

Neighborhood News, As Told by Our Assistant Editors.

New Florence.

The meeting which has been in progress at the M. E. church closed Monday night. Rev. Maggart left for Trinity Wednesday where he will begin a series of meetings.

Messrs Will Finley, Earl Wilson, Lee Pemberton and Dan Will see attended the debate at Danville last Friday night.

Quit a number from this place are attending circuit court at Montgomery City this week.

Harry Marshall is here visiting his father J. H. Marshall for a few days.

Carl Algersmiden went down to St. Peter's, Tuesday to be present at the marriage of his sister.

Leslie Blades of Minneola was calling on friends (?) at this place Sunday evening.

Miss Bertha Wilson returned from St. Louis Sunday morning where she had been visiting for some time.

Lee Pemberton spent Sunday in Wellsville the guest of his cousins the Misses Blattner.

Mrs. C. M. Locke is quite sick this week.

Assessor Worland was seen on our streets Monday and Tuesday.

Dorsey Leavell left for the Klondike Monday morning after a pleasant visit with some folks. He was accompanied by Charley Gott who will try his fortune in the Klondike.

Miss Cora Hooker entertained her sisters Mrs. Root Donaldson of Montgomery City, Mrs. George Conroy of Denver, Col., and Mrs. Tony Lawry of Ill., the first of the week. PUELLA.

Gamma.

Miss Lora Overstreet is visiting Mrs. John Mudd.

And Elnke of near Middletown was here Saturday.

Leah Beck was in Wellsville Tuesday.

The W. C. T. U. had a good meeting at Mrs. Isaac Heaton's Sunday.

Miss Irene Cowan is spending a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Geo. White of Wellsville.

The protracted meeting at Brush Creek will continue over next Sunday.

Miss Annie Brown of Marlinsburg is visiting her cousin Miss Carrie Maury.

Mrs. Polly Baxter and family left Tuesday for St. Louis.

Miss Lora Moorhead of Bellflower is spending this week with friends in this vicinity.

Geo. and Carlin Johnson, Geo. S. Gaffan and L. C. Pittenger are down on the river this week.

Samuel Otterback of near Gazett was in this vicinity Tuesday.

Mrs. Davis of near Montgomery was visiting her daughter Mrs. Emma Maud last week.

Miss Nellie Hogsett left one day last week for New York, where her sister Miss Nora is making her home.

Miss Leola Ankrom and mother of near Centre spent Saturday and Sunday with L. C. Pittenger and wife.

One sheep was thrown from a horse Tuesday afternoon but not seriously hurt.

Born to L. C. Pittenger and wife Sunday Nov. 11 a boy.

John Bonowengerat of Bellflower was here a short while Monday.

Miss Maggie Gregory is visiting her sister Mrs. Mary Maxwell.

Bellflower.

Rev. Posley began a protracted meeting at this place Sunday.

Meeting at Brush Creek is still in progress.

Mrs. Lizzie Logan and Mrs. Lita Cater of Montgomery City visited at Pr. F. Davis' last Wednesday.

Mr. Will Hoss has a nice singing class at the German church at Truxton.

Miss Ottilie Burton of High Hill is visiting her sister Mrs. John Hall this week.

Quite a number from Prices Branch attended church at this place Monday night.

Miss Effie Moorhead visited Miss Tressie Baugh last Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs Lee Summers and Will Hoss was calling on friends in Wellsville last Saturday.

Jonesburg.

Willie VanStuddiford left last Tuesday for Mexico where he will attend M. W. A. this winter.

Mrs. J. S. Miller left last Wednesday for St. Louis to visit relatives and remain there during the winter.

F. A. Lane was down from Moberly the first of last week visiting relatives.

Pete Carr was up from St. Louis last Wednesday and Thursday visiting his parents.

Mrs. Chloe Stephens spent last week in Wellsville visiting relatives.

J. L. Jones and Mrs. Blanch Purl were in Montgomery last Tuesday on business.

Moses Lavender, one of Jonesburg's worthy boys, and Miss Vessie Harrell were married at Marthasville last Wednesday. Rev. E. W. Reynolds officiating.

Jacob Fishbacker was in St. Louis last Thursday on business.

Mrs. B. M. Pitman of Kansas City, Mo. is here visiting relatives and old friends.

Hon. Silas Carr was in the City Friday on business.

Miss Gertie Summers of Montgomery was the guest of Miss Florence Holmes the first of last week.

Wm. Voll Jr. was up from the City last week to visit homefolks.

Wm. Camp of South Bend, Ind., is here visiting relatives.

Geo. W. Palmer was in Montgomery Friday on business.

W. J. Skinner and wife left Saturday for New Franklin to visit their son Jim.

Joe Weiss of St. Louis was up Sunday visiting his brother Peter and family.

W. W. Bolton was in Warrenton Saturday on business.

John Brown was in Montgomery Monday on business.

W. C. Jones was up from Wentzville the first of this week visiting relatives.

H. W. Johnson was in Montgomery Monday on business.

Hale Young was at Hawkpoint Monday buying horses.

J. B. Wells was in Truxton Tuesday on business.

Miss Annie Davault is visiting her sister Mrs. J. M. Pfaff in St. Louis this week.

Erit Burgess left Monday night for St. Louis to visit friends.

Mrs. J. L. Macion left Tuesday for Desota to visit relatives.

Tom VanStuddiford who has employment in the City spent the first of the week with his family here. MASCOT.

New Providence.

There was preaching in the Christian church at Price's Branch Sunday.

Verge Cope, Tommie Malcoat and others were hauling corn from the railroad last week.

Mrs. Dr. Wyatt and Mrs. Billy Edney were visiting at Charley Roher's Monday.

J. H. Clare was bailing hay last week.

Miss Ellen Wells spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. Pit Hensley, who is suffering with the measles.

Friend Wiels' children are getting along nicely with the measles.

Mrs. Margaret Cope, of Montgomery City, has been visiting A. J. Cope, of this place.

Ben Well's horse that took sick in Montgomery three weeks ago died.

John and Tom Ogdon delivered bags at Montgomery City and brought back corn.

There was a good attendance at prayer meeting Wednesday night. On account of some members of the Modern Brotherhood they changed it to Thursday night.

Sam Robinson is representing the home nursery at Carso, Mo., again. He says he expects a big delivery for spring. He says he thinks his trees the cheapest and best. ULRICH BRUNNER.

Wellsville.

Bert Eastham, who is working in St. Louis visited home folks Sunday last.

Mrs. Sarah Cooper of Allentown, Pa., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Burkhalter.

Rev. Hay Bell is holding a protracted meeting at Holliday, Mo.

Mrs. Eva Dempsy, Miss Ruby Steele and Lemia Walker are the new clerks at "Blattners"

Mrs. Nettie Maughs was in Montgomery a few days last week.

Misses Mary and Susie Martin of Martinsburg attended the "cyphering match" at the school house last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. R. Wullschlegel and son of Moberly spent last week with Mrs. S. N. Straube.

J. Frank Payden has returned from a lengthy visit to Shamrock.

Misses Vertner, Vaughn and Maud Hart, accompanied by W. A. Hentz spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cox of near Mt. Carmel.

L. D. Ellis and wife will shortly move to a farm north of town and go to housekeeping.

Mrs. Dr. J. C. Blaine delightfully entertained a few young people in honor of Miss Tracie Lake of Higginsville. Music was the chief amusement of the evening. The guests were Misses Lydia, Flora and Amelia Kuhne, Leta Enslin, Mrs. Dr. Cox, Messrs Ed Brigham R. G. McKibben and J. E. Smith. Refreshments were served at 10:30 p. m.

Mrs. Dr. Shumate was the guest of her daughter Mrs. H. A. Overbaugh at Martinsburg.

Jas. Clark, wife and daughter of St. Louis, Frank Clark of Indianapolis, Ind. and Ed Clark of Vincennes, Ind. attended the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Wm. Gribbens of this place last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Niehaus of Truxton, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. S. S. Cox of this city last week.

The "cyphering match" at the public school house last Tuesday evening was quite a success and furnished lots of fun for a large crowd of spectators. Little Miss Ruth Helper won the prize which was a beautiful bound edition of "Milton's Poems."

Jas. McQuie spent Sunday afternoon and evening with Montgomery City relatives.

Tom Ronnett was here from Mexico last Wednesday.

Mike Kelly and niece little Miss Gertrude of Moberly were visiting here last Thursday afternoon.

Miss Lucy Paxton spent last week with friends in St. Louis.

Mrs. Ward and daughters, Misses Essie and Grace of Olney were the guests of the latter's aunt Mrs. Wm. Hays Saturday and Sunday.

Wm. Kelly of Moberly visited the homefolks in this city last Monday.

Mrs. Hickerson and daughter Miss Maud returned Saturday night from Washington where they spent the summer.

Jim Clacher of St. Louis was in this city the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Diggs of Woodland, Cal. were the guests of J. H. Diggs and family last Friday.

Miss Lella G. Walker very hospitably entertained a few of our friends at dinner Sunday. Those present were Misses Wild Thorpe, Matie Dale Paden, Kate Widaman, Ella Phillips and Lela McQuie. They reported a most delightful time and all pronounced Miss Lella a charming hostess.

Rev. A. S. Bowles, daughter Miss Leta Bowles, Miss Sophia Appleg and Lillias Diggs attended preaching at Martinsburg Sunday afternoon.

J. H. Diggs spent Sunday with his family here. He left Sunday afternoon for an extended trip through Ark.

Lee Pemberton of New Florence was the guest of his cousins, Misses Kate and Estelle Blattner of this place Sunday.

Elmer Taylor of College Mound, Mo., visited his mother Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Dollie Sharp was visiting relatives in Montgomery City last week.

Dr. W. F. McKibben of Auxvase was the guest of his brother

R. G. McKibben last Wednesday. Lon Burchard and wife of Martinsburg were here shopping Monday.

Mrs. Ella White has been seriously ill, but, is some better at this writing.

Harry Kempinsky was here from Marlinsburg Tuesday.

Misses Loutie and Linnie Covington of Shamrock were here shopping Saturday.

Miss Doshia Cartharie of near Montgomery was here Tuesday and attended the funeral of Mrs. Hiram Lewis.

Judge Shaw and son of Olney were here Tuesday. The Judge goes to Columbia to visit old friends, while his son is here with a view of buying property in this city. ST. ELMO.

Olney.

Miss Bertha Duncan of near this place is visiting Mrs. Hardin Williams of Silex this week.

Miss Dora Mason of Bellville, was visiting friends in this vicinity last week.

W. F. Gimin and wife of this place, spent the week with his father near Eisberry.

Rev. Hobbs filled his regular appointment at the Christian church Sunday and Sunday eve.

Jack Hisey was in Gamma Sunday.

James Wilson and Rolla Porter, of course, attended church at this place Sunday.

Quite a number of the young folks attended preaching at Brush Creek Sunday night.

Geo. Riddle purchased a team of horses of Jack Fanning, Monday.

George Nunn attended preaching at Silex Wednesday night.

Mrs. T. Ives of this place visited friends in Wellsville Saturday and Sunday of last week. OLD MULE.

West Prairie.

The protracted meeting began at Horeb Monday night.

I. V. Whitesides and John Ellis took stock to the river bottom in Lincoln county Saturday.

Miss Myrtle Kerr of Auxvase is visiting Miss Lettie West this week.

At the sale of Jack Fanning's property Monday stock sold at low prices.

J. A. Ingram went to Silex Monday for some Poland China hogs that were shipped to him from Frankford.

Rev. T. J. Ferris is holding a meeting at New Liberty church near Cross.

Again death has visited our community and taken from our midst Mrs. Nanale Dillon wife of W. A. Dillon. She will be sadly missed not only by the family and neighbors but also the Church and Sunday school.

We have not in which she was held by every one who knew her. She was a member of the Baptist church at Horeb and we have never seen any one who seemed to come nearer to our idea of a model Christian.

After funeral services conducted by her pastor Rev. Taylor she was laid to rest in the West Prairie Cemetery.

She leaves a husband and two children.

There are some boys, or young men, who make a practice of going to church, taking a back seat and just before services are over going out of church.

Now invariably when this happens some one loses a whip or top robe or something left in his baggage. Now boys a word to the wise is sufficient. If we ever can catch you in any of these acts you will be made to suffer the penalty. They do not live near Horeb either. REX.

Peytonia.

We have cool dry weather at this writing, the 18th, rain would benefit the wheat.

Mrs. Robert Bently and Baby Boy of Callaway visited her sister, Mrs. J. W. Mitchell and children, at this place recently.

Harry Patton, who has been at work for John W. Kettle, north of Whetstone Creek was here on the 10th.

Jackson Mitchell, made pork of his hogs one day last week.

Miss Lulu Gentry is advancing her school nicely in this district.

It is a good time now to chop and haul wood, to have a supply for the winter season.

The 6 hours school system keeps the teachers busy to get through with the daily lessons and give the children ample time to go and come home from school.

The roads are now solid and hard, good to haul on.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Goodman who live in Callaway county were at Peytonia last week.

The men that haul water may be thankful that they can get water free at Loure Creek and not haul it very far.

The winter season will soon be here. J. A. D.

Thomas District.

Dan May and D. M. May, was in Danville last Thursday on business.

Joe Smith and Carl Eliotte are working for Capt Dunford.

Mrs. M. Y. Kirks is visiting in Pike county this week.

Hez Bethel and wife were in Wellsville Saturday trading.

John Kirks and family were visiting at Mrs. M. Y. Kirks' last Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Morning and daughter Martha were visiting at Dave Mry's Monday.

Frank Davidson's and A. W. Nease's were visiting at H. A. Davidson's Sunday.

Paul Thomas is wrestling with the measles at this writing.

Miss Gertrude May was the guest of her aunt Mrs. Mary Morning Monday night.

Mrs. H. A. Davidson is on the sick list at this writing.

Jessie Kirks was visiting at D. M. Mays' Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Dave May and Miss Gertrude and Lillian May were visiting at Mrs. M. Y. Kirks Monday.

Mrs. A. W. Neas was visiting at R. G. Elliott's last Thursday.

M. U. May and Marion Cobb left last Thursday for St. Louis to work in Simons Hardware Store at $45 per month.

Albert Bethel has gone to work up near Clarksville on the rail road.

Thomas Literary and Debating Society was organized Friday night Nov. 8th. Bud Green was elected President, Crayton Kirks Secretary, A. A. May assistant Secretary and Treasurer. The question for Friday night 22 is, resolve that the editor has more power over the people than the orator, comes out everybody and help make it a success. O. U. KNOW.

Danville.

J. M. Barker while enroute to Montgomery City Monday at a point this side of the creek, his horse became scared and ran away the cart wheel striking a stump throwing Mr. Barker from the vehicle, bruising him up considerably.

J. M. White has been keeping "batch" this week.

Collector Gardner is collecting tax in Montgomery City this week.

Carl Keith left for Colorado Tuesday, where he has employment.

Born to the wife of Baker Diamond last week a fine boy. Mother and child are doing well.

Fred Rodgers is county depository at this place.

John Applebee, north of town, has the contract of re-flooring the bridge at McKittrick.

John Rgot and George Williams are building a new house for Tom Calhoun, several miles southeast of town.

Wednesday evening at about 7:30 the home of Isham Gardner of this place, was the scene of the quiet little wedding of Miss Nellie E Laughlan to Mr J T Hubbard.

In winning Miss Nellie for his wife he achieved an aim which he will never regret having accomplished, for he has secured a gem that will always glisten in the jewel casket of those who know her.

May the angel of peace hover over these two young people who have taken upon themselves these holy bonds. May the ocean of life be ever calm to thee, kissed by the warming rays of the sunshine of love and bathed in the silvery moon beams of happiness. UNCLE SI

Truxton.

The Woodmen of this place, Saturday night after the meeting, went to J W Withouse's Restaurant and treated them selves to an oyster supper.

Protracted meeting at Zion with two additions

Mrs Goodwin of this place will move to the farm in a short time

Mrs J P Lanche returned from St Louis where she has been visiting her mother

Protracted meeting closed here Thursday night

Simeon Winter sold his farm to John Enroe consideration $350,000

Dr Blaer returned from St Louis where he has been visiting for some time

Mrs D Parnish accompanied Miss Suthia Wheeler home Friday evening near High Hill

A A Femmer was in St Louis last week to have an operation performed on his little boy who had three leaders cut in his leg

J H Ingram was transacting business in Troy Saturday

Miss Laura Wells of near this place is with her sister Mrs Pit Hensley of Montgomery City who has the measles. TRUX

Rhineland.

Dr H A Hibbard left for Lawton Oklahoma Wednesday, where he will locate permanently

Henry the son of Dina Eldinghoff was taken seriously ill last week

Aug Whittman is getting out a lot of rock and delivering the same to the Bunnberg Mr Bunnberg intends building a foundation under the hotel and otherwise remodeling the same

Miss Laura Wells of near this place is with her sister Mrs Pit Hensley of Montgomery City who has the measles. TRUX

Dr H A Hibbard left for Lawton Oklahoma Wednesday, where he will locate permanently

Henry the son of Dina Eldinghoff was taken seriously ill last week

Aug Whittman is getting out a lot of rock and delivering the same to the Bunnberg Mr Bunnberg intends building a foundation under the hotel and otherwise remodeling the same

Miss Laura Wells of near this place is with her sister Mrs Pit Hensley of Montgomery City who has the measles. TRUX

Dr H A Hibbard left for Lawton Oklahoma Wednesday, where he will locate permanently

Henry the son of Dina Eldinghoff was taken seriously ill last week

Aug Whittman is getting out a lot of rock and delivering the same to the Bunnberg Mr Bunnberg intends building a foundation under the hotel and otherwise remodeling the same

Miss Laura Wells of near this place is with her sister Mrs Pit Hensley of Montgomery City who has the measles. TRUX

New Hope.

We have had some nice winter weather the past week. Ice freezing to the thickness of 1 inch

Prof William Patterson and sister Mrs Sturgeon spent last Sunday with E M Oliver and family

A J Poleston visited Rev I M Oliver last Sunday

Merrell Oliver was in Wellsville Saturday evening

Misses Ida and Zella Sailor and Nannie Powell attended preaching at New Hope last Sunday

Rev R S Duncan of Montgomery City filled his appointment here last Sunday, and preached an excellent sermon

D Sneathan of Montgomery City was here last Tuesday looking out for living water for Rev I M Oliver and J E Dickey

Mr Fennywall of Martinsburg was here last week buying cattle he bought 1 cow, and 1 calf from J E Updyke

Peter Hanson of Wellsville will finish plastering Wm Appling's house this week he will also do some repairing for John Cox and J E Dickey

Mrs Kate Oliver and E M Oliver attended the Baptist Sunday School Institute of Bear Creek association held at Jonesburg last Tuesday and Wednesday

Dr John W Johnson of Seattle, Washington, is expected here in a few days to visit his mother Grandmother Johnson, who is now 84 years old and is still able to be about and attends Sunday School almost every Sunday

J E Dickey delivered 56 head of turkeys to Blattner Bros at Wellsville last Wednesday

J R Dickey and daughter of Americus visited relatives here last week

O U GUESS

At Pleasant and Cross-Roads items arrived too late this week. Try coming in ahead of time and see how that works