Jones, Townsend & Co., Cor. 4th and Felix Sts., St. Joseph, Mo.

—Sam. Stuckey has a spanking new business.
—Good neighbor Haigler is feeding 200 head of hogs.
—Ira McIntyre, of Upper Holt has just completed a neat residence.
—S. N. Bucher will commence operations at the New Point school next Monday.
—Mr. Ashbrook, the large stock feeder of our county has just finished putting up 300 tons of hay.
—Gus. Martin, of Clarinda, Iowa, is in the city, called here by the serious illness of his father, Joseph Martin.
—If you want to buy an extra good buggy horse or choice milk cow, go to the sale of Gardner & Lympus, to-morrow, (Saturday.)
—Cave J. Hunt, our efficient county clerk, is now on pa-pa-ance again. Cave says his appointment of another deputy is indefinitely postponed. Its another girl.
—Our worthy citizen, Mr. George P.
Luckhardt, has received an order for 170 barrels of apples, from a firm in Virginia City, Montana. Mr. Luckhardt will make the shipment at once.
—Vennor says October will be cold, wet and stormy. An early cold snap will end November and mark the entry of December, then an open Christmas time and wet ending of the year. No snow, and mild weather.
—A good showing is made by Dr. A.
Goslin of this place, as an increase in our local population. Between the 2nd day of July and the 29th day of September, he reports to the county clerk fourteen births, of which ten are boys and four are girls. The Doctor feels proud of this work in the interest of humanity.
—Oregon has a wood engraver. We have forgotten his name. Samples of his work can be seen in the two last issues of SENTINEL.—White Cloud Review. His name is Grant Holtz, a young man of genius, and for rough tools—a jack knife and a file, we think he bents any artist in the west. He is the SENTINEL's special artist.
—Few young men in the northwest have worked harder in the field of Journalism, than our young friend, Fred F.
Schradler, and we notice with great pleasure that he has been assigned to the position of associate editor of the St. Joseph Herald. To hold one of the guiders on such a journal is no little honor. We congratulate you, Fred, and may your Faber grow sharper and sharper until your name will be the brightest in the galaxy of writers.
—Mr. J. W. Pitzer, living on the Isaac Lamb farm near town, came marching into the office last Saturday, loaded with a mess of the finest sweet-potatoes we have ever seen, a large Cuba Queen watermelon, and a fine lot of this year's corn, which will hardly be beaten by any farmer in the county.
The ears measured some 13 or 14 inches in length and very full; such corn will take the blue at any fair. Thanks, Mr.
Pitzer, the corn we did not eat, but the potatoes and melon we devoured with considerable of an appetite—and they were just delicious.
—Willis Johnson, an old colored man, who lives near White Cloud, last Sunday He must have been over 85 years of age.
He was quite a character, in his day, and was commonly known as "Uncle Wils Peter." He was a slave of the father of Dr. Peter, (formerly of Oregon, Mo.) at Springfield, Kentucky, and used to say that he barbequed the meats at the wedding feast of the Doctor's father and mother. He came to Missouri with Dr. Peter, and people used to say it was hard to tell whether he was Dr. Peter was the master. He did not manage about the premises, and was probably the better manager of the two. He superintended the great barbeque at White Cloud, the time of the first lot sale on the 4th of July, 1867. At the beginning of the war, when Dr. Peter went off into the Rebellion, Wils emigrated to White Cloud, where he had lived ever since.—Kansas Chief.

—Bert Foster has gone into the hop business.
—We are sorry to hear of the serious illness of Charlie Luken's baby.
—Miss Kate Hulatt and her little sister Stella are down with the ague.
—A large delegation left Oregon last Monday to attend the soldiers' reunion at Maryville.
—Judge Hulatt drove quite a bunch of fine cattle, through town to his prairie farm, on Tuesday.
—W. R. Hoffmann, Esq., is spoken of as candidate for mayor of this city at the coming election.
—Read the article on our inside page this week entitled, "Contracts," from the sparkling pen of "R. M. B." —Advertising was dull all summer, bear with us during the few weeks in which our merchants demand much space.
—W. H. Sterrett received a fine Scottish terrier pup from Omaha this week, for which he paid twenty-five dollars.
—Between sixty and seventy-five tickets were sold at the Forest City depot last Monday to the soldiers' re-union at Maryville.

busily engaged upon the revision of or-seedling purposes, should give him a call.

—There will be four half-bred Holstein calves, a lot of fine cows, two buggies, two wagons, and a lot of farming implements sold at the Gardner & Lympus sale next Saturday, 4 mile east of town.
—The J. W. Bailey Mercantile Co., Star Clothing House and Townsend, of the SENTINEL.

—Anderson & Cummins, dealers in General Merchandise, have just received their Fall Stock, and are offering unprecedented bargains in Clothing, Boots and Shoes. They carry a full line of Hardware and Groceries. See "ad" in this paper.
—Hoblitzel & Pinkston, the enterprising lumber dealers of this place, come to the front this week and tell the people of Holt how cheap they can sell lumber. Give them a call when you want good lumber at bed-rock prices.
—Collector Walty is interviewing the taxpayers of Craig township at Maitland this week. He will call on the citizens

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 1st, 2nd and 3rd; and at Forbes, Forbes township, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, October 4th, 5th and 6th.
—A moon light social and party was given to the youngsters, of Kinsey, on last Thursday evening, by Mr. and Mrs. Adam Fling; the crowd had all gathered by 7 o'clock; there were sixty-four invitations sent out and sixty were present. The first hour's exercise consisted of instrumental music; the musicians were Frank Keiffer, Charles No-lard and Morton Finn. The next hour consisted of vocal and instrumental music, after that there was quite a lot of taffy distributed among the boys and girls; over which they had "dead loads" of fun. By 12 o'clock they had all the fun they wanted and all went home well pleased.—OBSERVER.

pounds, and one car load that averaged 338 pounds.
—Christ Waegle, of Nodaway township, opened his court for transaction of business last Monday. Mr. Waegle is a good justice and fills the office with dignity.
—We will begin in our next issue a serial story, entitled, "Circumstances," from the pen of an old contributor, which promises to be a valuable addition to the literary feature of this paper.
—W. A. Gardner will offer at auction his fine thorough-bred Holstein bull, Hee's, next Saturday. He is of choice breeding, running back to the best families of milkers in America, on side of both sire and dam. He will be sold on Mr. Gardner's farm at the sale of Gardner & Lympus.
—Mr. George W. Moore, who is so badly afflicted with cancer and now under treatment at Council Bluffs is at home, preparatory to moving his family to that city. He has already rented his farm. Holt county will lose a No.
1 farmer when Mr. Moore takes his departure.
—On the 18th inst, as Mrs. P. P.
Wolby accompanied by her grand-mother, Mrs. Derritt, and her little son, Perry, were driving to Mound City, in crossing a bridge the horse became frightened and commenced backing, there being no railing to the bridge, the buggy and occupants were thrown from the bridge, falling a distance of some fifteen or twenty feet, and the horse on top of them, but luckily all escaped without any broken bones, Mrs.
Wolby and Mrs. Derritt were considerably bruised.
—In the absence of Prof. Hill at Maryville this week, we have noticed an unnumbered number of public school boys scattering themselves profusely over the town during school hours without "leave or license." This is an evil that should be renedied by some means. Parents, that our school shall be a success, must assist the teachers in the government and management of the same. We hear from many of our citizens, who are friends of the school, the complaint that many parents do not support the public school teachers, nor train their children to respect and honor them. We must this year set ourselves about aiding the faculty of the public school to redeem the same from the charge, having some publicity, that many of the public school pupils are insolent, impudent and profane. This paper is in sympathy with the school and will lend every possible aid to its support and success. Let every parent or person interested who reads this item ponder over the condition of affairs and act upon the wisdom gained by such reflection.

the soldier's reunion in Maryville.

story entitled, "Circumstances," by an horse, owned by N. J. Kyger, of this ple were in attendance upon the "Harvest Home" at Mound City on the 20th inst, and some of the young men of Mound City seemed particularly well pleased in the presence of the young ladies.

—C. N. VanPelt has purchased the interest of C. E. Blake in the Craig Meteor, and is now sole proprietor.
Van gets up a live, newy paper and deserves a liberal patronage from the citizens of Craig and vicinity. We wish him success, and feel confident that he will merit it.

en by the "Women's Union" of this city before Squire Claiborne, last week. Pros-Atty. O'Fallon and E. Van Buskirk, of Oregon were present.

—There is not an empty dwelling house in Craig. Why don't some one build a few neat little houses and make 10 or 12 per cent. on the investment?
—Mrs. Howard, mother of G. H.
Burkhalter and her son Ed. Burkhalter, have taken up their abode in our city.
George has purchased the residence now occupied by E. G. Davis.
—Our school is progressing finely, about 150 scholars attending. New of the Tarkio train that was wrecked here last week were discharged, and the first brakeman was made conductor.

Two new brakemen are now on the train.
—A citizen of a town not far from here, is reported to have "licked" his wife, whether he did or not, would not it have been better for him to have licked a molasses barrel? The recollection of it would have been sweeter in the memory.
—Some of the citizens of Corning and vicinity, have decided to levy the west bank of Big Tarkio, for a distance of several miles. The plan proposed, if followed out will render safe from overflow, several thousand acres of rich land.
—Within 25 years, Holt county has lost 2,000 acres of land in this vicinity, by the encroachments of the Missouri river. Now if the river continues in its present channel for the next 25 years, the most of this may be again placed in cultivation.
—Henry Anderson learned the art of dumping a load of wheat at the elevator
