He has engaged a large number of able criminal lawyers to defend him and is perfectly confident of success, he says. —Could Not Reform.
 James N. Hyde a carpenter at Bolivar, Mo., committed suicide last week by taking a dose of rough on rats. He made repeated attempts to quit drinking and at last disgusted by his weakness he ended his troubles in the manner stated. He was a few years ago an employe in the M., K. & T., car shops and lived in East Sedalia.

—A New Notary Public.
 A. S. Hammer, of Sedalia, was appointed a notary public. He filed his bond in the county clerk's office yesterday and received the papers necessary for beginning his duties.

The Public Schools.

The enrollment in the public schools last week far exceeded expectations, and it is extremely doubtful whether the buildings are large enough to accommodate the pupils, notwithstanding the large additions that have been made. The capacity of the school buildings was increased over a third, and supposed to be ample for several years to come, but it appears that the boom is not confined to business alone. The number of children which find homes in East Sedalia is simply wonderful. The residents of that part of the town seem to take all of the children the Lord gives them a chance to get.

A BIG EAR OF CORN.

A Thousand Perfect Grains on a Single Ear of Missouri Corn.

Maj. Wm. Gentry, president of the county court brought to the BAZOO office yesterday a wonderful ear of corn containing 1000 grains. The ear is 15 inches long, of a white variety. Every grain is perfect. The ear, remarkable as it is, is only a fair specimen of a whole field on his place. Missouri takes the cake for corn this year.

ROBBED AGAIN.

Ten Thousand Dollars Stolen From the Pacific Express.

The Pacific express has had a streak of hard luck running through the past two months, but the losses have been small until Friday, when over $10,000 was stolen from the company's safe on the M. K. & T. between Belton and Echo in Texas Thursday night. It has been the practice of the company to send money packages between the large towns in locked safes placed on the through trains without a messenger. There was no messenger on the safe robbed. The train reached Belton at midnight and the safe was set out on the depot platform, where it remained until morning. There was no watchman at the depot. When the messenger called for the safe next morning it was unlocked and all of the packages gone. It was not known whether the robbery was committed on the train or on the platform. No clue has been obtained yet.

Died White on a Visit.

The Chicago Times Sale.

The Chicago Times has been sold to a syndicate headed by William Henry Smith the chief of the Associated Press for $250,000. Story, the founder of the paper refused two millions for the property a short time before his death. A Serious Runaway.

Mr. E. E. Galusha, who resides north of the city, met with a painful accident Friday afternoon, while driving to this place to take the train for a point in Iowa. His team was spirited and ran off about four miles north of the city. The buggy was demolished and Mr. Galusha sustained a compound fracture of the left leg. He was unable to get up and lay in the roadway until discovered by some parties passing. He was taken to the residence of County Assessor Wood. Doctors Fleischman and Yancy dressed the wounds.

Headlong from a Bicycle.

At the great bicycle race at Independence, Mo., Friday, a young bicyclist named Willie Clark, aged 12, was thrown headlong from his bicycle. His head struck a rock and he is probably fatally injured. The lad attended the bicycle meet here on the 4th of July and attracted considerable attention on account of being a superior rider.

Married.

Christopher A. Seibe and Miss Levy E. McNeal, of this county, were united in marriage by Justice Halstead last evening.

A DASTARDLY CRIME.

An Attempt to Blow up a Block of Buildings in Nevada Frustrated by a Timely Discovery.

By mere accident a plan for blowing up the Mitchell-Ingels block in Nevada was discovered Tuesday evening, just in time to prevent an indescribable horror, as four or five families with numerous children lived in the upper room, and the business rooms were still occupied. A can, two-thirds full of powder and fifteen sticks of dynamite were secreted behind a safe in the southeast corner of the building, and when discovered, a fuse three feet in length was on fire and rapidly burning toward the concealed explosives. The discovery was made about half past 9 o'clock and caused intense excitement. A stranger, giving his name as Rev. W. H. Pumphrey, pastor of the Presbyterian church there, was arrested. He had been in the vicinity of the building but a few moments before. Several times during the day he had been seen examining the building and acting in a peculiar manner. A telegram from the city marshal at Garnett saying that Pumphrey was the man he represented himself to be and was highly respected. On the strength of this telegram the preacher was released. No reason can be assigned for the dastardly affair and so far no clues have been found.

NIMBLE HEELS.

George Franklin Severely Injured by a Kicking Horse?

George Franklin was kicked and severely injured by a horse yesterday morning. He was trying to catch it and just as he reached out his hand to take hold of its head, it whirled and kicked, one heel striking him in the back just above the hip. Friends came to his rescue and his lower limbs seem to be so helpless that it was feared that they were paralyzed. Dr. Ed. Evans examined the injury and found no bones broken, and the patient soon regained the use of his limbs. The injury is quite painful, but is not regarded as serious.

THE BASE BALL GAME.

The "Kids" do the "Regulars" up in Fine Style by a Score of 18 to 6.

The "Kids" and the "Regulars," select nines from the various departments of the M. K. & T. general offices, played a match game on the general office grounds yesterday afternoon. A large crowd of spectators was present and the many good points of the game were loudly cheered. Nine innings were played and the score stood eighteen to six in favor of the irrepressible "Kids." The position of the players was as follows:

KIDS.	REGULARS.
Roach.....catcher.....	Wansbrough
Tyler.....pitcher.....	Roach
Barnett.....left field.....	Tanner
Gatlin.....first base.....	Diggs
Mayer.....short stop.....	Kelsey
McClure.....second base.....	Dewey
Mitchell.....center field.....	Lyons
Stewart.....third base.....	Newell
Nealy.....right field.....	VanDyne
Lingo and Roe umpires.

The "He, She, Him, Her" theatrical company announced that they would present a handsome present to the club winning the game, and accordingly last night the performance in the opera house, a beautiful club, marked with a silver band, and bearing the inscription, "Presented by Geo. H. Adams and Tom Hanlin to the 'kids,'" was presented to the "kids."

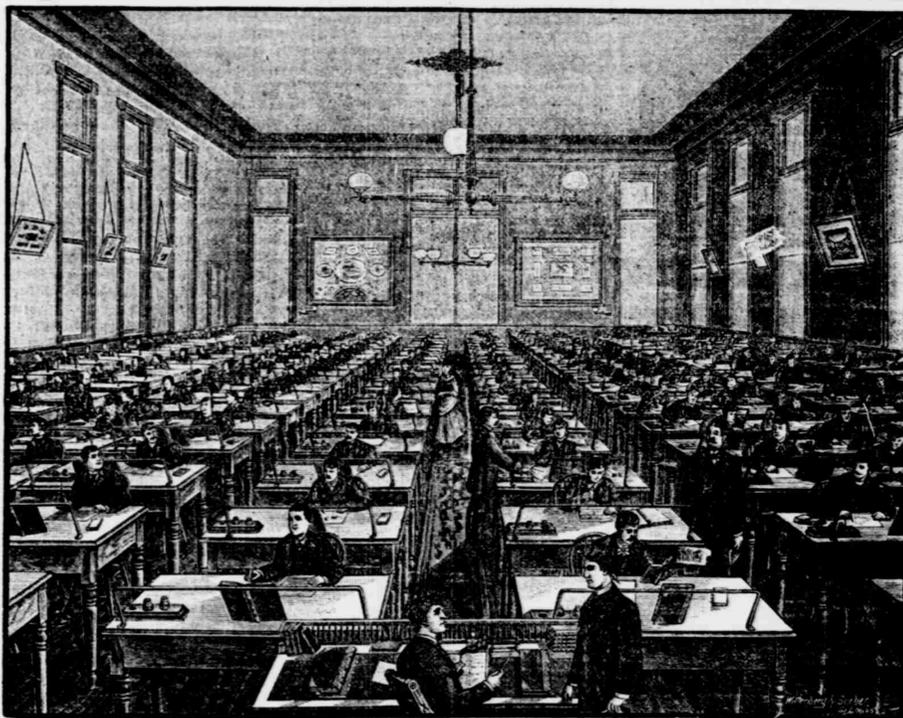

Death of Mrs. Max David.

The funeral of Mrs. Max David took place from the family residence yesterday afternoon. The Hebrew burial ceremony was conducted by Rabi Berkowitz of the Kansas City synagogue and was beautiful and impressive. The flower tributes were so numerous that the casket was buried beneath them. The burial took place at the city cemetery.

A DESERTED WIFE

Is Insulted and Abused Because she objects to Loving her Husband.

Mrs. Carrie Miller called at the residence of R. F. Ferguson, Friday, and abused and terrorized the family in a shameful manner. It appears that Ferguson had become infatuated with the charms of Mrs. Miller, and deserting his own wife and family lavished his earnings upon her, leaving his own family in a destitute condition. Mrs. Ferguson claims that Mrs. Miller followed Ferguson to several places when he went to work at his trade, and assumed very questionable relations with him. Mrs. Ferguson objected, and was inclined to raise a disturbance over the matter when Mrs. Miller called on her and threatened to kill her should she say another word about it. Mrs. Ferguson is completely terror stricken and spends her time in tears at home, with her children overwhelmed with mortification and fear. She is an excellent woman and has the sympathy of all who know the facts. Her husband should be prosecuted under the vagrant law, and if he still refuses to properly care for his family he should be sent to prison until he changes his mind. Mrs. Ferguson is a most fine looking woman than the one who has captured the affections of her husband. Mrs. Miller admits that she received the attentions of Ferguson, but claims that she thought that he was a single man. One of the justices of the peace informed a BAZOO reporter that the preliminary steps had been taken to prosecute Ferguson for vagrancy or allowing his family to become objects of charity.

Married at Fort Benton.

The following from the River Press of Fort Benton Montana, will be read with interest here as Miss Eagan is the daughter of Mrs. J. Eagan of East Sedalia and was a former well known resident here:
 "Bartley-Eagan—At the Catholic church, Fort Benton, Mont., Sep. 9th, 1889, by the Rev. Father Myers, Mr. James Bartley and Miss F. Eagan, both of this city.
 The happy event chronicled above occurred at 6 o'clock this morning in the presence of numerous friends of the contracting parties. Immediately after the ceremony the couple repaired to their cozy residence, which had been beautifully and comfortably fitted up by the groom for the reception of his lovely bride. Here at their own home an elegant wedding breakfast was served to the wedding party.
 Mr. Bartley is a young gentleman who has been in business in our midst for a number of years. He is deservedly popular with all classes, for he has ever been fair and honest in his dealings and agreeable in demeanor.
 The bride, Miss Eagan, is a niece of Mr. John Eagan, who formerly resided in our city. She is a most estimable and deserving young lady, who has won hosts of friends since she came to Fort Benton. She possesses beauty of face, a graceful form and a lovable disposition, and will make Mr. Bartley a model wife, as he will make a true and devoted husband.
 The River Press and hosts of friends join in wishing the happy pair a long and joyous life."

THE M. K. & T., IN SONG.

A Lone Star Poet Sings of the Union of the Gulf and the Lakes.

The following poem by an enthusiastic Texas stockman, clipped from the Fort Worth Gazette is a neat tribute to the enterprise of the M. K. & T., and the C. B. & Q., in crossing the country from lake to gulf, with their luxurious solid trains of palaces on wheels:

There is a land beside the sea,
 Where naught does ever vex us,
 Where man can live in perfect ease;
 This land is known as Texas.
 'Tis here the cattle roam the plains,
 Not far from where the sea is;
 'Tis here you hear the puffing trains,
 Where the M. K. and T., is.

Whole trains of stock you often see,
 For shippers do arrange it
 To go via the M. K. & T.,
 And seldom ever change it.
 The road is newly laid with steel,
 The road bed is so level,
 If you don't say it, you will feel,
 The trains run like the devil.

To Hannibal you're hurried through,
 Where the trains are standing thickest,
 Upon the old C., B. & Q.,
 The cheapest, best and quickest:
 And when your cattle you have sold
 For highest prices, maybe,
 With both your pockets full of gold,
 Go home and see the baby.

And tell your neighbors all about
 What the Katy and the "Q" did;
 And many of them will take the route,
 The same old route that you did:
 And kinder boys they'll never see,
 No better boys, or truer,
 Than on the M. K., and T.,
 and the C. B. and Q. are.

THE AGE OF MODERN MAN.

People are fond of saying that "mankind is growing wiser and weaker." But it is really so? Let us glance at the facts. According to the latest statistics there are more centenarians now living than at any previous time in the history of the world. Why? Because of great discoveries in medical science which afford him immunity from diseases that formerly devastated mankind. Greatest of them all is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the best blood-purifier and renovator of the age. Scrofula, fever-sores, tumors, unsightly ulcers and eruptions vanish like magic beneath its beneficent influence.

Bright teeth, and lips that glow the white
 Give light and color to a smile;
 And, infinitely more than this,
 Give light and color to a kiss.
 But both must suffer from the want
 Of the life-giving SOZODONT.
