Dear Santa Claus:—
I will write you a letter to day. I go to school and I like my teacher well, I know all my lessons now. I will tell you what I want. I want a gold ring, a gold necklace, a big doll and a cradle for my doll. I am nine years old and will ten the sixth of March. I help Ma wash dishes. I can make up the big bed and lounge. I help ma knit rugs I just learnt how, the other day. I will write more about my school because I dont expect you could get any sense, out of the other I wrote about it. I will tell what books I am in, I'm in the Geography, Arithmetic, and Language, and reader.

I don't expect you can read this scribbling very well. I guess I will close for this time.
From your affectionate
Grace Ethel Spaulding
Dear Santa
I am a little girl six years old and go to school I thought I would rite and tell you what I want as you would not know any other way I would like a doll with white hair like mine with a white dress on it. and a little set of dishes and My stocking full of candy and nuts and any thing else you would like to bring well good by
