GOLD DOLLARS
FOR NEVER
Ninety Cents
Never Offered nor Never will be

PAY ENOUGH!—Many people are too anxious to save money when buying a watch, thinking that a cheap watch will do as well as a good one and that all the difference is in the price. Perhaps it requires a moral effort on your part to pay us ten dollars for a plain looking, honest timekeeper when somebody else generously offers you a gold watch for about $3.98, and just for goodness sake throws in a gold chain and charm. Of course, it is all a "tam shindie," as the fellow said when he went up in a balloon and couldn't find the silver lining of the cloud.

We have to offer you watches from $9 up, that we will warrant in every particular. We will keep them in repair the first year free, and will warrant the movements perfect in workmanship, and if for any reason you should desire to change your movement within six months, we will give you free of cost the same grade movement, as you have bought, of any American make.

Moses Austin was the colonizer of Texas, but died shortly after he started his colonization scheme, which was then carried forward by his son, S. F. Austin, who afterwards founded the city of Austin, Tex.

FOR RICHIE A RESPECT, Sept. 15, 1894. ED. JOURNAL.

We notice that "Observer" in the Independent is still harping on the dead past, and refuses to enlighten us on the present issues. He has dropped the county court, the road overseer question, and is silent as regards the three days labor imposed upon the poor man by the present road law; ignores entirely the Wilson tariff bill, which President Cleveland denounced as an "act of party perjury and party dishonor," as the very "communism of self," but instead, he belches forth his vituperation and falsehood. We cannot follow his example; he is to low down in the fifth and snout, with which he is so familiar.

If "Observer" will read the history of the United States (Harnes' series), now in use in our public schools, he will learn that Jefferson, Madison and Monroe were all elected President by the Whigs; the Democrats were then called Federalists (sometimes called Tories). During the administration of President Monroe new parties were formed. Whigs caught to Republicans and Federalists to Democrats; the former led by Henry Clay and John Quincy Adams, the latter by Andrew Jackson and John C. Calhoun. Jackson was the first Democratic President and James Buchanan the last up to 1860, when Abraham Lincoln was elected as a Republican. He found an entirely empty treasury, national credit destroyed, and a civil war pending. The war is long since ended, and every voter, Democrat and Republican, is satisfied with the action of the two parties down to the present time. We will here drop "Observer" unworthy of further notice, and consign him to merited oblivion. "VINDICATOR."

What came near being a fatal accident happened to Hart Culton last Saturday evening, after the rain. Mr. Culton went to the mines, and went down in a shaft about 20 feet deep, and went into a drift to work. A loose rock weighing about 5 tons caved in and wedged Mr. Culton in, and bruised his shoulder very badly.

About 15 people met on the Shibboleth base ball grounds, to witness the most interesting game played this season by either team.

The day was a fine one for the occasion, and the best score game came to an end with a score of 5 to 9, in favor of Shibboleth. "CLOVER."
