

Neighborhood News.

Written by our assistant editors.

ZION.

MISS GLADYS BALLARD.

Mrs. McCall of Kenoma, is visiting Jess Corder and family the past week.—Mrs. Inez Earl visited Mrs. Edith Gardner Thursday.—Miss Jessie Zinn of Jasper, spent Friday night with Miss Edna Ballard.—Charley Teeter and family and Ellis Cearnal and family of Jasper, visited Monday and Tuesday with J. R. Cearnal and family.—Mrs. Cassavan, of Carthage, spent a few days the first of the week with Mrs. Isaac Thompson.—Mrs. Chas. Simpson of Maple Grove spent Tuesday with Mrs. J. F. Curtis.—Herbert Pollmer has been quite ill the past few days.—Wm. Baird and wife and Otto Goddard and family, of Lakeside, spent a few days with Cap. Tiller and family.—Misses Carrie and Fannie Storbeck and Lucy Hackett visited Tuesday afternoon at Pleasant View school. Miss Creola Patrick is teacher.—Misses Ruth and Isal Vaught visited Mrs. Marnie Emsinger Wednesday. Mrs. Emsinger accompanied them to Mrs. Myrtle site's in the afternoon.—Mrs. Lowenstein and daughter, Edna, of Carthage, are spending a few days with Mrs. C. Pollmer.—Mrs. Isaac Thompson spent a couple of days with relatives in Carthage. Mrs. Sarah Harker accompanied her home.—Mrs. Homer Sherril and children visited J. R. Cearnal and family Wednesday.—The fine new house of Fred Earl's is progressing nicely.—Miss Lea Vaught spent Thursday night with Narcissa Keepper.—Will Clouser and Will Strecker were Carthage visitors Friday and Saturday.—The Zion B. Y. P. U. were entertained at the home of C. V. Ballard and family Friday evening. About 42 young folks were present. Refreshments were served and all departed at a late hour.—Miss Florence Stratton, of Jasper, spent Saturday and Sunday with Velma Mackey.—Frank Magers and family of Lamar, spent Sunday with J. F. Curtis and family.—Fred Kerrick and family visited Sunday with Joe Powell and family.—Larken Vaught of Centerville, Iowa, arrived Thursday to make an extended visit with Will Vaught's and Will McConnell's.—Fred Merrel, of Jasper, is drilling a well for Chauncey Earl about half a mile east of Walker Hubbard's.—Veda Lichtenwalter and James Brock, a cousin of Lelia Anthony, started to school at Bloomingdale last week.—Ralph Berry and family visited Tom Brock and family Sunday.—A. A. Foster and wife visited relatives at Cartersville Saturday and Sunday.—Grady Campbell returned from Oklahoma a last week.—Mrs. Snyder and daughter, Mabel, of Jasper, Will Peterson and family and Lemuel Thomas were guests of C. S. Johnston and family Sunday.—A. L. Thomas and wife, C. V. Ballard and wife, Hamp Campbell and wife, and Mrs. Dye Sunderland and daughter, Martella, visited Mrs. Foltraer and son, Herbert Sunday.—Will Clouser and family, visited Sunday with Oscar Pollmer and wife.—Miss Nina Loudenslager visited Mrs. J. F. Curtis Thursday.—Miss Emma Dodd, of Jasper, visited the week end with her sister, Mrs. Henry Covert.—Misses Ora and Hazel Foster visited Miss Hazel Carter, Sunday.—Mrs. Will Metzger and Mrs. Estep were guests of Mrs. C. S. Johnston Thursday.—Charley Cartwright, formerly of this neighborhood, but now of Fort Collins, Colo., was married last week to a young lady of that place.—Mr. Lindon and wife of Iowa, are visiting Jim McDonald of Dudenville.—Misses Ruth, Isal and Lea Vaught Guy McConnell and family, and Floyd Thomas, were guests of Will McConnell and family Sunday.—Mrs. Meador and Valera visited Mrs. J. R. Cearnal Thursday.—The Ladies Aid Society met with Mrs. A. T. Dean last Thursday all day to quilt. There were 17 present.

DEWEY.

MRS. MAY MATTHEWS.

A letter from Joplin requesting the name of any by drinking who have attained fame. Don't say he will send them a new Keely Cure, Or send them the whiskey straight, simple, and pure; If we have any drinking men in our old town, May they or their names not to Joplin go down. A second new well in Cary town drilled by pure and soft water is constantly filled. Mary Estey will be home on Thursday at two. Be sure to be there if you're sewing to do. There seems to be some sickness yet among stock.—A fine mule just died which belonged to Tom Brook. At Mr. Elliott's two horses are down. And others are sick roundabout Cary town. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bull of Carthage—Were visiting home folks which now seems the rage. Grandmother Phipps had from Jasper come out. To see Glendine Simmons without any doubt. Grandmother Simmons came out for a day. And she with Miss Glendine just made a short stay. And Otto Goddard and his small family.—At mother's are spending the days happily. The Ducketts and Campbells are moving away.—Ira Bull will go see them for just a short stay. Mrs. Steek came from Texas to see Mrs. Rice. The talk at the school she gave was very nice. Paul and June Baston of Joplin have gone. To spend a few days at their dear father's home. The corn shredders made on Dewey a raid. And all the corn fodder into hash they have made. The Bushys and Marcums, Alexanders and Blauth Have food that will melt in any cow's mouth. Miss Estey is attending the teachers affair. Ray Karls and V. Matthews will also be there. For two or three days the session will last.—No school will held till meeting is past. Mr. Will Cline doesn't go quite so slow He has a new auto to ride in, you know. Sale is planning for a Christmas tree. So they'll commence early, and ready they'll be. Mr. Ray Karls and Vernon Matthews, Mrs. E. Turner and others they'll be loose. Are going to get up a program right now. So come out and help them and don't be too slow. Mr. Switzer and three children from Colorado and Orin Buster and family from Jasper took dinner Sunday with Woods, Buster. The re were 14 present.—Mrs. John Carter of Oklahoma and Miss Vaneh Simmons are spending a few days visiting Clarence Simmons and Mrs. Rice.—Harvey Goff and Kate Goff are attending court this week, getting the estate of Kate Goff's father settled up.—Joe Rose and family of Carthage and Tom Flowers and family spent Sunday with A. D. Estey.—Mr. Greenwood has a very sore eye.—Mr. Turner and Mrs. Blauth are on the sick list.

DIAMOND

MRS. CHARLES ELTING.

Mrs. John Buzzard was called to Pittsburg last week, to the bedside of her grandmother who has been quite ill for about ten days. Grandma Berry has passed her eightieth year, and her extreme age will, it is feared, make her recovery slow.—Several from our neighborhood attended the lyceum entertainment at Jasper, Wednesday evening.—Mrs. Lunt spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Osborn.—Florence Milton is spending a week with the family of Lee Mitchell.—Ward & Moulton, of Jasper, were in our community last week buying cattle.—Mesdames John and Charley Buzzard spent Tuesday with Mrs. Fred Mitchell.—Mrs. John Hartley called on Mrs. Chas. Elting Tuesday afternoon.—Mrs. York and daughter, Jane, spent the latter part of the week visiting relatives.—Mrs. Charley Pugh and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Hane and family.—Mrs. Tom Wood spent last Wednesday with Mrs. F. Wood.—Carrie Serafini spent Sunday with Maud Pfender.—Nina Milton spent the week end with her grandpa Milton.—The following young ladies enjoyed a slumber party at Mrs. Chas. Elting's Wednesday evening: Mary Serafini, Almira York, Jessie Hane and Beatrice Mitchell.—Mr. Seela and family of Golden City, called at Mr. Gulick's Thursday evening.—Theo Mitchell and wife entertained the following at dinner Sunday: Tom Wood and family of Duval, Almira York and Mary Serafini.—Charles Elting sold some fat hogs Tuesday.—Sherred Berryhill and wife spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Parker son.—Wesley Cline and wife of Jasper, spent Saturday and Sunday with John Buzzard and family.—Mr. Neland and wife of North Dakota are visiting Lesby Garrett and family. They are on their way to Florida, where they intend to spend the winter.—Theo Mitchell helped Mr. Osborn put up his kaffir corn last week.—Mrs. Wood and Mrs. Hane spent Monday with Mrs. Charley Wood.—Mrs. Tom Wardlow spent Friday with Mrs. Elting.—Ralph Cline of Jasper, came out Friday evening and stayed until Sunday with his uncle, Chas. Nett and family.—The country was filled with hunters Saturday but we think there were more hunters than game.

MALTA.

MISS LILLIAN MAGERS

John Welsh and family spent Sunday with Dan Day and family.—J. P. Bell is hauling gravel this week.—Mr. Rush has built a fine new barn on his farm.—E. G. Magers, who visited his parents the latter part of the week, returned to Kansas City Monday.—Joe Brenneman is doing some carpenter work for Mr. Tiller of Zion neighborhood.—Edgar Hastings is husking corn for G. M. Magers.—Bro. Reid of Jasper is holding a protracted meeting at Mount Carmel. Everybody is invited to come.—Edgar Hastings spent Sunday with Mr. Baker.—Lura Hastings spent Sunday with Edith Stansberry.—The Barton county farmers are getting busy and working the roads, and building some fine cement culverts.—E. L. B. Nunn spent Sunday at Mr. Hastings.—Miss Edna Ballard entertained the B. Y. P. U. members at her home Friday evening. The evening was spent in games and conversation. Those present were: Mable Little, Alice Templin, Fern Powell, Jessie Zinn, Carrie and Ethel Probert, Stella Thomas, Grace Foster, Hazel Carter, Clara, Geneva and Kenyon Hubbard, Mrs. Fred Earl, Mrs. Fred Isenman, Ceola and Velma Mackey, Pearl Johnson, Lillian Magers, Roy Mackey, Corwin Powell, Charley and Floyd Thomas, Lester McConnell, Joe Probert, Fred Earl, Fred, Frank and John Isenman, Dan and Will Magers, Clarence and Earl Keith, Winifred Carter, Leland Earl, Leonard Seley, Lonnie Strecker, Harold Schoeller. Refreshments were served and all departed declaring a fine time.—Lillian Magers and her Aunt Emma spent Wednesday at the Jarvis home.—Mr. Morgan moved from the Bell property on Tim Mackey's farm.—W. C. Mackey's new barn is prospering nicely.—Mr. Morgan of Webb City is husking corn for J. P. Bell.—The Pleasant Valley school, under the instruction of Miss Nora Lawless, is prospering finely.—The Mount Carmel Sunday School had a picnic Saturday in the grove close to Lamar. All reported a fine time.—Daniel Brenneman spent Sunday afternoon with Will Magers.—Miss Florence Stratton spent Sunday with Velma Mackey.—Will Vaught and family, Floyd Thomas and Guy McConnell spent Sunday with Will McConnell and family.—Hazel and Ora Foster and Hazel Carter spent Sunday afternoon with Kenyon Hubbard.—Larkin Vaught of Iowa is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Will McConnell, and son, Will Vaught.—Mike Isenman and family spent Sunday with Mr. Sunderland of the Mount Carmel neighborhood.—W. C. Mackey and family attended the protracted meeting at Mount Carmel Sunday night.—Mr. Foster and wife spent Sunday with their parents.—The young men's class will have to hustle if they beat the Busy Workers. There were 21 in the Busy Worker class and 19 in the young men's class Sunday.—G. M. Magers and wife made a business trip to Carthage one day last week.

DUBLIN.

MRS. BERTHA WEBBER.

Mesdames Crawford, Snyder and Melton called at the home of Mrs. E. J. Armstrong Thursday morning and they went to Mrs. Grant Miller's and spent the balance of the day.—Miss Bertie Garner visited Steve Garrett and wife one afternoon of last week.—Miss Mossa Grider visited home folks last week.—Mr. Hamm and daughter, Myrtle, were up from Carytown last Friday and stayed over night with Mr. Wells and wife. They returned to their home Saturday, taking with them some feed and household goods.—Mrs. Vincent called at Will Lyman's Sunday.—Bertha Webber called on Mrs. Esell Taffner and family Sunday forenoon.—Mrs. E. J. Armstrong purchased a fly shuttle loom last week.—Lon Bedell called on Milo Butler Sunday afternoon.—Earl Garner and wife called on Steve Garrett and wife Sunday afternoon.—Emma King visited Bertie Garner one evening last week.—Mrs. E. J. Armstrong was shopping in Jasper one evening last week.

LEBANON.

MISS ALTHEA ARMSTRONG.

Mrs. Fannie Ray sold three mules to T. S. Kunkler last week.—Chas. Woodrow now is building an addition to their house. It is their intention for Mr. Woodrow's father and mother, who are both in very bad health, in future to make their home with them.—Mrs. J. C. Law has been suffering the past week with rheumatism.—A new little girl arrived at the home of W. B. Lyman on Wednesday, November 12. We wish her a bright, happy life.—G. W. Vincent made some improvements on his silo last week.—Martha Rex gathered walnuts at A. E. Armstrong's last Wednesday.—Mrs. Winter sold a calf to H. O. Earl one day last week.—N. M. Gumm and son, Clarence, of Miller, Lawrence county, visited at the home of F. H. Miller last week. Mr. Gumm is Mrs. Miller's brother.—Mrs. C. F. Rex and Mrs. Chas. Woodrow and daughter, Mae, called on Misses Laura and Althea Armstrong last Wednesday afternoon.—Mrs. Griffitt has recently moved out on the Bair farm.—Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson visited several days last week at the home of Milo Butler.—Mrs. H. H. Sharp and Mrs. F. F. Lear, of Jasper, visited at the Armstrong home Thursday afternoon.—Mrs. Fred Shannon, of Stotts City, daughter of L. H. Miller and wife, and Mrs. W. H. Wormington, of LaRussel, sister of L. H. Miller, visited at the Miller home last week.—Mrs. Leola Miller is gradually improving from a relapse.

If you use Golden Days Coffee you can always find it at our store.

J. D. HARBUR.

Farmers and Merchants Bank

JASPER, MISSOURI

Capital Stock $10,000.00
Surplus and profits 3,500.00

which came last week.—We are sorry to learn that the sick in the L. H. Miller home have each recently suffered a relapse, and are not improving quite so well. We hope the relapse in each case may prove to be slight.—Mrs. F. H. Miller and daughters, Edna and Eva, called on Laura and Althea Armstrong Sunday morning.—Orville and Guy Andrews spent Sunday at the Ray home.—Adam Malone and family spent Sunday at F. H. Miller's.—Mrs. Arlene Ray spent Wednesday with home folks.—Miss Nellie Lane spent Sunday at W. S. Lane's.—Mrs. Winter spent Sunday at the home of her brother, Fred Winter, and family.—Mrs. Allen Miller's father spent Sunday at the Allen Miller home.—Norris Crumm and family spent Saturday at Chas. Woodrow's.—F. I. Hill had a very sick horse last week but Mr. Hill was very fortunate not to lose him, for he lost a valuable young horse several weeks ago.—There was no preaching at Lebanon Church Sunday afternoon as was previously announced, for the reason that Rev. Mr. Cox was elsewhere engaged in a protracted meeting.—Mrs. Newsome, from near Nashville, visited at Frank Thacker's Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Newsome is Mrs. Thacker's mother.—J. H. Selsor and wife spent Sunday afternoon at W. B. Lyman's.—G. W. Wood and family spent Sunday at Frank Thacker's.—Mrs. J. W. Phillips has been suffering from an attack of rheumatism.—Oren Heckathorne spent Sunday with the Ray boys.—Hugh Phillips spent Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Phillips, near Maple Grove.—We wish to make a correction—it is Fort Madison, Iowa, where Robert Lane is located, instead of Madison, as we stated in last week's items.—H. A. Vincent and wife were callers at the W. B. Lyman home Sunday afternoon.—Guy Norris of Lamar, was a caller at the Lane home Sunday evening.

BLUE.

MRS. J. R. HATCHER.

George Fowler and wife and son Fred visited with J. R. Hatcher and family and Drue Sharp and family Saturday.—Roy and Marion King hauled corn from Ben King's near Boston last week.—Mrs. Earle Ruckel visited Mrs. Alice Keltner Monday.—Mrs. Ed Onstott spent Sunday afternoon at the Jim Hull home of Blue Star.—Joe Rand and wife spent Sunday with John Yates and family.—William Hayes of May, Okla., is visiting J. R. Hatcher and family and other relatives here.—U. Brown and family called on Paris Taylor and wife Sunday afternoon.—Mrs. John King and Emma and Ernest Yates are on the sick list.—Mrs. Paris Taylor is still slowly improving.

Report Cards for Country Schools.

The News can supply country school teachers with report cards for their schools. We have the card authorized by the county superintendent. One cent each is the price.

Saved His Foot.

H. D. Ely, of Bantaon, O., suffered from horrible ulcer on his foot for four years. Doctor advised amputation, but he refused and reluctantly tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve as a last resort. He then wrote: "I used your salve and my foot was soon completely cured." Best remedy for burns, cuts, bruises and eczema. Get a box to-day. Only 25c. All druggists or by mail. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

Mr Farmer:

When you go to figuring on your repairs this winter, be sure to get our figures. We have the goods and nobody beats our prices.

We have on hand

a carload of Royal American Fencing and a big stock of Barb Wire, Nails and Galvanized Roofing.

A Few of Our Leaders:

Majestic Ranges, Monogram Cook Stoves, Illinois Heaters and Perfection Oil Heaters; One-Minute Washing Machines—both hand and power; Rayo Lamps.

See Us Before Buying.

Sharp Mercantile Company
JASPER

Deardorff's Tie Sale

TWO DAYS ONLY

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
November 21-22

Any 50-cent tie in the house at 35c—three for $1.00 Windsor for ladies and children at a sacrifice. A brand new invoice of the latest thing in gentlemen's neckwear—the rich velvets in many shades and combinations. THEY ALL GO IN THIS SALE at 35 cents each or three for $1.00.

H. J. DEARDORFF
The Jasper Clothier