Pat Nunnally is also a candidate for superintendent of the county farm.

Richard Bamby and Miss Leona Waring of Wellsville celebrated Christmas by getting married.

A business man that never advertises is much like the man without a home; no one knows where to find him.

Elmer Arterburn and family of New Florence moved to this city last week, and now occupy the Brown residence in the southeast part of town. They are an excellent family, and Mr. Arterburn is a wideawake real estate agent.

Married, on January 3, 1905, by Rev. R. S. Duncan and at his home in this city, Mr. Homes C. Davidson and Miss Ione B. Hardesty.—This newly wedded couple took the afternoon fast mail train for St. Louis, where they will reside.

William Stewart of Wellsville died in the asylum at Fulton recently. Funeral and burial took place in Wellsville. He was born in Ireland in 1830, and was in the U. S. gunboat service on the Mississippi river during the rebellion.

Emmett Lewis, the well known pharmacist of the City Drug Store left Tuesday for Tusculum, county seat of Miller county, where he has accepted a position in a law office. Tusculum is about thirty miles south of Jefferson City.

It might be tried in this country with good results. The practice of oiling the roads has been introduced in India, at Bombay. It is found that if the oil is allowed to soak in slowly no obnoxious mud is produced, and the result is a success.

A. W. Lafferty, ex-county attorney, left for Washington, D. C., last Saturday, where he will work for the government while at least as special agent for the department of the interior. The appointment of an assistant U. S. district attorney for eastern Missouri, for which he is an applicant, will likely not be made for some weeks yet. Mr. Lafferty will not change his residence from Montgomery City.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith residing seven miles southwest of this city came to town the day before Christmas to buy presents, and left their two little children, one a boy of ten and the other a little girl about two years old, at home by themselves. When they returned they found their baby girl dead in a tub of water. The boy tells different stories regarding the tragedy—one is that the child had spasms and fell into the tub, and another is that he was out doors when she fell in. The remains were taken to Wellsville next day.

The week of prayer services opened at the Methodist church Monday evening under rather discouraging conditions. The weather was bad, thereby causing a small turnout. Then Rev. Melan, the speaker of the evening, quietly left town during the day, and was not present. And to add other disappointments, the electric plant suspended business early in the evening, and when all lamps were called for it was found that the sexton like the fish virgins in bible times had oil with which to put them in burning order, but a well filled lantern from one of the members sent and lamp from Mr. Owings' were soon secured.

Beware the steams of Chilkoot Pass, cross the planks of frozen glass, save my wife and cross the sea, for than be without Rocky Mountain Tea, at your druggist.

Judge Lichte has finished a fine residence on his farm near Big Spring.

Prosecuting attorney Rosenberger has moved his office to the court house.

Col. Warner Lewis spent two days this week in the jam and hurrah at Jefferson City, and is at home again safe and sound.

Geo. Bartholomew, editor of the Warrenton Herald, has accepted a clerkship in the secretary of state's office at Jefferson City.

John R. Mitchell, residing one mile east of this city, has taken up four head of steers which the owner will please call for, pay damages and remove.

T. L. Britt has purchased his father's farm of 120 acres seven miles east of this city, and this week moved to same, and where himself and family will make their future home.

The new bank building at Williamsburg is reported to be near completion, and it is expected the business will be begun in a short time. The fixtures for the bank have not yet arrived, and this may cause a brief delay in the opening.

At the republican caucus of the house of the legislature held in Jefferson City Wednesday night, David W. Hill of Poplar Bluff was nominated for speaker, and among the other officers nominated was John V. Nebel of this county for engraving clerk.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held with Mrs. Mattie A. Faulconer Monday of this week with fair attendance. The hour was crowded with business and was an interesting occasion. The Union will give an entertainment soon, probably about the 6th of February. This entertainment will be something new and be on the order of a representation of some of the interesting and humorous features of the World's Fair. Hold yourself ready to take in this fair for if it works out as per arrangements it will prove a jolly occasion.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Coll, 7 miles west of Montgomery City, Mo., at 3 p. m. on Wednesday, Dec. 28, 1904, by D. M. Graves, Mr. William T. Nichols and Miss Vernie F. Coll, both of Montgomery county. There were 30 persons present, nearly all of whom were relatives of either the groom or bride, and 19 of them bearing the name of Coll. It was a cold day for the nuptials, but the bright sunshine without, bright faces within, and a bountiful repast more than made amends.—May the future bring this wedded couple much prosperity and sunshine, and at last an abundant entrance into the home beyond. X

Miss Blanche Vogt of this city and Dr. R. L. Britt, a dentist of Wapanucka, Ind. Terr., were married at Atoka, I. T., Wednesday of this week at 4 p. m., and are this are no doubt happily domiciled in their new home already prepared for them at Wapanucka by the husband. The bride is a very popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Vogt Sr. of this city, and on Tuesday, with bag and baggage as her only companion, left for Atoka to join her intended and faithful husband, who is a former resident of Fulton, this state. If the Territory is ever well settled by such people as this young couple it will not be long before it is a great state.

Last Saturday, December 31, 1904, circuit judge H. W. Johnson completed the December term of the Montgomery county circuit court, and likewise his services as judge thereof. And as he left the judicial chair, he yielding to a request of Judge Peers of Warren, took a seat in the bar, Judge Barnett taking the vacated chair, and Mr. Keller of St. Charles acting secretary of a meeting. Then Judge Peers, in the name of the bar of eleventh judicial circuit presented to Judge Johnson a fine new gold watch, with well chosen remarks. Following this, Mr. Keller of St. Charles, on behalf of Mrs. Judge Johnson and children, presented the husband and father a gold chain and charm, as an appendage to the watch; for both of which valuable tokens Judge Johnson responded in feeling terms.

Port Arthur Surrenders.

Port Arthur was surrendered by the Russians to Gen. Nogi of the Japanese army last Sunday afternoon, the final agreements being signed at 9 p. m. The Japs made a terrible onslaught on the place with heavy artillery for three days before. The fortress and town are described as a complete wreck and the harbor entrance has been blockaded by the sunken ships.—It was a mere handful of men who surrendered, 11,000 having been killed and the Japs have won a desert strewn with debris. Gen. Stoessel says that at the end he had left of the original 35,000 soldiers but 10,000 men under arms and 14,000 in the hospitals.

TERMS OF SURRENDER.

The text of the articles of capitulation of the Port Arthur garrison signed by the commissioners representing Gen. Stoessel and Gen. Nogi has been made public. All Russian soldiers, marines and civil officials of the garrison and harbor are made prisoners; all forts, batteries, vessels, munitions, etc., are transferred to the Japanese in the condition in which they existed at noon of January 3; violation of this clause to operate as an annulment of the negotiations, giving the Japanese army warrant to take free action; the Russian military and naval authorities are to furnish to the Japanese army an exhibit of all fortifications, underground and submarine mines, a list of military officers, of ships and the numbers of their crews, and of civilians of both sexes, with their race and occupations; and all public property, as buildings, munitions of war, etc., to be left in the present condition, pending arrangements for their transference.

Officers of the army and navy are permitted to retain their swords and such other of their personal property as is directly necessary for the maintenance of life, and with one servant each, may upon signing their parole not to take up arms during the continuance of the war, return to Russia. Non-commissioned officers and privates will be held as prisoners.

For the benefit of the sick and wounded Russians, the sanitary corps and the accountants belonging to the Russian army and navy will be required to serve under the Japanese sanitary corps and accountants for such period of time as may be deemed necessary.

The TRIBUNE takes occasion in this its first issue of 1905 to extend to its many friends a New Year's greeting. May they enjoy to the fullest extent all the days thereof allotted them, and may their larder and purse always be found well filled with honest rewards.—There are many pleasant things in this life to live for, and one of the principal comforts is the social good will and esteem of one another. A disagreeable or lawless man is an abomination to any community. Death will retire all of us from these sociabilities soon enough at best, and we will be dead a long time. The TRIBUNE tries to treat every one right, yet with this in view it occasionally editor-like offers some criticisms not approved by all, but they are never said in a spirit of anger, but that general good may result. The TRIBUNE is a legal part and parcel of Montgomery City and Montgomery county, and its policy is to build up and not tear down the good things; to help make mankind better and consequently happier, no matter what may be their political or religious belief.

Imperfect Digestion.

When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle. Sold by City Drug Store.
