Miss Clara Stryker returned last Monday from a pleasant visit to St. Louis. Will Crawford went to Lamonte, yesterday, to spend Sunday with his parents. Mrs. Julius Kolbohn left yesterday for a visit with Mrs. George Tolon at Syracuse. Mr. and Mrs. E. Mahoney, of Denison, Texas, are visiting the latter's parents here. Charlie L. Taylor and George Menefee returned last night from their Colorado trip. T. L. Bloucum, with the Robert D. Patterson Stationery company, St. Louis, is at Kaiser's. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stryker, of Fort Worth, Texas, are visiting Mr. Stryker's parents. Leslie Merry was soliciting business on the north end of the M., K. & T. yesterday. S. W. Kniffin arrived here from St. Louis yesterday morning and will remain over Sunday. Will Deyo returned yesterday from Excelsior Springs, as a sort of forerunner for the Rifles. Master Lennie Kniffin, of St. Louis, is visiting his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Stryker. John Lamm was a passenger to Pertle Springs yesterday afternoon. Sam Jones is the attraction. A. W. Stephens, of Boonville, passed through the city yesterday, on his way to Sweet Springs. John Kueck arrived from St. Louis yesterday morning, suffering from a case of typhus malaria. Ed. Demand, with D. H. Smith & Co., has gone to McAllister Springs for a three weeks' vacation. Judge Frank B. Taylor, candidate for county judge from the eastern district, was in town yesterday. J. G. Dulany, representing the Empire Lumber Co., of Hannibal, arrived at Hotel Sicker last night. John McMinn, the St. Louis traveling man, left yesterday for Versailles to spend the Sabbath with his family. Edward Hurley returned last evening to McAllister Springs, where his wife and children are spending a few weeks. Mrs. M. Stillwell and son left yesterday afternoon for Warrensburg to remain over Sunday and hear Sam Jones. Ward Hayward, the telegrapher, after a four weeks' illness, left yesterday for Sweet Springs, to remain over Sunday. Miss Lizzie Sullivan, an accomplished young lady of this city, leaves this evening for a month's sojourn at LaMonte. V. P. Hart left last night for St. Louis, and will return to-morrow with his mother, who has been receiving medical treatment. E. E. Jameson, of St. Louis, representing the Campbell Printing Press Co., was in the city yesterday and called on the BAZOO.

Major A. J. Elliott is home from Monroe county, where he went in the interest of the Old Settlers' meeting, to be held here fair week. Mrs. J. M. Cain and son, Powell, and Mrs. Crain, left yesterday for Pertle Springs to spend the Sabbath and hear Sam Jones. S. Flomerfelt, traveling for the Alden Vinegar Company of St. Louis, and wife are stopping at Mrs. Bower's on East Second street. Mrs. M. V. Neet and daughter, Mamie, of Gainesville, Texas, who have been visiting relatives here, leave to-morrow for Marshall, Mo. Mrs. Rose Guise and Miss Lynn Arnold are visiting their brother, Conductor Thos. Arnold, of the middle division of the Missouri Pacific. Miss Birdie Justin, an accomplished young lady of St. Louis, who was the guest of Miss Rose Sullivan during the past week, left for her home last evening. J. J. Frey, J. H. Hill, Walter G. Graham, J. D. Gibbs, T. H. Kehoe and a number of others visited Sweet Springs last evening and were present at the ball. Rev. M. M. Davis has returned from his trip to the Lone Star state. He says everything is prospering there, especially in Ft. Worth and Dallas, two of the liveliest towns in the land. He also says the country is boiling over politics with Hogg leading for governor. Mr. R. C. Sneed, prominent as a loan agent and real estate dealer in Sedalia, arrived in Clinton last night and went to Deepwater on business this morning accompanied by a friend. Messrs. Keeling, Newt Douglas, Snavely, Chas. Elges and W. B. Kane formed a hunting party who drove to Deepwater this morning, where they join Mr. Sneed at noon, when all will participate in shooting on their return to this city.—Clinton Democrat.

Monuments

And tombstones at your own prices. A large stock that must go.

CLAY & HEYNE, s&w North Ohio Street, Sedalia, Mo

Strayed or Stolen.

A dark bay mare 14 hands high, branded No. 10 on left shoulder; $5 will be paid for the return of mare to J. Piccard, 316 Hancock street, Sedalia. S&W

Let There Be Light

The Sedalia electric light company is putting 140 incandescent lights in Sicker's hotel, which is being remodeled so that even old-time patrons will not know the place by fair time.

The Hotel Talk.

There is no likelihood of Sedalia having a new hotel this year, at least, J. H. Doyle stated yesterday that there had been some talk on the subject, but no company had been formed. The best location in the city, according to his way of thinking, is at the northwest corner of Third and Osage streets and not on the site of the old Leroy house.

Hop at Sweet Springs.

The was a large attendance at the regular Saturday night ball at Sweet Springs, last night. Early in the evening a special train arrived Kansas City with about forty couple on board. The popularity of Sweet Springs is growing daily, there being about three hundred guests there at present.

A Remarkable Circular.

A somewhat remarkable circular was scattered broadcast yesterday, as follows: "Attention! Liberals and Free Thinkers will meet on Sunday, July 27th, at 18 o'clock a. m., sharp, at the ball over Labor Exchange building, on West Second street, in Sedalia, Mo., for the purpose of organizing a branch of the American Secular Union. Come one, come all, and assist us in keeping God out of the Constitution and in perpetuating the divorcement of Church and State. E pur si muove."

Wine and Malt Vinegar.

And Cider vinegar for sale at Frank Krueger's, 115 West Main Street, telephone 130.

Sold by The Sheriff. Sheriff Smith sold lot 5, in block 2, George R. Smith's addition to Sedalia, under a deed of trust yesterday. Mrs. Lucy E. Blocher became the purchaser, consideration being $150.

Opening Ohio.

The work of opening Ohio steet northward is progressing slowly but surely. The old Pacific house will be moved at an early date, and then an unobstructed view can be obtained from Sicker's hotel to the northern limits of the city.

Junkies in Denver.

Col. E. W. McIlhaney, who has just returned from a western trip, met Ross A. Junkins in Pueblo, Colorado, where he is employed on one of the daily papers. Mr. Junkins was city editor of this paper a few months ago, and has many friends here who will be glad to know that he is doing well.

Plenty of Bids.

Councilman Honkomp says there will be no lack of bids for the paving of Broadway at to-morrow night's meeting of the board. Six bids have already been received and the number may be increased to eight. Come along, gentlemen; the more the merrier.

She Would Public Opinion.

Miss Mamie Hogue, a daughter of E. M. Hogue, who formerly lived in Sedalia, is now an editorial writer on the San Antonio, Texas, Daily Times. She is said to be one of the most forcible and entertaining writers in the Lone Star state, and is in receipt of a weekly salary that is very clever, indeed.

Liquor Did It.

They are now sixteen inmates of the city jail, and nine of those incarcerated claim that liquor was the cause of their downfall. And yet, dear reader, the original package house has quite a move on itself throughout the land.

A Candidate in Luck.

The Windsor Review says that Mike Doherty, last week, sold to Eos Harlow, of Marshall, Saline county, 177 head of extraordinarily fine steers. They brought him $53.21 each, or $9,436 for the bunch.

Want Them to Run.

The republicans want to put John Kaiser up to be slaughtered as their candidate for county judge, and Billy Bard as their candidate for treasurer. The chances are that both gentlemen will decline to be made a target for democratic ballots. If they are wise, they will, anyhow.

Not the Farmers' Candidate.

S. A. Wright, chairman of the convention that nominated W. C. Aldridge as a candidate for congress from this district, sends out a dispatch from Marshall saying that Mr. Aldridge was nominated by the Independents and not by the Farmers' and Laborers' Union.

An Owner Wanted.

Officer McGhee, found an old valise close to the Brushy bridge yesterday, which the owner can have by calling at the calaboose. Proof of ownership will not be required, nor will ugly questions be asked. The contents were a mixed lot of old newspapers, an Argentine, Kas., notification to work out poll tax, a receipt for money paid in a lawsuit, and a very dirty handkerchief and a pair of very lousy socks.

Really Transfers.

The following deeds were filed for record yesterday: L. Baker to Wm. Baker, 136 35-100 acres of land in section 2, township 47 and range 21, for $1,800.

Chas. Airola and Andy Gardella and wife to Edward C. McGurran, the east one-fifth of the north half of southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 3, township 45, north, range 21, west of the fifth p. m. in Sedalia, except thirty feet off of the east side thereof now occupied by Washington avenue, for $2,200.

Is Himburg in Hoc?

Chief of Police Prentice yesterday received a letter and photograph from the chief of police at Madison, Wis., who wrote that the original of the picture was in custody there, but on what charge was not stated. The prisoner gave his name, the chief wrote, as Arthur Carroll, and said that his father was a shoemaker at Sedalia, Mo.

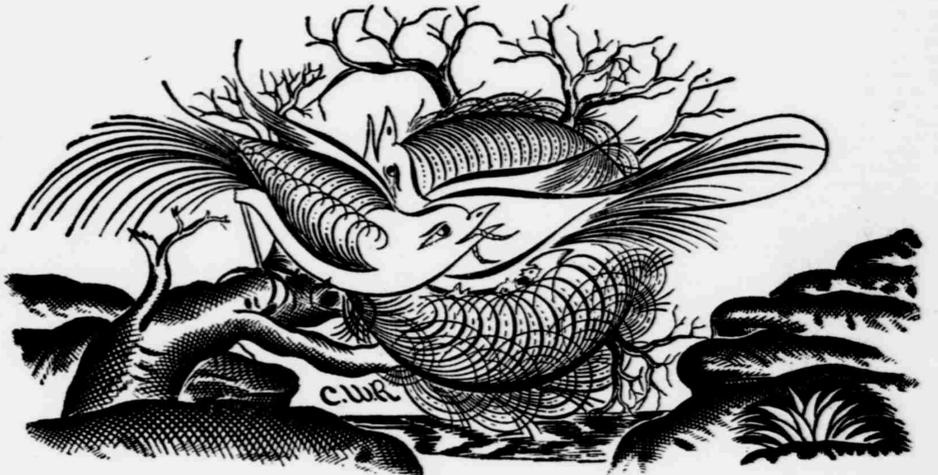

Several persons to whom the picture was shown yesterday stated that it was a splendid likeness of Charlie Himburg, son of "Fatty" Himburg, who has not been in Sedalia for some time past, and the belief prevails in police circles that Charlie is in custody at Madison under the name of Arthur Carroll.

Threw Stones at Trains.

Fred. Julius, of Higginsville, was lodged in jail at Lexington, Friday, having been ferreted out by Missouri Pacific Detective Frank Tutt, for maliciously throwing stones at passing trains.

A Collection To-day.

All the churches and Sunday schools that have not yet taken up a collection to assist in defraying the expenses of the state Sunday school convention, to be in session here August 14-17, will do so to-day, in order that the money may be turned over to County Treasurer McClure to-morrow.

Yesterday's Picnic.

Two coach loads of colored people, members and friends of Rev. Merritt's church, the Second Baptist, visited Beaman yesterday and spent the day picnicing in the grove there. The colored band accompanied them, as did also John Bird, who addressed the assembled multitude. They returned on the evening train.

Comfort For Turlington.

Turlington, the train robber and Boonville murderer, claims that his character has been ruined by the report that he stole a suit of clothes in Illinois. The St. Louis Chronicle comforts him thus: We can assure Mr. Turlington that no one will remember the clothes-theft story after he has been hanged, if that will be any consolation for him.

Return of the Rifles.

The Rifles returned at midnight from Camp Holden, Excelsior Springs, where they participated in the past week's encampment. The entire command was in the very best of health, and without a single exception they reported having had a pleasant and profitable trip.

SECRETS OF BEAUTY.—Breathes there a man who does not love a beautiful woman? Breather there a woman who does not love to be admired by man? No art can paint, no sculptor can chisel the dupled rose cheek, the lustre of the eye, the bewitching smile nor the long, luxuriant tresses—as nature presents in a beautiful woman. All females can retain their health and personal charms by the use of ENGLISH FEMALE BITTERS.

The Turleys Fined.

The Turley case was finally disposed of in the police court yesterday morning. Judge Halstead decided that the defendants, Mrs. Mary Turley and her daughters Minnie and Dede, were guilty of keeping a bawdy house and imposed a fine of $20 each. A stay of execution until Aug. 9, was granted to allow the women time to leave the city which they promised to do.

A Suit For Divorce.

One of Sedalia's prominent attorneys will file, during the coming week, a somewhat sensational petition for divorce for a fair client. The ground on which the decree will be asked is adultery, and two women of this city will be named as corespondents. An effort has been made to effect a reconciliation between the client and her liege lord, but with very little probability of success.

GEO. TOWNSLEY,

The Jeweler and Optician,

314 OHIO STREET.

Large and complete stock of Jewelry, Watches, Clocks, Silverware and Eye Glasses. 7 13 d&wtf

His Condition Unchanged.

The condition of Martin Craib, who was stabbed by Don Scally, was unchanged yesterday. Martin's stepfather, Pat O'Connor, says the attending physicians report is that the young man will recover if inflammation does not set in.

H. Martin at Houstonia.

H. Martin Williams, of tariff reform fame, spoke to a good-sized audience on his favorite theme at Houstonia last night. Col. Williams is thoroughly informed on the tariff question, and he imparted some valuable information to the farmers of the Houstonia neighborhood.

Sent to Jail.

Bert Adkins is back in his old quarters in the county jail. He assaulted Oscar Fitzwater on the 23d inst., for which misdemeanor he was fined $7 and costs in Justice Fisher's court yesterday. Being a financial wreck, he became the guest of Sheriff Smith.

Went Away to Wed.

James Padden left yesterday afternoon for Kansas City, in company with Miss Ella Tillman, the Third street modiste, and it is understood they will be married to-day. In anticipation of the event the BAZOO extends congratulations.

A Change in the Primaries.

The democratic county central committee has changed the hours for holding the primary election in Sedalia on Saturday next. It was the original intention to keep the polls open from 2 to 7 o'clock p. m., but it was feared all could not deposit their ballots in that time and the hours have been changed from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Chris is a Captain.

Chris Prentice, a former railroad boy of this city, after which he was employed in driving a hack, is now located in Los Angeles, Cal., where he is captain of the local branch of the Salvation Army. A gentleman just from there has one of Chris' photographs, in which he shows up in great shape—greater even than his brother Tom, Sedalia's efficient chief of police. As a salvationist Chris ought to be a howling success.

An M. K. & T. Agent Injured.

S. O. Dent, station agent of the M., K. & T. at South Canadian, on the Denison section, arrived at the hospital here Friday, and was accompanied by his wife. Dent was out horseback riding Wednesday evening, when his horse stumbled and fell to the ground, breaking Dent's right leg between the knee and ankle. He was suffering much pain when he reached this city, but under the care of Dr. Yancey he is making very favorable progress.

A Run to Lamonte.

The Sedalia cyclers will make a run to Lamonte this morning. The members are ordered to start at 5 o'clock sharp.

His Annual Settlement.

Morris Harter, treasurer of this school district, made his annual settlement with County Clerk Mitchum yesterday, and the showing was one of the best the district has ever been able to make.

Letters of Administration.

Judge Bailey yesterday granted letters of administration to Patrick McEnroe on the estate of the late Richard McNally. The bond was fixed at $10,000, and Edward Hurley and Mike McGinley became sureties.

Burial of S. M. Anderson.

The funeral of S. M. Anderson took place yesterday from the residence of J. C. Anderson, a son of the deceased, Thirtieth and Lafayette streets, the services being conducted by Rev. Jno. Herron. The Masons of the city, of which order the deceased was a member for forty-five years, turned out in a body, and the funeral cortege was of unusual length.

Struck With a Club.

Lindsey White, porter on Missouri Pacific train No. 6, which passed east yesterday morning in charge of Conductor King, had rather an unpleasant experience at Doran, west of Holdrege, while the train was sidetracked there. He found a tramp on the front end, and endeavored to put him off, when the tourist dealt him a blow over the head, almost flooring him. At this stage Conductor King appeared, when the tramp fled and escaped. When the porter arrived here he was the possessor of a head large enough to eat hay with.

Diarthrea, Aisentery, Cholera, Flux.

Maguire's Beene Plast for nearly 50 years the infalable cure. Thousand of testimonials; endorsed by the Western Sanitary Commission, U. S. army officers, hospital physicians, steamboat officers, etc. Taken in time a sure preventive of Asiatic cholera

Amputated His Toes.

Dr. Dresel and Dunlap yesterday afternoon performed an operation on Dan Tangney's foot, which was mashed on Friday. They amputated the middle and little toes of the left foot. Tangney is in a serious condition and it is possible that blood poisoning or gangrene may set in and cause dangerous complications. Tangney is really a charity patient. There being no city physician to care for the afflicted poor, Drs. Dresel and Dunlap volunteered their services to relieve the young man's sufferings, and do what they could to save his life. That Sedalia has no city physician, or a proper place to care for cases like Tangney's, is a disgrace and a shame.
