LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Personal Mention and Local Happenings of Interest in and About Montgomery

Don't miss the game Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Moore spent Monday in Mexico.

Mrs. Louis Wheeler and children arrived from Fulton Monday. Miss Etta May Heath spent several days last week at Mineola. B. M. Sisk was an out of town visitor Sunday and Monday.

Miss Susie Baker went to Wisconsin Tuesday to visit her sister.

Miss Floyd Loyd of Marshall is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Moore.

The home team defeated the Masons last Sunday by a score of 5 to 0.

Electric Fans will add much to the comfort of your patrons this hot weather.

A granitoid sidewalk is being laid in front of the home of Hugh Cason this week.

Ben Blades of Mineola, brother of our popular County Collector, was in this city Thursday.

J. G. Jones was a Benton City visitor Sunday at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Jane Hamilton.

The Masons of Montgomery County held their annual picnic at New Florence yesterday.

New Florence now has an Eastern Star Lodge. It was organized last Saturday night.

A number of our enterprising business men will soon have Electric Fans installed in their stores.

Mrs. Irene Abington of St. Joseph arrived here to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Fannie Belle Sailor.

The County Sunday School Convention was held at McKittrick last Sunday. There was a good attendance.

Have you ordered an Electric Fan for your store? Discriminating ladies will make their purchases, where the cool breeze furnished by the fan makes shopping a real pleasure.

J. E. Lavender, the cashier of the Bank of McKittrick was on Tuesday appointed Executor of the estate of the late August Schnell of McKittrick by the Probate Court.

The Royal Neighbors of America held their annual, monthly meeting in the Modern Woodman hall, last Monday night, owing to the rain the attendance was not as large as usual. Light refreshments, consisting of cake and punch were served.

Every title to town lots in New Florence is faulty. There is no record plat of the town, it having been destroyed by fire. This is something in which every property owner is interested and effects your warranty. The Board proposes with the County Court to make and file a new plat as soon as it can be done.—Leader.

Farmers Houston W. Johnson and G. Pitman Smith have about the biggest lot of cattle and hogs you ever saw on a forty-acre lot on their farm near this city. Some one suggested to the TRIBUNE man that lawyers Johnson and Smith are supporting farmers Smith and Johnson. It may be so. But just look at that fine lot of stock. There's Millions in it.

John Martin, "Your Grocery Man," was in St. Louis Tuesday, buying goods to replenish his already ample stock of things, "sweet and good to eat."

The Oklahoma Indian Base Ball Team defeated Montgomery last Saturday by a score of 9 to 7, with Armstrong in the box. The game until the eighth inning standing 6 to 3 in our favor.

The "one arm Joe" property in the northwest part of town, was sold to Louis A. Alderson of Mineola by Col. Warner Lewis. Consideration $1000.00 cash. Mr. Alderson moved into the property Wednesday.

The new Ferguson building is growing rapidly toward completion. The roof is on and the cement floor in the corner store, which will be occupied by Cason's Pharmacy soon after Aug. 1st, is laid.

Mrs. Allie Covington, Mrs. I. C. Uptegrove and Everett Spears and wife went to Bellflower Tuesday on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Geo. Schwenkert, who is reported a little better Thursday morning.

The Prairie Milling Company's new, 25,000 bushel grain elevator commenced operation last Tuesday. The power is furnished by the Electric Light and Power Plant. While in the city take a look at the new machinery.

Rev. R. E. McQuie received four members into the church at Whiteside school house on Clear Creek, the second Sunday in the month. On last Sunday he baptized Miss Irene Young into the fellowship at Bethany church.

It is reported that C. C. Bunnenburg, proprietor of Hotel Hanover of this city, is being pushed for State Hotel Inspector by his many friends here and in the south end of this county. Mr. Bunnenburg is certainly a first-class Hotel man.

The regular monthly stock sale occurred Monday. Owing to the fact that the farmers were all busy making the bumper crops that we are expecting this season the attendance was small and the sales comparatively few. The next sale will be held the 3rd Monday in July.

Miss Drannah Sitton, who has been cared for at the county house for several months past, was brought before the county court last Friday and upon examination found to be insane. On Monday Sheriff Earnest took her to the State Asylum for the insane at Fulton.

The Union Missionary Tea, which was given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ball last Friday afternoon, was a great success. Over 100 ladies registered and the collection amounted to $12.85. We are greatly pleased at the success and popularity of the Union Tea.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Chadwick, Sr., returned home Wednesday night from an extended eastern trip. While away they visited Cincinnati, Ohio, Niagara Falls, several Canadian points of interest and enjoyed a pleasant ocean voyage. They were away about seven weeks and traveled most of the time.

A pleasant family gathering occurred Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Jennings of Prohibition. The occasion being the celebration of Mrs. Jennings fifty-ninth birthday. The guests from this city were her two sons, Samuel and David and their families and Doc Holcomb and family.

The editor of this paper enjoyed a ride to New Florence, Big Spring and McKittrick on Monday of this week. The splendid corn, the magnificent wheat crop which was being harvested and the sleek cattle grazing on a thousand hills all spoke more eloquently than words could speak of the abundant prosperity that the thrifty farmers of Montgomery are enjoying.

Miss Barley Entertains.

Miss Genevieve Barley was the hostess Monday evening at a delightful party, complimentary to her guest, Miss Tod Wright of New Madrid, Mo. The rain early in the evening prevented Miss Barley carrying out her plans for a lawn party, but by the time the guests had arrived the rain was over and the affair became an unusually pleasant porch party.

By way of amusement each guest was asked to write in rhyme a description of some other guest. After much chewing of pencils and some deep thought a number of very interesting and amusing poems were created. While John Hunter's blank verse deserves special mention, Miss Bernadine Telfair's description of Dick Applling, written in truly modern poetic style, received the loudest applause and to Miss Telfair was awarded the prize, a beautiful bunch of White Carnations.

Some very beautiful music by the guest of honor, the hostess and Misses Nelle Hudson and Nelle Graves added to the pleasure of occasion, while the party was concluded with music by the crowd.

Delicious punch was served on the veranda by Miss Grace Gup-ton and ice cream and cake were the refreshments of the evening. Miss Wright made many friends during her stay in Montgomery, who thoroughly enjoyed this party given in her honor and who are hoping for a speedy repetition of the visit and the party.

The following were present: Misses Lulu Smith, Lulu Suggett, Nelle Graves, Nelle Hudson, Bernadine Linsenschmidt, Bernadine Telfair, Gertrude Sharp, Corrine Vogt, Edith Lehnen, Frances Jordan, Eulah Kellar and Grace Gup-ton.

Messrs. John Hunter, Bob Barley, Elmer Linsenschmidt, Herbert Sharp, Dick Applling, Floyd Kidwell, Gene Holmes, Mont Muns, Tom Cain and Carl Dungan.

Methodist Church.

You are invited to worship next Sunday with the Methodist congregation. All our services are well attended. The Sunday School and League are doing a noble work. They are live wires in the spiritual life of the church. It is the desire and constant effort of the pastor and official members that back of the efforts of the Sunday School and League shall be the inspiration of a holy church. "Come with us and we will do thee good, for the Lord has spoken good concerning Israel."

On Friday evening, July, the 9th, the Epworth League of the Methodist church will give an Ice Cream Festival, on the lawn between the parsonage and the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crump. A special program of music will be rendered from the large front porch of the parsonage. The public is earnestly requested to keep the date in mind. Last Sunday evening, Rev. W. B. Rigg, pastor of the Readsville, charge dropped into the Methodist church, and upon the earnest request of the pastor consented to preach, though upon very short notice. He delivered a very thoughtful and helpful sermon. The people were delighted at the privilege of hearing that bright and promising young man. We should be much pleased to have him come our way again.

H. D. THOMPSON, Pastor.

St. Leos have won three shut out games in last month. Best game of season Sunday.

Found Dead in Bed

Chas. P. Cook of Mineola, a well known and respected citizen of this county, and, who was a Republican candidate for the nomination for assessor last year, was found dead in his bed on Thursday morning. The cause of his death is unknown. On Wednesday he seemed well and in good spirits. His sudden and unexpected death was a great shock to his many friends. As far as we can learn, he has no relatives in this county. It is said that he has a son living in St. Louis, and brothers and sisters residing in Ohio.

Come out one and all, See the best Game of Ball, At Brandt's Park Sunday.

Fourth of July Picnic.

There will be a Fourth of July picnic given July 3, 1909, near the colored school house in Montgomery City for the benefit of the M. E. church, (colored.) Refreshments of all kinds will be served. Everybody cordially invited.

Montgomery vs St. Leos of St. Louis Sunday.

Brinker-Mudd

A wedding, which attracted much attention last week was that of Mr. Vincent Brinker and Miss Marie Mudd, both of Gorham. The marriage took place at St. Mary's church, Gorham, Kan. at 9 o'clock a. m. Wednesday, June 2, with high mass and a very appropriate address by Rev. Father Wahlmeier. The bride wore a becoming gown of white china silk and was attended by Miss Julia Mills. The groom and his best man, Mr. Joseph Worland wore the customary black. The wedding party and a number of guests, drove immediately after the ceremony to the home of the bride's parents, south of Gorham, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served to all. More than 175 guests spent the afternoon and evening with the wedding party and a dance filled in the fleeting evening hours. A very large number of usefull and handsome presents were received. Mr. Brinker came here from Montgomery City about a year ago. He is a prosperous business man, and upon short acquaintance, that time has permitted, he has given the impression of being a solid, substantial citizen, and one, who would win and deserve the friendship of those he meets. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mudd and is a most admirable young woman. She has all the qualities necessary for a splendid homemaker, agreeable, attractive and sensible. She deserves the best in life. Everyone present enjoyed a very good time. Mr. and Mrs. Brinker will reside in the Winterset township, near the Mudd home. There they are busy receiving hearty congratulations.—Russell Reformer.

FOR SALE, TRADE OR RENT
—Twenty-five good Sewing Machines at Femmer & Holcomb's Livery Barn, Second St., Montgomery City.

Camping Chaperons Honored.

When the camping party which were at the club house last week returned they purchased two hand-painted berry bowls and two silver berry spoons and presented them to the chaperons, Mrs. John J. Martin and Mrs. Leah Bellamy. The camp was named Camp Bellamart and the camp name was engraved on the berry spoons.

A Big Deal Consumated

On last Saturday Chas. Grebe the New Florence merchant purchased the old Zoda farm of 1601 acres from F. A. Hayden, the farm was valued at $15000. In payment Mr. Grebe gave his store valued at $8000. and $7000. cash. In drawing up the papers in the deal, we are informed that through a clerical error or oversight, the deed for the farm did not cover the 1 of an acre upon which the house is located. The house is estimated to be worth about $3500. We understand that the error will be corrected and that Mr. Grebe will get the house.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED

Jake See's Barn Burns

On Tuesday night about one o'clock, the barn on Jake See's place, seven miles east of this place, was destroyed by fire. The barn was a total loss. 200 bushels of corn, a lot of hay and several sets of harness, one cow, three calves and five hogs were also lost. The barn was partly insured. The cause of the fire was unknown.

Ice.

We are ready to begin delivering ice for the season, 1909, either natural or artificial, in any quantity. Phone 48.
L. A. KIRN.

WANTED—Corn at Culver Stock Farm. W. W. CULVER.

Judge Leslie D. Ellis was at McKittrick last Monday on legal business.

Prospects for an unusually large corn crop this fall are apparent in all parts of the county.

Eustace H. Ham, Pure Food Inspector was doing business in Rhineland last Monday.

County Recorder D. P. Grennan is quite sick. It is said he is threatened with typhoid fever.

Prosecuting Attorney, Jno. V. Nebel, was at Americus last Monday on professional business.

The mason work on the new bank at Buell is progressing nicely under the direction of John Weiss of this city.

"Bellflower on the Burlington" is keeping pace with the times and doing her share of the business of the county.

Misses Alma Muns, Alice Muns, Mary Gupton and Mabie Baker attended the Epworth League convention at Mokane this week.

There is an effort being made at Jonesburg to induce the farmers to organize a Stock Company and build a grain elevator at that point.

The wheat harvest is underway in this vicinity. D. D. Baker of Danville told us that this year's crop would be a bumper. Especially in the timber lands.

Mrs. Nancy M. Keele and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Penn and Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McDaniel spent Sunday at the Rock house visiting G. W. Welch and Aunt Hattie Morrow.

Most all the charming little homes that form Big Spring are bright and clean with fresh, new paint. The place has a comfortable, prosperous look as one drives through it.

Snethen, the implement man, is filling the county with McCormick binders. There may be others just as good, but there are certainly none better made. The McCormick is king. See Snethen.

New Sulky cultivators, new riding gang plows and new harvesting machines, which one sees scattered about the fields of Montgomery in a day's drive, all attest the prosperity of our farmers.

Middletown and Marling, which are surely located in "God's Country" need only good transportation facilities to make them grow and blossom like a "green bay tree." Let us hope that their days of waiting are nearly at an end.

State Board of Horticulture

The Summer Institute will be held in the Woman's Magazine Building, 6909 Delmar Ave., St. Louis, June 29 to July 1 inclusive. Special features—A program covering a wide range of horticultural topics of seasonable interest.

A trip to the Missouri Botanical Garden July 1st as the guests of the garden at a luncheon and afterwards see the matchless collection of plants from all over the world.

A good exhibit of fruits, flowers, vegetables, for which liberal cash premiums are offered. If interested send for program and premium list.
