

Obituary.

Another old Holt county pioneer has left us in the person of Daniel W. Evans, who died on his home farm near this city, on December 28, 1894.

Thomas A. Ferguson, who for a number of years has lived in Independence, died on December 24th, 1894, aged 62 years.

—Miss Rosa Goin is learning telegraph. —This is fine winter weather, but it is hard on wheat. We need rain or snow, or these dry freeze will soon ruin the wheat.

—Our school is progressing finely, under the management of Miss Dollie Kersie. She has proved herself to be a number one teacher.

—We had one of the finest Christmas trees in the county, but there was such a vast throng of people crowded in they were unable to carry out the program in full.

—Jerry Hopper, teaching at Burr Oak gave his scholars a vacation and mysteriously disappeared. He returned, after being missing a week, with a wife. He had had the wife at Ness City, Kans., after her.

—Mr. E. C. Watts has just returned from a five weeks' visit to friends at Vincennes, Ind. He reports a pleasant time having met many relations and acquaintances and old army comrades that he had not seen for many years.

—Ex Judge, A. W. Van Camp, and W. R. Hopper are feeding cattle and hogs in partnership. They have 90 head of cattle and 200 head of hogs. Their hogs are all right yet. Quite a number in this section, however are dying with the cholera. Caleb Goin has lost all of his—about 50 head. John H. Lynds is feeding cattle—about all of his hogs are dead.

—James M. Goin, son of Caleb Goin was married to Miss Eva Divley at the home of the bride's parents, Dec. 23, 1894, by Squire C. J. Hepper. He at once commenced to go to house keeping and refitted a home on Mr. Thomas Cotter's place. Had purchased his furniture and placed it in the house, intending to move in Jan. 1, 1895. On Saturday morning, Dec. 23, 1894, at five o'clock, the house was burned with everything in it. It is not known how the fire started, but it is thought by some that it might have been incendiary.

—Lon Kirkland left for Jamesport Wednesday noon. —Al Brumbaugh, of Mound City, was in our town Tuesday. —Tony Schmitt was in the country on business Tuesday. —The school house is seriously thinking of having a few photos taken. —School begun Tuesday with renewed vigor, after enjoying a ten days' vacation.

—Did you swear off? We did not for our folks are very much opposed to swearing. —Everybody and his cousins are having pictures taken while the Photo Car is in our town. —In the suit before Justice Smith Monday Bungenstock was given judgment against Arbutnot.

—How about this town for parties? Only four one night this week. Poor night for parties, too. —Miss Minnie Roeluis was the guest of Miss Bertha Christen and other friends the first of the week. —Misses Burlington, Leibert and Warrick of Reckport were visiting friends in our town the first of the week. —Pete Thull is now busy preparing the lumber for Henry Allen's fine new residence in the east part of town.

—Ye correspondent who was sick last week, hence our absence from the columns of THE SENTINEL. We won't be sick again if we have our say. —Prof. Pearson, and sister, Miss Nora, returned Saturday from their vacation trip at Stanbery and other points, and report a pleasant time. —Geo. Zankers was visiting in our town the first of the week. Think he likes to visit in coming quite well from some unaccountable reason.

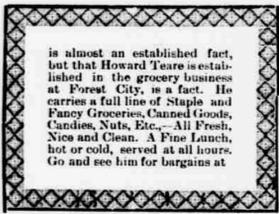

—A number from our town contemplate attending the public installation of the officers of the I. O. O. F. and Rebeck's at Craig Saturday evening. —Died, Jan. 1st 1895, at his residence north of town, Mr. Chris Holderman. He has suffered for sometime from cancer of the stomach, which was the cause of his death.

—The Pupils of Prof. Pearson's room now have a new table for books and papers, and some fine large pictures, which were realized from the entertainment the 22nd, inst. JASON SQUIRETOWN.

—Elder Dunning spent last Monday in St. Joseph. —Mr. Joseph Hobbittell went to St. Joseph last Monday to visit her mother. —Dr. Hall, accompanied by his wife and children, went to Mound City last Monday. —Dr. H. B. Maxwell and John Fields have traded business, the Dr. going into the drug store and Fields into the lumber yard.

—Mrs. Adrian Pinkston, of Skidmore, accompanied by her sister, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pinkston, last Tuesday. —Harvo Bainum, formerly station agent at this place, but now of Maryville, was interviewing his many friends here last Monday. —Squire Stacey and wife went to St. Joseph last Monday. The Squire had an operation performed on his face by Dr. Carpenter, who removed a considerable dead bone from the right jaw bone. At present writing his face is considerably swollen, but he is not suffering as much pain as he did previous to the operation. REPORTER.
