March.

Go ahead, old March and bluster.
Blow ahead; you can not fluster Me!

What care I for all your scolding?
Do you think the spring unfolding I can't see?

I can hear the crocus croaking, Spite of all your icy soaking;
Don't you s'pose I know you're joking Eh?

Spite of all your noisy, windy, Howling, prowling, scowling shindy, Every day.

I can see behind your frowning
All the gorgeous vernal gawning Of the spring.

I can hear behind your weeping Sounds of flowers upward creeping, Songs of little robins peeping
And the flutter of the wing!

Underneath your mantle icy I can hear the gossip spicy Of the river free

Needn't try to play the 'possum Guess I sort of sniff the blossom On the tree.

So, old March, keep on a-blowing, Can't fool me for all your snowing!
I can see what is a-going On behind the scenes.

I can see behind your strumming, Little busy bees a-humming,
All the joys of spring a-coming With its greens.

And while others may deride you—Claim they really can't abide you—On a rail would like to ride you, I don't think it pays;

For I know, for all your flaring, Just the things you are preparing,
And for that I love your daring Ways.

Local Woman Now A Big Advertiser

When one of our woman customers recently bought five bottles of Harmony Hair Beautifier to give her friends for Christmas, she started all by herself a mighty big advertising campaign, because not only does each one of the women to whom she gave a bottle of the Beautifier now consider it indispensable for the proper care of hair, but each of them has been the means of getting several of her friends to use it. As a consequence if things keep on in this way for a few months longer, we will be selling more of it than of all other hair preparations combined. Sprinkle a little Harmony Hair Beautifier on your hair each time before brushing it. Contains no oil; will not change color of hair, nor darken gray hair.

To keep hair and scalp dandrufffree and clean, use Harmony Shampoo. This pure liquid shampoo gives an instantaneous rich lather that immediately penetrates to every part of hair and scalp, insuring a quick, thorough cleansing.
Washed off just as quickly, the entire operation takes only a few moments. Contains nothing that can harm the hair; leaves no harshness or stickiness—just a sweet cleanliness.

Both preparations come in odd-shaped, very ornamental bottles with sprinkler tops. Harmony Hair Beautifier, 1.00. Harmony Shampoo, 50c. Both guaranteed to satisfy you in every way, or your money back. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us—L. M. Wood,

Your Worries.

There is a whole lot of consolation for us in this essay on worries from the American Magazine:

"The worries of today are the jokes of tomorrow. Look over your past life. What are the incidents that you find funny now?
Every one of them was a worry at the time it happened. You laugh as you look back at past worries.
Well why not laugh at the worries of today and tomorrow as well?

"Worries does not get you anywhere or anything. There is no use worrying about things that are past. Whatever has happened it is right or it would not have happened. The whole great universe is run in harmony. Don't be conceit-ed enough to think that everything you have done is out of harmony with the universe. If it was the whole world would soon be out of kilter.

"There's no use worrying, either about what's going to happen. Nobody knows that. Remember, too the worst never happens. And why worry now? You either can help or you can't help what you are worrying about. If you can help it go ahead and do it and stop worrying. If you can't help it, what good does worrying do?

"But you say, 'I just can't help worrying. How absurd! Of course you can. Try this plan: Sit down calmly and ask yourself what is the very worst result that can come from your present trouble. Look it in the face boldly. Square your shoulders and say to yourself:
'Well if that's all I can face that.
Lots of worse things have happened to millions of other people and they have survived. I guess I can.'

"Most worries are over mere trifles. Probably Geo. Washington's wife used to worry when he got home late for dinner, but what difference does it make to either of them now?

"Get a worry book. Put down in it everything that worries you.
Look at it a week from today. How many of the things you are worrying about will happen? The longer you keep a worry book the shorter will grow the entries."—Ex.
