VOL. X.

MONTGOMERY CITY, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1901.

NO. 3

A Letter To The Farmers

From the Missouri World's Fair Commissioners.

ST. LOUIS, OCT. 16, 1901.
To the Farmers and Fruit Growers of Missouri:

Our Legislature has provided very liberally for a presentation of the resources and products of our great State at the coming World's Fair, and it is the intention of this Commission that our Agricultural display be second to none. To accomplish this we must have the co-operation of the farmers in every county of the State, individually and collectively. We want you to help us get together the products of the field the orchard, meadow, vineyard and garden; a collection which will demonstrate just what each county in the State is capable of producing and does produce when farmed intelligently, and an exhibit that will enhance the value of every farm in the State. We want every farmer to be on the lookout for fine wheat, fine corn, grasses, beans, and in fact everything produced from the soil. If you have raised something which you know will be a source of pride to your county and a credit to yourself, preserve it and write us what you have. If conditions justify, we will try and arrange with you for its proper storage until needed, and for its display at the Fair, with proper credit to the county and producer.

At least half a bushel of each sample of wheat, a bushel of corn and a half bushel of potatoes, beans, etc., a good-sized bundle of the various grasses, and where practical to preserve them, a half bushel of apples, peaches, etc., should be preserved.

This has been a great wheat and fruit year for our State, and as we have had the crops of 1901 and 1902 to select from, it behooves us to preserve the best from this year's crop to guard against a crop failure next year; and we issue this appeal with the assurance that every farmer in the State will begin at once to keep his eyes open for something which will add to his State's display, and to this end we earnestly invite your co-operation.

Col. G. W. Waters, Institute Organizer of the State Board of Agriculture, has been authorized to represent the Commission at the Institutes, in the matter of bringing before those interested the necessity of prompt and vigorous action, and your co-operation with him and the Institutes will be of value.

We will be glad to hear from every farmer with any suggestion that may be of interest.

Sincerely,
B. H. BONFOY, M. T. DAVIS,
Secretary, President.

Lincoln Park School.

The first term's examinations are now over, and while some have come up to expectations others have fallen far below what was expected of them. We hope that parents will remember that those whose record is not so good as it ought to be need to be stimulated and encouraged at home as well as at school. On the other hand, those who have done well need also to be encouraged in order that they may put forth greater efforts and hence do more and better work in the future.

The greatest thing any school can do for its pupils is to instill within them a profound respect for virtue and morality and a deep seated hatred for vice and immorality.

The pupils of the Busy Workers' Society rendered a very good program Friday afternoon. The visitors were: Mrs. Nettie Starles and Mrs. Marshay Stephens. Respectfully, W. O. SHELTON.

We, the jury find that the deceased came to his death from heart failure, caused by not taking Rocky Mountain Tea made by Madison Medicine Co. 35c. Ask yours druggist.

Death of Charles B. Haight.

On the 26th of October, 1901, Charles B. Haight died of pneumonia at his home, five miles northeast of Montgomery City.

He was a native of the state of Pennsylvania; born on the 8th of March, 1842, in Mercer county; age 59 years, 7 months and 18 days.

He was father of a large family of highly respectable children, of whom seven survive him, five sons and two daughters. In his death he also leaves an aged father, a brother and a half sister, who live in the state of Pennsylvania.

When a young man he enlisted as a volunteer soldier in the Federal army in the civil war—1861-1865—and was a member of the 11th Pennsylvania regiment of infantry. He was affiliated with the Grand Army of the Republic, and many of his fraternal brethren followed to the grave his casket wrapped in the flag of his country.

Personally I was a stranger to Mr. Haight, but, on inquiry, learned that he was a highly esteemed and a good man. At the time of his death he had been a citizen of Montgomery county some six or seven years. But in this short time the ties of friendship had grown to be many in a large circle of acquaintances. The esteem, indeed, in which he was held was exemplified by the throng of people that followed him to his last resting place.

After religious services held at the home, conducted by the writer, the body was laid to rest, on the 28th of October, in the Montgomery cemetery, in the presence of the many who assembled to pay a last tribute to his memory and express sympathy for the residue of the broken family. R. S. DUNCAN.

Mrs. Mary Hancock.

Died, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fines, in this city, Sunday, October 27, Mrs. Mary Hancock, aged 80 years.

Mrs. Hancock had spent but a few days with Mrs. Fines, with whom she contemplated spending the winter, when she was taken sick and in a few short days she passed to her reward.

She was a native of Kentucky and came to Missouri at an early day. In 1841 she entered into holy bonds of matrimony which were happy ties until Mr. Hancock's death. A consistent member of Providence church, she was buried among those she loved in life. Six children are left to mourn her loss and cherish her memory.

Judge Lichte and W. F. Meyer, of Big Spring, were in town Tuesday and made this office a pleasant call. Mr. Meyer had his name put on our mailing list and will have THE TRIBUNE visit him each week. Any others from that vicinity who desire to join THE TRIBUNE readers, if not convenient to call at this office can see Mr. Lichte and he will see that you get THE TRIBUNE all O. K.

J. W. Perkins, of Bellflower, was in this city Wednesday. He came up after a wagon load of Minnesota flour which he had ordered delivered at this place that day. Mr. Perkins does not come to the railroad very often for goods, as his partner, Mr. Bonnel, attends to that and it keeps Mr. Bonnel busy nearly all the time supplying their large store with goods.

VIOLET.

Last week we sent statements to a number of our readers who were in arrears, and to say the result has been gratifying is only a mild way of expressing our appreciation of the promptness with which the most of them responded. This goes to show that a great many people who allow their subscription to lag behind, do it through neglect. We desire again to express our many thanks to those who have so promptly remitted the amount due.

The entertainment of Gospel song at the U. P. Church by the Butts family of Mt. Olivet congregation in Audrain county was a great success. They held the audience for one and three quarters of an hour, only 15 minutes of that time being spent in anything but music. A very few left near the close presumably from previous engagements but many said they could have listened an hour longer. The Butts family live on a farm and one would see nothing to distinguish it from any other neat little country home, but it is really a temple of music.

It is the wish of the whole congregation and of all who heard that they may return again soon; for surely such talent ought to be kept in constant use.

The marriage ceremony performed in Haas' store Tuesday was not only an evidence of the popularity of that splendid business establishment, but behind it all, there may be a deeper and a broader meaning than we can fathom. It has been vaguely rumored that a few points were picked up that day sufficient to make it divinely historical, not only to the contracting parties, but to those interested.

Here is a marriage notice with comment that appeared in a North Dakota paper: Married, at Plinistone, by Rev. Windstone, Nehemiah Mithstone and Wilhelmina Sandstone. This is getting pretty "rocky," and there is bound to be a blasting of these "stony" hearts before many pebbles appear on the beach. The grindstone of infelicity will sharpen the ax of jealousy and discord, and sooner or later, one of the pair will rest beneath the tombstone. Then look out for the brimstone.—Ex.
