The Drawback.
The sage who remarked that "every cloud has a silver lining" might have gone on to explain that the lining isn't visible from the position which the majority of us have to view the clouds.

Very Similar.
Mrs. Kuru—Although I have been to school and college and am supposed to be educated, I always mix up these two countries—Rororo and Mermoo.—Maggie's sister, Dintner.

What a "Twister" is.
In life insurance parlance the "twister" is that smooth-tongued emissary who goes about trying to persuade you to surrender your policy in a company with which you are perfectly content on the ground that the rival company which he represents will surely yield better results.

Pleasure in Life.
The life of a good man is not at all in want of pleasure, as a certain appendage, but contains pleasure in itself; for he is not a good man who does not rejoice in beautiful actions; and actions according to virtue will be in themselves delectable.—Aristotle.

Do Away With the Blues.
Well, now, when all is said and done, after you recovered from that last fit of blues, did it do you, or anyone else, any good to have it? Make that last fit the last one.

Poor Horse.
The family horse was shedding his coat. "Oh, mamma," exclaimed small Eddie, "do come and look at old Tob here. I believe he's all molten!"
