Enjoys the News

Oscar Lowenstein who now lives at Los Angeles, Cal., sends us the following breezy letter:

Dear Sir:—The Jasper News must come but of course it can't keep coming without a little money from this end of the line part of the time. I could not do without the News from my old home. It comes every Monday whether any one else writes or not just the same. The year of 1906 is not paid and I send order for the same. Wishing you success and happiness I remain a subscriber to the News. I love to hear of you folks wading the snow and mud and talk about z-z-ro. If I could I would send you a bouquet of roses. I have been here 4 years in May and there has never been a day I could not step out and pick roses. Yours,

In Days of Yore

The Jasper News, of Jasper, Mo., is a recent addition to our exchange list. It reminds us of the good old days back in Carthage when we used to go swimming at Flat Rock, Diving Rock and Old Sycamore. It was "Skinny" and "Joe" in those days. Now it is Lynn and J. Gordon.

The above from the "Johnstown Breeze," published at Johnstown, Colo., by one of our boyhood chums, in those days simply plain "Joe" Smith, but now J. Gordon, touches a tender spot in our memory, when it mentions "Flat Rock," "Diving Rock" and "Old Sycamore." Never will we forget—or do we want to—the days of yore, when these old swimming holes formed such an important part of our existence.

Fine Plymouth Rocks

Wm. Clouser, the well known poultry man of the Zion neighborhood, shipped a consignment of high grade Banded Plymouth Rock cockerels to Oklahoma last week. Also a bunch of the fine birds to Cartersville, which was the second shipment to the latter place this season.

BY BRUTAL TREATMENT.

haunted and a few moments later rolled over on the floor, apparently a corpse. He was then picked up and carried to his room and a doctor was summoned but it was too late, the brutal treatment had done its work.

The authorities seemed to regret the occurrence very much and offers all possible assistance in bringing the guilty parties to justice. The body was examined by physicians to learn if possible what had caused the death but they gave nothing out as to what evidence they found. The inmates who told the story as above given were patients, who were considered practically cured gave the information in such a way that would lead one to suppose that they were telling the truth. Wesley Spaid interviewed them at length and they told the story exactly as they told the authorities of the asylum.

THE PEOPLE AROUSED

Arrangements to Prosecute Have Been Made

When the above facts connected with the death became known in Jasper and the vicinity northwest of town the people became thoroughly aroused and began at once to take steps to a thorough investigation of the matter and if the evidence justifies to prosecute the guilty parties. A meeting of neighbors was called and Messrs Gentry and Matzger were appointed to push the matter. A subscription paper was started and in a few hours upwards of $200 was raised in Jasper and vicinity to be used in pushing the case. Messrs Bert Webb and J. W. Spaid went to Carthage yesterday morning and engaged the services of Attorney Curry of Webb City, who promises to push the prosecution to the bitter end. Mr. Curry is the man who ran the Buckfoot gang down a few years ago and has the reputation of being a stayer. Tom Martin of Lamar has also been engaged to help in the case.

It is safe to say that the matter will be probed to the bottom and if matters are as they appear at present the men responsible will be prosecuted to the limit.

The Funeral.

The remains of the unfortunate young man were brought to Jasper Tuesday morning and taken out to his home where funeral services were conducted by Rev. O. W. Jones after which they were laid to rest in the Waters graveyard. The young man was 25 years old and had lived in this vicinity for thirteen years. He has always been an industrious young man and was well liked by all who knew him. He was of a quiet disposition. He suffered a severe case of lagrippe about a year ago and another one last fall which is thought to have affected his mind in some way causing spells of moroseness. The family have the sympathy of all in their sad affliction.

Notice.

As I have quit business I desire to thank my friends and customers for their patronage and desire all who know themselves indebted to me to settle the same at once.
