The severe weather of the past week simply blocked shipping interests. Barger and McClintic shipped 1 car of hogs, A H Green 1 car hay and Selby Poultry Co 1 car. Total 3 cars.

Valentine Party.

Mrs. A. Jaeger, Jr. and Miss Ada McClintic gave a valentine party to the Kismet Club at the lovely appointed home of the former, Tuesday evening.

The rooms were decorated with hearts, big, little, and all young, many of them pierced in pairs with an arrow. Thus had Little Dan Cupid done his best to prevent any single hearts from leaving that joyous home.

All refreshments served carried out the heart idea, even the coffee had a hearty taste.

Six tables were filled with euchre players. A. H. Green and Mrs. T. M. Boulware, were awarded first prize and D. D. Melson and A. Thompson drew for the booby, a pretty sterling silver lobster.

Clear the Roads.

The patrons are expected to meet the department, half way by aiding the carriers where they can in the performance of their duties, by keeping the roads open after heavy snowfalls and by using their influence with the proper authorities to maintain them in good repair at all seasons of the year and under all sorts of weather.—Extract from instructions from Superintendent of R. F. D. Service.

A "Book Sale" will be given on Saturday afternoon and evening, Feb. 18th, at the Trading Stamp store, 3 doors north of Monroe City Bank, for the benefit of the Library. Oysters, Coffee and doughnuts served. Home made candies on sale. The "Book Sale" will be both novel and amusing. Come. Have a good time and help a good cause.

By Order of Committee.

The fact that a man who answered a matrimonial advertisement got a wife whom he afterwards had to divorce is being used by the papers down in the interior of the state as an argument against the mail order business.—Kansas City World. Yes, trading Jack-knives sight unseen is one thing and securing a wife or groceries and dry goods the same way, another.

ABOUT THE CHURCHES.

Interesting News Concerning the Different Denominations.

This Column Closes Promptly at 9 a. m. Each Wednesday. Don't Forget it.

Rev. G. W. Humphrey filled appointments with the Shilo Church Saturday and Sunday.

The Madison Times complains of slim attendance at prayer meeting in that burg. It says out of a membership in various churches of 550 only 44 attended last Wednesday night. That is really a poor showing for a town that is saloonless. We have not polled this city, but accidentally learned that there was 85 in attendance at three prayer meetings the same Wednesday night. So the Queen of the Prairies is not so bad after all.

Rev. J. E. Travis, of Shelbina was in the city with friends Saturday.

Rev. B. F. Hixson has been confined to his bed for the past ten days with la grippe.

PRESBYTERIAN.

Preaching at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday both morning and evening by the Pastor. Prayer meeting for missions Friday afternoon at 2:30 with Mrs. Wine.

FIRST BAPTIST.

Last Sunday night was the sixth anniversary of the destruction of the church by fire.

Dr. Read will conduct usual services Sunday. Subject of the morning discourse. "An Enlarged Vision." Evening: "The Right and Wrong Use of Womans Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. W. S. Turner at 2.30 p. m. tomorrow.

METHODIST.

Regular services Sunday.

AT HASSARD.

There will be preaching at Hassard at 3 p. m. Sunday by J. C. Todd, of Monroe City.

CHRISTIAN.

The Christian Church will begin a series of Gospel Meetings next Sunday night. The services during the week will be in the evening at 7:30. The help of all christians and friends will be appreciated. Subject Sunday night "Men Christ Cannot Trust." Monday evening, "The World's Greatest Need." Tuesday evening, "Prayer's Which God Answers," Wednesday evening, "A Crown of Stars." Regular service Sunday morning.

WATERS.

Mrs. Ann Waters, born in St. Charles county, Mo., Nov. 28, 1845, died at her home near New London, Feb. 13, 1905. Mrs. Waters was credited with being the oldest member of the Christian church or Church of the Disciples.

Mrs. Waters was the mother of Mrs. James K. Ely of this city.

Masque Ball

The Masque ball at the opera house Tuesday night was an enjoyable occasion.

The costumes were handsome, unique and otherwise. Tandy Gentry, as "Happy Hooligan," and Miss Grigg, as "Phyllis," swiped the $5 prize.

Ragland

The infant child of Walter and Mrs. Ragland died of pneumonia near Shelbina Saturday and the funeral was conducted Sunday.

Rev. H. W. James the oldest one of the R. F. D. carriers and having the roughest one of the six routes, was the only one who made the trip through the snow banks Monday. The balance went out two or three miles and were forced by the drifts, to return to the post office.

Hon. W. T. Ragland and W. R. P. Jackson returned Monday from Midland, Tex., wher they had been to have the Hugh M. Clark estate appraised and probated. It amounted to $25,000 That does not include a half interest in the Boone ranch nor the third interest in the Hickman ranch nor any property in Missouri.

A Lodge of the Fraternal Union of America is in process of organization in this city. Those who wish to secure membership and insurance in an order based upon principles that are scientific honest, equitable and safe should investigate thoroughly this order, which combines some of the best features of both old line and fraternal insurance. PIANO CONTEST.

Time Of Closing Draws Near—4 P. M. February 28th. Help Your Favorite.

As the time for the close of the contest draws nearer, the ladies are more anxious for their friends to aid them. Either one of three may be the winner. It all depends upon their friends. Certainly you are going to assist your favorite.

The DEMOCRAT's big piano contest will close at 4 p. m., Tuesday, February 28. The ladies have been hustling and have done good work. You have a favorite in the contest and can give her some ballots. Don't put it off but vote now. The lady who wins the piano will be much pleased with it and will always thank you for aiding her to win.

A life subscription to the DEMOCRAT will give your favorite 25,000 votes if you give the money to the candidate whom you desire to win.

Get square to January 1, 1905, on our subscription list and then give your favorite $5.00 to pay for 5 years subscription. That will give her 3,750 votes. Don't wait too long.

Following is the relative standing of the candidates as we go to press:

Miss Anna Nolen
Miss Bessie Willis
Mrs. T. B. Hayden
Miss Glessie Herron

A Great Time.

The Married Men's League had a great time Friday evening. One candidate was initiated into the mysteries of the order and the officers for the ensuing term were installed by State Deputy M. A. Hornback as follows:

R. H. Hagar, Past Grand Nabob;
R. O. Ballard, Grand Nabob;
S. G. Demaree, Secy. and Tr. as.
M. B. Garner, Grand Duke;
C. A. Lawson, Grand Wizard
Dr. J. R. Dawson, Grand Sage;
J. H. Woodward, Grand Chaplain;
C. I. Lanniger, 1st Corporal;
H. I. Lear, 2nd Corporal;

After the work at the hall was finished all adjourned to Megown & Carpenter's restaurant where a most enjoyable time was spent.

Looks Suspicious.

Wonder if one, Shelby Rutledge, R. F. D. carrier isn't preparing to take unto himself a better half. When at the depot Monday, we noticed a carpet that had been sent him by express. All right Shell, make the cage comfortable, then
