DREADFUL TO THINK ABOUT One Cannot Help but Feel That Barney Was Something of a Paragon.

Timothy McNulty was boss of a section of a southern railway which included several tunnels. Timothy had on his great Barney Mahoney, a new arrival from old Ireland, and together they were making an inspection of the road one morning.

Barney was awestruck, and it was some moments before he could adequately express his thoughts.

"Timothy, 'tis time," said he, "but I was 'till thinking' what a marvellous thing 'twould be if it should come to pass."

Barney was awestruck, and it was some moments before he could adequately express his thoughts.

One Dead and Three Hurt at Cherry Valley. Over at Cherry Valley, Crawford County, not far from Berryman, a shooting affray occurred at a picnic there last Saturday, with the result that Clarence Terry, aged 30 years, was shot dead, Wilder Halbert was wounded in the neck and left side, Oscar Halbert in the breast and face, and Fay Coffman was also wounded in the face. All the wounded will recover. We understand the parties concerned in the shooting were neighbors and had had a dispute over a line fence.

Local Wheat Crop Surpasses Expectations. The wheat crop of this county is exceeding expectations as the threshing man goes the rounds. According to reports sent in by our Ironton correspondent, the crops from fifteen farms in the south end of the county yielded a total of 24,828 bushels, or an average of 1,654 bushels to the farm, the highest single crop being 2480 bushels and the lowest 950 bushels. The quality of the grain is said to be first class.

Wheat is now being marketed in Potosi at the rate of forty or fifty wagon loads per day. Most of this grain is being handled by the Potosi Mill & Elevator Co., which expects the total receipts at that plant to run as high as 100,000 bushels. This would be about 25,000 bushels higher than the normal yearly volume of wheat handled there. The Bust Grain Co. is also handling heavy daily receipts of wheat. This concern buys for shipment. And all this wheat means so much cash for the farmers, at the rate of a dollar per bushel or better.

Great oat hay and other crops are also yielding big this season, and all around, it's going to be a big year for the farmers of this county, according to reports. The last issue of the Journal.

Good Thing the Picnic Wasn't Lively. Outside two or three rows and attempted fights, attempted arrests and some promiscuous shooting on the part of the town marshal, the picnic passed off quietly enough. The Standard does not encourage drunkenness or rowdiness—not by any means—but even drunkenness is less dangerous than some ways of trying to establish peace. The reckless firing of a pistol on the crowded streets among women and children does not look to us like a very effective way of quelling a riot.—Bourbon Standard.

Tires of His Wife, Sends Her Away, Marries Her Daughter. Joe Nagy, a miner on Hilltown was hauled into Justice Marshands court last Saturday charged with bigamy. The charge is that Nagy married a woman in New York seven years ago and after living with her a short while part of the time here, she went back to the old country, and then Nagy married a daughter of his former wife who had been married before and had a grown daughter. The last time he was married in Farmington by Squire Zolman.

No testimony was offered at the hearing Saturday other than that of the presenting witness, M. A. Vallo, and the defendant himself. The defendant claims that he was not married to the first woman. On the day of his trial his wife gave birth to their first child. He was bound over to the circuit court and filed a bond for $1,000.—Bonne Terre Register.

County Court Proceedings. Bond of Jno. O. Long as overseer of special road district No. 23 approved. E. E. Hutchings, county surveyor, filed his report on new county road in Richwoods township, petitioned for by M. M. Flynn, Chas. Stocking and others, and case continued to Sept. 6. Bond of G. C. Mallow as constable of Belgrade township approved. Satisfaction acknowledged in school fund loan of John B. Robinson. John W. Algire was adjudged insane and ordered to Hospital No. 4 at Farmington for treatment. George Carr, collector of the revenue, was ordered relieved from the duty of visiting the various municipal townships for the purpose of collecting the taxes.

Citizens of special road district No. 11 having paid into the county treasury $51 to be expended for road improvement in said district, the court appropriated a like sum from the general road fund to be placed to the credit of the fund of said special district. Dr. J. R. Townsend, E. T. Eversole and Hugh L. White were appointed road commissioners for a term of two years. Settlement of N. F. Robinson, county treasurer, showing a balance in the various funds of $18,987.82, approved.

Interest in the farm trade constantly increasing. Ed prices of horse food growing difficulties in satisfactory farm help, increasing familiarity with line engines combine to increase the demand for the modern farm tractor, which the work of several horses averaged five fold. The fasteners of tractors are solving the problem of meeting demand with the intelligence and persistence which will insure success. Here and there we found farmers who with tractors about as they did heretofore with oxen. We are entering the tractor era.—Wallace's Farmer.
