Trouble Enough.

We do not need to borrow
 Our trouble from tomorrow;
 We'll find enough to worry us before
 we're through today;
 We waste our time in fretting
 O'er what's to come, forgetting
 The goodness and the gladness that are rich along the way.

We do not need to ponder
 On what we left back yonder—
 Back yonder on the blotted pages
 that tells of yesterday;
 We should recall the gladness,
 And not bring up the sadness,
 But let the gloom go to the dark and let the sunshine stay.

This casting up of trouble
 Will only make it double—
 Will only wilt the flowers that are sweet along the road.
 This thing of being tearful
 Instead of waxing cheerful
 Because of what has gone, will only add unto our load.

So, what's the use to borrow
 Our trouble from tomorrow,
 Or clutch the sorrows that we thought were ours on yesterday?
 Today will have its fretting,
 But let us go, forgetting,
 And joy will overtake us while we walk along the way.

Editors Are Saying

Not to Be Proud Of

The Republicans are in bad shape in their campaign—they can't "point with pride" to President Taft who is accused with being "a receiver of stolen goods" or Gov. Hadley, who has made a "monkey" of himself in trying to perform a great feat of straddling.—Gallatin Democrat.

Hit Them For a Pocketful.

A Missouri paper remarks that if Roosevelt had hit the trusts one-tenth as hard when he was president as he is hitting them today there would not now be a trust in existence. We are not so sure of that. He hit the Standard oil trust for an additional $150,000 when he was president, which was striking with considerable vigor. Kansas City Journal.

Let Facts Speak.

The Republican state platform said: "We favor a state board of immigration." Do they? Let the facts speak. Governor Hadley vetoed the appropriation passed by the Democratic legislature for the state board of immigration. Is that the way the Republicans mean to "favor" a state board of immigration?—Henry County Democrat.

Aldrich Knew the Ground.

A few years ago when Senator Aldrich stated that the government should be operated on $300,000,000 a year less than it was then taking there was consternation in the Republican ranks, and the Republican leaders tried to get him to retract the statement. But Aldrich was game, and stood firm. With a Democratic Congress at the wheel a slashing process has been going on, and it is announced from Washington the expenses of the ensuing year will be $300,000,000 less than when Aldrich spoke. Aldrich was a wise guy and knew his ground.—Albany Ledger.

What Can They Do About It?

In the Republican national convention at Chicago three hundred delegates set stolidly in their seats and refused to participate in the nomination of President Taft. Taft because they knew, they charged and they proved that his nomination was procured by theft and fraud. Twenty of these delegates were from Missouri. What are they going to do about it? Sit around and poke fun at the Bull Moosers? That doesn't meet the issue. There is no middle ground. The Republican state candidates have endorsed that fraud. They have done so in their platform. And now—this to the Missouri tax-payer—can you trust them with your money?—Atchison County Mail.

Has a Poor Memory.

A Bull Mooser declared the other day that he would vote for Roosevelt in order to avert another Cleveland panic. Poor, deluded partisan. He has evidently forgotten the Roosevelt panic of 1907, which was far more disastrous to the commercial world than the panic of 1893. During the panic of 1893 you could get some money from the banks, but during the panic of 1907 the banks refused to pay over to depositors their money. As near home as St. Joseph shipplaster money was issued in 1907 to tide over the panic under Roosevelt. Be consistent in your political argument because everybody has not forgotten the history of panics under the different administrations in this country.—Worth County Times.

Thomas P. Waller returned to his home at Hannibal, Friday after a pleasant visit with old friends near this city.

The Youth's Companion For 1913.

The Youth's Companion appeals to every interest of family life, from housekeeping to athletics. It begins with stories of youthful vim and vigor, with articles which disclose the secrets of successful play in the great games, with charming tales of life at the girls' college. But The Companion does not surrender these readers when they have entered the more serious paths of life. Mothers will welcome the page for little children and the weekly doctor's article. Fathers will find the important news of the day as it is, and not as it is rumored to be. The entire household will appreciate the sketches which touch gently on common foibles or caricature electricity. In short, for less than four cents a week The Companion brings into the home clean entertainment, pure inspiration, fine ideals, increase of knowledge.

Names rarely seen in tables of contents will be found in The Companion's Announcement for 1913 which will be sent upon request—with samples of the paper, to those not familiar with it.

Every new subscriber for 1913 will receive free all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1912; also free. The Companion Window Transparency and Calendar for 1913, in rich, translucent colors—the most beautiful of all Companion souvenirs.

The most valuable book in the world is supposed to be a Hebrew Bible, now in the Vatican. As long ago as 1512, Pope Jules refused for this its weight in gold, which would amount to $103,000.

One of the curiosities of Brazil is a tree whose wood and bark contain so much silica that they are used by potters. Both wood and bark are burned and the ashes are pulverized and mixed in equal proportions with clay, producing a very superior ware. The tree grows to a height of 100 feet, but does not exceed a foot in diameter. The fresh bark cuts like sandstone, and when dried is brittle and hard.
