Collison, Hunter & Roberts, Maitland, Mo.

—Bring in your wood.
—A merry Christmas.
—And a happy New Year.
—To all the patrons of the SENTINEL.
—Our next issue will usher in 1885.
—Corn is selling at fifteen cents at Craig.
—Read the price list of Graves & Weber.
—Applique Silk Flower- at Mrs. Fannie Frame's.
—Bill Peters claims to be the champion wood fiddler of Oregon.
—Save your team by buying a light draft wagon of H. C. Schmidt.
—Go to E. P. Hostetter's and see his Imported Fruit Candy, $1.00 per pound.
—Several prominent residents of Union township contemplate going to Kansas in the spring.
—Mr. James Hole, of Forest City, is attending the State University at Columbia. May success be his.
—You ought to hear Clark Proud talk about those Christmas cards—it will make tears come in your eyes.
—We understand from a source which we regard as perfectly reliable, that to-day, Thursday, is Christmas.
—Call and see the new goods just arrived at Mrs. Fannie Frame's—Just what you want for a Christmas present.
—The M. E. church of this city has been handsomely re-papered and otherwise improved. John Greene was the artist.
—Miss Carrie Hill, of Hiawatha, Kansas, is spending the holiday week in our midst, the guest of Miss Blanche Howell.
—For a Christmas present buy your wife, your feller, your sweetheart or your hubby one of those fine Boxes at D. M. Martin's.
—The largest and best selected stock of candies in town will be found at Hostetter's. You can get a pound of the best mixed candy for 20 cents.
—Have you been to see the elegant stock of fine candies at Hostetter's? If not, go at once. He will sell you the best mixed at 20 cents per pound.
—The many friends of Rev. Bullard in this vicinity, will regret to learn of the destruction of his residence in St. Joseph on the evening of the 18th inst, by fire.
—There will be no services at the M. E. Church next Sunday, as the pastor, Rev. Christy, will spend a portion of his holidays with friends in DeSoto, Kansas.
—Inch and Scratches of every kind cured in 30 minutes by Woolfords Sanitary Lotion. Use no other. This never fails. Sold by Hinde & Philbrick Drug-gist, Oregon.
—If you want to see something that "takes the cake," go and see the Fine Imported Fruit Candy at E. P. Hostetter's, the finest ever brought to the city. It is $1.00 per pound.
—The best thing yet for the money, is the SENTINEL in connection with the Prairie Farmer, with a large wall map of the United States—all three for the small sum of three dollars.
—We will try to wait till the clouds roll by, Jennie, but unless those clouds bring us some wood, a few grindstones, and "laters, we fear that only "laters" will have to take charge of the widow and orphans.
—For sale—a male calf large enough for service, being a full blood cross between a deep milking Shorthorn and Holstein. Will sell very cheap on long time or exchange for corn. He is very large and fine. Apply to W. A. Gardner.

—The Stanberry News is for sale.
—Go to Hostetter's for your cigars.
—Go to Mrs. Frame's for Schuette Scarfs and Fis-hus.
—Don't fail to see those New Cook Stoves at Henry Nies.
—Ladies' and children's collars very cheap at Mrs. Fannie Frame's.
—There will be a stocking hung up for you at the Christian church on New Year's Eve. Go and enjoy the fun.
—If we have done you any good in 1884, we shall be glad to continue the good work in 1885. We shall esteem it a pleasure to do you good at any time.
—For choice mixed candies go to E. P. Hostetter's. He will sell you the finest mixed candy for only 20 cents per pound, heretofore sold at 30 and 40 cents.
—The holiday opening at Boyers's Palace Drug store, at Craig, on last Tuesday was the most extensive and elaborate of anything of the kind in the history of the county.
—The best place to get that sewing machine repaired is to bring it in to H. E. Coleman. Having a turning lathe, good tools to work with, repairs on hand and eight years' experience, will do all work promptly, and give satisfaction. Can be found by calling at E. P. Hostetter's.
—The Monday Morning News of St. Joseph, has made its appearance under the leadership of the Spencer Brothers. The people of St. Joseph need a Monday paper, and if the citizens of that burg will give the Monday News the encouragement it deserves it will be a permanent and creditable fixture.
—The Oregon Coterie Club will give a grand ball at Storer's Hall on Friday evening, 26th. All arrangements have been completed and it promises to be the event of the season. The committee request us to announce that all the ladies are invited. Music will be furnished by the Oregon orchestra.
—Our farmers complain of the low price of corn, but the market here is much better than in Nebraska and Kansas where the ruling price seems to be ten cents a bushel. The Omaha Bee is authority for the statement that twenty thousand bushels of corn were lately sold at Hastings for eight cents a bushel, and in many parts of the State the farmers are buying it for fuel, as it is much cheaper than coal.
—Albert H. Jamison, of Mound City, left last week for Yavalia, California, where he goes in quest of health. Mr. Jamison while a resident of our county, won a host of friends who regret to see him leave. He is a lawyer of more than ordinary ability; honest, conscientious and industrious. We trust that the climate of Southern California will prove of great benefit to him and that he may soon be restored to health.
—The north half of the southwest quarter section 8, township 60 of range 28, owned by Harvey Burnett, was sold last week by W. R. Hoffmann to Mr. J. S. Kinney, of Hamburg, Iowa. Mr. Kinney was first attracted to our county by the innumerable loads of apples passing through his city, all claiming to hail from Holt county. He has been engaged in business at Hamburg for a number of years, but now wishes to locate on a farm. We bid him a hearty welcome, as such men whose recommendations for good business qualifications and integrity, precede them unolicited, are valuable additions to society.

—Sunday was the shortest day of the year.
—New Year's Cards at Hinde & Philbrick's.
—Best mixed candies at E. P. Hostetter's for 20 cents per pound.
—Mrs. Sallie McKimsey is the guest of Mrs. Kate Thatcher.
—Your city taxes are now due. L. I. Moore, collector, can be found at the office over N. J. Kyger's saloon.
—The irrepressible "Back" of the Mound City News, Sunday in Oregon. There must be some attraction here now.
—William Cotton's team ran away with him on last Friday morn-ing up his rig quite badly and giving Mr. Cotton a black eye.
—Subscribers who are in arrears six months or more and who will pay one year in advance, will receive the American Farmer one year free.
—George Washington, (colored), while at work at Kyger's ice house, fell from the door into the building, injuring himself so seriously that his recovery is doubtful.
—The Harness shop of Anderson & Boyd came near being destroyed on Friday morning by fire. The timely discovery by Mr. Boyd prevented a serious conflagration.
—Two good second handed two-seated spring wagons and three one-seated buggies for sale at a bargain, at H. C. SCHMIDT, Oregon, Mo.
—I am going to do it. I mean business! Ladies' Cloaks, Gents' Overcoats, Boots, Shoes and Hats, Gents' and Boys' Clothing. In fact, you can find everything in his Stock to be found in a First-Class Dry Goods House. And from now on until the 1st of January, 1885, will be sold at BED-ROCK for CASH. Remember the place, J. B. PAYNE, Oregon, Mo.
—"The best" is what its readers all say of the market reports furnished by the weekly Kansas City Live-Stock Indicator. They are quoted as authority by the papers from New York to San Francisco. The Indicator is furnished by us with the SENTINEL for only $2.15 per year for both.
—M. Banz, living near this city, offers a reward of twenty-five dollars for the return of his horse which was stolen or strayed from his place last week. The horse is an iron grey, 14 1/2 hands high, and weighs 900 or 1,000 lbs., and is "dashed" in between the eyes and nose.
—Christian Meyer Post, G. A. R. celebrates their second anniversary on last Saturday evening by a literary and musical entertainment. The program was a most excellent one, and consisted of vocal music, readings and recitations and drill by the awkward squad. The evening was most pleasantly passed. The Post now has a membership of sixty-two; two years ago it started with seventeen. No member has been removed by death and considerable aid has been extended to deserving wards. If our citizens would lend proper encouragement to this organization our cemetery would soon be in condition that would be a credit to our city.

GREAT BARGAINS

Having purchased of James A. Keeves his stock of Dry Goods, will for the next

THIRTY DAYS!

Offer Special inducements to CASH BUYERS to reduce stock, preparatory to renovating room, after which I will open with a complete line of DRY GOODS and NOTIONS for the Spring Trade.

JOE FITTS,
OREGON, MO.

CALL AROUND

Before you make your purchases and examine our

FALL GOODS

IRA PETER,
OREGON, MISSOURI.

—T. L. Price will sell his Parlor and Box Stoves at COST from now until January 1st. Now is your time to buy a nice Stove if you want one at a Bargain. Call and see them.

BEN. W. FLEMING & BRO., the Leading Hatters. Prices the Lowest. 407 Fell-street, St. Joe, Mo.

—Dan. M. Martin will sell you from now until after the holidays, Spring Wagons and Buggies at actual cost.

—Go and see the fine candies at Hinde & Philbrick's.
—Ed. Pinkston and wife, of Maitland, will spend the holidays in Oregon.
—Lewis Kirkpatrick will spend Christmas in Oregon with his family.
—Call on W. R. Hoffmann if you wish to invest in farm or town property.
—Being overstocked with brood sows, W. A. Gardner will sell very cheap a few thoroughbred Duroc Jerseys from six months to three years old. Safe in pig.
—C. W. Thomas left last Thursday for California, where, perhaps, he will engage in the practice of his profession—the law. Mr. Thomas was engaged in his profession here, built up by his industry and integrity, a large and lucrative practice second to none in this section of the State. He was not only eminently successful in the general law practice, but was especially so in the commercial practice—doing a large business for many of our prominent banking and mercantile firms. We wish Mr. Thomas all the success possible.
—It is reported that W. W. Ramsey of Nodaway county and C. F. Booher, of Andrew, are applicants for the United States District Attorneyship, for the Western District of Missouri. The party must be "hard up" indeed for talent when such poor "stricks" are recommended for such important positions. The truth is, John W. Stokes of this county should receive the appointment. He is the best qualified Democratic lawyer in the district. The Democratic bosses will be ungrateful if they do not give Mr. Stokes the appointment.

—King & Proud keep the finest assortment of candies and nuts in the city.
—W. A. Gardner went to Buchanan county on Tuesday to tie a matrimonial knot.
—The German M. E. Sunday school will have their Christmas festivities on Christmas Eve.
—If you have presents for Santa Clause to take to the Christian church on New Year's Eve, leave them at Mrs. Sterrett's store.
—We are glad to learn that Miss Susie Beeler, who is teaching the Bluff City school this winter, is giving the best of satisfaction.
—The place to buy your holiday goods is at Hinde & Philbrick's. They have the finest assortment of toilet sets, work boxes, ladies' satchels, mustache cups, etc., ever brought to the city. Go and see their Christmas and New Year's cards, which they are selling at reduced prices. Best assortment of candies in the city.
—It seems to be a favorite pastime with newspapers generally to select cabinet officers for Cleveland, and, as we don't like to be left on a little thing of that kind, we hereby offer for his consideration the following: Secretary of the Treasury, Hon. Levi Zook of Oregon; Secretary of State, Hon. John W. Stokes, of Craig; Attorney General, Hon. Henry Shutt, of Oregon; Secretary of War, Major Kelly, of Forest City; Secretary of the Interior, Judge Bruce Earl, of Corning; Secretary of the Navy, Admiral Jao. F. Bridgman, of Bigelow; Postmaster General, Col. J. Foster Marshall, of Mound City.
—Sheriff Cummins has summoned the following gentlemeny as petit jurors, for the January term of Circuit Court. It is a first-class jury in every respect: H. E. Perot, Jas. Curtis, East Lewis; Wm. Wood, H. F. Shuckelford, West Lewis; J. F. Bridgman, Bigelow; Ben. Ford, Peter Redmon, Union; H. L. August Hahn, Wm. Adanson, Lincoln; James Gaffney, W. L. Randall, Clay; G. R. McIntyre, Ferd Meadows, F. S. Pearce, Liberty; James Griffith, John Price, Hickory; John West, Nathau Smith, Nodaway; James Iddings, Albert McIntyre, Forbes; G. U. Pullen, Al Morgan, Wash. McNulty Worth Clark, Hudson.
—The mortal career of William Collins came to its close on Saturday last, December 20, 1884, aged 61 years five months and nineteen days. The deceased was born in Scioto county, Ohio, July 1, 1823; he moved to Deawars county, Indiana with his parents in 1828, when fourteen years of age. In 1857, he was married to Miss Margaret Muncie, in Muncie county, Indiana. In 1863 he moved to Holt county, where he has resided up to the time of his death. The deceased leaves a wife, a son and daughter and seven brothers and sisters to mourn his loss. Mr. Collins was a member of the M. E. church in full standing, and had been for quite a number of years prior to his death. He was a firm believer in the Bible and Christianity. We classed Mr. Collins as one of our good citizens—of sterling integrity and moral worth, and was greatly respected by his neighbors. His suffering was brief. He expressed no fears in going out into the unknown. His faith and hope sustained him even in the presence of death.
