

SPRING & SUMMER DRESS GOODS

Children Like We have never before shown such a varied and excellent line of the "M" Waist
Wash Goods

They are nicely made, and above all, comfortable to wear. The tape suspender principle carries all the strain from the shoulder, doing away with that dragging feeling common in all other waists. What brings comfort to the children is pleasing to the mother. They are better in every respect wear longer and cost no more than the inferior kinds. ASK TO SEE THEM.

The new gingham, lawns, zephyr tissues, batiste, madras, etc., are things of beauty. Our white goods stock contains the best things of the season. We show an extensive line of the open stripes that are so popular this season.

Ready Made Shirt Waists in White & Colors 39c to $3.50

Ready to Wear Wool Skirts $2.00 to $10.00
Petticoats, black mercerized $1. to $3., excellent material.

Muslin underwear, daintily trimmed, full cut and well made, but prices low. Little things for the money—the things that appear but trifles when in profusion, but as valuable as jewels when needed and not on hand.

Ladies' and children's shoes—In this department we keep up with the times, and give to our customers the very best to be found. The styles are the newest—the wear guaranteed, the prices are as low as the lowest.

Carpets and matting—Of these we carry big stocks and we insist on you seeing our line and get our prices before you buy.

SEND TO US FOR BUTTERICK PATTERNS

JNO. J. ROGERS.

Lamar Wood spent Sunday with the homefolk near Lentoner.

James Christian made a business trip to the Bluff City Saturday.

Fresh, pure drugs carefully compounded at—J. J. FITZPATRICK'S.

R. A. Ogle, of St. Louis, spent Sunday in the city with the homefolk.

Highest prices are paid for poultry and eggs, hides, etc., at—BALZER & DIRIGO'S.

W. T. Ragland was looking after his legal business in the Future Great Monday.

For Sale—A first class milch cow and calf, will sell cheap for cash.—CARL F. SMITH. 50t

William Hightower, mine host of the Hunnewell hotel, was buying supplies in the city Saturday.

Mrs. Jennie Cooper left Saturday morning for the Future Great to spend several days with relatives.

After a two weeks visit with the homefolks, H. A. Warinner, returned to his work at Alton, Ill., Monday.

G. W. Davis, Claim Agent for the Burlington, was in the city Monday looking after the interests of the company.

Orders are taken by Werner The Tailor, if you must have that kind of work.

For a right nice spring and summer suit see Werner The Tailor.

Miss Davie J. Ebey is the guest of Mrs. W. S. Jones at Paris.

Fancy line of novelties in toilet goods at—J. J. FITZPATRICK'S.

J. L. Melson is a shouting Methodist but he says the big rains are just the thing.

John Hollandsworth had some wool, only 22 fleeces but they averaged 10 pounds.

A. S. Garner and family of the Bluff City spent Sunday in this city with the homefolks.

Claude Henderson came up from Palmyra Saturday to spend Sunday with ma and Good cheap sewing machines still on hand as well as Heating Stoves.

R. MANNING WALKER.

John Bush of Hannibal spent the first of the week with his sister, Mrs. S. Baynum in this city.

James Boulware, of Perry, spent Sunday in the city with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Stark Boulware.

Quite a crowd of young men went to Hannibal Sunday, to see the Bloomer Girls try to play ball.

O. M. VanLandingham of near Warren brought in a bunch of lambs and his clip of 37 fleeces, Monday.

Orders are taken by Werner The Tailor, if you must have that kind of work.

For a right nice spring and summer suit see Werner The Tailor.

Mrs. J. B. Baxter and Miss Effie of Huntington were shopping in the city Monday.

Miss Fannie Finks came in from Elsberry Monday to visit the homefolks and now is all smiles.

Penny Pictures AT Belle Johnson's Studio

Will T. Clark, of nowhere in particular, spent the first of the week in the city looking after his real estate interests.

If you have any clothes that need cleaning and repairing bring them to Werner The Tailor.

James Sullivan, of Brookfield spent Sunday in the city with his father James H. Sullivan, who has been on the sick list for some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Scott left Tuesday morning for Pacific Grove, Cal. If they decide to make that their permanent home they will be missed by a host of friends in this vicinity.

The popular week end excursion rates are again in effect on the M. K. & T. R.R. For trains after 10 p. m. each Saturday and trains all day Sunday tickets will be sold to any point on the M. K. & T. R. R. where the fare is $1.50 or less for one fare for the round trip, good to return not later than midnight Sunday.

J. F. BLAKEY, Agt.

W. B. Brown came over from Perry Friday to visit his son, J. J. Brown.

The latest and most chic things in wall paper at—J. J. FITZPATRICK'S.

J. J. Rogers bought the Bowles wool at Emerson. There was 2500 pounds of it.

Butter and eggs bring you the most money when taken to SHARP & DONLEY

Have your clothes made by Werner The Tailor and spend your money at home.

Uncle Alf Scymore spent the first of the week in Palmyra with his brother.

Percy Jones, of St. Louis is spending the week in the city with the homefolks.

After spending several weeks in the city and vicinity with relatives, Mrs. Rose McAllister returned to her home in Quincy Monday.

Fresh and Smoked meats of all kinds at Balzer & Dirigo's. They also want your poultry hides, etc. They pay the top notch prices.

For nice summer trousers, Werner The Tailor.

Hart Brothers of north Marion county brought 1000 pounds of wool over Friday and sold it. Monroe City is the haven for wool producers.

The Monroe Monarchs will cross bats with the Palmyra Stars to day at the Fair Grounds. Go out and give the boys some encouragement.

Misses Bird Ragsdale of North Fork, and Ruth McAtee of the Saccharine village up the road, were in the city Friday, on shopping bent.

The Selby Poultry Co., of Quincy, has bought the poultry business of Sharp & Patterson. Mr. Sharp will remain with the new firm for a month.

Joshua Nance, bridge carpenter on the Katy, with headquarters at South McAllister, I. T., spent the latter part of last week in the city with his family.

Ed L. Rees believes in grazing a horse if it is expensive. Thursday night he turned his out to graze, Friday he had to pay a man for bringing it back from Hassard.

There was a very enjoyable dance given at the Smith Hall Thursday night. The Italian band made excellent music and and some twenty-five couples tripped the light fantastic after it.

Miss Nellie Lasley, one of the pretty girls of North Fork, spent the first of the week in the city with relatives. If a girl is looking for pretty women, we would say: go to North Fork.

J. C. the three-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Purl, of Kirksville died Sunday afternoon. The doctor and his wife were formerly of this city and their friends will be sorry to learn of their loss.

The Bell Telephone Co., long distance, has leased one of the handsome mansions in the Proctor building for five years. The room is being fitted up and will be first class in every respect. They will get settled in their new quarters some time this week.

Werner The Tailor is the place to get your clothes made.

Mrs. Susan Elliott is spending the week in the Gem City with her daughter, Mrs. George Deters, who is mourning over the death of one of her small children. Miss Jessie Maddox accompanied Mrs. Elliott.

The remains of the infant of Mr. and Mrs. J. Art Melson of Jacksonville, Fla., arrived on the noon train Monday. Quite a number of friends of its parents met the remains at the depot and accompanied them to St. Jude cemetery. The friends here loved the little one for its parents sake.

Werner The Tailor is headquarters for pressing and for cleaning clothes.

Werner The Tailor is headquarters for pressing and for cleaning clothes.

Werner The Tailor is headquarters for pressing and for cleaning clothes.

Werner The Tailor is headquarters for pressing and for cleaning clothes.

Werner The Tailor is headquarters for pressing and for cleaning clothes.

Werner The Tailor is headquarters for pressing and for cleaning clothes.

Werner The Tailor is headquarters for pressing and for cleaning clothes.

Werner The Tailor is headquarters for pressing and for cleaning clothes.

Werner The Tailor is headquarters for pressing and for cleaning clothes.

Werner The Tailor is headquarters for pressing and for cleaning clothes.

Werner The Tailor is headquarters for pressing and for cleaning clothes.

Werner The Tailor is headquarters for pressing and for cleaning clothes.

Jake Piersol's flock produced 426 pounds of wool.

John McGlasson had 14 fleeces and the Monroe buyers bought it.

Werner The Tailor will make your clothes to fit. See him.

Horace Kent was a business visitor in the Bluff City, Friday.

Melvin Nolen has bought 106 head of sheep from Marvin Kincaid.

Mrs. J. J. Brown was in Hannibal on a shopping expedition Friday.

Misses Virgie Bristow and Pearl Bohrer were in Paris part of the week.

Dan S. Sharp of Emden was a business visitor in the city Saturday.

Jasper Henderson was a business visitor in the City of Flowers Friday.

Robert Meriwether and wife spent part of the week with relatives in Quincy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Fleming, of Brookfield, arrived Monday for a visit with the homefolk.

Albert Montgomery of Parsons, Kans., came in Saturday for a brief visit with the homefolks.

Miss Edna Gough, of Lake-nan, arrived Monday for a visit with her friends, Misses Hattie and Luta Bond.

Lyon Gartner, of Brookfield, came down Monday for a visit with his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lyon

Richard Lasley, well known in this city, came up from St. Louis and spent the first of the week with his son, Stanley.

Mrs. H. Clay Heather, of the City of Flowers, spent the first of the week in the city with her sister, Mrs. W. R. Anderson.

For garden plants grown from northern seeds cheaper than the cheapest go to—JERRY G. EDWARDS. 1t

Lehenbauer Bros., of Huntington brought in 62 heavy fleeces Saturday. They averaged 11 pounds per fleece. Uncle Ham Bird will have to try again.

Ollie Nolen writes us from Bronson, Kan., under date May 23. Crops are fine out here this time. Corn is about knee high. We have had 3 inches of rain in the past 24 hours.

Werner The Tailor is the place to get your clothes made.

Werner The Tailor is the place to get your clothes made.

Werner The Tailor is the place to get your clothes made.

Werner The Tailor is the place to get your clothes made.

Werner The Tailor is the place to get your clothes made.

Werner The Tailor is the place to get your clothes made.

Werner The Tailor is the place to get your clothes made.

Werner The Tailor is the place to get your clothes made.

Werner The Tailor is the place to get your clothes made.

Werner The Tailor is the place to get your clothes made.

Werner The Tailor is the place to get your clothes made.

Werner The Tailor is the place to get your clothes made.