LEBANON.

Miss ALTHEA ARMSTRONG.

Marshal Smith and son Chester cut hedge for R. P. Lane Monday. —Vernie and Jas. Ray hauled rock from the Armstrong place Monday. —Mrs. George Brown left Tuesday for a short visit with her sisters, Mrs. John May and Mrs. Samuel Rhodes, of Farmington, Ill., after which the three ladies will go on an extended visit to Dorris, Cal., where their brother Samuel McKee and other relatives are living. —H. E. Norris is building a good sized and comfortable barn for his stock, in place of the one which was recently destroyed by fire. —J. H. Selsor was taken violently ill at 11 o'clock Saturday night with a bad spell of heart action. The doctor and several neighbors were called in and he soon revived and while he is yet very weak it is hoped that he is on the way to recovery. —G. W. Vincent and R. P. Lane both had a supply of wood sawed last week. —Geo. Wood has finished plowing 40 acres of land for A. E. Armstrong on the J. H. Selsor farm. —Mrs. R. P. Lane and daughter Miss Nellie were Carthage visitors Saturday. —Mrs. H. Lee and daughter, Mrs. Ralph Hill, and Master Paul Hill called on Misses Laura and Althea Armstrong Thursday. —Myron Miller and Ross Wastell, who live west of Jasper, visited the Ray boys one day and night last week. —J. H. Selsor made a business trip to Webb City Monday and Tuesday of last week. —Bert Lee of Colorado Springs, who has been visiting his parents, H. Lee and family, left Monday for Springfield, where he has employment on the railway. Mrs. Lee, who is yet in Colorado, will soon join her husband in Springfield. —A. E. Armstrong, H. Lee and family, Ralph Hill and family, Mrs. Martha Rex and Mrs. Fred Winter were visitors at the J. H. Selsor home Sunday. —Mrs. W. S. Lane and son Theodore visited at R. P. Lane's Sunday. —Althea Armstrong received a bright and interesting letter from Miss Sadie Miller, of Monticello, Ark., in which she says they are all well and pleasantly situated in most respects, in their new home. She also says The Jasper News is like a letter from home, so we would suggest to other correspondents let us remember our friends who are far away and perhaps thinking of us and their old home, and try to make each article we write more interesting and helpful. —Mrs. H. Lee and daughter, Mrs. Hill, visited at Mr. Harley's Friday. —Mrs. H. R. Goodrich and Miss Mae Woodrow spent Thursday afternoon at C. S. Andrews. —Mr. Harley and family spent Sunday at John Lee's. —Miss Hattie Gill spent Saturday night and Sunday with the Misses Andrews. —Little Eva Miller has been quite sick but better at this writing. —John Brown and wife spent Sunday at the C. S. Andrews home. —John Lee and family spent Sunday at Frank Thacker's. —Henry Graham and family, W. B. Lyman and family, Mr. Hale and family of this neighborhood, with a host of other guests, were present and enjoyed to the fullest extent the festivities of the Foster-Keith nuptials, at the Foster home Sunday, the in-fare dinner at the Keith home Monday, and the old fashioned charivari at the Keith home Monday night, which proved to be a typical up-to-date torpedo and tin-pan serenade. We join a host of friends in wishing this most worthy young couple a bright and happy future. May many blessings from the hand of God be given them, may joy and peace and prosperity attend them, and may their hearts be strong to withstand whatever may come into their lives in the way of sorrow and adversity. —The above item rightfully belongs to the Zion correspondent and we are simply joining her in good wishes for this couple and also with her will extend the same words to another couple who were married in that neighborhood the same day. They were Miss Beulah Smith, eldest daughter of Robert Smith and wife, and Mr. Ernest McConnell of Joplin. May their pathway be as bright and the sky for them as blue and the joy of their hearts as full and as great as was intended by the Creator of all, when He said of man, "And I will make for him an help meet."

MARRIED LAST SUNDAY.

Miss Grace Foster Becomes Bride of Clarence Keith.

A very pretty home wedding occurred Sunday at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Foster five miles east of Jasper, when their eldest daughter, Miss Grace Foster, was united in marriage to Mr. Clarence Keith.

Rev. J. A. Prince, a minister of the M. E. Church, residing in Carthage and a close friend of the bride's family pronounced the ceremony.

Charley Keith, of Carterville, uncle of the groom, played the wedding march on the violin. Following the ceremony, the young couple received the congratulations of some 50 guests who were present, many of whom were from Carthage, Webb City and Carterville and mostly relatives of the contracting parties.

After the ceremony and congratulations a wedding banquet was served in the diningroom the table being adorned with white roses.

Many beautiful and useful presents were received. The bride looked charming in a gown of cream silk crepe de Chine trimmed with lace. She carried a bouquet of cream roses.

The bride is one of the prettiest and most popular young ladies of the Zion neighborhood where she has resided for several years, coming here from Carterville, which was also the former home of the groom. The groom who is associated with his father in farming is well known, a capable and industrious young man. Mr. and Mrs. Keith will for the present make their home with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Keith, at Woodlawn Farm three miles east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith gave a reception at their home Monday in honor of the bridal couple. The decorations consisted of bouquets of spring flowers which flouted the idea that winter still lingered. On the diningroom table, where covers were laid for many guests a profusion of violets and roses were artistically arranged.

The afternoon was spent socially and with music. In the latter Charley Keith and wife greatly enhanced the pleasure of all, Mr. Keith being leader of the gospel choir of the Carterville churches. Several friends assisted Mrs. Keith in entertaining.

The repast consisted of a most bountiful spread at which nearly 60 guests did full justice.

Besides several neighbors there were present a large number of guests from Webb City, Carterville and other places. Those from Jasper were Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Vincent, Dr. and Mrs. F. P. Lear, Mr. H. P. Fox, Misses Nora Fox and Snoda Vincent and Rev. J. T. Osborn.

Liquor Demands Big Jail.

The following telegram under a W-bb City date line appears in the Kansas City Star:

"By order of the city council, the city jail at Carterville, Mo., will be enlarged immediately. February 5, Carterville voted to legalize the sale of liquor. Since then arrests have increased to such an extent that the move has been made necessary. The four years that Carterville was dry only twenty-two arrests were made. Since saloons opened there, Tuesday, March 10, there have been 17 arrests. Business men and merchants reported Saturday night their collections were from $50 to $75 short of the week previous." —Cartilage Press.

Difference in Failures.

A Denver capitalist said bitterly, apropos of a dishonest liquidation wherein he had been caught: "There are pessimists who say that marriage is a failure; but between a marriage and a failure there's this difference: In a marriage the wife takes the husband's name, while in a failure the husband takes the wife's name."

Long Life of Clocks.

Of all machines made by man none can compare for long life with the clock. The life of a clock is as much longer than that of any other machinery as the life of a man is longer than that of a dog. The French city of Rouen has a great clock which was built in the year 1389 and is still keeping good time. Except for cleaning and a few necessary repairs it has never stopped during a period of more than five centuries. It strikes the hours and chimes the quarters.
