

Written for the Sunday Morning Bazaar. JUNE DAYS AND JUNE ROSES.

Oh, those June days, days departed, Of a summer, long since fled When the glowing hearted roses All their fragrant beauty shed, Not alone upon my neighbor, But upon my life as well; And they pinned the curtain, folded Round the present, like a shell. Sweet June roses, how we loved them— Janie, just the same as I— As we wove them into garlands That we thought could never die. Loved them, when the birds sang lightly, And the sky above was blue; Loved them, when the west was crimson, And their leaves were wet with dew.

FAMOUS FAVORITES.

They Got to the Front in Great Shape in Yesterday's Races.

"Alferetta," "Ruth" and "Blue Bird" Walked Off With First Money.

A Small Crowd in Attendance, and the Club is Out Some Money.

The spring meeting of the Sedalia Jockey club was brought to a close last evening after two days' racing instead of three, as was originally announced. It was the intention to postpone Saturday's races until to-morrow, but the threatening aspect of the weather caused the managers to declare the last day's races off, which was probably all for the best. That the rain has been the cause of the association losing some $300, there is scarcely a doubt, and when the different members wended their way homeward, last night, they LOOKED REMARKABLY BLUE. No association in the west has furnished better fields of horses this season than the Sedalia Jockey club, and the miserable patronage extended does not speak well for the boasted liberality of our citizens. When a representative of the BAZOO visited the park, early in the afternoon, the track was found to be in the poorest possible condition, and there were many who predicted that it would be impossible to run. The owners of horses from a distance thought different, however, and it was finally decided to make the attempt, although nothing like last time was expected to be made. At the turn at the home stretch there was A PERFECT SEA OF MUD, making it exceedingly dangerous for the animals in making the circle, and the only wonder is that there is not more than one accident to record. Early in the day the horse "Alphonso," entered in the half mile race by J. W. Sparks, of Sedalia, was being exercised on the course, when he slipped and injured himself to such an extent that it was impossible for him to go in the race in which he had been entered. This was the only accident of the day. POOL SELLING. The selling of pools on the grounds was anything but brisk, and even those taken were for small amounts. Quite a number had previously been sold, however, both on Thursday and Friday nights, and in addition to those, numerous bets were made on the outside for large and small amounts. Before commencing the afternoon sport, Secretary Beiler announced that the race for the merchants' purse, $125 for the first horse and $50 to second, would be only one and one-quarter miles instead of two and one-quarter, owing to the HEAVY CONDITION OF THE TRACK. A few minutes before 3 o'clock Judge Warden, of Moberly; and Warder Cumming and B. B. Lyon, of this city, were chosen judges, Dr. Ed. Small time-keeper and Frank Kidwell distance judge. The first race of the afternoon was three-quarter mile heats, for a purse of $150-$100 to first horse and $50 to second—in which there were the following entries: "Little Joker" entered by Wm. Brady, of Peoria, Ill. "Dawn of Day" entered by Isaac Glover, of Council Bluffs. "Alferetta," entered by T. Uptegrove, of Montgomery City. The choice for positions resulted in "Little Joker" winning the pole, "Alferetta" second and "Dawn of Day" third. THE RACE. An excellent start was had, the three horses getting off in a bunch. Almost instantly "Alferetta" shot to the front, with "Little Joker" second, while "Dawn of Day" was a length behind. In this position they traveled until the quarter pole, or starting point, was reached, when "Dawn of Day" commenced to gain on "Little Joker," who was then a length behind "Alferetta." When the home stretch was reached "Dawn of Day" passed "Little Joker" for first place, but the latter was the fleetest footed and came in winner by a length, with "Joker" four lengths in the rear. Time—1:25. SECOND HEAT. Another good start was had in the second heat, and again "Alferetta" went to the front, although crowded by "Dawn of Day." After running a quarter of a mile they passed under the wire with "Alferetta" a length in the lead of "Dawn of Day" and "Joker" three lengths behind. At the half mile pole the three horses were strung out with about a length between them, and so they ran to the home stretch, when "Joker" passed "Dawn of Day" and closed up with Alferetta. It was a pretty sight to witness as they came thundering down the track, neck and neck, and the wildest excitement prevailed, for it was impossible to say which would win the heat. The riders of both horses put forth every exertion, and when they passed under the wire the heat had been won by "Little Joker" by about eight inches, while "Dawn of Day" was several lengths in the rear. Time—1:26. "Dawn of Day" was sent to the barn for not winning a heat, and renewed interest centered on "Little Joker," whose splendid staying qualities had won for him many friends. There was, for a brief period, great activity in pools, and if there was any choice, it was in favor of "Little Joker." THIRD HEAT. After waiting about a quarter of an hour the horses were called up for the third and last heat. A better start could not have been asked for, although some little time was consumed in getting it. When the drum tapped both horses were off like a flash, but ere many yards had been traversed "Alferetta" was slightly in the lead, and at the quarter pole led by a length. At the second quarter "Joker" lapped "Alferetta," and so they ran until the home stretch was reached, when the latter forged ahead and passed under the wire a length in advance of "Joker," in 1:27. A foul was claimed by "Joker" rider, but was not allowed, as it should not have been. At this time, Judge Warden stepped to the front of the judges' stand, holding in his hand the three silk caps to be awarded to the jockeys who should prove the winners in the day's races, which were presented by McNulty Bros., of this city. As Pat Stanton, the rider of "Alferetta," had won the first race, he was given his choice of caps, and chose a handsome blue silk, leaving a red and scarlet for the victors in the two remaining races. THE MILE AND A QUARTER DASH. The following were the entries in this race, the purse being $150-$100 to first, and $50 to second horse: "Ruth," entered by W. B. Jennings, of Moberly, Mo. "Willie B," entered by Wm. Brady, of Peoria, Ill. "Vallett," entered by Marvin & Douglas, of Sedalia. In the pools "Ruth" was first choice, with "Vallett" second and "Willie B" third. The choice for positions gave the pole to "Willie B," second place to "Ruth" and third to "Vallett." An even start was had, when "Vallett" took position in front, but at the first quarter passed under the wire nose and nose with "Ruth," while "Willie B" was three lengths behind. Another circle around the course placed "Ruth" more than a length in advance of "Vallett," and still "Willie B" was in the rear by several lengths. "Ruth" rider, after passing under the wire pulled his animal up, thinking he had ridden a mile and a quarter, and the race was over, but soon discovered his mistake and urged his horse to renewed speed, all of which was necessary, for "Vallett" was getting to the front in great shape. The last half was run with "Ruth" more than a length in the lead for the entire distance, and she stepped under the wire fully two lengths in the lead of "Vallett," who was about the same distance ahead of "Willie B." Time—2:24. Charlie Logan, the rider of "Ruth," was then given his choice of the two remaining silk caps and chose the red one. THE LAST RACE. It was half mile heats for a purse of $125-$100 to the first and $50 to second, in which there were the following entries, "Alphonso" being withdrawn: "Trix," entered by F. E. Sage, of Larkens, Kansas. "Blue Bird," entered by Marvin & Douglas, of Sedalia. "Jake Gresham," entered by T. Uptegrove. "Blue Bird" won the pole, "Gresham" second and "Trix" third. In the start "Gresham" was two lengths behind. "Blue Bird" at once took the lead and at the quarter pole was two lengths ahead of "Trix." In this manner they ran until the home stretch was reached, when "Blue Bird" increased her lead to three lengths, winning by that distance, with "Trix" half a length in advance of "Gresham." Time—56 1-2 seconds. SECOND HEAT. It was a pretty start, but "Blue Bird" was not content with anything but first place, which she kept all the way around, winning by a length, with "Gresham" six lengths behind. Time—56 seconds. In this race Bob Spalding, the well-known colored jockey, was awarded the last silk cap. And so ended the first and probably the last spring meeting of the Sedalia Jockey club. MARSHALL MATTERS.
