—Mrs. M. Styles has a nice lot of mutton meat for sale.
—Savannah is taking the necessary steps to establish a cannery factory.
—Don't forget that 5 cent candy at Moore's others sell it at 8 and 10 cents.
—Misses Lula and Gusta Oelsh, of St. Joseph, are the guests of Fred Markt and family.
—Frank Allen, of Craig, is now president of the western retail implement dealers association.
—Mrs. D. P. Lewis and daughter, Wilma, are visiting with Mrs. Poynter, at Ponca, Oklahoma.
—See Medallion Portraits, Colonel Pank, new enlargements, buttons for Holidays at Zoek's gallery.
—Jonas Whitmer is at Covington, Ohio, the home of his eldest sister who was very ill at the time of his departure.
—Banker Al Brumback, of Barnard, was looking after business interests in Oregon last week. He reports business good in his section.
—Raymond Smith and Miss Mercy Whitney, both of Matland, were married on the 14th inst., at the home of Bert S. Smith, near Shiloh, Rev. Daugherty, officiating.
—Mrs. A. C. Ware last Saturday evening, last week for Skidmore, called by the serious illness of her brother, Adrian Pinkston. We hope to soon learn of his improvement.
—The C. C. Powell Cigar Co. has put a new wagon, or rather a newly painted one, on the road, with Col. Will Polk as general manager it is a "santy we mean the wagon, not Will."
—A man is in love—that's his business. If a girl is in love—that's her business. If they get married they want groceries—that's our business. We always try to keep on hand just what people want at the lowest possible prices.
—J. N. ZACHMAN & Co., Oregon Mo.
—Mrs. Johnathan Culp received the sad news recently that her brother, Albert Van Dusen, of DeWitt, Nebraska, had received a stroke of paralysis, and was in a critical condition. Mr. Van Dusen is a former citizen of this county, and will be remembered by many of our older citizens. He hailed the rock for the foundation of the oil building, and the family at that time residing about two miles east of Oregon. His many friends here hope that his condition may improve, and not be as serious as diagnosed. Should he not improve, Mrs. Culp will go out where he is.

—Go to Mrs. Styles for choice mutton meat.
—Leta Schulte still has several Bull Cocker Roosters for sale.
—Jordan Kuhl is spending the winter near Spokane, Washington.
—Ed. Currier, of Bigelow, was looking after some business matters in Oregon last week.
—James Vaughn has bought the Henry Boyd farm of thirty acres near town, paying $10 per acre.
—The Denton family is the place to get oysters on hand constantly.
—For the best grades of native lumber, call at Phil Schlotzberger's mill, three miles south of Forest City on the Banks land.
—J. P. Adams is still at Garfield Washington. He is carrying on military work. He lost some personal effects stored in "Looney" Williams building at the big fire in Forest City.
—I am ready to auction your sales, Terms reasonable. Orders will receive prompt attention. Call at my place, 1/2 mile east of Oregon, or address me at Oregon, Mo. M. H. Wainwright.

—Della E. May was granted a divorce by Judge James of the St. Joseph circuit court, from her husband, George May. They were married in Forest City August 25, 1885. Her maiden name was Della E. Weber.
—Miss Maggie, daughter of Mrs. E. Berg, of Union township, was united in marriage to Morris S. Mory, of Cherokee, Mo. The wedding occurred at the St. Thomas deaf and dumb mission church, of St. Louis, January 25th, 1899. Both being natives.
—John Aton has bought the Otto Martin twenty acre fruit farm near New Point, putting up $1900 in the deal. Mr. Martin will likely leave some property in the Oregon school district, in the view of giving his children the advantage of our excellent school system.
—Judge Murphy was in Salina, Iowa, this week, looking after a case of some importance. He has just completed a map of the lands proposed to be drained by the Big Turk drainage ditch. The judge is quite an artist, and he has demonstrated to the satisfaction of those who have seen his work, that Clark Proud isn't the only "pencil on the beach" when it comes to drawing maps.
—Johnathan Patterson has sold his farm in Forbes township, and with his family left for Oklahoma, Indiana, this week. We are indeed sorry to have this family remove from among us, and join with their many friends in wishing their happiness and prosperity in their new home. Their son, Frank, who is teaching at the Richville school, will remain here until his school closes, when he will join them.
—Fred Seeman, who has been making his home at Red Oak, Iowa, a past summer where he has had a good position with the Green Bay Lumber Co., was here last week attending the marriage of his sister, Miss Minnie, to James W. Gardner, of St. Joseph. He is now at Glenwood, Iowa, but will soon go to Oregon, Iowa, with the same company, where he will have a better position than at Red Oak.

—A note from Ed. Rostock to his parents here, dated December 15, it tells them that he has been promoted, but does not say whether he is now a corporal or a brigadier; that he was at Manila on leave of absence, and that he will be likely to come home before long, his regiment having been ordered to the United States. He also announces that on his return he will bring a Philippine rain coat to be added to the list of curios in the Museum of the State Dairy Association. This medal was awarded to him by the American States League Association meeting at Holden, Missouri, in November. Johnnie will also receive a fine gold watch, $20.00 worth of liquor and some cold cash on the occasion of being awarded first prize as the best butter maker before the Creamery Convention. No wonder Johnnie is as proud of his medal as a boy with his first pair of red topsey shoes. —Carrying items in Craig Leader.

—A regular communication of Oregon Lodge, No. 122, A. F. and A. M., held at the Masonic hall Saturday evening, January 20th, the officers elected and installed for the ensuing year were: W. D. C. Evans, president; Robert Montgomery, secretary; Dr. J. T. Thatcher, S. Warden; Samuel Davidson, J. Warden; Dr. C. W. Lukens, S. Deacon; Henry Shutt, J. Deacon; C. J. Hunt, Treasurer; J. H. Dennis, Secretary; T. C. Dungan, Steward; Dr. J. W. Whitmer, J. Steward; R. C. Benton, Tyler. The first degree was conferred on a candidate same evening.
—This certainly is the most difficult winter weather known here in years. The wind stays in the north, but the air is cold and halcyon as spring. An illustration that this is very unusual weather for the time of year. John H. Kunkel went out to the well to get a bucket of water, and the bucket and just as he stepped on the curb a spike about 18 inches long ran out, and he fell up and showed dirt. John soon dis-patched the spike, but it did not kill him. It was a rattler. He was advised by Don Morgan, agent for the Burlington, at Forbes, while out walking with a friend, on the 14th inst. Mr. Morgan advised that he should get a rattler house, found a rattler snake laying out on the rocks, sunning himself. He tried to get away, but Don was so quick with his club he killed him. He was advised with a rattler.
—We have a young business man in Oregon who is very prominent in business circles, and very popular socially. The business he is engaged in does not demand his attention before eight o'clock in the morning, nor after four o'clock in the evening. Now, there are a number of people who call where he is employed after 4 p. m., but of course find the door locked. They then commence making inquiry as to where he can be found. They find the office papers, and they expect them to a certain residence in the city, where they say "they think he is," when the fact of the matter is that he is not there, over five o'clocks, and he does not count Sunday. Now, we would suggest to this young business man, that he have some placards printed, stating where he can be found, and he should place them in the windows when he closes. We wish this in justice to this young man and to set him right before the people.

—Better buy groceries with it, and buy them at the right place. We sell everything that goes on the table, and at the lowest market price.
—Wouldn't it be remarkable if it weren't for the groceries themselves. They are fresh, pure and handled with regard to the peculiarities of each—making them wholesome. We grocer, scientifically. A trial order will make you a regular customer of ours. Just let us get a chance at you and we will hold you in trade for ever.
—Last Saturday was a big day for our merchants—the town was crowded, and there was not sufficient hitch rack room. The people knew how to come with their pants and good goods. The merchants of Oregon are making good improvements for trade. Come to Oregon to do your trading.
—Governor Stephens and Attorney General Cross have gone to Washington to invoke the aid of the supreme court in stopping the Chicago drainage canal. If those gentlemen proceed with their customary promptness in executing the trusts that are bound in our state, Chicago may look for a whole lot of trouble about the year 2000.
—Dr. Boone will preach three special sermons on Sunday, in the morning at 11 o'clock, in the evening at 7 o'clock, and at 7 o'clock in the evening. "What Day of Christ?" Also meeting tonight, Saturday night and all next week.
—The Oregon Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, held a lively meeting last Tuesday evening. A large number of the clippers came out into the clearing and spent a pleasant evening together. Two applications were presented and approved. A new team of foresters were selected with James Bishop as chief forester. New suits were ordered for the team. All present enjoyed themselves.
—Eleven members of the United States senate were born in Ohio. Both senators from each of the states, Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia are natives of Ohio. Thirty-nine senators are natives of the states they represent. Illinois furnished both the North Dakota senators but had to go to Kentucky and New York for theirs. There are seven foreigners in the senate and these are all Republicans except Jones of Nevada, and he nets with that party generally although he is not an independent.
—On last Thursday evening Mrs. Clara Hoffman, president of the state W. C. T. U., delivered an address in the Presbyterian church. Notice had been given out during the day that she would speak, and a large congregation greeted her. The address was complete with facts bearing on the temperance question, and was most interesting and well received. A collection was taken at the close of the address to aid in the work, and the list above. Office hours from 7:30 a. m. to 1:00 p. m.

—Why Not Get the benefit of the McKinley Good Times. Go to PETREE BROS and change your 8 per cent loan to 5 per cent.

—Mrs. Alex. VanHusen continues in very poor health indeed.
—Fresh lettuce, onions, radishes and flowers at J. N. Zachman & Co's.
—Sub Carson is now wearing the handsome gold badge of the Oregon logging club.
—Owing to the high price of lumber it would pay farmers to put in a few acres in the spring.
—Married, by Wm. Katcher justice, at his office in Oregon, Mo., on the 23rd day of January 1900, Elmer Barker and Grace E. Duncan, both of Bigelow, Mo.
—"Dance or not to dance," is the question now agitating the minds of many of our young country people. They dedicate their new court house this Friday evening with a grand ball and banquet.
—An extra fine selection of Waukesha Ranges, Sterling Silver Novelties and everything needed in the jewelry line at Coxey E. Brunsell's, Oregon, Mo.
—Harvey E. Chamberlain, of New Point, and Miss Sadie M. Blakely were married at the bride's home near Mound Oregon, January 17, 1900, by Elder J. N. Cole. The couple will set up housekeeping on a farm near Clarinda, Iowa.
—L. P. Sentney, of Forest City, Mo., has put in a Complete line of Undertaker's Goods—also a fine hearse.

—Dr. J. B. Morrison, of Marysville, was stricken with apoplexy Monday morning, January 23rd, and died on the 25th, at the residence of his brother, S. W. Morrison, late of this county, and who died here January 31, 1899.
—Elder W. A. Gardner sailed from Honolulu, Hawaii, on January 24th, for California, and on his arrival there will spend several months traveling about in the hopes of benefiting his health, which is in a very poor condition. He believes that California climate will prove beneficial.
—Last Saturday was a big day for our merchants—the town was crowded, and there was not sufficient hitch rack room. The people knew how to come with their pants and good goods. The merchants of Oregon are making good improvements for trade. Come to Oregon to do your trading.

—Tony, the bright son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McElhenny, was taken to St. Joseph, Mo., by a attending physician, Dr. Simmons, where he was operated upon for appendicitis. He came out in good shape, but the shock proved more than his nervous system could bear and the young man died about noon Monday, January 23, 1900. He was 16 years of age, and was one of our very best young colored boys. He was industrious and sober, and always found great joy and pleasure in the company of his father and mother at home, than in idleness upon the streets. The remains were brought to this city Wednesday evening, and the funeral services will be held today, Friday.

—This coupon is good for $200.00 cash on "Standard Square" Real Estate System, if presented in ten days' time at school over Montgomery & Koerber bank, Mrs. M. E. Stine and daughter, teachers.
—Last Saturday evening, a crowd of young people gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Walker, in answer to invitations sent out by their son, who was attending a musical party. The guests were received by Miss Nellie Walker and Cora Brown. About forty were present wearing masks—and such a merry mob. There were jolly toasts, dramatic and Antiphonal, stunts, special figures, and sly old maids and bachelors, galore. At a late hour the guests were invited to the dining room where refreshments were served, and the fun of unmasking took place. Games and music were indulged in, and it was not until the new small hours of morning that the guests were dismissed. The guests were most enjoyable and wish to join in one voice in thanking Mr. Walker for his kind hospitality and wish him many more such occasions.
