

DOWNHILL SOUGHT RELIEF 40 YEARS

Francis Pickham Los Angeles Man to Splendid Health After Suffering From Nephritis

"Francis has done me more good than all other medicines and treatments combined, and that's saying a great deal, for I was a sufferer from indigestion forty years and have tried every kind of medicine that came my way," said R. H. Brown, 1088 W. 37th St., Los Angeles, Cal.

The Moore's "Shovel." Old Moore shed the big, shovel-like features early in January, younger ones weeks later. By the middle of May the new growth of horns protrudes less than an inch from the skull. In three months the development of the 70-pound shovel, often six feet across, is entirely completed.

A prayer that is long drawn out is apt to be narrow.

WOMAN COULD NOT WORK

Made Strong and Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Paul, Minn.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for a sore throat, worn-out feeling and painful periods. I used to get up with a pain in my head and pain in my lower part of my back. Often I was not able to do my work. I read in your little book about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have taken it. I feel so well and strong and can do every bit of my work and not a pain in my back now. I recommend your medicine and you can use this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. F. M. Mason, 601 Winslow St., St. Paul, Minn.

Just another case where a woman found relief by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Many times these tired, worn-out feelings and pains about the body are from trouble with the women's organs. The Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for just this condition. The good results are noted by the disagreeable symptoms passing away—one after another.

SUPPORT OF SHIP SUBSIDY BY FARM INTERESTS SOUGHT

OFFICIALS HOPEFUL OF FAVORABLE REACTION FROM THE AGRICULTURAL GROUP.

HARDING OUTLINES ITS NEEDS

President Quoted as Saying that Agricultural Production is as Closely Linked to World Trade as is Manufacturing.

Washington.—Administration officials are hopeful of a favorable reaction from the country's agricultural interests to arguments favoring their support of the ship subsidy legislation now pending in Congress as presented by President Harding to a group of agricultural leaders.

Discussing the ship subsidy proposal and the relations of agriculture to an adequate merchant marine with a group of farmers' representatives at a White House dinner conference recently, President Harding was said to have emphasized the belief that it was no longer possible for the agricultural interests to be independent of overseas trade.

Speaking for the President after the dinner, Chairman Lasker of the Shipping Board, one of those attending, quoted Mr. Harding as declaring that agricultural production in the United States was as closely linked to world trade as the manufacturing industry. This, the President was said to have stated, was true not only because of the necessity of foreign markets for the surplus raw food products, but because the manufacturer could not take care of the products of the farm unless a foreign market was assured to him through an American merchant marine.

The President was said to have stated that the necessity of salvaging the nation's investment in a greater merchant marine as a war emergency had engaged the government in ship subsidizing and thus destroyed former arguments against such a policy.

The question of farm credits also was said to have been discussed at the dinner. The President's guests were said to have favored consolidation of the various bills before Congress for that purpose and the President to have expressed a desire to be helpful.

The dinner was attended by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, Chairman Capper of the Senate Agricultural Bloc, and Charles S. Barrett, of the National Farmers' Union, among the farmers' representatives.

FEDERAL EXPENSES WERE KEPT WITHIN ESTIMATES

Undersecretary of Treasury Reports They Were About $500,000,000 Less Than Departments Demanded.

Washington, D. C.—The government balanced its budget for the fiscal year ending June 30. To achieve this result was described by Under Secretary of the Treasury Gilbert as "no mean accomplishment," but for the fiscal year 1923, opening July 1, he declared the prospects "are not good," with a budget deficit estimated as high as $485,000,000.

Final treasury reports for the closing fiscal year will not be available for a day or two, but Gilbert declared that expenditures would be less than $3,900,000,000, or $500,000,000 less than was estimated as necessary by the spending departments at the outset of the year, and that there would be a small surplus of receipts.

"That this has been accomplished," he said, "in the face of the favorable prospects at the beginning of the year, is due to the unremitting efforts of the government departments and establishments under the firm leadership of the President to reduce current expenditures to the utmost."

BIELASKI DESCRIBES ESCAPE FROM MEXICANS

Mexico City, Mexico.—A. Bruce Bielaski, former head of the Investigation Bureau of the American Department of Justice, who was kidnapped several days ago, but who escaped and returned to Mexico City, has related the story of his adventure to newspaper men. He expressed the belief his capture was by amateurish bandits solely in the hope of obtaining a ransom; that it was not political in its conception nor an act resulting from his work when with the Department of Justice. "My captors," said Bielaski, "were of the low peasant class, whom I am convinced had no idea of my identity, but picked the occupants of a large automobile as possibly being persons of means who could be held for a handsome ransom."

TROOPS IN DUBLIN ATTACK INSURGENTS

COMMANDANT BARRY AND 22 MEN TAKEN PRISONERS BY THE FREE STATE TROOPS.

O'CONNOR ASKED TO GIVE UP

Great Quantities of Rifles, Machine Guns and Explosives Taken in Briak Fighting With Numerous Casualties.

London.—The two main parts of the four courts in Dublin have been captured by provisional government forces, according to a dispatch to the Central News, Commandant Barry and 22 men being taken prisoners.

Rory O'Connor and Liam Mellows, leaders of the revolt, are in a smaller building and have been summoned to surrender.

Free State troops rushed the Four Courts, capturing three parts of the building, according to a Dublin dispatch to the Times. This operation was put through without severe firing.

A dispatch to the Times from Dublin says the Free Staters who attacked the Four Courts are commanded and being personally led by Brig. Gen. Daly.

After brisk artillery and machine-gun fire, General Daly led his men from the south side of the Liffey across Grafton street and the bridges.

The gunfire had broken down the gate and so briskly did the Free States soldiers make the ascent that they did not suffer any serious casualties.

As they crossed the courtyard rifle butts and rams broke down the inner door, and as they fell the defenders poured a withering fire upon the attacking forces.

Three rebel soldiers were killed outright by gunfire and ten others were wounded in hand-to-hand fighting that ensued. Twenty-two of the irregulars threw up their hands and surrendered, while Rory O'Connor, with Brig. Gen. Traynor and 150 men, retreated to a far corner of the court. Quickly throwing up barricades, they are holding the Free Staters at bay.

The dispatch to the Times adds that O'Connor has been given opportunity to surrender, but has declared it to be his intention to fight to the death.

The Free Staters captured a great quantity of rifles, machine guns and explosives. It is thought that by some secret means many of the original garrison have made their entrance into the city, where they have seized Hamman's Hotel in Sackville street, turning out the guests on five minutes' notice.

After Rory O'Connor was given an opportunity to surrender, but declined to comply, heavy guns were turned on the building, which shattered a part of the walls, and several detachments of Free State troops made their way through the breach. They were met with a heavy fire and suffered some casualties.

Commandant Barry, who was captured, is a prominent Cork Republican leader.

Calexico, Cal.—Twenty-one men have been killed in and around Mexicali, Lower California, in the last two weeks, according to official reports in Calexico, just across the international line. This compilation was made following the discovery of eight dead Mexicans two and one-half miles east of Calexico, one of the bodies being in an irrigation ditch on the American side of the boundary.

STRIKERS MARK TIME; TRAINS RUN

JEWELL TELLS WHY HE IGNORED SUMMONS TO APPEAR BEFORE LABOR BOARD.

LEADER PLANS TO STAY ON JOB

Union Leader Says 80 Roads Should Have Been Excluded From Wage Reduction Hearing—Explains Walkout Order.

Chicago.—B. M. Jewell, who called the strike of shophmen, does not intend to resign, at least not while the fight is on. It is not believed his organization would accept his resignation under fire. What he may do after the battle is over is a different proposition.

Wharton, of the Labor Board, definitely denied rumors that he will resign from the board and succeed Jewell.

Rumors had been prevalent that Wharton, one of the union labor members of the United States Board, contemplated resigning because of the attitude of a majority of the board members, but there had been no hint until after the calling of the strike that he would succeed Jewell.

Railway executives, union leaders and the United States Railway Labor Board marked time in the country-wide strike of shophmen, while train service continued uninterrupted by the walkout.

B. M. Jewell, head of the shophmen, who ignored the orders of the Labor Board to appear before it and explain his strike action, spent the day at union headquarters, receiving reports from all sections of the country. While he refused to give any figures, he asserted that the walkout was "practically 100 per cent."

Railway executives claimed that probably less than 50 per cent of the 401,000 repair men had walked out, and that train service would continue, regardless of how many laid down their tools.

With the union leaders refusing to treat with the Labor Board, the railway executives asserting that the dispute was entirely between their former employes and the government, and the Labor Board assuring the full protection of the government, and public sentiment to the carriers, interest in railway strikes was centered on Detroit, where the executive council of the Maintenance of Way employes met to canvass the strike ballot of the trackmen.

Hope was expressed by the rail executives that the maintenance of way men would not join the walkout.

Jewell explained that his ignoring of the Labor Board was due to the failure of the board to exclude from wage reduction hearings almost 80 roads that had in part or wholly violated rulings of the government tribunal. This has caused railroad employes to regard the board with no slight misgivings, he said.

NINE REPORTED DEAD, MANY HURT IN WRECK

Five Cars Crowded With Excursion Pleasure Seekers Roll Down an Embankment.

Winslow Junction, N. J.—Under the flare of torches and lights from automobiles, nine bodies have been taken from the wreck of the Philadelphia and Reading train that had five of its twelve cars, with the engine and tender, roll down the embankments here when the train hit a washout.

Rescue squads from Hammoncton, N. J., including the fire department and all the physicians in the town, were the first to arrive in response to telephone and telegraph calls for help. A search for more victims among the hundreds of excursionists bound for Atlantic City is continuing.

Philadelphia, Pa.—At least two persons were killed and 25 injured when a Reading Railway express train, bound from Atlantic City to Camden, was wrecked at Winslow Junction, midway between those two points. Fragmentary reports reaching here said that the engineer and firemen were the only ones who had lost their lives, but that a number of injured passengers had been seriously hurt.

AN UP.

The presiding officer at a Washington banquet recently introduced an innovation that will be appreciated by all baseball fans who have learned to practice and reverse it as an attraction. No doubt the banquets enjoyed the surprise.

There had been two or three rather long-winded speeches following a somewhat gargantuan feast. The company had, in consequence, been seated continuously for more than two hours. Suddenly arising as if to announce the next speaker, the presiding officer rejoiced all hearts by saying: "Gentlemen, it's the seventh inning. Let's stretch!"—Judge.

In order to have liberty one has to be willing to grant a good deal to others.

It is a wise proverb that hasn't got a crack in it.

SAW OPPORTUNITY TO SAVE VAST RICHES OF OLD SPAIN

If Tale is True, Peking Merchant Was More Than Ordinary "Child-like and Bland." Dr. Wellington Koo, the brilliant young Chinese diplomat, said at a dinner party in New York: "Some men seem to think that we Chinese are a very childlike and very innocent people. They think we all exactly resemble the Peking merchant of the story."

"According to this story—and it is a gem—a Peking merchant took a rather notorious foreigner to board with him at a rate of $20 a week. Six months passed, and the rather notorious foreigner had not yet let his host see the color of his money.

"So, at the end of the six months, the Peking merchant thought the matter over very thoughtfully and reduced the foreigner's board from $20 to $10. He explained that thus, if the foreigner never paid him, he would not lose so much money."
