

WOMAN AGAINST WOMAN.

Amanda Bobbitt Strikes Lucy Warden in the Neck.

It is not a usual thing to have a prize fight on the streets of any city, but Sedalia went beyond the line yesterday afternoon and the citizens on Ohio street were treated to a two round scrap.

Some time ago Mrs. Amanda Bobbitt assaulted Mrs. Lucy Warden, Mrs. Warden became indignant and had Mrs. Bobbitt arrested. The case was tried before Justice Fisher yesterday evening and the defendant found guilty. A fine was imposed which was paid and the parties left the Judge's presence in an amicable manner and all was supposed to have been forgotten.

Mrs. Warden stopped at the foot of the stairs and was in conversation with Prosecuting Attorney Longan when Mrs. Bobbitt came up from the rear and dealt Mrs. Warden a blow in the neck with her parasol. Constable Ramsey called time and the fighters separated. Mrs. Warden repaired to Justice Blair's office to swear out a warrant when she was accosted by Mrs. Bobbitt who followed her and there renewed the trouble by striking her with her fist, and tearing one of the sleeves out of her dress. Ramsey again called time and the women were ushered into different rooms where they could do nothing but use their tongues. Mrs. Bobbitt was arrested and gave bond in the sum of $50, for her appearance before Judge Blair.

A NEW FACTORY.

Two Kansas City Capitalists in the City in the Interest of a Woodenware Establishment.

G. W. Jackson and W. Wilson, representing the Jackson Handle and Woodenware Company, of Kansas City, are in the city overlooking the ground for the location of a handle and woodenware factory in Sedalia.

The gentlemen arrived in the city at noon to-day and began investigation of the facilities of the city. Mr. Jackson in conversation with a Bazaar reporter said: "I have not seen much of your city but what I have seen, has impressed me every favorably. And in fact it is a great deal larger than I expected. I am in search of a desirable location where we can have immediate connection with a timbered country for the factory. That is the only drawback to Kansas City, we have no good timber around there. You have connection with the Osage country and there is some good wood, suitable for the manufacture of wooden goods."

FELL THROUGH AN AWNING.

Yesterday afternoon about 4:30, Alex. Smith, a painter, while tightening a rope stretched from Houx's hardware store across the street, fell through the awning to the side walk. Smith had stretched the rope and was swinging on it to see if it would hold, when the rope gave away and he fell to the side walk.

Drs. Mills and Dunlap were called and the unfortunate man was carried in Houx's store where he soon became wild and barked like a dog. After two hours of hard work, Smith was relieved of his condition.

The rope was stretched to give a tight rope exhibition on, by a colored performer.

ROBBED.

Dick Barnard, Knocked Down and Relieved of $9.25.

Dick Barnard, who claims to be a cigar maker, was knocked down and robbed at the Missouri Pacific crossing last night.

Last night about midnight, Barnard, a professional banjoist was on his way to the depot, when he was assaulted by three colored men one of whom struck him in the ear with a stone, knocking him down. After felling him to the ground they went through his pockets and relieved him of his valuables and $9.25 in money.

Barnard stated that he was from Indiana and was an entire stranger in the city and had been at work at the fair grounds. He reported the matter to the police who are hot on the trail. One colored man was arrested on suspicion but was soon released.

THE PARADE.

The Citizens of Sedalia Turn Out in Great Shape.

The Display the Best Ever Given in the City.

The coach parade, which took the place of the Puck's Moguls, was given last night.

As early as 6:30 those who participated, began to flock to East and West Broadway, where the parade was formed.

The streets presented a beautiful appearance with the illumination trees lighted and it gave the visitors a good chance to view Sedalia by gas light.

The people congregated principally on Ohio street and the jam was so great that the pedestrian was forced to walk in the street.

The procession was formed on Broadway and started on the line of march at 7:45. The line of march was north on Ohio from Broadway to Second street, east on Second to Lamine, west on Main to Monitau, south on Monitau to Second, east on Second to Ohio, south on Ohio to Broadway where they disbanded.

The procession marched in the following order. W. E. Bard, formerly "Puck," was in lead and following was Payton's Comedy Company band. Flambeau Club, A. O. U. W., select knights, Myrtle Peck, accompanied by A. L. Burr, secretary of the Fair Association, Kelt Bros., Carriage W. rks, Sedalia Gazette, carriage, St. Louis Clothing Company, carriage, Honkomp and Schmidt, Star Composition Stone Company, Sedalia Bottling Works, Frank Eady, with the Sedalia Military Band, McFarland's Patient Medicines, Fritz, the photographer, Rackett store, and Bowers & Bouldin, the Main street livery men, who had two fine rigs and made one of the best displays of the evening. The first was an open Landau, handsomely trimmed with the national colors and drawn by four bay horses, richly caprisoned. In the carriages were nine tiny little misses carrying a banner on which was printed "we're in it," and on the reverse side, "out of sight, call '97." Following was another carriage also nicely decorated and containing seven happy little boys, carrying a banner inscribed "we're in it, too," and on the reverse "B. & B., call '97." The effect was good and reflected credit on the enterprising firm. Rockwell, the Hatter, in tandem style, Metal Fencing wagon, colored band, Dr. R. T. Miller, M. K. & T. general office boys with hand car on Electric railway track, Sedalia Rifles, Camp Wickham Reserves or survivors, as the case may be, Salvation Army represented, the Empire Steam Laundry. Arch Tanner as a "new coon," with a silk hat and striped awning suit; Frank Frazier, cowboy; Joe Bohon, as Gen. Haymaker, a congressman, E. Guion, as Col. Hayseed, the senator.

The parade is one of the most successful ever given in Sedalia considering the time and circumstances. Much of the credit is due to W. E. Bard who acted as the "Chief Mogul," not of the sea, but of Sedalia.

Aug. Hornung, a well known manufacturer of boots and shoes at 820 Nolan street, San Antonio, Texas, will not soon forget his experience with an attack of the cramps which he relates as follows: "I was taken with a violent cramp in the stomach, which I believe would have caused my death, had it not been for the prompt use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The first dose did me so much good that I followed it up in 20 minutes with the second dose, and before the Doctor could get to where I was, I did not need him. This Remedy shall always be one of the main stays of my family." For sale by Aug. T. Fleischmann, druggist.

WRECK AT MARSHALL.

A Missouri Pacific Train Goes Through a Bridge—Miraculous Escapes.

A disastrous wreck occurred on the Boonville and Lexington division of the Missouri Pacific railroad, one mile east of Marshall, yesterday, in crossing a bridge, without, however, any loss of life.

The Marshall Democrat-News says of the affair:

"The wreck was caused by the washing away of one of the abutments of a bridge across the large branch, the result of a heavy rain Tuesday night."

The passenger train which runs between this place and Versailles was wrecked. The train, consisting of an engine, combination baggage and mail car and one coach left the depot at 7 o'clock with Engineer Milton Stahl and Fireman T. C. Evans in the cab, and Conductor Andy Rosenhan in charge.

The train, at the time of the accident, was running at the rate of eight miles an hour.

Fireman Evans stated to a Democrat-News reporter that as they approached the bridge he noticed that the side of the abutment on the opposite bank of the branch did not have its usual appearance, but did not discover that the abutment on the north side of the branch had entirely disappeared until the engine passed on to the bridge. They then felt the track giving way, and putting on steam succeeded in getting the engine over, although in a badly crippled condition. The pilot, or cow-catcher, struck the opposite abutment and was torn completely off; the engine then breaking loose from the tender left the rails and ran about thirty feet on the ties. The engineer and fireman both feared that their time had come and made an effort to get out of the windows of the cab, but fortunately the engine remained upright and it was all over in a few seconds. They only received a few bruises.

The front end of combination car went down a distance of about 15 feet, and the tender fell back over it, crushing in the roof and end of the car.

REMARKABLE FACTS.

Heart disease is usually supposed to be incurable, but when properly treated a large proportion of the cases can be cured. Thus Mrs. Elmira Hatch, of Ekhart, Ind., and Mrs. Mary L. Baker, of Ovid, Mich., were cured after suffering 20 years. S. C. Lieberger, druggist at San Jose, Ill., says that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which cured the former, "worked wonders for his wife." Levi Logan, of Buchanan, Mich., who had heart disease for 30 years, says two bottles made him "feel like a new man." Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold and guaranteed by A. T. Fleischman. Book of wonderful testimonials free.

LOST HIS WHISKERS.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 20.—The escapades of Justice of the Peace John L. Ganzhorn have achieved for that gentleman a national notoriety. When he was married in a saloon by the bartender it was thought that he had reached the acme of absurdity. But last night he had his flowing beard, which resembles that worn by Senator Peffer of Kansas, trimmed off by the same barber. The papers this morning made such comment that Prosecuting Attorney Brown was compelled to take action, and to-day Ganzhorn rests in the County Jail on the charge of drunkenness in office.

HAPPY HOOSIERS.

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for had feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: "Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c a bottle, at Merz & Hale's drug store."

DUEL IN THE DARK.

A Farm Hand on a Murderous Errand Meets a Tragic Death—He Attacks and Wounds His Former Employer Before Shot Down.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 19.—A bloody duel between Felix Stewart, a Boston restaurateur, and Patrick Finnerty, his farm hand, occurred at Abington before daylight this morning. After the shooting Finnerty was dead and Stewart badly wounded. Finnerty was discharged yesterday on account of his insolence, and broke into Stewart's house some time after midnight, evidently with the idea of wreaking vengeance on his former employer, for when discovered by Mr. Stewart, he had a revolver in his hand. Mr. Stewart heard the intruder and left his bed to investigate. On entering the room he was confronted by Finnerty, who presented a revolver at his head, stating his determination to kill him. Stewart dodged, but not before Finnerty fired, the ball taking effect in Stewart's right shoulder and inflicting a painful flesh wound.

Finnerty followed Stewart through the intervening room to his bed chamber, but was unable to secure another shot at his intended victim owing to the latter's agility. In one corner of the room was a double-barreled shotgun loaded with bird shot, and Stewart finally succeeded in securing this. Quick as a flash he discharged one barrel at the approaching man, which instead of subduing him appeared to infuriate him, and he made another dash at Stewart, only to receive a heavy charge of shot directly in the face and neck. Grasping the muzzle of the gun the thoroughly frightened Stewart rained blows on the head of his former hired man, who fell to the floor covered with blood. Then Stewart and another hired man waited in another room until daylight. Not until then did he know that Finnerty was dead, but when he realized the fact he at once surrendered himself to the police. Public opinion justifies the homicide.

SHOT HIS FLEEING DAUGHTER.

Mason City, Ia., August 19.—A fiendish crime was to-day committed in Osceola County. It seems that Michael Ohern had left one of his daughters to keep the pigs out of the garden while he performed his daily task on the farm. He is a man with a very violent temper, and when he returned at noon he found that some pigs had eat up some cabbage. He was raging with anger and went into the house and commenced a general abuse upon his daughter. She resisted as long as possible and then to escape further injury started to run to a neighbor's. At this the inhuman father grabbed an old revolver from a shelf and sent a ball through her body, it entering just above the hip and coming out at the groin. The girl was picked up and carried in the house. The latest reports are that she is dying. Her father is lodged in jail. Should the girl die violent treatment of Ohern is expected.
