C. T. Donovan will have a big stock sale at the fair grounds in Maitland, Monday, Oct. 7, 1895, at one o'clock p. m., sharp. See ad and bills for further particulars.

Wm. Harper, of Forbes, had the misfortune, to maim his left thumb off at the first joint, while assisting in erecting a house, preparatory to removing it to another location.

Notice is hereby given that the Oregon Protective Association will hold a meeting, Saturday, October 12th, 1895, at 2 p. m. Business of importance.

William Neely, son of Landford Neely of the Hotel Woodland, and Harry Whiting, who assisted our boys during the base ball tournament, are spending this week shaking hands with their numerous friends.

Benton's monthly sale came off last Saturday, as per announcement, and resulted in selling most everything offered, either publicly or privately, the entire day. The next sale will be held Saturday, October 26, 1895, at 2 o'clock p. m.

We must have money—all persons owing us are requested to come in and pay up immediately. We have accommodated you, now we need an accommodation from you.

Judge Daniel Hiatt gave a dance at his handsome residence Saturday night of last week to a large number of his neighborhood. A very enjoyable time is reported, and it is said that the Judge can "shake his foot" with the best of them.

Wm. Cannon's sale of stock and implements last Wednesday, considering the large number of horses sold, was very good. R. C. Benton, of this city, sold the implements and horses, when he turned over the hammer to C. W. Lucas, of Mound City, who sold the cattle and hogs.

Alkire & Secrist have opened up a lunch counter in the building near J. R. Wilson's lumber yard in Forest City, where they will serve lunch of all kinds at all hours, day or night. They extend a cordial invitation to the public to call and see them. They will also furnish soft cold drinks.

There are several young men of Mound City, who are trying to make M. P.'s of themselves. They are Charles McRobert and H. W. Chittenden, who are attending school at Chicago; Alva Crannel, the Marion Simms college at St. Louis; Lester Hlevins and David Craven, who are at the Missouri Normal college at St. Louis. May they all be successful and graduate with honors.

Mr. Benton has secured the north end of the vacant hotel store as an auction room and to store second-hand furniture for private sale until the regular sale day when everything not sold will be put up and sold to the highest bidder. So if you have stock of any kind to sell or second-hand furniture to dispose of, see Mr. Benton at once, so he may advertise the week before the sale the next time.

The cannery factory closed down for the season last Monday. Judge Anderson informs us that this was the busiest season they have ever had, considering the time they were running. They canned 500,000 cans of corn and tomatoes, and as the corn and tomatoes were better than usual, the pack is extra fine, and now that the factory has closed, quite a number are out of employment, but while they were running they got in extra time and made good wages. We little realize of what boded this situation is to us all, and should encourage its operation every year.

C. T. Donovan, of Maitland, will have a public sale, Monday, October 7, 1895, at the fair grounds in that place. Sale will commence at one o'clock, p. m., sharp. Here is a rare chance to buy some of the best bred stock in Northwest Missouri, and at reasonable prices. He will sell twenty head of finely bred trotting and pacing horses, the set of such as Red Wilkes, Wilkes Russell, 2:15; Homer Wilkes, 2:28; Black Wilkes, 2:29. Will also sell the great stallion, Clark Street, No. 9197, (sired by Red Wilkes, dam by Jim Monroe) the best sire, in the west. Fifteen head of Jersey cattle of the best breeding—combinations, Signals and St. Lambert. They are good ones. Fifteen head of Pure Bred Poland-China Hogs, Terms—eight months time, purchaser giving note with approved security, drawing 5 per cent interest. Reasonable discount for cash.

Where have you been? I have been to Moltzer's to get a lunch. I find I can get one there cheaper than at any other place in town. Go and do likewise. His lunch ham is the nicest in town. East side public square, Oregon, Mo.
