

MRS. LARAMORE TELLS TROUBLES

Lady in Goodwater Describes Her Distressing Experience and Tells How She Was Finally Relieved.

Goodwater, Mo.—"Ever since I was a little girl," says Mrs. Riley Laramore, "I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia. I suffered misery after eating, and had terrible heartburn.

I thought I had to suffer this way as long as I lived, but when I began to take Thedford's Black-Draught, in small doses, every night, the heartburn was all gone in a few days, and I could eat without distress.

I took two small packages in all, and although that was some time ago, the dyspepsia has not returned.

I speak a good word for Thedford's Black-Draught whenever I have the opportunity.

Heartburn causes distress, we urge you to try Thedford's Black-Draught. It cleanses the system, helps the stomach to digest its food, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver.

It acts gently and is without bad after-effects. Try it. Price 25c.

What the Missouri Editors Are Saying

That Sharp Rebuke of the Girls.

Sharp rebuke by the girls to the men in the new dances, "Get away closer!"—Stanberry Owl-Headlight.

May Celebrate the Natal Day.

If Congress will be good and attend strictly to business, it can have a holiday to enjoy the Fourth of July.—Marshall News.

The Weather Man is Kind.

Anyway, you've got to hand it to the weather man for choosing the shortest month in which to put on his winter program.—Weston Chronicle.

Men Without a Party.

Lots of fellows will be prowling around the Democratic back door this time, so many men are now without a party.—Clinton County Democrat.

And They Were Properly "Histed"

Maybe the gang that tried to "get" Senator Gore do not know what a "petard" is; but they were "hoist" by it, anyway.—Marceline Mirror.

This Is Real Ice Weather.

That drop in the weather to zero and below, gives us our first good crop of the year ice crop and there is none more important.—Parkville Gazette.

Craig May Be a Candidate.

It is rumored that Hon. Anderson Craig, state senator from this district, will be a candidate for governor of Missouri in 1916.—Stanberry Owl-Headlight.

No Use Even in Iowa.

In the Second Iowa district last week Henry Vollmer, Democrat, was elected to Congress to succeed the late Congressman Pepper. It's no use for a standpat Republican to run for office these days—not even in Iowa.—Howell County Gazette.

It Will Promote Cleanliness.

An eminent physician has announced that tuberculosis is not infectious. Nevertheless, the recent agitation for cleanliness in the dread disease will not hurt no one and we believe has and will save many lives.—Edina Democrat

Senator Reed Helped Elect.

Senator Reed made several speeches in the late Congressman Pepper's district in Iowa, and the result was the election of a Democrat to succeed him in the house. The election was held Tuesday, and the Democratic majority was 1500.—Norborne Democrat.

Not Ruined the Farmer Yet.

The Wilson administration has not ruined the farmer as yet. In January beef cattle were higher than they were a year ago and hogs during the same period were $1.00 a hundred higher than they were in January 1913.—Memphis Democrat.

Taft Still Seeing Things

Mr. Taft, in his review of the future of the Republican party, leads one to the conclusion that the ex-president is endowed with microscopic vision. He seems to see something which can't be seen by others.—Linneus Bulletin.

Those Bosom Friends Have Quit.

Those former bosom friends, Taft and Roosevelt, cannot feel at ease now without lambasting one another. Taft now denounces Roosevelt, who was once a man after his own heart, as a Socialist, and to some that is that depth to which a person can sink.—Albany Ledger.

Justice and Senator Gore.

Surely the Department of Justice—JUSTICE—mind you—is not going to leave it to Senator Gore to find out the facts of the apparently criminal conspiracy to defame him and to prosecute the conspirators. That is a public duty, not a private citizen's duty.—Kansas City Times.

Forgot the Great Theft.

Most of us found so much satisfaction in recognizing Lincoln day that we gave no thought to the anniversary of Samuel J. Tilden in the same week, the man who was flim-flamed out of the presidency in 1876 and was the victim of a game of euchre that is a disgrace to our national politics. Harrisonville Democrat.

Bull Moose Victory Not There.

Victory for the Bull Moose didn't materialize. They were going to carry the special election in the Second Iowa district hands down but the returns show that the Democratic candidate was elected by 1500 majority and that the Bull Moose candidate received only about one-third as many votes as were cast for the Republican nominee.—Chillicothe Constitution.

Postmaster General Burleson Unafraid.

Postmaster General Burleson is showing that he is not afraid to so enlarge the use of the parcel post as to place it in competition with the rich and arrogant express companies. And the way express rates are tumbling downward shows what healthy competition will do in the way of reducing prices and saving money to the people. It's the progressive Democratic way.—Atchison County Mail.

A gentleman at a fancy fair lately being solicited to buy something by a young lady who kept a stall, said he he wanted to buy what was not for sale—a lock of her hair. She promptly cut off the coveted curl and received the sum asked for it, namely, $5. The purchaser was showing his trophy to a friend. "She rather had you," said the friend. "To my certain knowledge she only paid $3 for the whole wig."—Ex.

Calvert.

George A. Calvert was born May 7, 1849 and died at his home in this city March 4, 1914. He had been in poor health for some time and had been confined to the house about two months. He was born north of here near Warren and lived in that vicinity until about five years ago when he moved to this city. His wife died about eight years ago. Two daughters have also passed away. He left two children, Mrs. Lena Burditt and Joe Calvert, the latter resided with and cared for him in his last illness. He also left four brothers and two sisters, Thomas, Czal, Zibe, Boular, Julia M. Wood and Sarah Furguson. Funeral services were conducted March 5th at Andrew Chapel by Sam P. Gott and interment in the family burying ground north of town.

Mr. Calvert died on his thirty-fifth wedding anniversary and was buried on the day and month his mother was thirteen years ago. Mr. Calvert was a quiet unassuming man and he leaves many friends in and near this city.

Dr. W. T. Rutledge and wife visited Clarence friends Saturday evening.

Mesdames B. H. Roewe and S. R. Emery of Ely spent Friday in this city.

Mrs. I. P. Stephens is in St. Louis spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Marion Abbott.

Mrs. J. S. Conway and children are spending the week with Hannibal and Palmyra friends.

Frank Wilson and wife, of Hannibal spent Sunday with his brother, O. C. Wilson and family.

Mrs. William Buckman and daughter, Pauline spent Monday in Quincy.

Song.

There is ever a song somewhere, my dear,

There is ever a something sings always;

There's the song of the lark when the skies are clear,

And the song of the thrush when skies are gray.

The sunshine showers, across the grain,

And the bluebird fills in the orchard tree;

And in and out, when the eaves drip rain,

The swallows are twittering ceaselessly.

There is ever a song somewhere, my dear,

Be the skies above or dark or fair;

There is ever a song that our hearts may hear

There is ever a song somewhere, my dear—

There is ever a song somewhere!

There is ever a song somewhere, my dear,

In the midnight black or the mid-day blue;

The robin pipes when the sun is here,

And the cricket chirrups the whole night through;

The buds may blow and the fruit may grow,

And the autumn leaves drop crisp and sere;

But whether the sun, or the rain, or the snow,

There is ever a song somewhere, my dear.

There is ever a song somewhere, my dear,

There is ever a song that our hearts may hear—

There is ever a song somewhere, my dear—

There is ever a song somewhere!

—James Whitcomb Riley.

Mrs. Perry Dooley and son, Marvin, of Stoutsville passed through here Tuesday enroute to Palmyra to visit her daughter, Mrs. E. A. Ragland.

A Real Nerve And Body-Building Medicine

We believe Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is the best remedy for toning the nerves, enriching the blood, building up wasted tissues, renewing health, strength and energy—the best medicine you can use if you are run-down, tired-out, nervous and debilitated, no matter what the cause. It doesn't depend for its good effect upon alcohol or habit-forming drugs, because it contains none. It may not make you feel better in a few hours, but it will make you feel better, we are sure, just as soon as the tonic and food properties it contains have a chance to get into the blood and, through the blood, into the rest of the system. Pure Olive Oil and the Hypophosphites have long been endorsed by successful physicians, but here, for the first time, they are combined into a preparation which, as a nerve and a builder of strength and health, we believe, has no equal.

If you don't feel well, begin taking Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion today and build your health and strengthen your system against more serious illness. To convalescents, old people, puny children and all others who are weak, run-down or ailing, we offer Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion with our personal promise that, if it doesn't make you well and strong again, it will cost you nothing. If we didn't have the utmost faith in it, we wouldn't offer it with this guaranteed, nor even recommend it to you. We are sure that once you have used it you will recommend it to your friends, and thank us for having recommended it to you. Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us. $1.00.—L. M. Wood, Monroe City, Mo.
