The Jaynes' Monument

The work of setting up the monument of Col. A. D. Jaynes was completed yesterday. It is of Scotch granite and an exceedingly fine work of art, the color being especially beautiful.

The Jaynes monument is a very costly and elaborate affair, as can be surmised when it is known that the freight bill alone amounts to $730.60. The granite was shipped from Aberdeen, Scotland, and Messrs. Clay & Heymer, of this city, were the contractors and deserve great credit for the skill and artistic taste displayed, samples of which equally as fine, can be found in many parts of the state.

The cost of the monument will aggregate $6,500.

A Fall in Wheat. Yesterday as John G. Senior was unloading a load of wheat at the elevator in Lamonte his mule team became unmanageable and in their struggle finally went off the drive way, falling to the ground twenty feet below. The wagon was totally wrecked and the mules badly but not fatally hurt. Mr. Senior escaped without injury.

Foot Fettered. Sherman Foote was yesterday arrested by Constable Wallace, on a warrant, charging him with having disturbed the meeting of the Georgetown library association on the 15th of March last. A warrant has been issued for him for sometime, but he has evaded capture, until yesterday. He was taken before Justice Marvin and gave bond for his appearance July 13th.

Wm. H. Kerns Dead.

The Globe Democrat says: W. H. Kerns, died at his residence, 3107 Lucas avenue, yesterday afternoon, after a brief illness. He was secretary of the National Editorial Association, whose meeting was at Cincinnati. He was editor of the Great South West, and of an agricultural journal at Little Rock, as well as a contributor to the Journalist and other periodicals. His health has been failing for some time, and he recently spent a couple of months at Hot Springs. On his return, about two weeks ago, he seemed considerably better, but the improvement did not last, and he, unfortunately, drank too freely for a man with a debilitated constitution. He was found in an unconscious condition on the streets on Sunday, and taken to the City Dispensary, where he gave every indication of delirium. A card in his pocket disclosed his address, to which he was taken, but in spite of every care, he grew worse, and expired yesterday. He leaves a widow, but no children. His remains will be taken to his former home in Sedalia.

Levens' Levee.

The extreme heat seems to have a tendency to warm the blood of the average bruiser into belligerent activity, judging from the number and nature of the warrants considered by Recorder Levens yesterday.

Jane Stevens and Ellen Chilcote were the first to appear. They were charged with raising an unseemly racket and indulging in violent demonstrating prejudicial to the peace and good order of the neighborhood.

His honor, at their request, allowed them until next Monday morning to answer.

Henry Leist, who keeps a clothing store on East Maine street, and Ed. Parker, were next arraigned and also allowed until Monday to answer to a charge of disturbing the peace by fighting. Each gave bond for his appearance in the sum of $50.

Ed Walker was in a very dilapidated condition and seemed to be suffering from terrible bruises and cuts about the head and shoulders. He stated that Leist had demanded of him the payment of a bill which he had already settled and on his refusal attacked him with some kind of a weapon inflicting the injuries named. Leist's hand was also badly lacerated. He claim it was done by a knife in the hands of Mr. Parker, but the latter denied having had any knife and the police claims that the wounds are evidently the result of the concussion on the weapon used by Leist when he struck Parker.

The next pair of victims to appear were H. J. Murrell, white, and Frank Bell, colored, they were charged with engaging in a fistcuff and placed under a bond of $50 each for their appearance Monday.

Crazy.

James Finley, a poor demented creature who some time ago was carted off to Sedalia by the Carriage authorities, doubtless with a view to get rid of him, and who was sent out of town by Marshal Jackson some two weeks ago, again made his appearance at police headquarters yesterday.

Finley is an ex-convict from the Leavenworth penitentiary, where he is said to have been incarcerated for mule stealing. He is now, however, entirely non compos mentis and ought to be cared for. It is said he has relatives living north of Sedalia.

Health first, riches afterward. All forms of heart diseases, including palpitation, rheumatism, spasms, bony formation, enlargement, valvular derangements, acute pains in left breast, etc., yield to the use of Dr. Graves' Heart Regulator. $1 per bottle at druggists.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gum, allays all pains, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

$250 000 To loan, Sedalia and Central Missouri—$200 and up. Very lowest rates. Edly F. Houston, 419 Ohio street.

MISSOURI MILITIA.

Grand Preparations for the Annual Encampment at Sweet Springs.

The Whole Force to be on the Grounds by To-Night.

How They Will Come and Where They Will Come From.

Other News, Notes and Odds at Missouri's Saratoga.

Sweet Springs, July 10.—[Special.]—Everything is hurry and bustle here, preparatory to the inauguration of the grandest event which has ever transpired at the Springs, the military encampment, which opens to-morrow.

Governor Marmaduke and Adjutant Jamison are here and very busy with an able corps of assistants, as is also Capt. Hillier, quartermaster of the Fifth regiment, and his aide, Sergeant Duetsch.

Nearly all the preparations are complete, and the grounds for camping and drill purposes are in excellent condition, and on to-morrow when the troops arrive they will find everything ready for a royal reception.

Latest advices report everything at the different military headquarters moving smoothly and without a hitch, and though this is the first regular encampment in years indications are that it will bear more the appearance and regularity of the movements of an army of regulars than of fresh militia. Thanks to the skill and experience of Governor Marmaduke and his able aides. Advices from St. Louis state that the first brigade will leave that city and proceed to this point in the following order:

The Cavalry Company will assemble at their headquarters at the Armory, mounted and in uniform, at 1 o'clock to-day. An order issued by Capt. P. L. Henry directs that the troopers shall be provided with "white gloves, uniforms shirt, towels, soap and such other things as are required." The troops will leave the Armory at 1:30 o'clock sharp and march to the depot at Seventh and Popular streets, where their horses will be loaded on freight cars. A special car will be attached to the through freight train for the convenience of the men. The train leaves at 3 o'clock and will arrive at Sweet Springs about noon Sunday. Capt. Henry will report to Col. Wm. Bull at camp, and will be assigned quarters.

The guns of the battery will be taken to the Springs on the cavalry company's train, the members of the command accompanying the first regiment on the following day. The First Regiment will assemble at the Armory at 7 o'clock Sunday morning, prepared for a six day's service. The troops will be drawn up for inspection by the company commanders. Maj. Comfort will then assume command, and with the regimental drum corps in the front the regiment will march to the Union Depot, where they will take a special train on the Missouri Pacific road for Sweet Springs, arriving here on the evening train of the same day. They will proceed to the camp grounds immediately, and Maj. Comfort will report for duty to Col. Bull, and the regiment will be assigned to quarters.

A COMPLETE ROSTER OF THE BRIGADE is as follows: Lieut-Col Robert Buchanan commanding, Capt. Edwin Batdorf, A. A. G. Capt. Michael Fritz and Capt. Geo. A. Priest, Aides de-Camp. First regiment: Maj. The Fifth regiment which is composed of the Springfield, Carthage, Joplin, Pierce City, Lamar, and Nevada light guards, and the Carthage band, will arrive by a special from the south Sunday evening about 4:30. The other company of this regiment, the Cape Girardeau light guards, will come via of St. Louis.

Missouri Teachers' Academy.

The summer school of science and pedagogies has been in session here since June 25th. At the instance of Rev. Norton, of Cape Girardeau, heartily seconded by Dr. Laws, President Osborne, Profs. Allen, Smith, Lynch, Doyle and others now here, a movement was made looking to an organization which will occupy a sphere heretofore unoccupied in the state, and whose success will tend to strengthen and reinforce all other efforts and organizations in the educational field of labor in Missouri. A full organization was effected on July 7th. The name "Missouri Teachers' Academy" was applied, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, S. S. Laws, Columbia. First vice-president, B. C. Norton, Cape Girardeau. Second vice-president, N. J. Morrison, Springfield. Secretary, T. Perry Smith, Fayette. Treasurer, W. H. Lynch, West Plains. The first regular meeting will be held at

TRICKY TRIMMER.

He Arrived Last Night and Indulged in His Usual Amount of Gush.

John Trimmer Heard, the absconding member of congress in the sixth district, arrived in the city on the midnight train last night. He indulged in his usual amount of hand-shaking and was very jubilant when he met a BAZOO reporter at Siders's hotel. He had received several telegrams, one of which stated that Morgan county was for him solid. While it may be possible and even probable that the various townships in Morgan county instructed their delegates for him, yet as has often been demonstrated, they are liable to change their minds, when in a county convention, especially where the contest is as interesting as in this district.

In Boone county the convention was held yesterday, and the Trimmer rejoices on the wrong side of his mouth in the fact that he received five votes, against nine for Rev. W. Pope Yeaman.

"How about Howard county?" asked the BAZOO of Mr. Heard last night.

"I will carry it solid," said the Trimmer in the presence of a few gentlemen, who winked incredulously.

"Where were you to-day, Mr. Heard?"

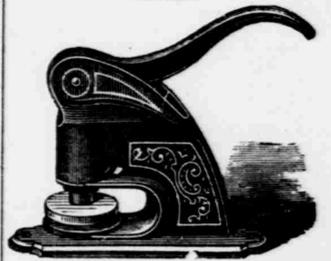

"At Glasgow, in Howard county, and I made an excellent speech, oh, I am solid over there, as I previously remarked."

After a brief consultation with several of his henchmen, the soon to be ex-congressman, announced that he was tired and went to rest at Siders's.

The Boycott.

The Tribune says: "The boycott is an odious, lawless, wholly un-American practice. It is a coward's and a bully's weapon; a base agency whereby sturdy loafers may wreak a sneaking vengeance upon poor women. Labor, American labor, that is to say, cannot afford to ally itself with those who resort to so contemptible a practice. Public opinion, which is so potent in the United States, will not countenance any such proceeding. The Chicago Knights of Labor have had the sense to realize this fact, and have cut loose from the anarchists and their works. We hope the New York labor organizations and those of all the rest of the country will promptly follow suit, and so convince the foreign mischief-makers that if they are not prepared to abandon their objectionable doctrines and accept American governmental theories they would better return from whence they came."
