- HOBO THROWS ROCK AND INJURES CONDUCTOR GILBERT
Freight Conductor A. W. Gilbert is laying off with a severely bruised right leg, received at Tiger, Okla., Wednesday night, when a hobo threw a rock at him, striking him on his leg as he stepped on the step of the caboose. Mr. Gilbert had just put six hobo off the front end of the train, and stayed with them until the caboose came by to keep them from again boarding the train. His foot became so painful that he was forced to lay-off at Clahmore, Okla., and he returned to Monett on No. 10 Wednesday night.
GETS ANOTHER STILL
Sheriff Roberts accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Glen Tucker drove to near Cato Wednesday night of last week and captured a still and arrested Sam Hudson who was operating the still. Ray Tash was also arrested but he was later released when Hudson assured the officers that Tash had nothing to do with the matter and that Tash had only happened along and was present when the officers arrived.
Hudson was placed under $1,000 bond for his appearance.
Hudson is 22 years old. He says the still belongs to him. It was located on the Joe Hudson farm in an old house. The officers found 2 1/4 gallons of whiskey and there was about 30 gallons in process of making when the place was raided. A quantity of mash was also found.
The information leading to the finding of the still was phoned to the sheriff Wednesday. If the people of the county who know where stills are being operated will co-operate with the officers and furnish reliable information, the illicit business can soon be broken up.—Cassville Republican.
PACKWOOD—TURNER
Mrs. Adah Jacques-Packwood and Mr. Otto M. Turner, both of Cassville Mo., stole a march on their friends and went to Carthage, Wednesday, March 8, and secured their marriage license and were married at that place. They returned to Monett Thursday and visited the bride's aunt, Mrs. G. L. Brownfield and family and her grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Tyler, returning to Cassville Friday morning where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Turner are prominent young people of Cassville.
CHURCH SOCIETY HOLDS ALL DAY QUILTING

- ALEXANDER & BAITY RECEIVES CONTRACT FOR STATE ROAD
Bids were received Thursday and were opened at 1:30 o'clock at the court house at Cassville, for three miles of state highway road to be built three miles south of Purdy. The road will start at Purdy on the south and will lead down the west side of the railroad track to the high crossing two miles south of Purdy where it strikes the old road and thence one mile and one-half to the Butterfield township line. The road has been planned so that it will not cross the two railroad crossings.
Alexander & Baity, contractors and builders, of Springfield, received the contract, their bid being $6722.30. Work will be started within ten days.
PRIMARY ROAD MEETING AT AURORA
The Aurora Chamber of Commerce has received word that A. C. McKibben, president of the State Capital Highway Association, together with the engineer of the State Highway Commission, would be in Aurora next Wednesday, March 15, to address a mass meeting at 8 p. m.
The trip is in the nature of an inspection tour of the proposed route of the north and south primary cross highway and the road, if built, will be of concrete according to the specifications of the new road law.
OPENING UP NEW OIL TERRITORY IN ARKANSAS
R. D. Coulson, general promoter of the Conservative Oil and Gas Company of Huntsville, Ark., was in town Friday between trains. Mr. Coulson is very enthusiastic over the prospects of oil in the field. The company is prospecting four miles southwest of Huntsville, Madison county, with a standard rig. The drill is down 200 feet.
In a drill hole a few miles from the holdings of the Conservative Oil and Gas Company, at the depth of 450 feet sufficient gas was encountered to be utilized in operating the drill.
BRADFORD & SON MAKING EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS
H. I. Bradford & Son are making extensive improvements in their Furniture and Undertaking Establishment. The entire store is being painted and newly decorated and the double building has taken on a new appearance. A great many changes will be made in the arrangements in the store that will give more floor space. Mr. Bradford's increased business forces him to make the change. He has planned to take out the partition between the two buildings and throw them into one large display room, but that change will not be made at the present. The music room will be moved to the balcony and beneath the balcony, where the music room was formerly located will be used in displaying bed room furnishings.
Mr. Bradford left Thursday night for Kansas City and St. Louis where he will buy new goods.
Mrs. B. E. Budlecome was taken violently ill in the court room at the city hall, Wednesday, during a trial, and had to be taken from the room. She was taken to St. John's hospital at Springfield Wednesday evening, and was operated upon for a ruptured appendix. Her physician, Dr. A. Jones, performed the operation. The operation was a very serious one.
