PROVISIONS OF COMPULSORY ATTENDANCE LAW

(Article 6, chapter 106, R. S. 1909 and Sessions Acts, 1911.)
(To be posted by the District Clerk ten days before school opens.)

1. Every child between 8 and 14 years old must attend some day school at least three-fourths of the term each year.
2. Every child between 14 and 16 years old, when not regularly employed, must attend some day school at least three-fourths of the term each year.
3. No child can be excused on promise to attend; he must attend the first three-fourths of the term before being excused under this law.

4. Courts having jurisdiction (Justice of the Peace in rural districts and in cities having less than 50,000 population) may excuse children from attending school for following reasons: (1) Parents can not supply proper clothing; (2) child is mentally or physically unable to attend; (3) no public school in two and a half miles of the home; (4) child has completed the common school course.

5. No child under 14 can be employed except at agricultural pursuits and in domestic service unless excused for one of the four reasons, or has statement from teacher that he has already attended three-fourths of the term for that school year; no child between 14 and 16 can be legally employed without an employment certificate issued by the school authorities.
6. It is the duty of attendance officers and district clerks to notify parents and guardians when children fail to comply with the provisions of the law.

7. The secretary or clerk of board must furnish principal or teacher at beginning of term with copy of enumeration. The principal or teacher must compare the list with enrollment and report at the end of each week during the first month, and as often as necessary after that, the names of non-attendants.

8. The clerk or secretary of board must report to the County Superintendent on or before the end of each of the first three quarters of the school term the names of parents or guardians of non-attendants.

9. The penalty for non-attendance falls on parent or guardian, and is a fine of not more than $25 or imprisonment for 10 days, or both.

10. For illegal employment of a child, the employer is subject to a fine of one hundred dollars and costs and imprisonment for one year.

11. Every school board shall publish this synopsis in newspaper of the district or post it in at least five public places ten days before school opens each year. 10t

W. D. STOCKSTILL KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

Saturday evening, July 1, 1916, W. D. Stockstill, who lives between Miami, Okla., and Pama, Okla., was going to Pama from his home in his car and in some manner the car overturned. His injuries resulted in his death about 2 days later. No one saw the accident but it happened near where Guy Farrington lived. Mr. Farrington was the first one to the scene, as he heard the crash and went to see what it was. From the evidence shown by the wreck, he was trying to drive around some hogs in the road. There being a small bank on the side, he turned out. It is supposed when the car struck the bank it bent the axle, causing the car to skid and turn over. The car was badly damaged, having three wheels broken; however, the steering gear was still intact. Mr. Stockstill was badly bruised about the head and chest and never regained consciousness.

William David Stockstill was born in Missouri sixty-four years ago. He married Miss Nannie Davis in 1876, and to the union were born two sons, W. E. of Montana and C. C., who lives near. He was converted when a young man, and united with the Methodist church at Miami three years ago. He leaves behind his wife, two sons, an aged mother, three brothers and two sisters.

Revs. Huffman and Jackson of Miami preached the funeral Sunday evening and the remains were laid to rest in the Pampa cemetery to await the call of the Great Master.

Mr. Stockstill was among the larger farmers and stockmen in this part of the Panhandle, and made a wonderful success in these lines. He was among the most highly respected citizens and has a great host of friends, hundreds of whom attended the funeral.

IN MEMORY.

Once again the angel of death has drawn aside the misty veil for one of our kindred to pass through into a land that is fairer than day. She suffered many weeks with a complication of diseases which threatened to clip the brittle thread of life. She bore it with patience becoming a Christian. But as the days passed into weeks, the weeks into months, it caused the charms of earth to grow dim. The petals of the flowers of earth had fallen one by one, leaving the golden heart alone. But inside it had been planted some thirty years ago a diamond thought, and it was the means of life everlasting being in her soul. Tired, oh so tired, was this pilgrim that when she saw the beauties of the heavenly home that is prepared for all of us who accept the diamond of love, she willingly stepped behind the curtain and was soon hidden from our earthly view.

Martha J. Withers was born in Lawrence county, Missouri, April 23, 1857, and departed this life August 26, 1916. She was married to Mr. E. W. Russey, who survives her, January 1, 1880. To this union were born seven children, four sons and three daughters. Miss Bessie and Miss Leta were at her bedside when she died. The other five arrived a few hours later. They are: Mrs. Charles Howard, New York City; Frank Russey, Colorado; Andrew, Galveston, Tex.; Edward, St. Louis, and Arthur, Sapulpa, Okla.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. W. A. Todd, pastor of the Baptist church of Monett, of which she was a member.

The subject selected by the minister was, "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord; from henceforth ye sayeth the spirit they rest from their labor and their works do follow them." A great many tributes of respect were spoken by her pastor in regard to her loyalty to the church. In conclusion he likened the death of a Christian to a blessed sleep from which none ever awakens to weep.

Notice the mother, how she twines her loving arms around the sleeping form of her baby. Then, with a face all beaming with tender love, she watches over the child as it nestles close to her bosom, fearing nothing, for it is safely housed from all evil. Such is the loving care God gives to His children.

Interment was made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.
"Mother, will you hold a ribbon for each child in your hand? Throw them to earth from heaven; It will guide them to that land."
MARY MORRISON CHITWOOD.

BIG SPRINGFIELD STORE WILL MOVE TO NEW LOCATION

The Boston Store to Go Into Elegant New Quarters On St. Louis Street

The Boston Store of Springfield, because of its rapidly increasing business, has been compelled to move to larger, more centrally located quarters at 317-321 St. Louis street, so as to more efficiently take care of this added patronage.

The low prices which prevailed at its old location on Campbell street will be adhered to rigidly, as the firm believes in small profits and a large volume of business.

The Boston Store has been owned for the last six years by the Netter-Ullman Dry Goods Co., who, by their honest manner of merchandising and their one standard of doing business, have developed their store to such an extent that they are rapidly forging to the front as one of the largest distributors of merchandise at retail in Southwest Missouri.

The new building which will be occupied by the company is a three-story fireproof structure, and has been fitted with every convenience known to modern department management. New and reliable merchandise from the most reputable concerns fills the entire store and will be sold to the people of Springfield and Southwest Missouri with the well known Netter-Ullman guarantee of satisfaction.

The Netter-Ullman Dry Goods Co., cordially invites every citizen of Southwest Missouri to come and inspect this newest mercantile enterprise on their next visit to Springfield. Every convenience for shopping will greet you here.—Adv.
