

FINE WEATHER NOW
MON	TUE	WED	THUR
65-85	65-85	65-85	65-85
65-85	65-85	65-85	65-85

FRESH MARKET
Apples	Oranges	Lemons	Limes
1.00	1.00	1.00	1.00
1.00	1.00	1.00	1.00

MAIN LINE
St. Louis	St. Louis	St. Louis	St. Louis
7:30 a.m.	7:30 a.m.	7:30 a.m.	7:30 a.m.
8:30 p.m.	8:30 p.m.	8:30 p.m.	8:30 p.m.

J. M. SLOAN, DENTIST.
 AT POTOSI from the 1st to the 31st of each month.
 AT BIRMINGHAM from the 1st to the 31st of each month.

M. E. RHODES, Attorney at Law, POTOSI, MO.
 Will practice in all the courts of the State. Collections collected.

The Missouri State Normal School of Cape Girardeau, Missouri, will open on Monday, September 14, 1914.
 The people of this Normal School should all find in their own Normal School the best advantage offered for getting a good college and professional education.

PATENTS
 OVER 25 YEARS EXPERIENCE
 These patents are secured by the inventor and are not sold to anyone else. The inventor is the only one who can sell them. The inventor is the only one who can sell them.

THE USE OF WORDS
 The words of the Bible are the words of the Bible. The words of the Bible are the words of the Bible. The words of the Bible are the words of the Bible.

THE USE OF WORDS
 The words of the Bible are the words of the Bible. The words of the Bible are the words of the Bible. The words of the Bible are the words of the Bible.

THE USE OF WORDS
 The words of the Bible are the words of the Bible. The words of the Bible are the words of the Bible. The words of the Bible are the words of the Bible.

WEDNESDAY
 Fine weather now.
 Back to the schools.
 The picnic season is about over.
 The goldenrod flaunts itself in the meadow.

The autos were hieking up quite a bit Sunday.
 Miss Helen Long is visiting relatives at Potosi.
 Mr. and Mrs. John O. Long spent Sunday at Potosi.

Wallace Evans spent the first of the week in St. Louis.
 The leaves are beginning to show autumnal coloring.
 Mr. E. Q. Allee was a St. Louis visitor one day last week.

Paul Flynn of St. Louis visited here last week.
 Miss Mary Ward of DeBote visited here the past week.
 Mr. Jesse McGready of Jerseyville, Ill., is visiting relatives here.

Mr. Paul Simpson of Steelville visited here the past week.
 Haste is a-ripe for gathering and are said to be plentiful this fall.
 Miss Valle Higginbotham of Fertile has entered the high school here.

Miss Edna Ross of Mineral Point has entered the high school here.
 Mr. and Mrs. Fress Higginbotham of Fertile were in Potosi, Monday.
 Mrs. S. P. Coleman of Palmer visited friends here the first of the week.

Potosi added three new homes this summer—not so bad for hard times.
 Mrs. J. M. Simpson is visiting relatives and friends in Lincoln County.
 A little tiff is coming in right along, though the market is not very strong.

Mr. Lee Wallace and family of Wynne Ark., are visiting kindred here.
 There is one prisoner in the county jail at present, serving a 30-days' sentence.
 Miss Agatha Casey left Saturday for Keosauqua, where she began teaching, Monday.

Miss Emma Harris has been having her house repaired and is now keeping boarders.
 Dr. and Mrs. David Ford of Richwoods spent the first of the week with relatives here.
 Mrs. Otis Nicholson and little son, Theodore, of Miller's Branch are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Higginbotham and little son of Indian Creek are visiting relatives here.
 Stuart St. Clair of the State School of Mines at Rolla was a Potosi visitor the first of the week.
 Mrs. Fred Hill and children closed their summer home here Monday and returned to St. Louis.

Mrs. Vic Fourcille has returned to Potosi after spending the summer with relatives in Oklahoma.
 Messrs. F. Sauter and T. F. Daugherty of Richwoods had business in Potosi the first of the week.
 Dr. G. H. Everette, W. J. Dent and D. M. Queen of Caledonia had business in our town Monday.

WEDNESDAY
 An attempt to open a saloon near Sullivan resulted in a keen fight between the two sides, with the result that the boys won out, the county court refusing to grant the license.

WEDNESDAY
 Dr. J. L. Eaton of Bismarck has been appointed as a delegate from Missouri to the Mississippi Valley Conference on Tuberculosis, to be held at Indianapolis, Ind., on October 1st.

Col. N. A. Hauser, accompanied by his son, Walter, and son-in-law, Mr. Decker, all of St. Louis, spent Saturday and Sunday at the Clear Creek Farm, which is owned by Colonel Hauser.

We are in receipt of a communication stating that Mr. J. W. Towl, formerly of this place, but lately residing at Memphis, Tenn., has changed his place of residence to St. Louis, Mo.

Rev. Lem Hall of Chicago visited his father, Dr. E. F. Hall, here several days the past week. Rev. Hall is a well-known Methodist evangelist, and was on his way west on an evangelistic tour which will take him to the Pacific Coast.

The Journal has received an announcement of the marriage of Miss Margaret Griffith, daughter of Mr. Ben M. Griffith, formerly of Potosi, to Mr. Charles H. Harris, of Webster Groves, Mo. The ceremony took place at Magnet, Texas, the present home of the Griffith family. The young couple will reside at Webster Groves.

The drillers at the Birchcliffe place finished the well last week at 225 feet, having water standing 90 feet in the hole. Monday morning of this week they started a new hole 75 feet south, to see what can be found in the lead line. The lead they found in the first hole was a strata of flint about twelve feet in thickness and it is thought this strata is permeated with lead. This hole is to make a test of the theory.—Sullivan News.

A warranty deed was filed for record here on August 31st, by which T. F. Sloan, one of the oldest and best known citizens of Irondale neighborhood, conveys to his son, Clarence W. Sloan, a 100 acre farm, lying partly in Washington County and partly in St. Francois County, "in consideration of the love and affection, the care and keep for months past, with the prospect of a greater amount of care in the future" rendered by the son to the father.

Rev. Winfred Cole, a Methodist Missionary just returned from a six years' sojourn in China, gave an illustrated lecture on China and mission work there, at the Methodist Church last Sunday evening. A large audience was present. The illustrations were presented upon a screen with a stereopticon and the views were especially interesting, depicting scenes of Chinese life and missionary work. Rev. Cole is a son of Mr. Jas. W. Cole, a well-known and leading citizen of Harmony Township.

MILLINERY
 I have returned home with a fine stock of Fall Millinery. Don't buy before making me a call. Mrs. Rourcille, Murphy building.

Judge John C. Brown Dead.
 Judge John C. Brown, the only Republican member on the Missouri Supreme Court bench, died in St. Louis last Saturday after a long illness. Judge Brown was elected to the Supreme Court in 1910 from this section of the state, his home being at Fredericktown. He was 55 years of age and is survived by his wife and one daughter.

WEDNESDAY
 Newton Derricksen, Mineral Point, Mo. Maude Boyer.

FRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
 Services for Sunday, Sept. 13, 1915. Morning service at 11 o'clock. Subject: "Launch Out." Evening Service at 7:30. Subject: "Sowing and Reaping."

BAPTIST SERVICES.
 The services now being held at the Baptist Church will continue throughout the week, including next Sunday morning and evening. A movement is on foot to complete the new Baptist church building and all aid to this end will be appreciated.
 W. G. Hagerman.

Presbytery Will Meet in Potosi.
 The Presbytery of Potosi will hold its semi-annual meeting in the Presbyterian Church of Potosi, commencing Tuesday, September 14th. On Tuesday evening, at 7:30, the retiring moderator, Rev. Chas. W. Anderson, will preach the opening sermon.

On Wednesday evening at the same hour Rev. C. F. Browning of Malden will preach the presbyterial sermon. On Thursday evening, at 7:30, there will be an open session which will be participated in by all the visiting ministers. Subject of discussion: "Evangelism." The sessions during the day will be taken up with the general business of the Presbytery. The meetings will be open to all.
 Charles W. Anderson, Moderator.

Program for Conference on Systematic Beneficence.
 Potosi Presbytery, Afternoon of September 15th.

1. "How to Educate the People for an Every Member Canvass," Rev. Newton Smith.
 2. "Essentials of the Assembly's Plan of Finance," Rev. J. F. Lawson.
 3. "Following Up the Plan During the Year," Rev. R. L. Cowan.
 4. "Difficulties of Installing and Using the Plan," Rev. T. M. Watkins.
 5. "Co-operation of All Parties Necessary to the Success of the Plan," Rev. W. N. DuBose.

County School Officers Have Good Meeting.
 The annual meeting of the officers of the county schools, held at the school house in Potosi was a great success, both in point of attendance and interest. The meeting was called to order by County Superintendent of schools, B. Fox, who made a brief, but effective address, setting forth the purpose of the meeting. Organization was then effected by the election of L. B. Bone of Mineral Point, as President of the meeting, and M. A. Casey of Potosi, as secretary. Prof. H. G. Green of the Potosi High School made an interesting address on the qualifications of teachers, which was received with much attention. Mr. H. C. Bell, editor of the Independent, made a few remarks in explanation of the recent apportionment of the state school funds.

Mr. J. F. Evans of Potosi made an interesting talk on the subject of teachers' and parents' meetings, calling attention to the benefits that would derive to the children from occasional meetings of teachers and parents to discuss the various problems connected with the educational training of the children. Many other subjects were taken up and discussed.

Those attending the meeting were—
 Norman Strausser C. F. Dougherty
 Steve Kelo H. H. Muedick
 W. Tyrey Geo. W. Cook
 Chas. Kelo Jas. W. Whaley
 F. H. Ward E. R. Griggs
 Timon Emily Walter Bass
 J. W. Collins Jas. Farrar
 John Kuby C. C. Carter
 Willis Polittle Firmin Sparks
 Chester Sloan Peter Bourisaw
 Chas. Bequette Stephen Piggett
 W. M. Goff Willis Cummings
 J. C. Nicholson Wm. Harper
 L. D. Bone J. F. Evans
 M. A. Casey Jesse Smith
 L. P. Evans C. W. Blount
 S. V. Eye J. S. Hill
 Ben Allen A. F. Hochstatter
 J. L. Paul J. W. Mallow
 Ed Smith J. L. Hill
 D. L. Dane D. L. Dane
 T. F. Belfield A. N. Beers
 L. W. Martin T. M. Blount
 Mrs. Fannie Holman M. E. Wiley
 O. S. Martin Rudolph Jaeschke
 J. W. Pierce J. R. Robinson
 Daniel Sullivan J. O. Horton
 T. C. Bryan

The Teachers' Meet.
 The school teachers of Washington County held their annual meeting here last Thursday and Friday and it was a great success in every way. Many subjects of interest were discussed in promoting the uplift of education in the county. Those in attendance were—
 Elsie M. Strausser, Zoe L. Brown, Pearl Theoban, Mande J. Hawkins, Edith Holman, Bertha Soden, Maggie Whalen, Agatha Casey, Virginia C. Lytton, Clara L. Hall, Blanche G. Raby, Beasts M. Murphy, Virginia Lee Adams, Bee Casey, Hollie Whaley, Cora Porter, Helen Rovey, Leona V. Bryan, Mabel Kistner, Hoeter Mallow, Lena Bessinger, Myrtle Mallow, Leola Carr, Edna Rhodes.

WEDNESDAY
 L. Englewood Ross, Zeina F. Crump, Bertha Kirkpatrick, Hazel Post, Jesse Parkin, Loua Whaley, Mary Frendergast, Maudie Parney, Manie White, Ellen M. Decline, Ida Simpson, Martha Dea, Lottie Parney, Lula M. Deaton, Pear Brinley, Mrs. Maggie Daugherty, Mrs. Jennie Mallow, Mrs. Maggie Agnew, Mrs. W. H. Smith, Lisette Bastroll, Edith Robinson, Hallie Casey, A. J. Decline, J. B. Ramsey, George Victor Boring, P. A. Wood, Herbert Green, E. C. Horton, Rolla D. Hudson, John W. Smith, Luther M. Dickey, Firman Robinson, A. E. Vineyard, Melvin J. Polittle, D. O. Jarvis, J. E. Forben, W. R. Horton, J. W. McKinney, Rolla Huckstep, Claude F. Cooper, W. E. Kirkpatrick.

For Sale.
 One registered coach stallion, one mammoth jack, and one registered saddle mare. Oscar T. Seyfarth, Potosi, Mo.

Irondale.
 Dr. G. H. Everette and son, Will, of Caledonia were here last Wednesday on their way to St. Louis.
 Mr. George McFarland and family of St. Louis enjoyed a few days' camp life on Wallen Creek last week.

Judge Breckenridge of Belgrade was in Irondale Tuesday last to meet his daughter, Miss Mildred, who was returning home from a visit at De Bote.
 Mrs. J. C. Smith of Caledonia was here Friday to meet some guests whom she is entertaining at her home.
 Rev. and Mrs. C. F. Linza attended the assembly of the Nazorean Church at Des Arc last week, and were accompanied home by their son, Rev. J. E. Linza, of Malden, Mo.

L. C. Woodrow is visiting relatives in Illinois.
 Mrs. J. K. P. Wood returned home Friday from a visit to friends at Bismarck.
 Capt. and Mrs. Bennett visited at Belgrade and Sunlight several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Buxton are visiting relatives at Farmington.
 Camp Nagel, the Boy Scouts, rendezvous here, was vacated last Friday. Since early in the summer it has been occupied by detachments of from forty to sixty Scouts, each company remaining a week or ten days. They gave part of their time each day to military drill, swimming, making marches to other localities, etc. We believe they will long cherish pleasant memories of their sojourn at Camp Nagel, and we are sure they have taken with them the respect and good wishes of our citizens generally.

Bismarck.
 Dr. W. H. Maysfield of St. Louis was a visitor here Thursday.
 Mrs. Mary McFarland was painfully injured by a fall last Thursday.
 Mrs. Luther Johnson left last Tuesday for her new home in Oklahoma.
 Prof. W. A. Godbey and family of St. Louis were here Tuesday.

Julius McCoy and family of St. Louis are visiting relatives here.
 W. J. Dent and family of Caledonia motored over to our town Sunday.
 C. Osterle of St. Louis was a business visitor here Wednesday.
 School opened here Monday with a large attendance.

Born, to the wife of W. H. Horton Sept. 2, a girl.
 M. Bisplinghoff has opened a new hardware store here in the building he owns.
 Mrs. Lena Hamilton of Batesville, Ark., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ramsey, of this place.

Owing to poor stacking and frequent rains much wheat in this locality has been ruined, causing some farmers heavy loss.
 Geo. Bryan and family of Bellevue were visitors here Saturday.
 J. H. Blackwell of Irondale was in our town Sunday last.
 B. W. Cooley is reported quite sick at this writing.

Our station agent, P. C. Friend, is away this week on a trip to Chicago.
 Walter Niles and family are visiting relatives at Moberly, Mo.
 Miss Lucy Gisham entertained Miss Florence Goodykoots of Caledonia the past week.
 W. P. Devine sustained a painful injury to his right hand one day this week.

WEDNESDAY
 A man in an adjoining county smashed his Ford car up. He wanted the pieces to the factory at Detroit to have them put together again. When the express company refused the shipment the man found that the express people had made a mistake and sent the pieces to the wrong factory.

WEDNESDAY
 Mrs. W. B. Compton, Potosi, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for backache and kidney complaint and have been greatly relieved. I took them some years ago and I am grateful for what they did for me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for kidney remedy, get Doan's Kidney Pills, the name that Mrs. Compton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

4,000 MILES FOR CARNATIONS
 Chinese Dentist Goes Half Way Across Continent and Back to Produce Flowers.

C. Kew, a Chinese dentist of Shanghai, who is in Seattle on his way home, doesn't care about distance or obstacles once he makes up his mind he wants something. Mr. Kew arrived on the Pacific coast from Shanghai in search of health. He visited the various cities along the Pacific slope and came to Seattle a week ago.

After looking his passage for China he found that he had several days to wait, and remembering that he had tied a string on his finger to remind himself to bring home some carnation plants, took the first train for Chicago and sought a florist noted for the excellence of his carnations. He just has returned from Chicago with his carnation plants and will sell Tuesday for Shanghai, where they will add their part to his flower garden.

"It never occurred to me until now how odd it must seem to anyone to travel to Chicago and back for a few carnations," said Mr. Kew. "However, I am a lover of flowers and wanted this special kind, so I guess my trip was not wasted. I saw a lot of interesting country and Chicago itself, which, by the way, was most extraordinarily dirty."—Seattle Dispatch to the Portland Oregonian.

Little Daughter's Fate.
 Police Detective Charles R. Moffatt and his family were discussing the death and career of John Dunsy, the actor, at the dinner table the other night. The young daughter of the household, aged five, who is a deeply interested listener, finally she piped up, almost tearfully, "You've got any more Easter eggs?"—Los Angeles Times.

SAVE THE CROP!
 Summertime is the farmers' work time. He is now gathering that which must keep him the year through. In order to tide over the Winter and Spring what he takes in now must be kept in a safe place. Where can the Washington County farmer find a safer place to store the surplus from his crops than in the "PIONEER" BANK?

Our bank is noted for its conservative methods. For twenty-two years we have had for our watchword—"SAFETY FIRST."
 Our officers are experienced and alert, ready to offer you advice in financial matters, and to assist you in any reasonable way.
 Give us your banking business and you will be pleased with the result.

WASHINGTON COUNTY BANK
 Potosi, Missouri.

WEDNESDAY
 A young girl from the city visited friends on a farm not far from Potosi recently, where he regaled the country folks with an account of the joys of city life in which he had lately participated, as follows: "We motored to the country club and golled until dark, then trolled back to town and danced until morning." A young country friend thought that was all pretty fine, "but," he added, "we have a few pleasures in the country, too. For instance, the other day we huggied over to Uncle Ben's and went out to the back lot, where we hase-balled all afternoon. In the evening we sneaked up into the attic a pebered until morning." The old farmer, who had indignantly listened to the young fellows, while he filled his pipe afresh. "Yes," he chimed in, as he contemptively blew a puff of smoke, "I don't miss all the fun myself. Yesterday morning I mailed to the cornfield and got it in until sun-down. Then I suppered until dark, smoked until 9, after which I bed-steaded until the clock struck this morning, when I breakfasted and then mailed to the field again."

Right Up With Him.
 A young girl from the city visited friends on a farm not far from Potosi recently, where he regaled the country folks with an account of the joys of city life in which he had lately participated, as follows: "We motored to the country club and golled until dark, then trolled back to town and danced until morning." A young country friend thought that was all pretty fine, "but," he added, "we have a few pleasures in the country, too. For instance, the other day we huggied over to Uncle Ben's and went out to the back lot, where we hase-balled all afternoon. In the evening we sneaked up into the attic a pebered until morning." The old farmer, who had indignantly listened to the young fellows, while he filled his pipe afresh. "Yes," he chimed in, as he contemptively blew a puff of smoke, "I don't miss all the fun myself. Yesterday morning I mailed to the cornfield and got it in until sun-down. Then I suppered until dark, smoked until 9, after which I bed-steaded until the clock struck this morning, when I breakfasted and then mailed to the field again."

WEDNESDAY
 A young girl from the city visited friends on a farm not far from Potosi recently, where he regaled the country folks with an account of the joys of city life in which he had lately participated, as follows: "We motored to the country club and golled until dark, then trolled back to town and danced until morning." A young country friend thought that was all pretty fine, "but," he added, "we have a few pleasures in the country, too. For instance, the other day we huggied over to Uncle Ben's and went out to the back lot, where we hase-balled all afternoon. In the evening we sneaked up into the attic a pebered until morning." The old farmer, who had indignantly listened to the young fellows, while he filled his pipe afresh. "Yes," he chimed in, as he contemptively blew a puff of smoke, "I don't miss all the fun myself. Yesterday morning I mailed to the cornfield and got it in until sun-down. Then I suppered until dark, smoked until 9, after which I bed-steaded until the clock struck this morning, when I breakfasted and then mailed to the field again."

WEDNESDAY
 A young girl from the city visited friends on a farm not far from Potosi recently, where he regaled the country folks with an account of the joys of city life in which he had lately participated, as follows: "We motored to the country club and golled until dark, then trolled back to town and danced until morning." A young country friend thought that was all pretty fine, "but," he added, "we have a few pleasures in the country, too. For instance, the other day we huggied over to Uncle Ben's and went out to the back lot, where we hase-balled all afternoon. In the evening we sneaked up into the attic a pebered until morning." The old farmer, who had indignantly listened to the young fellows, while he filled his pipe afresh. "Yes," he chimed in, as he contemptively blew a puff of smoke, "I don't miss all the fun myself. Yesterday morning I mailed to the cornfield and got it in until sun-down. Then I suppered until dark, smoked until 9, after which I bed-steaded until the clock struck this morning, when I breakfasted and then mailed to the field again."

WEDNESDAY
 A young girl from the city visited friends on a farm not far from Potosi recently, where he regaled the country folks with an account of the joys of city life in which he had lately participated, as follows: "We motored to the country club and golled until dark, then trolled back to town and danced until morning." A young country friend thought that was all pretty fine, "but," he added, "we have a few pleasures in the country, too. For instance, the other day we huggied over to Uncle Ben's and went out to the back lot, where we hase-balled all afternoon. In the evening we sneaked up into the attic a pebered until morning." The old farmer, who had indignantly listened to the young fellows, while he filled his pipe afresh. "Yes," he chimed in, as he contemptively blew a puff of smoke, "I don't miss all the fun myself. Yesterday morning I mailed to the cornfield and got it in until sun-down. Then I suppered until dark, smoked until 9, after which I bed-steaded until the clock struck this morning, when I breakfasted and then mailed to the field again."

WEDNESDAY
 A young girl from the city visited friends on a farm not far from Potosi recently, where he regaled the country folks with an account of the joys of city life in which he had lately participated, as follows: "We motored to the country club and golled until dark, then trolled back to town and danced until morning." A young country friend thought that was all pretty fine, "but," he added, "we have a few pleasures in the country, too. For instance, the other day we huggied over to Uncle Ben's and went out to the back lot, where we hase-balled all afternoon. In the evening we sneaked up into the attic a pebered until morning." The old farmer, who had indignantly listened to the young fellows, while he filled his pipe afresh. "Yes," he chimed in, as he contemptively blew a puff of smoke, "I don't miss all the fun myself. Yesterday morning I mailed to the cornfield and got it in until sun-down. Then I suppered until dark, smoked until 9, after which I bed-steaded until the clock struck this morning, when I breakfasted and then mailed to the field again."

WEDNESDAY
 A young girl from the city visited friends on a farm not far from Potosi recently, where he regaled the country folks with an account of the joys of city life in which he had lately participated, as follows: "We motored to the country club and golled until dark, then trolled back to town and danced until morning." A young country friend thought that was all pretty fine, "but," he added, "we have a few pleasures in the country, too. For instance, the other day we huggied over to Uncle Ben's and went out to the back lot, where we hase-balled all afternoon. In the evening we sneaked up into the attic a pebered until morning." The old farmer, who had indignantly listened to the young fellows, while he filled his pipe afresh. "Yes," he chimed in, as he contemptively blew a puff of smoke, "I don't miss all the fun myself. Yesterday morning I mailed to the cornfield and got it in until sun-down. Then I suppered until dark, smoked until 9, after which I bed-steaded until the clock struck this morning, when I breakfasted and then mailed to the field again."

WEDNESDAY
 A young girl from the city visited friends on a farm not far from Potosi recently, where he regaled the country folks with an account of the joys of city life in which he had lately participated, as follows: "We motored to the country club and golled until dark, then trolled back to town and danced until morning." A young country friend thought that was all pretty fine, "but," he added, "we have a few pleasures in the country, too. For instance, the other day we huggied over to Uncle Ben's and went out to the back lot, where we hase-balled all afternoon. In the evening we sneaked up into the attic a pebered until morning." The old farmer, who had indignantly listened to the young fellows, while he filled his pipe afresh. "Yes," he chimed in, as he contemptively blew a puff of smoke, "I don't miss all the fun myself. Yesterday morning I mailed to the cornfield and got it in until sun-down. Then I suppered until dark, smoked until 9, after which I bed-steaded until the clock struck this morning, when I breakfasted and then mailed to the field again."

WEDNESDAY
 A young girl from the city visited friends on a farm not far from Potosi recently, where he regaled the country folks with an account of the joys of city life in which he had lately participated, as follows: "We motored to the country club and golled until dark, then trolled back to town and danced until morning." A young country friend thought that was all pretty fine, "but," he added, "we have a few pleasures in the country, too. For instance, the other day we huggied over to Uncle Ben's and went out to the back lot, where we hase-balled all afternoon. In the evening we sneaked up into the attic a pebered until morning." The old farmer, who had indignantly listened to the young fellows, while he filled his pipe afresh. "Yes," he chimed in, as he contemptively blew a puff of smoke, "I don't miss all the fun myself. Yesterday morning I mailed to the cornfield and got it in until sun-down. Then I suppered until dark, smoked until 9, after which I bed-steaded until the clock struck this morning, when I breakfasted and then mailed to the field again."

WEDNESDAY
 A young girl from the city visited friends on a farm not far from Potosi recently, where he regaled the country folks with an account of the joys of city life in which he had lately participated, as follows: "We motored to the country club and golled until dark, then trolled back to town and danced until morning." A young country friend thought that was all pretty fine, "but," he added, "we have a few pleasures in the country, too. For instance, the other day we huggied over to Uncle Ben's and went out to the back lot, where we hase-balled all afternoon. In the evening we sneaked up into the attic a pebered until morning." The old farmer, who had indignantly listened to the young fellows, while he filled his pipe afresh. "Yes," he chimed in, as he contemptively blew a puff of smoke, "I don't miss all the fun myself. Yesterday morning I mailed to the cornfield and got it in until sun-down. Then I suppered until dark, smoked until 9, after which I bed-steaded until the clock struck this morning, when I breakfasted and then mailed to the field again."

WEDNESDAY
 A young girl from the city visited friends on a farm not far from Potosi recently, where he regaled the country folks with an account of the joys of city life in which he had lately participated, as follows: "We motored to the country club and golled until dark, then trolled back to town and danced until morning." A young country friend thought that was all pretty fine, "but," he added, "we have a few pleasures in the country, too. For instance, the other day we huggied over to Uncle Ben's and went out to the back lot, where we hase-balled all afternoon. In the evening we sneaked up into the attic a pebered until morning." The old farmer, who had indignantly listened to the young fellows, while he filled his pipe afresh. "Yes," he chimed in, as he contemptively blew a puff of smoke, "I don't miss all the fun myself. Yesterday morning I mailed to the cornfield and got it in until sun-down. Then I suppered until dark, smoked until 9, after which I bed-steaded until the clock struck this morning, when I breakfasted and then mailed to the field again."