It's Easy To Take

Thin, pale, anemic girls need a fatty food to enrich their blood, give color to their cheeks and restore their health and strength. It is safe to say that they nearly all reject fat with their food.

is exactly what they require; it not only gives them the important element (cod-liver oil) in a palatable and easily digested form, but also the hypophosphites which are so valuable in nervous disorders that usually accompany anemia.

SCOTT'S EMULSION is a fatty food that is more easily digested than any other form of fat. A certain amount of flesh is necessary for health. You can get it in this way.

We have known persons to gain a pound a day while taking it.

New Florence.

From Last Week. Mrs. R. E. See, of Jefferson City, was a welcome visitor among her friends here last week.

Elie Hill purchased the John Devault farm south of town last week for $2,000.

R. S. Chandler received a handsome upright piano last Friday and presented it to his daughter, little Elsie.

Dudley Alexander was making calls here Friday.

Mrs. C. M. Locke entertained her brother, James Ross of St. Louis. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Anna Booth, who was on her way to St. Louis to attend school this winter.

Miss Dollie Taylor delightfully entertained her young friends at her home in the suburbs last Friday evening. Miss Mary assisted her in entertaining and served the refreshments which were enjoyed by all.

Clay See and wife are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a little boy at their home Friday, Oct. 26th.

Our people were glad to meet Rev. Robison, of Montgomery City, who filled the appointment of Rev. Roberts here Sunday morning, and hope to have him with us again in the near future.

Judge Liechte delivered 39 head of hogs to Wm. Pennington, which averaged 249 ner head.

The new electric railway prospectors made another visit to our town this week, to consult with those interested in the matter. The prospect for the road continues to brighten.

Lincoln Park School.

The Busy Worker's Society of Miss Payne's room held their first exercises Friday afternoon. Every piece on the program was well rendered. The Lincoln Park Headlight, a paper published by the little people, was especially interesting. After the exercises were over a reception was held for the parents present. Miss Payne had provided about three courses of refreshments, which she and two or three waiters served in a graceful manner. The following visitors were present: Mesdames Francis Spinner, Marsha Stephens, Lou Gausway, Nettie Starks, Hester Spitzer, Ellen Fogle, Addie Clark, Ella Palmer, Mildred Bledsoe; Misses Jane Sales, Francis Greely, Ola Grady; Messrs George Clark, Rev. A. S. Palmer, Prof. W. R. Anderson. We are delighted to see the interest that is being manifested by the parents. You have caught the idea, parents. You, too, must help to educate your children. You can do a great deal to help us by simply coming to see us.

We are aiming at nothing less than first-class school work. Shall we have a first-class school? We should like to look into the face of the person who would object to this.

W. O. SHULTON.

The Bravery of Woman.

Was gradually shown by Mrs. John Dowling, of Butler, Pa., in a three years' struggle with a malignant stomach trouble that caused distressing attacks of nausea and indigestion. All remedies failed to relieve her until she tried Electric Bitters. After taking it two months she wrote: "I am now wholly cured and can eat anything. It is a truly grand tonic for the whole system as I gained in weight and feel much stronger since using it." It aids digestion, cures dyspepsia, improves appetite, gives new life. Only 50c a bottle. Guaranteed at City Drug Store.
