Ball Game Last Sunday.

The ball game last Sunday was lost to St. Louis by a score of 5-2. The home run in the last half of the first by Ferguson tied the score and had the St. Louis pitcher rattled for a couple or three innings. After that he settled down to business.

Four bad errors cost Montgomery four runs and the game. The home boys were not playing their usual fast ball.

Next Sunday Montgomery plays the Renkels, of St. Louis, which should mean a very fast game, this being the last of a series of three. Both teams want this game and the boys are confident that the game is theirs as they have not lost a series this summer.

Don't fail to be there. The Renkels are as fast a bunch as come out of St. Louis. Admission 25 cents, ladies free. If you can't "boost" don't "knock."

A Big Circus

The famous Campbell Bros. Consolidated Shows have reached a point in the development of circus entertainment where there is no competition. The aim of the Campbell Bros. is always to have new features, and their effort in this line this season surpass all other attempts. No time, trouble or expense have been spared and with a corps of assistants, they have been busy buying new material, animals and engaging artists in every line till now they have to offer to the public an exhibition surpassing all previous efforts. They will exhibit here Wednesday, Sept. 30.

Rev. W. L. Carr Honored

W. L. Carr celebrated his eightieth birthday Sept. 11, 1908. Mr. and Mrs. Graves of St. Louis Jack Carr, wife and son of Moberly Rev. George Gillespie and Eastane Ham were the invited guests. His daughter, Mrs. Graves presented her father with a most beautiful birthday cake, with eighty tiny candles on it representing his age.

An elegant birthday dinner was served to which all did ample justice and all wished Bro. Carr many happy returns of the day.

Don't miss the Third Game, Montgomery vs Renkels.

The Big Consolidated Shows of the now famous Campbell Bros. will exhibit in Montgomery, Sept. 30. Showing this season added attractions in every department of amusement and making it the greatest canvas show in existence.

DEMOCRATIC HOPES SIDETRACKED

Taft and Foraker Shoulder to Shoulder for Republican Principles.

Another Democratic hope has been sidetracked. That was that United States Senator Foraker would not support the Taft candidacy, and would thus impair his chances of carrying the State of Ohio.

The two big Ohioans fittingly met at the G. A. R. reunion in Toledo, and publicly and good-naturedly cast what differences may have existed between them to the air.

Mr. Taft's contribution to the treaty of peace was as follows:

"It is a pleasure for me to be here with Senator Foraker, because when governor of Ohio he gave me my first chance and took a good deal of risk in putting a man of 29 on the bench of the Superior Court of Cincinnati. We are about to enter—or rather have entered—a great oratorical campaign. It is a pleasure to think in this presence that we are going to stand in the campaign shoulder to shoulder, with the full strength of the Republican party."

In response Senator Foraker denied that enmity had existed between Mr. Taft and himself, and said:

"Under the circumstances I hope I may be pardoned if I say here in this presence—the first time I have had opportunity to say it—that there is not now and so far as I know there never has been the slightest ill feeling of any kind between Mr. Taft and myself."

"If there is anything I have a right to claim beyond another, it is that I am Republican three hundred and sixty-five days in the year. I have my preferences sometimes as to who should receive the honors of the party, and everybody generally finds out what they are. But I am one of those old-fashioned Republicans who settle every such question at the convention. When the Chicago convention nominated Mr. Taft to be the Republican candidate for the Presidency this year, that instant he became my leader. He has been my leader ever since, and he will be my leader until the polls close on the night of the election."

Mr. Foraker followed with an estimate of Judge Taft's fitness for the office he seeks by repeating what Bishop Fallows had said before him.

"I want to repeat it," he said, "that his experience on the bench, in the Philippines, as Secretary of War, in the construction of the Panama Canal, in all the positions he has filled, has been such as to qualify Mr. Taft almost beyond every other man for the Presidency. We are going to elect him, and if he does not make a success of it, it will be his own fault."

Senator Foraker followed this statement with a review of his early acquaintance with Judge Taft, and the favorable impression he then gained of him.

WHERE SHERMAN STANDS.

Approves Legislation to Improve the Conditions of Labor.

(From Sherman's Speech of Acceptance.)

The Republican party believes in the equality of all men before the law; believes in granting labor's every request that does not seek to accord rights to one man denied to another. Fair-minded labor asks no more, no less, and approves the record of the Republican party because of that party's acts.

I have helped to make my party's record in the enactment of the Eight-Hour law, the Employers' Liability act, the statutes to minimize the hazard of railroad employees, the Child Labor law for the District of Columbia and other enactments designed especially to improve the conditions of labor. I cannot hope to better state my position on injunctions than by a specific endorsement of Mr. Taft's Cincinnati declaration on that subject. That endorsement I make.

HORSE RUNS AWAY

Mrs. Worley and Mrs. Lail Narrowly Escape Serious Injury.

Mrs. W. W. Worley and Mrs. A. B. Lail and their children were out riding Monday afternoon and the horse they were driving became frightened at some children kicking dust in the street at the corner of Geo. Riddle's residence. The horse whirled around and in doing so threw Mrs. Worley forward and down on the axle, in which position she rode to the corner of Sturgeon and Second streets where the horse was caught and stopped by A. B. Lail, A. McKelvey and others.

Mrs. Worley was quite badly bruised. It was a miracle that she escaped further injury.

Mrs. Lail held on to the three children that were with them and escaped with only a bad fright.

State Fair Premiums

If our readers would take the trouble to send for a State Fair Premium list and ascertain the splendid premiums that are offered on all kinds of exhibits including Live Stock, Agriculture and Home Economics and Fancy Needlework, we believe that there would be hundreds of exhibits sent from our County to the Missouri State Fair. There is a chance to win these valuable premiums and at the same time advertise our section. We hope that our readers will become interested in this matter, and write at once to the Secretary of the Missouri State Fair, Sedalia and then enter some fine exhibits. The State Fair dates are October 3-9 inclusive.

Missouri Futurity Races

The Futurity Races promise to be a great event at the State Fair, Sedalia. The trotting race comes off Monday, October 5th and the pacing race, Tuesday, October 6th. In these races only Missouri bred colts compete. Each will give a great race of three-year old colts. There is much interest being shown in these races all over the state and everybody will want to see them. The entry list is large. Monday and Tuesday will be big days at the State Fair.

Watch for Miss Emma Turner's Opening Date in next week's issue of TRIBUNE.

County Republicans Meet

The Republican County Committee and the members of the township and school district organizations met in this city Monday. The attendance was large, all school districts but one being represented. The party in the County is in good shape and promises to win a complete victory this fall.

Sunday Montgomery vs Renkels third Game.

Modern Woodmen have challenged the best pick team of Montgomery, which will be played next Tuesday.

That Funny Game of Ball

Tuesday afternoon the "Never Sweats" and the "Has Beens" crossed bats at Brandt's Park. The teams were made up of business men and professional men. The score was 21 to 22 in favor of the "Never Sweats". Time of game all afternoon. All those who witnessed the game enjoyed a full afternoon of fun, and the players enjoyed the game as much as the spectators.

This was the second game of the series and each team has won one game. Another game will surely have to be played to determine which are the champions.

Have you seen those new Fall and Winter Hats at Miss Emma Turner's.

Death of Mrs. Sheets.

Mrs. Anna Nettie Sheets was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, March 4, 1842, and died Sept. 8th, 1908, near Eldorado, Ark., at the age of 66 years, 6 months and 4 days.

She was married to Henry Sheets March 1, 1869. To this union were born nine children, six sons and three daughters. Two sons, Frank and Rush, died in early childhood leaving four sons, three daughters and twelve grandchildren to mourn her loss. The sons are Ed, of near Bellflower, Phil, Al and Fred of St. Charles, Mo. The daughters are Mrs. Anna Larton, of Montgomery City, Mrs. Maggie Down of Bellflower and Mrs. Geo. Stelle, of Eldorado, Arkansas.

Mrs. Sheets united with the Christian church in her early girlhood, but after her marriage she joined the Methodist church with her husband. She was a devout christian woman, devoted to her children and had a host of friends.

Her funeral was preached on Friday afternoon, Sept. 11th, by T. M. Green, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Anna Larton. A large number of friends were present.

The remains were laid away in the city cemetery. May the Lord comfort the bereaved ones.

T. M. GREEN, Pastor.

The Virginians

The sons and daughters of the Old Dominion and their many friends in this County met Thursday in the Court House yard under the auspices of the Society of Virginians and enjoyed a sumptuous basket dinner and a grand good time. In the afternoon an interesting and instructive program was rendered and addresses were made by Judge D. P. Dyer and Hon. Cornelius Fauntleroy both of St. Louis.

CLARK WILL HAVE A HARD RUN AGAINST JUDGE ROY.

Republican Committee in the Ninth Congressional District Plans Active Campaign For Candidates.

The Republican Congressional Committee of the Ninth District met at the Roxier Hotel yesterday afternoon with Judge Reuben F. Roy the nominee for Congress to talk over plans for his campaign and to arrange for a series of big meetings in the District in the interest of Judge Roy. He is making an active canvass and if Champ Clark is elected it will be, Republican politicians predict, by a greatly decreased majority.

Every County in the District except Callaway was represented.

Those present were: O. E. Meyersiek, Franklin County, chairman; E. H. Ham, Montgomery County, Secretary; John X. Brown, Audrain County; E. H. Austerheldt, Gasconade County; R. S. McKay, Lincoln County; C. C. Grimmit, Pike County; W. W. Epperson, Ralls County.—Globe-Democrat.

Millinery Opening Sept. 28 at Mrs. W. H. Beasley's.

Rev. Brownlee Smith of Mexico will preach in the Episcopal church in this city, next Sunday, September 20 at 3 p. m. Everybody is cordially invited.

Most beautiful line of Millinery to select from at Mrs. Beasley's.

Killed By the Cars

Howard Taylor, a young colored boy was killed by the cars enroute from Fulton to St. Louis at High Hill Sunday.

He was riding on the "Jumper" of No. 96. The train slipped at the coal chute and when it started the jerk threw the negro on the track and both legs were severed from the body. He was brought to the city jail here, where he died within a few hours after the accident. His parents came after the remains Monday and took them to Fulton for interment.

It is a dangerous thing to ride on a train without a ticket and a seat in the place made for that purpose.

Miss Ethel Baxter is assisting Mrs. Lulu B. Scott in her millinery store this season and will be pleased to show her friends the pretty hats.

St. Louis Live Stock Market. Special to Montgomery Tribune.

Cattle receipts 9000, six thousand of which were natives, and although nothing prime in the steer line was represented, more good to choice steers were on sale than we have had in some time. Supplies, however have been too heavy at all markets this week. Today's steer sales were 10 to 15 cents lower, or about 25 cents below the close of last week. Best steers here sold at $6.70. Cows and heifers sold fully steady with yesterday; bulls steady; calves about 25 cents lower, top $7.25. Stockers and feeders held steady under very light demands, supplies of that class being moderate. Smaller supplies and a reaction in steer prices expected by the latter part of the week.

Hog receipts 12000; market steady; quality a little better than for the last ten days; top $7.45; bulk of all the hogs $7.10 to 7.40. It looks like a good time to ship all hogs that are fat enough to come, as good ones are not apt to get above present values.

Sheep receipts 4000; market steady; top lambs $5.50. Most of the good ones 5.00 to 5.35; top mutton sheep 4 cents; good ones largely between 3.75 and that price. Good yearlings sold up to 4.25. Looks like we are due for a little reaction towards better sheep prices.—National Live Stock Commission Company.

Mrs. Lulu B. Scott is in St. Louis again this week buying Fall and Winter Millinery.
