

15 DAYS OF FINAL Clearing Up SALE 15 DAYS

The last and greatest event of the season including every article of summer wear Men's, Ladies and Childrens

SHOES AND OXFORDS,

Lawns, Dimities, Batists, Ginghams and all Wash Goods, Shirt Waists and Crash Skirts, Men's Suits, Shirts, Shirt Waists, Underwear, Fancy Hosiery, Neckwear, Hats, Etc.

In fact everything will be placed in one final Sacrifice sale.

In order to make room for New Fall Goods and to clear road for the business campaign of the fall season.

JNO. J. ROGERS

James S. Scott has shipped in and sold two cars of seed rye.

Miss Bessie McReynolds, of LaBelle, is visiting her uncle, Rev. L. M. McReynolds.

Miss Maud Poliard, of Paris, was the guest of friends in this city Thursday.

E. O. Hallock, of Monroe city, is working on the Democrat—King City Democrat.

Jasper Searcy, of St. Louis, spent Friday in the city with his friend, D. K. Yowell.

Kansas City has 534 fewer merchants than one year ago. That does not look like prosperity.

Mrs. Herb Fuqua, of Shelbyna, came down Saturday morning for a visit with the homefolks.

Miss Louise Kitchen, of St. Louis, is spending the week with her cousin, Mrs. W. T. Rutledge.

Col. W. T. Youell, the crack auctioneer, has treated his wife to a nice new buggy and neat set of harness.

Misses Bessie and Lena Asbury returned Thursday afternoon from their summers outing at Canton, Mo.

Mrs. J. O. Gilson spent the latter part of last week in Hunnewell with her husband who was up there drilling a public well.

Miss Mary Fuqua, of Monroe City, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon and is the guest of her cousin, Miss Adelaide Brown.—Hannibal Journal.

Saturday the 10th inst will be the eightieth anniversary or natal day of Grand Old Missouri. There will be held on that day a Democratic Subilee at Kansas City in commemoration of it.

John Farrell made a business trip to Brevier Thursday night.

M. B. Garner was transacting business in Palmyra, Saturday.

Miss Bessie Asbury spent the day yesterday with Shelbyna friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Campbell are taking their summer outing at Pertle Springs.

Bring your eggs and butter to Sharp & Donley and get the highest market price.

R. M. Sharp, of Marceline, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. B. G. Payne of this city this week.

T. Butterworth, editor of the Chicago Live Stock Journal, spent Saturday and Sunday in the city with his sister, Mrs. J. B. Settle.

Mrs. Perry Lewis, of Hannibal, arrived Saturday afternoon to visit her sister and brother, Mrs. Vesper Buell and C. C. Lewis.

The net cost of the Hannibal carnival was $464.56. It was a case of where the invited guests were honored by being permitted to foot the bills.

Mrs. J. W. Wilcoxon in her old age, has broken up her home and left for Denver, Colo., where she will resided with her children.

J. W. White, Mose Sharp and Phil Smallwood have taken three teams to Moody station in the Mississippi bottoms and are putting up wild grass.

The rivers and creeks run dry but the St. Louis brewerie run on for ever. One of them has turned out one million barrels for the year.

The Lexington Intelligencer people have bought the La-Fayette Leader of Higginsville and will enlarge the Intelligencer to a six column quarto.

Miss Eva Powell, who was visiting friends at Hunnewell, was called home by 'phone Sunday afternoon by the indisposition of her sister, Mrs. R. L. Turner.

Are you a judge of delicious ice cream and ice cream soda? If so we wish to say to the ladies and gentlemen of the city that Geo. Moessner's is the place to find it. 8-29

I have purchased Mr. Farrell's interest in the restaurant and having secured a first class cook from the city I am now prepared to serve more choice meals and luncheons than ever before. Tony Faust—Wilson.

Willis Bush, a farmer residing near Stoutsville, attempted to commit suicide Monday morning by cutting his throat with a pocket knife. Mr. Bush is about 45 years of age and no cause is known why he attempted to take his life.

The latest report from the Agricultural Department shows that corn is still King in Missouri. It is estimated that the crop is 65 per cent below a possible 100 and yet its value at present prices make it more valuable than any other single product.

Misses Myrtie and Beulah Gooch, two of Kirksvilles fairest daughters, have been out on a round of visits to relatives. They arrived here Saturday from Quincy and after visiting their uncle, B. O. Wood, went to Lentner to see other relatives. It is hardly necessary to say; Ferd Wood accompanied the ladies to Lentner. Of course Ferd went up to see the homefolks.

We have in stock a nice and complete line of Caskets, Robes and Fibers.

Can furnish on very short notice any thing required in this line at moderate prices.

MRS. NICHOLS will assist in preparing the bodies of women and children.

THE HANDSOME FUNERAL CAR will be furnished GRATIS to those who deal with us.

WE CAN BE FOUND at the store corner of Main and Summer St. Phone 25 or at the Davenport residence property one block east of J. J. Rogers cor First and Davis Sts.

G. M. Nichols & Co.

Mrs. C. H. Roe, of Pittsburg, Pa., is the guest of Mrs. J. W. Greathouse, near Shiel.

Misses Emma Garner and Verdua Eals, of Hannibal, are the guests of relatives in this city.

A fierce cook, the freshest and best materials go into the delicious viands served at the Tony Faust Restaurant.

The Marceline Mirror has begun its 14th year of good, faithful work for Marceline and vicinity. It has ever stood up for the best interests of the people.

Penny Pictures AT Belle Johnson's Studio

Get cash price on flour at Sharp & Donley's.

Mrs. Mary Howe is spending the week with relatives and friends at Shelbyna.

Seed Wheat.

For good seed wheat see John Cleary. 8-22

Miss Nellie Landers, a charming Miss of Marion County, is spending the week with friends in the city of Flowers.

Mrs. O. R. Rhodes spent last week with the home folk near Warren. Mr. Rhodes spent Sunday with them and she returned home with him.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Proctor and Master Jamie returned Sunday morning from their summers outing at Spurgeon Bay, Wis. They report a glorious time and almost ideal weather.

Cluade Henderson left Saturday on his maiden trip to New York with a car load of chickens. Doubtless he will see many new things and although he is 'from Missouri' the one that starts out to 'show him' had better keep his weather eye open.

Through the stomach may be the road to a man's heart, but young gentlemen you never saw a pretty girl in your life that was not fond of confections, of ices and nice little luncheons and you know that I know how to serve them. Tony Faust.

Home grown water melons and roasting ears were freely offered by the hucksters Saturday. It will only be a short time before home grown tomatoes and cucumbers will be on market and the people will think that the wheels of time has been turned backwards in their flight and that August and September are May and June.

Columbus C. Cassidy was a business visitor in Quincy Saturday.

Hon. R. S. McClintic was attending to professional business in Hannibal Saturday.

John W. White was transacting business at Moody Saturday.

Mrs. J. L. Lyon, left Saturday night for Chicago to visit her sister, Mrs. Frank Smedley.

Dr. J. J. Norton has been at Spalding Springs, where he is always a welcome guest.

Prof. A. P. Settle and family, of Kirksville, arrived Friday afternoon to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Settle.

Mrs. J. F. Lay, of Hannibal, has been spending the week with her daughter Mrs. R. S. McClintic.

Mrs. John Whitecotton, of Brunswick, spent Saturday in this city with friends. She was enroute to Shiel where she expected to surprise her husband.

Mrs. J. B. Jackson and sister Miss Lou Nipper are off for Armstrong, Mo., where they will spend two or three weeks with the homefolks.

Hon. W. S. McClintic was in the city Monday for the first time in several weeks. He has been suffering from stomach trouble.

Jack Crawford, Henry I. Lear and John W. White have been to Hannibal and contracted to work for the cement plant. They will furnish two, two and three teams respectively.

Miss Edith Coontz, of Hannibal, a sister of Ensign Robert Coontz, U. S. N., has been the pleasing guest of her friend, Miss Tomye Ely. They were chums in Boston, Mass.

D. D. Melson and family left Saturday night for the Pan-American Exposition and other points of interest they will visit Mrs. Melson's old home, Waterford, Pa. They expect to be gone a month.

Mrs. M. M. Berry and daughter, Miss Theo, of Madison, arrived here Thursday afternoon. They were called here by the serious accident which happened to Mrs. M. J. Everhart, mother of Mrs. Berry. Their many former friends were glad to see them again.

John Demaree and Earl Read have returned from Denver, where they thought everything wore a rosy hue, but they learned better upon their arrival there for they report everything dry and dead. It must have been the lovely Missouri girls that they missed the most and proved the load stone to draw them back to the Queen of the Prairies.