily shut up in state prison, for since Pleasures of Contemplation. has something to contribute to the grand total that flows in an irrigating and fruitifying stream from the Hub, it is impossible to deprive any man of his liberty without at least faintly lessening the general intellectual illumination. To overcome this, a publication has been started at the Charlestown penitentiary called the Mentor, in which appear many gems of purest ray serene.

The Mentor has 800 subscribers who can't get away. Sometimes it contains poetry, generally devoted to such subjects as "Memory" or "Meditation" themes, of which there is abundant material. The opportunity for meditation in a state's prison, observes the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, is almost as vast as in driving a sulky cultivator through a 160-acre field of corn. There is the same absence of disturbing influences, and after the two hundred and sixty-fifth row of corn, let the ground be dusty and the sun hot, it is of little consequence whether the meditator is in the Charlestown prison or a field; the monotony and discomfort does not differ in degree. Meditation is a composing and pacifying occupation, and had its charms been courted with greater diligence before the advent to the Charlestown prison instead of after, many of those there might still be enjoying freedom outside its walls; but the literary world might lose much in introspective thought.

Pride seems to be one of the universal attributes of the human race.
Even in the so-called "alum" districts of large cities does it come to light. A lady who is a visitor for one of the charitable societies became much interested in a very poor but apparently respectable family living on the top floor of one of the old-style "tenements," relates the New York Times. Every time she visited them she was annoyed by the staring and whispering of the other women living in the building. One day she said to the mother of the family:
"Your neighbors seem very curious to know who and what I am and the nature of my business with you." "They do," was the answer. "Do."

A Sweet Breath.
Is a never failing sign of a healthy stomach. When the breath is bad the stomach is out of order. There is no remedy in the world equal to Kodol Dyspepsia cure for curing indigestion, dyspepsia and all stomach disorders. Mrs. Mary S.
Crick, of White Plains, Ky., writes: "I have been a dyspeptic for years, tried all kind of remedies but continued to grow worse. By the use of Kodol I began to improve at once, and after taking a few bottles am fully restored to weight, health and strength and can eat whatever I like." Kodol digests what you eat you about it?" "Indeed they do me'am." "And do you tell them?"

"No, indeed, I do not." "What do you tell them?" "I just tell them," was the calm reply, "that you are my dressmaker and let it go at that."

People who are searching for novelties in the way of entertainment may get a hint from the city of Mansfield, O., which recently held a unique and glorious festival under the title of a "Bills' Picnic." The plan was simple.
Every William in the town was made welcome. The procession to the picnic grove was headed by a "billy" goat, and a part of the day's fun consisted of a ball game between the fat Bills and the lean Hills. There was also a trial of strength between the law Bills and the shoe Hills. That kind of a picnic ought at least to serve the purpose of making the people of a town better acquainted with one another, and certainly the Toms and Jacks could find as good a leader of the parade as the Bills had.

Justice Grantham is called the parexcellence murder judge of England.
In one day at Leeds recently he tried three murder cases—two before luncheon and one after. The justice is an inveterate smoker and in the course of the day leaves the bench four or five times to snatch a few whiffs from a stumpy little pipe which he has used for years.

The newspapers have had a coal question to discuss for two years in succession. Last fall it was Admiral Schley's "inability to coal," instead of the country's, that provoked discussion. Such events may change the popular opinion regarding "Old King Cole," who was once reputed to be a merry old soul.

In addition to horn deposits, Death valley contains an immense salt field, which may in time become valuable. It is about 30 miles long, from two to four miles wide, and the crust of salt probably averages one foot in thickness. Refining would be necessary before the salt could be placed upon the market.

SEVERE ATTACK OF GRIP.

Cured by One Bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"When I had an attack of the grip last winter (the second one) I actually cured myself with one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Frank W.
Perry, Editor of the Enterprise, Shortsville, N. Y. "This is the honest truth.
I at time kept from coughing myself to pieces by taking a tea-spoonful of this remedy, and when the coughing spell would come on at night I would take a dose and it seemed that in the briefest interval the cough would pass off and I would go to sleep perfectly free from cough and its accompanying pains. To say that the remedy acted as a surprise is putting it very mildly. I had no idea that it would or could knock out the grip, simply because I had never tried it for such a purpose, but it did, and it seemed with the second attack of coughing the remedy caused it to not only be of less duration, but the pains were far less severe, and I had not used the contents of one bottle before Mr. Grip had bid me adieu." For sale by Webb Bros.

Beauty And Strength.
Are desirable. You are strong and vigorous, when your blood is pure.
Many, nay, most women, fail to properly digest their food, and so become pale, sallow, thin and weak, while the brightness, freshness and beauty of the skin and complexion, depart. Remedy this unpleasant evil, by eating nourishing food, and taking a small dose of Herbine after each meal, to digest what you have eaten. 50c at E. L. Luderbaugh.

Walks Without Crutches.
I was much afflicted with rheumatism, writes Ed. C. Nud, Iowa, Sedgewick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me. I used 350c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons, all express themselves as being benefitted by it. I now walk without crutches, able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c 50c and $1.00

A Great Sensation.
There was a great sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who is expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption.
He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis and Grip are numerous.
It's the perfect remedy for all throat and lung trouble. Price 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed by Webb Bros. Trial

Good for Children.
The pleasant to take and harmless. One minute cough cure gives immediate relief in all cases of cough, croup and lagrippe because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heats and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues.
E. L. Luderbaugh.

Save The Loved Ones.
Mrs. Mary A. Villet, Newcastle, Colo., writes: "I believe Ballard's Horsebalm Syrup is superior to any other cough medicine and will do all that is claimed for it, and it is so pleasant to take. My little girl wants to take it when she has no need for it." Ballard's Horsebalm Syrup is the great cure for all pulmonary ailments. 25c, 50c and $1.00 at E. L.

A Thoughtful Man.
M. M. Appleton of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr.
King's New Life-Pill and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c at Webb Bros. For 100c a bottle sent.
For liver troubles and constipation.
There's nothing better in creation than Early Bile Beans, the famous little pill.
They always effect a cure and save doctor bills.

Little Early Bile Beans are different from all other pills. They do not weaken the system, but they are a tonic to the tissues by arousing the secretions and restoring the liver to the full performance of its functions naturally. E. L. Luderbaugh.
