Clothing Tips.

Any article of merchandise bearing this label

Wm. A. Sullivan,
Monroe City, Mo.

Means your dollars worth or your money back.

Wm. A. Sullivan,
Cash Clothier.

Your attention is called to the fact that it is getting cold. It is possible for a man to jingle the silver in his pocket and prophesy when the weather is warm, but when it is cold you must either buy clothing or take more exercise. If you conclude to buy clothing, The Big Clothing Store is ready to show you an easy way to avoid the exercise.

Wm. A. Sullivan,
Cash Clothier.

Nice black galloway overcoat, nice chinchilla overcoat, nice long black overcoat, form fitting overcoat, anything in an overcoat at exactly the right price. Good warm underwear at exactly the right price. Anything in caps and hosiery at exactly the right price. Come to The Big Clothing Store where you can get what you want, and get merchandise just as good as your money or your money back.

Wm. A. Sullivan,
Cash Clothier.

Our store is a busy place now, and we want to keep it that way for the next three months. We are selling lots of goods and we have lots of goods to sell. If you want to do business right, you are invited to our store, where you will get satisfaction or your money back.

Wm. A. Sullivan,
Cash Clothier.

Do your business with the man who does the most business. There is a reason for it. Make this your rule and The Big Clothing Store will sell you your goods.

Teachers Association.

The Monroe County Teachers Association will be in session in this city this week. The first meeting will be held at 10 o'clock this morning. The meeting will close Saturday. All sessions will be held at the school house except the lecture at 7:30 Friday evening, by Superintendent Arthur Lee of Clinton. This will be at the Christian Church. The public cordially invited to attend all sessions.

Miss Katherine Glascock, of Bear Creek, arrived Saturday to spend several days with her cousin, Charles Bush and family.

ABOUT THE CHURCHES.

Interesting News Concerning the Different Denominations.

This Column Closes Promptly at 9 a. m. Each Wednesday. Don't Forget it.

Mrs I. W. Read and Miss Lilly Huston attended the B. Y. P. U. meeting at Palmyra.

Elder J. R. Perkins, of Huntsville, has accepted the call to the Pastorate of the Christian church at Paris. He will begin his work in December.

Rev. John Anderson, of Hannibal, was with Monroe friends Saturday.

Dr. I. W. Read was with friends in the Windy City by lakes, the latter part of last week.

Rev. E. S. Graham, of Hannibal, filled appointments at Oakland church south of city, Saturday and Sunday.

Rome, Nov. 10.—Unable to stand the confinement of the vatican, Pope Pius X is slowly wasting away. This was the opinion expressed by Dr. Lapponi to the correspondents of the Publishers' Press in the first official announcement made in regard to the pontiff's health.

"His holiness' condition is only relatively satisfactory," said Dr. Lapponi. "He is not only harassed by gout, but he is also suffering through living in the confined atmosphere of the vatican and the fact that his liberty is limited through the necessity of remaining within the vatican precincts. This has produced nostalgia, which is wasting his health more than anything else.

Rev. Fr. Cunningham went to St. Louis Monday on ecclesiastical business.

Rev. Milton Riggs, of St. Louis, delivered a very acceptable sermon at the First Baptist church Sunday morning.

Elder J. M. Bailey, of Frankford, conducted services at the Christian church, Sunday.

Rev. E. S. Grabam, Pastor of Oakland Baptist church south of the city, reports everything in church work progressing nicely. Had a good congregation Sunday. The ladies have raised the money to put a nice woven wire fence around the grave yard and the necessary funds to paper the house of worship and to carpet the aisles.

Rev. Fr. Charles Kendrick, of St. Louis, soon to be of Cincinnati, arrived Monday to visit relatives near this city, and a host friends in the city. As a boy he was popular here and as a young business man in this city he was a general favorite, for he was a man of many excellent parts. When he goes to Cincinnati his brother, Rev. Fr. Pius Kendrick, will be transferred from there to St. Louis. While in the city Tuesday and yesterday, he read mass at the Holy Rosary church.

FIRST BAPTIST.

Regular services Sunday by Dr Read, Subject of morning discourse: "The Value of the Gospel." In the evening: "The Devil's Mortgage."

The Woman's Missionary Society will meet Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Remember it is the annual meeting when the "Thank Offering Boxes" are to be opened.

CHRISTIAN.

The Christian church of this city has called Elder J. M. Bailey, of Frankford, to its pastorate.

He has accepted of the call and will enter upon his duties Jan. 1, 1907.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

HOLY ROSARY

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

A new Council of the Knights of Columbus will be organized November 25th at Monroe City. This achievement is due to energetic efforts of Fr. Mulien who is considered one of the most successful organizers in the diocese of St. Louis. When in the city of St. Louis he organized many sodalities with large membership. In Washington County he did the same and since he came to Monroe City as pastor of the Holy Rosary church he has followed the same successful tactics. There were no church societies of any kind—through his efforts for one year he has brought into existence St. Joseph's Society having 80 members. The young men's and boys sodalities with 65 members. The Sanctuary Society with 85 members and the young ladies and girls sodalities with 76 members, and now through his efforts a class of 50 will be initiated in the K. C's Sunday, Nov. 25th.

A special program is being prepared by Holy Rosary choir under Mr. Gentges.

A solemn high mass will be celebrated that day at 11 o'clock a. m.

Many delegations are expected from the surrounding Councils: St. Louis, Hannibal, Quincy, Sedalia Moberly, St. Joe, Kansas City, Elina and Brookfield. Hon. John S. Leahy will preside at the initiation.

Entertained.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. W. B. A. McNutt entertained about thirty of her lady friends in her hospitable home on West Summer street.

It was one of those enjoyable card parties that the ladies love so well, in fact love almost as well as the delicious refreshments served by Mrs. McNutt.

Sunday J. L. Lvon was happy even if his 62nd birthday was not to be until Tuesday. Mrs. G. W. Williamson, of Tulsa, I. T., his daughter, sent him a handsome silk umbrella with a buck horn handle mounted in gold. We'll Jim would rather take a shower bath than to get that umbrella wet.
