

Autumn is Here

Winter is Coming!

The summer is gone, fall is here, and already one begins to feel the sly approach of old King Winter.

That means you'll have to have that new heater pretty soon now if you're not going to be caught napping when the first cold snap comes.

Our stock of stoves is new and very large, containing the newest, brightest patterns of Oaks, Cole's Hot Blasts, wood-stoves, and catchy designs in stove boards.

Our stoves are now on the sample floor, and we invite your inspection.

A large quantity of pipe, hoods, oil rugs, shovels, etc.
Second hand stoves galore.
