MUST BE SCIENTIFIC.

Mrs. Fanny Bullock Workman, in attacking the statement of Miss Peck that she holds the world's record for mountain climbing, says that Miss Peck used no scientific instruments to determine the height of the South American mountain, but relied upon her eye measurements and those of the Swiss guides. In this scientific age, Mrs. Workman declares, eye witnesses play no role and are regarded as valueless. Therefore, Miss Peck's measurements will only be accepted by those ignorant of modern methods of measuring mountain heights.

IS BUILDING A RAILROAD.

Mrs. Bennett, who lives up at Saskatchewan, is a woman railroad contractor, probably the only one of her sex. ## Woman's Beauty

Some women retain their beauty to an advanced age. But women, who regularly endure pain, age rapidly, for suffering leaves its lasting marks on them.

Nearly all women suffer more or less with some form of female trouble. It should not be neglected. Avoid the pain—treat yourself at home by taking Cardui, as thousands of other women have done. Begin at once and give Cardui a fair trial.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Katie Burlison, Goreville, Ill., tried Cardui and writes: "I suffered with female troubles, and was so sick I could not stand on my feet. Finally I began to take Cardui, and soon began to mend. Now I am able to do all my housework and am in much better health than I was before." Try it.
