MISSOURI PACIFIC SIGNS PACT WITH SHOPMEN

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 27.—The Missouri Pacific today announced it signed an agreement with its shopmen covering wages and working conditions. The agreement it was said, follows the general lines of the Railroad Labor Board's decision which resulted in the shopmen's strike. The agreement was signed with representatives of the "Missouri Pacific Mechanical Department Association," which is said to be entirely independent of the shop crafts union. The Missouri Pacific shops are said to be back to normal.
