RICH HILL, March 26.

Township election to-morrow. City election one week from to-morrow. O. V. Washington went to Butler today.

W. O. Atkeson returned from Lamar this morning. Farmer, McGrew & Britton are closing out their stock of clothing at cost.

Will Young is the champion dice player among the bloods who throw for cigars.

Yesterday, Easter Sunday, was characterized by Easter weather—cool, drizzly and foggy.

Throwing dice for cigars at a certain drug store has lately become quite a popular game.

A couple of traveling damsels of the soiled dove order were floating around on the streets Saturday.

Quite a number of miners and young men from the country were in town yesterday, taking Easter.

A horse race was indulged in by a few parties yesterday, the race being run on the Irwin tracks, about two miles out of the city.

Owing to an absolute scarcity of eggs in the city but very few were able to celebrate Easter Sunday according to custom. Fortunate for the next generation of chickens.

Mrs. Crider and part of the family left today for Chetopa county, Kansas. Mr. Crider and the remainder of the family will leave as soon as his business matters are settled satisfactorily.

The next meeting of the church social, or mite society, will be held at the residence of Mrs. D. Hite, on Friday evening, April 6th. A cordial invitation is extended to all, especially to the young ladies and gentlemen.

A surgical operation was performed on a gentleman Saturday for steatoma by Drs. Gillett and Higgenbotham. The tumor was situated just beneath the right wing of the nose, and was entirely and successfully removed with the knife.

Religious services were held yesterday at the churches, morning and evening. Rev. Shones at the Baptist church, Rev. Reynolds at the M. E. church south, Rev. Hackney at the Brick church, Elder Spencer at the Christian church and Father Foggarty at the Catholic church.

Carroll Gray states in a letter, written to one of the city officials last week, that he will be here to commence operations on the water works as soon as the weather will permit. Every citizen of Rich Hill is interested in this matter and all are very anxious to see some visible signs indicating that we are to have the water works.

An eager, anxious, tipy throng was that at the Apollo theatre Saturday night. Such places and such things are all well enough if properly conducted. Better order and a little more decency would be quite practicable in the audi-noc room, and could be very easily established by a little trouble and exertion on the part of the police.

What got John Ingles on his ear the other day? If Dr. Gillett reads the Kansas City Times any more? Who came out winner in the big dice game Sunday afternoon? If Dr. Jones is not flashing rapidly along the road to popularity with the young ladies? What is the latent power of the trimvurate constituted by Gus Boardman, Will Blankenship and Will Ferguson? If Hard-n Douglas will attend church again next Sunday evening and sit in the same pew that he occupied last evening?

PRITTSFORD, MASS., Sept 28, 1878. SIRS—I have taken Hop Bitters and recommend them to others, as I found them very beneficial. MRS. J. W. TULLER, Sec. Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Married by Force. Miss Tennis Caldwell, of Atlanta, is either one of the wild, clinging vine type, or else the disease which has made her an interesting invalid for the past six years has absorbed her natural aggressiveness. Her father, Col. Caldwell, is a prominent citizen, and she had been a society belle until her health began to fail. On Sunday last the newspapers announced her marriage with Steven V. Allen, of Dalton, but no one knew how it had been brought about until she became conscious in the afternoon. Yesterday her father published the story. Mr. Allen had met the young lady sometime before and conceived an apparently extreme regard for her. About six weeks ago he got a marriage license, and meeting Miss Caldwell in a friend's house tried to force her into a union. She refused, and her married sister made him give her the license, which she tore to pieces. On the 22d ult., he got a duplicate license and swore he would marry her. Miss Caldwell was taken dangerously ill on the 19th, and was treated with morphine. On Wednesday, she became convalescent, and on Thursday she started out to see her physician. Several hours later she returned, apparently under great excitement, and went to bed. Up to Sunday afternoon she was delirious, and then, as consciousness returned, she gave them an account of what befell her on Thursday. After going from home a short distance, she felt faint and dizzy, and started to return. A hack that she had noticed behind her then drove up, and a man forced her into it. He took her to the Southern hotel and detained her until Steven Allen and Judge Pitchford entered. The judge said he had been sent for to marry somebody. She protested, but the ceremony was, nevertheless, performed. Allen then left with his friend, N. T. Bullock, for Dallas. The girl went home direct. Judge Pitchford and the Colonel met yesterday, but were prevented from injuring each other. The judge said that Miss Caldwell consented to the marriage, but asked that it be kept secret until she should be better. Her husband has not been heard from.

ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT.

Two Young Men Taken in Custody at Windsor Yesterday.

Correspondence of the Bazoo.

WINDSOR, March 27.

Our little city was considerably surprised to-day by one T. A. Dillon, a farmer of some note, living in the vicinity of Calhoun, swearing out warrants for the arrest of Ben Smith, son of W. H. Smith, of our city, and Ben Fair, brother-in-law to Ben Smith, charging them with felonious assault with intent to kill and rob him on last Sunday night.

The parties fired several shots and one was not very far off its mark, as part of Mr. Dillon's coat sleeve was carried away. Mr. Dillon returned the fire, but the parties escaped unhurt.

Smith was arrested to-day, and it is more than likely that he will be sent where he should have been years ago, as he is a bad character.

Fair has not been arrested yet, though the constable has gone after him. The preliminary examination will take place to-morrow.

LATER.

Fair was arrested this evening by Marshal Major at Mrs. Elbert's, about four miles south of town, where he was hired to work on a farm. He was very much excited.

NEVADA NOTES.

W. B. Walker is down with the measles. W. S. Peck and wife left for Sedalia, their future home, yesterday evening.

Dr. Rockwood, wife and daughter will leave in a few days for Texas to be gone some time.

J. P. Hart, a live stock man of Fort Scott, was in the city the first of the week, buying and shipping cattle.

Miss Mattie Long came in Tuesday from the Indian Territory, on a visit to relatives and friends.

Mr. Ramsey has purchased the restaurant formerly run by Billy Walker, and is doing an excellent business.

Wm H. Cooper, from the vicinity of Moundville, turned up at Nevada on Monday and thereby lost his grip.

Judge Chas. G. Burton is going, to-morrow, to Greenfield to hold a term of court and will not return until the last of next week.

C. M. Keys, a stock man of St. Louis, spent the first of the week in this city on business. Keys is very popular with the boys of Nevada.

W. J. Lansdown and family came in from Butler yesterday and will locate here. We do not wish Butler any harm, but we would not care how many such men as Mr. L. would agree to stay with us.

Dr. Kelso has ordered a new suit of clothes, and this fact, taken in connection with his trip to Ellis last Sunday, through mud and rain, looks suspicious, to say the least.

Good Advice.

You will prevent and cure the greater part of the ills that afflict mankind in this or any section, if you keep your stomachs, liver and kidneys in working order. There is no medicine known that does this as surely as Parker's Ginger Tonic. It will keep your blood rich and pure, and give you good health at little cost. See other columns.

The Professor's Duty.

Charlotteville (Va.) Chronicle. Dr. Hiden, in his Sunday morning lecture, said, concerning the mysteries of the Bible, that he preferred to say that he didn't know. He was willing to accept the statement that Balaam's ass spoke, but he didn't know how it was that he spoke. The wisest answer we can give, very frequently, is "I don't know." In this connection he told an anecdote of Prof. Bledsoe, professor of mathematics in the university, more than twenty years. A young man was plying him with questions, to each of which he answered, "I don't know." "Why, Professor," said the youngster, "I thought we came to the university for you to tell us what we didn't know?" "Young man," said Prof. Bledsoe, "you came here for me to tell you what I know, and that's a very short story; to tell you what you don't know would be an endless undertaking."

Capt. S. W. Smith is down with an attack of biliousness, but nothing serious will come of it.

Mr. Ben R. Lingle is making preparations for establishing an exclusive grocery stand in the northern end of town.

New comers are rapidly filling the store rooms and dwellings here, and the belief is that Warsaw will really boom.

Another census should be taken of Warsaw. There are certainly more people here than is credited to the town. Let us have it.

R. W. Campbell is getting well fixed up in his new office. Better business or more accommodating business men are hard to find.

Fred Smith, who, for several weeks, has been holding cases on the Alton, Ill., Democrat, returned home yesterday evening, looking somewhat improved.

Mr. M. B. Drake, the gentleman who serves choice steaks and roasts in the nearest styles, is enjoying the profits of a good business, all of which he deserves.

There is a move on foot to establish a new flouring mill here. Something over $200 has been subscribed toward the enterprise, and the manipulators seem sure of success.

Mr. L. F. Nofzer and Joseph Walton, two of Warsaw's enterprising merchants, have recently returned from St. Louis, where they had been to buy spring and summer goods.

Wm. J. Huse, the elected editor of the new republican paper, is elated over the birth of a girl at his house. A good pun, referring to the event, is looked for from the humorous editor of the Enterprise.

Quite a rare event occurred south of the river last week. Mrs. Zook, a widow of eighty-six summers, gave a party to the young folks in honor of her birth day. It isn't reported whether Mrs. Zook danced or not.

A star has fallen in Warsaw, and now it is "Kreuzky's hotel and restaurant," instead of "Star restaurant." Mr. Kreuzky, aided by his amiable wife, has built up an excellent trade in Warsaw, both local and transient.

Ten wagons arrived in this city from Climax Springs, last week, for the purpose of carrying lumber to that thriving young town for the erection of a hotel of one hundred rooms. Mr. S. P. Johns, our live lumberman, filled the bill.

Taking the saloon men at their words, the high license law cuts no figure toward stopping their business. They will pay for their license and continue straight ahead. The only thing which troubles them is the getting of sufficient names on their petitions.

A grand time is expected here to-morrow night. A concert and ice cream supper will be the order of the evening. It is hoped that all who attend will be liberal in expenditures, as the proceeds are to be placed toward benefitting the Baptist church.

The BAZOO suggests that the Benton county officials, from representative to the city marshal, have a large number of group photos taken and distribute them among their friends. Nothing would take better, and it is a settled fact that a set of finer looking men cannot be found.

NEWSPAPER NOTES.

The Enterprise has gained wonderful popularity since being taken hold of by Bob Richardson. Bob is a lively fellow with an eye ever turned to business, and in a week or two he will drop the "patent" side of his paper and turn out an exclusive home sheet. With R. H. Womack and Col. Jake Arthur as assistants there can be no reason why the Enterprise should not "get there."

The Benton County Republican, it is said, will make its appearance about the first of April. Mr. P. D. Hastain will be business manager, Mr. W. J. Huse, editor and Mr. Ben R. Lingle, foreman. This was what the BAZOO was told, but the new paper is something you can learn nothing about. The proprietors seem extremely desirous of keeping the matter a secret, but for what purpose no one knows. The people here are becoming anxious to see it, and will not wait much longer before doubting its appearance at all.

The Times, one of the truest principled and most unprejudiced papers in the state, with Capt. S. W. Smith still at the helm, is gaining more and more admirers each week of its life, for the generous spirit shown in trying to ward off an unpleasantness which was sprung by men of his own party. The BAZOO hates to see prejudice in any shape, but in this case it is perfectly certain that when the end comes, the enemies of the Times will be under a tub and that tub Capt. Smith will stand, waving the union flag. Mingled in the stars and stripes will be seen the single word, "victory."

Tobacco is quoted at $2 50 and $5 per hundred pounds in Carrollton.

They who cry loudest are not always the most hurt. Kidney-Wort does its work like the Good Samaritan, quickly, unostentatiously, but with great thoroughness. A New Hampshire lady writes: "Mother has been afflicted for years with kidney diseases. Last spring she was very ill and had an alarming pain and numbness in one side. Kidney-Wort proved a great blessing and has completely cured her."

BATHED IN HUMAN GORE.

Playing Burglars on the Old Man, and the Way it Worked.

Peck's Sun.

"I heard ma tell pa to bring up another bottle of liniment last night," the bad boy remarked to the grocery man. "When ma corks herself, or has a pain anywhere she just uses liniment for all that out, and a pint bottle don't last more than a week. Well, I told my chum, and we laid for pa. The liniment ma uses is offul hot, and almost blistered. Pe went to the Langtry show, and did not get home till 11 o'clock, and me and my chum decided to teach pa a lesson. I don't think it is right for a man to go to theatres and not take his wife and little boy. So we concluded to purple pa. We agreed to lay on the stairs, and when he came up my chum was to hit him on the head with a dried bladder, and I was to stab him on the breast pocket with a stick, and break the liniment bottle and make him think he was killed. It couldn't have worked better if we had rehearsed it. We had talked about burglars at the supper time and got pa nervous, so when he came up stairs and was hit on the head with the bladder, the first thing he said was 'burglars, by mighty!' And he started to go back, and then I hit him on the breast pocket, where the bottle was, and then we rushed by him down stairs, and I said in a stage whisper, 'I guess he's a dead man,' and we went down to the cellar and up the back stairs to my room and undressed. Pa hollered to me that he was murdered, and ma called me, and I came down in my night shirt, and the hired girl she came down, and pa was on the lounge, and he said his life blood was fast ebbing away. He held his hand on the wound and said he could feel the warm blood trickling clear down to his boots. I told pa to stuff some tar into the wound, such as he told me to put on my lip to make my moustache grow, and pa said, 'my boy this is no time for trifling. Your pa is on his last legs. When I came up stairs I met six burglars, and I attacked them and forced four of them down, and was going to hold them and send for the police, when two more, that I did not know about, jumped on me, and I was getting the best of them, when one of them struck me over the head with a crow-bar and the other stabbed me to the heart with a butcher knife. I have received my death wound my boy, and my hot southern blood that I offered up so freely for my country in her time of need, is passing from my body, and soon your pa will be only a piece of poor clay. Get some ice and put on my stomach, and all the way down, for I am burning up.' I went to the water pitcher and got a chunk of ice and put it inside pa's shirt, and while ma was tearing up an old skirt to stop the flow of blood, I asked pa if he felt better, and if he could describe the villains who had murdered him. Pa gasped and moved his legs to get them cool from the clotted blood, he said, and he went on: 'One of them was about six feet high and had a sandy moustache. I got him down and hit him in the nose, and if the police find him his nose will be broke. The second one was thick set and weighed about 200. I had him down and my boot was on his neck, and I was knocking two more down when I was hit. The thick set one will have the mark of bootheels on his throat. Tell the police, when I am gone, about the boot heel marks.' By this time ma had got the skirt tore up, and she stuffed it under pa's shirt, right where he said he was hit, and pa was telling us what to do to settle his estate, when ma began to smell the liniment, and she found the broken bottle in his pocket, and searched pa for the place where he was stabbed, and then she began to laugh, and pa got mad and said he didn't see as a deathbed scene was such an awful funny affair, and then she told him he was not hurt, but that he had fallen on the stairs and broke his bottle, and there was no blood on him, and he said: 'Do you mean to tell me my body and legs are not bathed in human gore?' and then pa got up and found it was only the liniment. He got mad and asked ma why she didn't fly around and get something to take that liniment off his legs as it was eating them right through to the bone, and then he saw my chum put his head in at the door, with one gallus hanging down, and pa looked at me and then said, 'Look-abere, if I find out it was you boys that put up this job on me, I'll make it so hot for you that you'll think liniment is ice cream in comparison.' I told pa that it did not look reasonable that me and my chum could be six burglars, six feet high, with our noses broke and boot-heel marks on our neck, and pa he said for us to go to bed afired quick, and give him a chance to rinse off that liniment, and we retired. Say, how does my pa strike you as a good single-handed liar?" and the boy went up to the counter while the groceryman went after a scuttle of coal.

RELIABLE TESTIMONY.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Sept. 6, 1882.

Hop Bitters Co.

I am 74 years old, have lived 34 years in Philadelphia, and am well known among Germans. I have been troubled 12 years with a white swelling on my right foot, and getting worse every year, and very painful, and breaking out in hot weather. I consulted several doctors and they told me it was incurable and I would have to take it with me to the grave. Some time ago I lost my appetite, was costive had headache and fever, in fact was very sick. I saw in the German Democrat that Hop Bitters was what I needed. I got a bottle, took it one week and was as well again as ever, and to my greatest surprise right from the first, my swelling went down gradually and taking another bottle I got entirely well of it. The wife of my neighbor had two such swellings on her legs, and three bottles cured her. I think this is a great triumph for your bitters.

JOHN STOLL, No. 5 Young's Alley, above Willow street.

STIPPSHILL, IND., Nov. 13, 1881.

DEAR SIR—I have read so much about Hop Bitters, and always being afflicted with neuralgia, weakness, diseased stomach, never having much health, I tried a couple of bottles; it has strengthened and helped me more than any medicine or doctor. I am now on my third bottle and am thankful that it has helped me. I will advise all that are afflicted to give it a trial. LUOY VAIL.

Hop Bitters Co.

I have been taking your Hop Bitters for several weeks, and they beat the world. L. S. LEWIS, LEWIS axels machine.

LEETONIA, PA., April 13, 1882.

Hop Bitters Co.

I have not been well for three years, tried almost every kind of patent medicines and no less than seven doctors, one of Elmira, N. Y., none have done me any good. I finally tried your Hop Bitters and found them just the thing. I have praised them so highly there is a great number here who use them with great benefit and satisfaction. Very Respectfully yours, K. HUNT.

GENTLEMEN—The Hop Bitters meet with large sales and give general satisfaction, one case in particular you should know of. Mr. John B. Green, 758, Spring Garden street, Phila Pa., has been suffering from kidney affection, which superinduced rheumatism. He tried physicians and remedies in vain. He was obliged to take morphine to induce sleep, his trouble was so great. Reading your advertisement in the "Christian at Work," he was prevailed upon by one of his daughters to try it. Three bottles effected a cure, and now he is an enthusiast for "Hop Bitters." He is one of the oldest residents in the locality named; and known as a gentleman of unusual probity. Vertigo, Dizziness and Blindness.

OFFICE UTICA MORNING HERALD, UTICA, Feb. 18, 1882.

I have been troubled with vertigo since last July, and have suffered greatly every night after any considerable exertion from dizziness and blindness. I tried two bottles of Hop Bitters, and since then have been entirely relieved. Respectfully Yours, J. J. FLANIGAN.

Hop Bitters Co. June 15 1881.

I have been suffering five years past with neuralgia liver complaint, dyspepsia and kidney complaint, and I have doctored with fourteen different doctors who did me no good. At last I tried Hop Bitters, and after using a few bottles I received a great benefit from them, and if I had used Hop Bitters regularly I would have been well before. I know them to be the best medicine in the world for nervous diseases of all kinds. BEELINGTON, Barber county, W. Va. JAMES COONTZ.

Wicked for Clergymen.

"I believe it to be all wrong and even wicked for clergymen or other public men to be led to giving testimonials to quack doctors or patent medicines, but when a really meritorious article composed of valuable remedies known to all, and that all physicians use and trust in daily, we should freely commend it. I therefore cheerfully and heartily commend Hop Bitters for the good they have done me and my friends, firmly believing they have no equal for family use. I will not be without them. Rev. B. R., Washington, D. C.

A good Baptist clergyman of Bergen, N. Y., a strong temperance man, suffered with neuralgia and dizziness almost to blindness, over two years after he was advised that Hop Bitters would cure him, because he was afraid of and prejudiced against the word "bitters." Since his cure he says none need fear but trust in Hop Bitters. My wife and daughter were made healthy by the use of Hop Bitters and I recommend them to my peop e.—Methodist Clergyman, Mexico, N. Y.

I had severe attacks of Gravel and Kidney trouble; was unable to get any medicine or doctor to cure me until I used Hop Bitters, and they cured me in a short time. A distinguished lawyer and temperance orator of Wayne county, N. Y.
