There Is Work for Everybody
 Uncle Sam has something for every one of his loyal children to do. Whether to serve in the army or navy fighting for human liberty, whether to join the army here at home and help to produce something to sustain our fighting forces, or whether to lend money to the government, when called upon to do so, to the limit of one's ability to invest, the duty is imperative. Uncle Sam expects every one to do his or her duty.—Thriftology.

Keep your Liberty Bond and your money working to help Uncle Sam.

The Marne and the Jordan are two rivers the Huns seem destined never to cross.—Springfield Republican.

Cheer up. It is not as far from the American line in France to Berlin as it is from Kansas City to Denver.—Kansas City Star.

Mr. McAdoo has issued his expected order prohibiting the sale of liquor on railroad trains, in stations or on other railroad property.
 The French are now back where they were in 1915. When they get back where they were before the war it won't be long until after the war.—St. Louis Star.

The Anheuser-Busch Company, of St. Louis, in an advertisement, stated that it used 50,000 cars a year. And we understand there is a shortage of rolling stock.

40,000 British Y. M. C. A. Workers
 The British Y. M. C. A. now has more than 40,000 workers with the armies of the empire, says a Y. M. C. A. bulletin.

Bob Callaway is offering 20 per cent discount on lace curtains from now until August 1. You should take advantage of this sale. 15-tf

FROM COAST TO COAST
 A Remarkable Chain of Home Testimony—And Monett Adds Its Voice to the Grand Chorus of Local Praise.

From north to south, from east to west; In every city, every community; In every state in the Union Rings out the grateful praise for Doan's Kidney Pills. 50,000 representative people in every walk of life Publicly testify to quick relief and lasting results. And it's all for the benefit of fellow sufferers. In this grand chorus of local praise Monett is well represented. Well known Monett people Tell of personal experiences. Who can ask for better proof of merit?
 W. H. Cooper, 1110 E. Bond St., says: "I was subject to severe backaches and rheumatic pains. My kidneys acted irregularly, too. I started using Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me fine relief and put my kidneys in good condition. Doan's can be depended upon."
 Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Cooper had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

A PARABLE.
 Brand Whitlock said in an address in Washington:
 "My war experiences have done me good. They have broadened my mind. I am a writer rather than a politician, and we writers live too restricted lives."
 "You know the story of Carlyle and his soundproof room in Chelsea.
 "Carlyle had built a soundproof room for himself on the top of his house. The room had no windows, but only a skylight for illuminating purposes. To an elderly visitor from Craigenputtock the room was shown proudly by Carlyle, and the visitor gave a cackling laugh and said:
 "My conscience, this is fine! Here you may write and study all the rest of yer life, and nobody'll be a bit the wiser!"

Tough Luck.
 His wife had followed him across to be a Red Cross nurse.
 During a bit of German strafing he fell wounded and woke up several hours later in a field hospital. His wife was bending over him.
 "Ain't that just my luck, Jenny?" he murmured. "With all the pretty nurses there are over here to look after the soldiers I had to draw you."

NO SCORCHING.
 First Autolist—I was out in my new auto today and got arrested.
 Second Autolist—Exceeding the speed limit, eh?
 First Autolist—No, the blame thing wouldn't hardly go at all. I was arrested for blocking the traffic.

A Superior Mortal.
 His style of dress shows some neglect. He's not an overnice man. But, oh, I treat him with respect, because he is the iceman.

Married Again.
 "I don't like to send out wedding cards," said Flubdub. "You know, I married the day after I got my divorce."
 "I understand. Suppose you announce 'Under new management,' and let it go at that."

How Could Bridget Help It?
 Mistress—Bridget, I'm tired of your carelessness. Only look at that dust on the furniture. It's six weeks old, at the very least.
 Bridget—Sure, it's no fault av mine. Ol've been here only t'ree weeks.—Life.

Fine All Around.
 "How do you like the neighbors in your new apartment house?"
 "Best I ever had. We were anxious not to know anybody and everybody is evidently determined not to know us."

Not Altogether Unusual.
 "The amendment to this bill is getting more thought and discussion than the original document."
 "Well," inquired Senator Sorghum. "Isn't it much the same way with the Constitution of the United States?"

Succeeded.
 Sapleigh—I made a perfect fool of myself today.
 Miss Keen—How nice! I was sure you'd make something of yourself if you kept on trying.

A MERE SUGGESTION.

Mrs. Goodwun—I wish to select a birthday present for my husband and I can't think of anything. He doesn't smoke or drink nor go out nights nor play cards.
 The Salesman—Is he fond of fancy work?

Wuff!
 "A rainy day sure gives me pains, I am worn out," remarked the rubber.
 "And I'm used up each time it rains."
 We hear the old umbrella blubber.
 Very Properly.
 "How would you manage the march of righteousness?"
 "I'd perform it on an upright piano."

MURMURS FROM THE PRAIRIE
 Mr. and Mrs. F. Hultgren are the proud parents of a baby boy, born August 4, and named in honor of Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt, who lost his life in France.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Browning contemplate moving to Verona soon. We regret losing such an estimable family from our midst, but what is our loss is Verona's gain.
 Dr. W. D. Sidman, the district superintendent of the M. E. Conference, and Rev. Keeton, the regular pastor of the M. E. congregation of Kings Prairie, took supper with the F. A. Cornell family Sunday.
 Misses Lola and Vica Chloe Jackson are the proud possessors of a new organ.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Simmons expect to move soon to their farm near Marionville. This family will be missed by their many friends on the Prairie. Mrs. Simmons has been president of the W. C. T. U. for several years. She was always very active in all social affairs and always ready to lend a helping hand wherever she was needed, as far as her health would permit.
 Those from the Prairie attending M. E. quarterly conference at Purdy were F. F. Hultgren and Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cornell.
 Dr. Garland Dummit and wife returned Monday morning to their home in Kansas, after a short visit at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Dummit.
 C. H. Jackson and family made a short visit Friday with Mrs. Jackson's sister, near Aurora, who is preparing to move to Oklahoma.
 The Red Cross ladies met at the home of Mrs. Cornell last Thursday and made several garments for the war-stricken Belgian children. All who are interested in this work are asked to help, as the needs are great and workers few.
 Those who attended services at the Union church Sunday night felt well paid for coming out, for Dr. Sidman preached an excellent sermon on "Power in Prayer."
 C. C. Carter has bought the Kehres canning outfit and is installing it in the building formerly used as a feed mill, and will now be prepared to can a large quantity of fruit and vegetables of all kinds.
 Orval McCormack, sister, Edith, and Mrs. C. N. McCormack left Thursday evening for a few days' visit at Camp Funston with the latter's husband, Noel McCormack. They returned Monday night and report Noel as looking and feeling fine.
 Harold Ash, who has been keeping bachelor's hall of late, surprised his many friends Sunday by announcing that he had formed a partnership with a female bachelor, which made batching much more pleasant and not so lonesome. Harold is sure a fine boy, one of Kings Prairie's best and brightest young men. He is a son of Mrs. W. R. Browning. The bride, Miss Ruby Webber, is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Webber, of Lawrence county. She has made many friends by her frequent visits to this neighborhood, who will extend to her a hearty welcome. Congratulations.

In her new Select picture, "The Secret of the Storm Country," Norma Talmadge touches the highest note yet reached in her career. As the squatter's daughter, wronged and deserted by her husband, left to rear their child under a cloud, she rises to great emotional heights, and her portrayal of Tess is one that will win the sympathies of every audience. The picture will be shown at the Bijou theater Friday.

STONES PRAIRIE
 Those who visited Mr. and Mrs. George Enke, Jr., Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Block, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Schad, Mr. and Mrs. Emmer Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Shaw, Messrs. Louis Meister, John Schneider, Carl Mueller, Willie Schad and Miss Bertha Enke.
 Miss Louise Hulcel, of Oklahoma, is visiting relatives near Purdy.
 Miss Augusta Mueller gave a surprise party in honor of her friend, Miss Hilda Storek, Sunday night. About thirty-six persons were present. The birthday cake was brought by Miss Augusta Mueller. The evening was spent in playing outdoor games and all enjoyed a good time. At a late hour all departed, wishing Miss Storek many more happy birthdays.
 Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Meister are the parents of a boy.

$102 for $20

Lead is scarce and urgently needed. The price is now $102.00 a ton and we can produce it at the very low cost of $20.00. We can do this because we are fortunate in having lead mines in which the lead appears in a free state ready for shipment in the shape taken from the ground. One Hundred Tons will pay 20 per cent dividend on our stock. We have besides 9 zinc mines producing high grade ore, much of it in a free state and 20 other tests into ore. We own most of the 567 acres we are developing which not only means reliable assets but also no royalties to pay.

The sale of remaining stock offered to complete the mill may close at any day.
