—James Donovan, mail carrier on the route between Oregon and New Point, was called to Rosedale, Andrew county, Friday of last week, by the death of his brother-in-law, Christ Lash; he died Saturday, March 11, 1899, his death having been caused from an accident a few days previous. He was hauling lumber when his team ran away, throwing him off; at the time and for several days he did not seem to be injured, but in a few days he began to complain of a pain in the back part of his head, and it was only a short time until he died of spinal meningitis, resulting from the injuries.

—Married, at the home of the bride's parents in this city, on Thursday, Feb. 15, 1899, Miss Grace D., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. J. L. Stephenson, and Dr. S. W. Aiken, both of this city. Rev. Henry A. Sawyers, of the Presbyterian church officiating. The affair was one of those very quiet ones, but of that character that always brings much joy and social pleasure, only a very few of the most intimate friends being present. We participate in the pleasures of the occasion, bringing with them handsome and useful tokens of love and esteem. After the ceremony the guests were invited to feast upon the good things prepared by the caterer, Mrs. India Frazz. The evening was passed in a most enjoyable social manner, and the entire occasion was aglow with joy and hope. The groom is in one of our druggists and also enjoys a large practice and is eminently successful, while the bride is a refined, Christian young lady. We, together with their numerous other friends, earnestly wish for them a happy, prosperous and useful life.

—The St. Louis Globe-Democrat and other papers of that city, seem to think that Governor Stephens is not as enthusiastic as he might be in behalf of the coming World's fair, to be held in that city. It seems to us that the governor is consistent to say the least. He and the 4th general assembly by their official acts have declared that St. Louis as a city is not capable of self government. Hence we cannot see any reason for the governor to be throwing his hat in the ring on account of the proposed World's fair being held there. He and Stone, Cook, et al, are perhaps in favor of holding the fair at Jefferson City, where the people are perfectly able to govern themselves.

—Edward V. Kennedy of Alexandria, La., is in the city regarding old acquaintances. Mr. Kennedy formerly lived in St. Joseph, having been engaged in the railroad business here under J. P. Barnard, whom the latter was at the head of the Kansas City, St. Joseph & Council Bluffs. He is now vice president and general manager of the Gulf, Louisiana & Northern, which is building in Louisiana, and which is said to have St. Joseph and the great coal fields of the north-east as an objective point. St. Joseph Gazette, Feb. 15 Mr. Kennedy will be well remembered in this section, having been conductor on the Wichita train for years. His numerous friends will join with THE SENTINEL in extending congratulations, and wishing him every success.

—Dress Cutting. Ladies take your Easter Dresses to Mrs. Stone's dress cutting school and learn to make while learning to cut.

—The Democrats at Jefferson City are trying to save the credit of the state by taking $100 of the county school fund, and $500 from the county school fund, and turning it over to the state fund. They want to rob Peter to pay Paul.

—A Buschman, who was charged with the murder of James Smith at Nodaway State, in the Andrew county, Missouri county circuit court at Savannah, last week, Judge Barnes on the bench. The jury, who heard the evidence in the case, brought a verdict last Sunday morning, 10 not guilty.

—Little Essie Fimple, aged about 10 years, left last Thursday, in care of the Burlington route, for Salt Lake, Utah, where she will visit her mother, and with her sister, Mrs. Tosterman. In this day and age, and with such complete railway systems as the Burlington, this child would be able to attend school to the Pacific coast in absolute safety.

—List of unclaimed letters remaining in the postoffice at Oregon, Mo. for the week ending March 17: J. L. English and Son (card); Presley Gibson, Wm. Kenner, Mrs. C. A. Long (card), Andrew Wilson Leander Pyles, H. R. Russell, Wesley Spencer (drop), and J. A. Spurrlock card. When calling for these cards and letters, please say, "advertised." —Charley Ballard, son of J. T. and Margaret Ballard, Mound City, Mo., died Saturday morning, March 11, 1899, at 8:30, after an illness of some weeks with acute rheumatism and spinal meningitis. Funeral services held at 1 o'clock Monday at Christian church, of which he was a member. Elder Boulton preaching sermon. High school classmates attended in a body. Deceased was a brother of Elijah H. Ballard, late captain of Co. B, 4th Mo. Vol. Inf.

—William Hawley Smith at the M. E. church, Tuesday evening, Feb. 21, 1899. In the role of a humorist he is simply irresistible, and as a reader he is one of the best, and is also a master of dialect. The ladies who have the lecture course in charge have not met with the patronage that they should, and will come out behind, unless our people turn out. These lectures would cost you a dollar in the city, here they will only cost you 50c. Turn out and give them a packed house. You will more than get your money back. Tickets on sale at C. E. Bunker's jewelry store.
