THANKSGIVING

Let us give thanks!
What!
You haven't got
Anything to be thankful for,
Or
You have got
What
You can't be thankful for?
Oh, say,
That's no way
To feel about a good thing!
Brace up and bring
Yourself to the front,
Don't growl and grout
and do the sorry stunt.
Pull out of the rack
If you're down on your luck
and reach for the skies that are blue.
Get out of the shade
Your troubles have made,
By heck, it is up to you!
We know this is a vale of tears,
Chuckleful of woe and sorrow,
And turkey that we eat today
Is not so good tomorrow.
We know that labor is a cross,
But still we have to bear it.
We know that fortune breaks sometimes,
And we cannot repair it.
But, say,
Occasionally good things come our way
Don't they? Sure they do,
and bully ones too.
So let us growl and swear and kick
On every day save one.
On that one let us pause and thank
The Lord for what he's done
The way we thought he ought to do
To square himself with me and you.
Say,
We can stand for one Thanksgiving day
Can't we? By gum,
If everything is on the bum
We must be to blame some!
What!

W. J. Lampton,

HISTORICAL INFORMATION

A few years ago, when John L. Sullivan was playing a short, tumultuous engagement as Simon Legree with a road company, a newspaper reporter in Joplin, Mo., was interviewing him. "And do you think, Mr. Sullivan," asked the reporter, "that the play of 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' really brought on the war?" "I don't know as to that, Sonny," growled Sullivan, "but I do know we certainly gave them Spaniards hell!"—Everybody's for December.

Bad's peanuts, popcorn, candy, tobacco, cigars and nuts. Don't forget me.
Nov. 11-n-1.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION CALENDAR FOR 1911

The publishers of The Youth's Companion will, as always at this season, present to every subscriber whose subscription ($1.75) is paid for 1911 a beautiful calendar for the new year. The picture panel reproduces a water-color painting of an old-time garden in a flood of summer sunshine, with a background of Lombardy poplars through which one catches a glimpse of distant hills. The picture being in 12 colors, the tones of the original are faithfully reproduced.

When you need an article of furniture and know you can get a bargain why don't you take advantage of the opportunity. Bob Callaway is selling iron beds at half price. Do you need one?
