Home Again.
 After a ten week's absence by confinement in the Sister's hospital of St. Joseph, the senior member of THE SENTINEL has returned to the beautiful little city on the hills, where God's people abide, and by degrees as his strength will permit, will return to the full performance of his duties in connection with the publication of THE SENTINEL. During our absence the paper has been conducted by our partner in a manner showing marked ability in every feature and every issue. To him and to those who furnished items or matter for publication, we feel truly grateful. Our confinement in the Sister's hospital taught us a lesson that we will not soon forget. It is an institution of which not only the people of St. Joseph should feel truly proud, but the people of this entire section should feel equally as proud. It is in charge of the Sister of Charity and while under the control of the Catholic church, it is absolutely free from sectarianism as to the reception of patients—here the rich or poor—Jew or Gentile, receives the same kind and careful attention. There is no creed or orthodoxy in the treatment of patients. It is kept in the very highest sanitary condition, and only capable and trained nurses are in the employ of the institution. When the service, care and attention, and accommodations are considered, the charges are not, in our opinion, excessive, but on the contrary are conservative. During our confinement of ten long and weary weeks, it would be impossible for us to have received better or more kindly treatment, than was given us by Sisters Sabina and Alawieha, and the corps of trained nurses under them. It is a surgical hospital, complete in every detail and department, and it does seem to us with the great fortunes owned in St. Joseph, that some few of its millionaires should leave to its credit a sufficient sum to make its endowment absolutely safe. While there we were placed in the care of Dr. Daniel Morton, by our resident physician, Dr. Kearney. To him we wish to make our public acknowledgments of his skill, and ability shown in the management and treatment of our case; he not only knew where the knife should be put, but he knew how to use it. His treatment of our case from beginning to end was a success in every particular in our opinion—otherwise we might be back to Oregon, but abiding elsewhere—sleeping that sweet sleep that knows no waking. The loyalty and devotion shown us by our partner, is only a proof to the outside world how pleasant and delightful has been our long years of partnership, and by his aid and devotion to us we feel that we have been granted another lease of life to still continue and enjoy the happiness of that association. To our resident physician, Dr. Kearney, we desire to make public acknowledgment of his devotion to us not only after our removal to the hospital, but during our long and terrible suffering that led to this removal—where the one chance left us was taken, and as a result of his keen perception, and correct diagnosis, we are still on earth.

The Elections.
 Not for years have the elections held in an off year been looked forward to with greater interest than those held on Tuesday last. The results of these elections have proven highly satisfactory to the Republicans.
 In Ohio the Republicans elect their ticket by a majority ranging near the 40,000 mark.
 New York elects a safe Republican majority to the legislature.
 Nebraska goes for the fusion combination Demo-Pop by 15,000 majority.
 Kentucky elects the Republican candidate W. S. Taylor, governor, by 10,000 majority.
 Incomplete returns from Maryland indicate the election of the Democratic state ticket by majorities that will take five figures to tell it.
 New Jersey elects the Republican state ticket by 20,000.
 Iowa's Republican majority will probably reach 65,000.
 One of the most significant features of the election is the election held at Denver, where the free silverites polled less than 5,000 votes, the Democrats carrying the county by perhaps 5,000 majority.
 If our Democratic friends have a grain of comfort for these returns they of course, are welcome to them, and they have some in carrying Maryland in this state it was a "clean cut stand up before-me fight" between the two great parties, and was void of fusion, as in Nebraska.
 Massachusetts, the headquarters of the anti-expansionists, gives a Republican majority of 65,000.
 Kansas elections for county officers shows big gains for the G. O. P.
 South Dakota goes Republican by 8,000.
 Pennsylvania, gives 140,000 for the Republicans.

Obituary.
 Mr. Dollie Harris Payne was born in Savannah, Mo., Oct 21, 1865, and died in St. Joseph, Mo., 4, 1899. She leaves a husband, 4 children, 2 brothers and 2 sisters to mourn her departure to the other shore.
 Mrs. Payne was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Harris, of this city, both of whom preceded her to the other world. She was well known here, and was from one of our best colored families.
 The funeral was conducted from the colored Baptist church, Tuesday at 10 o'clock, of which she was a faithful and consistent member, having joined the church when a child. Rev. Harden Morton, pastor, conducted the services, and the remains were laid to rest in the old cemetery by the side of her father and mother. The funeral was largely attended. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their hour of bereavement.

HOG REMEDY.
 Following Will Show What a Hustler Can do.
 Two years ago the Mammoth Hog Remedy Co. of Lawson, Mo. offered a prize for any one that would equal or beat the best feed made by C. Writ, manager Armour farm, Flay J. Williams, of Carrollton, Mo., won the prize through H. E. Cason's stock farm, after fully explaining the merits of the goods, W. R. Beavers, manager of the Cason farm, made a test feed. The following is the result:
 CARROLLTON, MO., May 23, 1899.
 Having read the testimonial of Mr. Writ, manager of Armour farm at Excelsior Springs, Mo., I became interested. Believing that the Baby Feed and Quick Pork was what the farmer most consider. I resolved to try to out-do the Armour feed, and submit my test as a peer. I put up 20 sows and began using Mammoth Hog Remedy. The 20 sows brought an average of 13 1/2 pigs, weighing an average of 4 months and 8 days weighing an average of 13 1/2 pounds per head. I claim that I have won the prize offered by the Mammoth Hog Remedy Co., and ask you to decide.
 W. R. BEAVERS.
 The above shows what purely healthy hogs will do. If this result can be gained in Carroll County why not in our own? We understand that our hustling hard ware men, Schulte Bros., have secured the agency for this famous worm exterminator. Call on them and learn how to get a can of this remedy free. Absolutely guaranteed to exterminate worms, purify the blood and open the bowels.

Notice.
 At the solicitation of a number of my patrons, and the greater portion of my practice being in that vicinity, I have located in New Point, Mo., and will be found at my office in the Reul building ready to attend all calls, day and night.
